Our Business

New Media, Inc. (NMI) was incorporated in State of GA as a C corp in 9/2016. NMI is the sales agent in North America with the exclusive representative agreement with a producer of streaming media devices. KOOCAN Technology, in Hong Kong. KOOCAN products include a streaming media player and a mobile HD smart projector, which also can stream TV programs. The streaming player has over 100 channels covering programs in Chinese, Vietnamese and other languages. The streaming player is available now, while the smart projector will be on sales in 11/2016. The NMI short-term goal is (1) to sell the streaming player to minority groups in the U.S. and Canada and (2) to add English channels and increase the user base. The NMI long-term goal is to leverage advantages of the smart projector, such as mobile and light weight, and sell the projector to both commercial and residential users. The NMI owner has a rich and success history of leading sales and marketing both in the U.S. and China.

Market

Market: The "cutting the cord" has become a trend as consumers have dropped cable services because of increasing and high costs of subscription. Millions of streaming media players have been sold to residential users. Media companies such as television broadcasters have been paying attention to the streaming market segment and providing services.

COMPANY DATA

Competitors

The competitors faced by NMI include: (1) on the market for minority groups, streaming devices such as SunTV and LeTV Box and (2) on the overall market, devices such as Apple TV, Google Chromecast, Amazon FireTV, Roku, etc. The advantages NMI has are: multiple advanced products (streaming player and projector), a large selection of TV channels and programs, and increasing number of users who are willing to accept streaming devices without paying monthly bills to cable companies.

Revenue, Cost, Profit, and Forecast

NMI expects to be profitable from Year 1. If the target fund is raised, the following are expected for years 1, 2, and 3, respectively: revenue: $200K, $250K, $325K; costs: $161K, $176K, $212K; and profit: $39K, $74K, $113K. If the maximum fund is raised, the following are expected for years 1, 2, and 3, respectively: revenue: $2.0M, $2.5M, and $3.3M; costs: $1.6M, $1.6M, $1.9M; profit: $0.4M, $0.9M, $1.4M.

Use of Investment Funds

If the target fund is raised, NMI will run a small-scale operation with major costs of: salaries $45K, products $25K, and marketing $15K. If the maximum fund is raised, NMI will run a large-scale operation with major costs of: salaries $450K, products $250K, and marketing $150K.

Financial Conditions

NMI has a limited operating history as the company has begun to distribute a newly produced streaming media device. The device producer has received the official permit to carry television programs. The funds raised through this crowdfunding campaign is very important for supporting the NMI's operation. As stated earlier, NMI will be able to conduct a large scale of operation with the funds raised. NMI anticipates to use funds immediately and to be profitable in year 1, which is the first financial milestone. NMI will rely on the revenue generated from sales of streaming device and the funds raised. Without the funds raised, the NMI's operation will be limited to a relatively small scale. Under that circumstance, NMI may keep a limited amount of inventories and a short sale cycle.

Stock Related Issues (e.g., impact of issuing additional shares, restriction of transferring stock or dividend distribution)

NMI has a total of 1 billion shares authorized and 100 million of shares issued. Among those issued shares, 80 million granted to the owner(s) and 2 million related to the target funding request to be sold to investors. If funds raised reach the maximum level, 20 million (or 20% of the issued shares) will be sold to investors. NMI will evaluate and determine whether to pay dividends when it is appropriate. The sale of additional authorized shares may dilute the value of shares purchased.

Class and Terms of Securities and Limitations on Voting Right

NMI only authorizes and issues one class of perpetual common stock with unlimited voting rights.
