

Our community investment round is off to an incredible start! THANK YOU to everyone who's joined us — your support is helping us create even more value in the $100B Voice AI market. We've received questions regarding investing and wanted to make sure everyone has the same information.

1) What is a community investment round?

It's a chance for customers, users, and the general public—not just professional investors—to own a stake in Namecoach. We're raising on Wefunder, the same platform used by companies like Mercury and Substack, who raised millions through an SEC-regulated "Regulation Crowdfunding" round.

2) What are early bird terms?

Early investors get a discount on preferred, early shares. These terms are extremely limited and not guaranteed—reserving now means you'll have first access to lock them in once the round officially opens.

3) Why should I invest?

We've built an AI-powered name pronunciation platform that integrates seamlessly into tools like Salesforce, Microsoft Outlook, Google Workspace, and Canvas—ensuring names are said correctly every time. This is your chance to own a stake in a company that has the same investors as other cutting edge AI companies such as Anthropic, Open AI, Oura and more.

4) What if I'm an international investor?

Wefunder accepts investments from almost anywhere in the world, except Quebec, Alberta, Ontario, and British Columbia. More details for international investors can be found on Wefunder.

5) What do I get for investing?

Your investment converts into preferred shares—giving you a financial stake in Namecoach's success. You can read the full terms and learn more on our campaign page here.

Early bird terms are going fast! If you want in — or want to increase your stake — now's the time.

We launched this round on Wefunder to give our biggest believers first access at this early stage. This may be your only opportunity to invest in Namecoach before we bring in additional institutional capital. Let's transform the future of communication together.
