Company Description

The Native will be a boutique luxury hostel (<http://www.wsj.com/articles/boutique-bohemian-high-end-hostels-come-to-america-1432670969?mg=id-wsj&mg=id-wsj>) boasting handcrafted design, full-service hospitality and a communal atmosphere for the discerning adventurer. Located at the nexus of Austin's artsy eastside and the downtown entertainment district, this adaptive reuse project will convert a mid-century warehouse and surrounding land into 4,000 square feet of cafe, bar and lounge space, 5,000 square feet of hostel rooms and 14,000 square feet of paved surface lot for events and future amenities. The Native will be the first hostel of its kind in the Southwestern United States, and will open new locations across the U.S. using an expansion strategy similar to that of Freehand (<http://thefreehand.com/>) and Generator (<https://generatorhostels.com/en/>).

The Native team has decades of experience in founding, designing and/or operating architecturally noteworthy experiences that draw crowds across Texas and beyond. These successful concepts include Kung Fu Saloon (<http://www.kungfusaloonaustin.com/>) (three locations throughout Texas), The Brew Exchange (<http://brewexchangeaustin.com/>), Winflo Osteria (<http://winfloosteria.com/>), Eberly (<http://eberlyaustin.com/>) and The Mohawk (<http://mohawkaustin.com/>) (totaling roughly $20 million in annual revenue). The Native will be designed and built by Icon Design+Build (<https://icondesignbuild.com/>), a regionally recognized high-end custom construction firm owned by two members of the Native team.

Business Model

The Native will offer 72 beds spread throughout 12 guest rooms, including 4 loft-style rooms that can be rented as suites or shared spaces. Its prime, central location makes The Native an ideal launchpad for younger travelers eager to explore Austin's myriad nightlife options and world-renowned festivals like SXSW, Austin City Limits and FunFunFun Fest.

The Native's cafe and bar will serve casual, hyper-American cuisine and unpretentious craft cocktails. The rotating menu will be simple and approachable, with an emphasis on authenticity. Guests will relax and converse in an intimate, low-lit space featuring a glass ceiling and a textural blend of stone, plush velvet and steel.

Regular large-scale performances will transform the 14,000 square foot parking area and backyard into a destination for patrons to experience big sounds and bigger productions under the bright lights of the Austin skyline.

The Native will also sell branded merchandise to its patrons and other visitors on hostel premises. Read More

Location Analysis

The City of Austin presents one of the country's most appealing market opportunities for new hotel and accommodations ventures. Forbes ranked Austin as the #1 fastest growing city in the nation for the 4th straight year, and the #1 "City to Watch." The average occupancy rate for hotels in downtown Austin is over 77%, while the average daily rate for a room in like hotels is approximately $215. The national average occupancy rate and average daily room rate are 65% and $121, respectively.

The Native's site at 807 East 4th Street, nestled between Austin's vibrant Downtown and bohemian Eastside, presents an ideal location for guests with convenient access to everything that Austin has to offer, and hundreds of exciting entertainment opportunities all within walking distance.

There are more than 150 dining options, 50 drinking establishments and almost 40 music venues that guests can walk to from The Native in less than 15 minutes. The Native site is approximately 1 mile from the edge of The University of Texas at Austin campus. In addition, two highly anticipated infrastructure and real estate development projects (4th Street Gateway Project and the Plaza Saltillo development) are planned for the near future in the vicinity of The Native, further enhancing the profile and desirability of the location.
