

Powell Development Group, Inc.

Introduces a remarkable design development over traditional prophylactics.

The condom is one of the most used devices for the prevention of pregnancy and the transmission of certain STD's. Very little has changed in its overall design for centuries.

The development of the Galactic Cap (IP) will change people's understanding of the traditional condom and society's use of condoms forever. The invention of the Galactic Cap is timely. Recently entrepreneur Bill Gates pledged a $100,000 development fee for anyone who can present a major design improvement over the traditional condom. The Bill & Melinda Gates Foundation is also pledging to provide the capital necessary to introduce a newly designed condom to the market.

The invention of the Galactic Cap is potentially one of the best investments of the century for investors who are interested in being involved in a powerful IP that can literally be life changing for millions of people worldwide.

Let's take a look at the Galactic Cap

This past year we've been refining the Galactic Cap to make it safer and more reliable. We eliminated the cap so the base also serves as the reservoir. The new prototype does a better job of staying on and trapping semen.

APPLYING THE GALACTIC CAP

1. Peel off the white backing, exposing the adhesive surface.

2. Once your penis is erect, place the adhesive surface on the head, aligning the hole of the condom with the hole of your penis.

3. Once the holes are aligned, apply the bottom of the condom to the shaft and the top to the head of your penis.

4. Press the wings of the condom to the head of your penis.

5. Remove both green release liners.

6. Now your Galactic Cap is ready for action.

7. When you ejaculate, the reservoir will trap your semen.

REMOVING THE GALACTIC CAP

1. Find the loose pull tab in the package. Remove the small release liner from the pull tab exposing its adhesive.

2. Attach the adhesive of the pull tab to any edge of the condom.

7. Pull up on the tab loosening the edge of the condom from the skin. Very slowly peel off the condom, much like removing a band-aid

*Tip: To reduce discomfort, use your free hand to grip your penis as close as possible to the release point. This will stabilize the area and reduce pulling on the skin.

Powell Productions, Inc.

Powell Productions, Inc. was started by Charles Powell as a film & video production company in 1986 and won an Emmy and 24 ITVA and Cindy awards for excellence.

After a friend contracted HIV, Charles Powell developed and patented a revolutionary new condom which we feel has the potential to significantly reduce teen pregnancies and HIV by making condoms easier to use, safer and more secure as well as vastly more pleasurable.

Galactic customers are men and women who are sexually active and looking for a better experience than that offered by condom products currently available.

In 2013, Powell Productions, Inc. incorporated in Nevada as Powell Development Group, Inc. to develop and market the Galactic Cap.
