OodlesDeals is a mobile app on both iOS & Android, that showcases enticing deals from food, drink and entertainment vendor-partners in college towns. Our patent-pending process incentivizes college students to go to these retail outlets together, and the more they share and do together, the more value they get. Everything on the app is geared toward helping students spend more time together, and creates an unique win-win scenario for both our vendor-partners and users.

After starting at the University of Oregon - Eugene in 2017, we've expanded to a tot: ...see more
