

SOKO

Hi Al,

As you know, I've been working at SOKO, an ethical, social impact jewelry brand based in Kenya, and I've loved being a part of the growth and evolution of this small but mighty organization! Since inception, we've stayed true to our mission: using mobile technology to connect independent artisans in Kenya to the global market to positively impact the lives of one of the most marginalized communities in the world.

SOKO is working to end the cycle of poverty. By leveraging the power of business, we are building a more inclusive and sustainable economy to help solve some of the social challenges the artisan workforce faces today. The artisans who hand make our jewelry earn almost 5X more than what they would earn in the local market, which they can reinvest in their own communities.

Throughout COVID, our customers stuck with us because they believe in the product and more importantly, they believe in our mission. To continue building and serving our customers, we are raising $1 million in capital through PledgeMusic, a crowdfunding service that connects startups with investors enabling them to purchase equity in early stage private companies. Mirroring the way we co-developed the production of our jewelry, we've made the decision to crowdfund raise capital. Through PledgeMusic, we're able to extend this opportunity to friends, family and a network of angel investors who believe in us.

We know:

- We have a brilliant brand with tremendous growth potential.
- Your investment will help us continue to grow our business while ensuring we strategically balance purpose with profit.
- Financial inclusion and economic independence are the keys to lasting impact and change.

I hope you'll consider investing in this incredible team, business, and mission at SOKO. If you can share this message with others I'd love that as well!

Thanks,

Style driven by a greater social purpose.
