DESCRIPTION OF THE ISSUER'S BUSINESSThe Company

Kookaburra Sustainable Solutions Inc , was organized on 2017-07-10 , as a Delaware C Corporation The Company's headquarters is located 8565 S. Eastern Avenue Las Vegas Nevada 89107 . The Company's website is <http://www.foodfuelenergy.com> .

Business Overview

We, Kookaburra Sustainable Solutions Inc. is a company founded on the principles of doing well for others and the environment while making a profit and a difference. The products we make are all made in a fair structured environment whereas the highest quality ingredients will be used by the safest possible procedure bringing new products to market. The

FORM C Offering Material for

Kookaburra Sustainable Solutions Inc as Issuer

products are environmentally safe, and are in demand around the world.

We aim to be a "B Corporation" registrant. This is a newly formed entity evaluated by a third party of a non profit agency scrutinizing companies to ensure quality, safety, health, and employee fairness, transparency to shareholders, and equality are all policy and upheld. This is high demand on our motto and our corporate belief system from all our founders moral standards. Doing Well by Doing Good".

Kookaburra has been a long time coming together for the team. It has been many ups and downs in our developments of products and agreements with best suited policies for future growth.

We are researching new products as we speak to increase our product lines and venues for sales. The aggressive growth mentality is what we strive for within to make the companies presence known for doing what is right for the shareholders, environment, consumer, and growing making more products of such ethical grounds. .

Kookaburra Sustainable Solutions Inc. is raising capital for the expansion and production of our product lines world wide, and to file the paperwork necessary for becoming a public entity on one of the open stock markets.

Our first objective will be to file for the public sector for an IPO filing for the open markets. This will give us the opportunity to a larger capital raising for growth and asset value for liquidity and leveraging.

Secondly, we will be installing a production line in Arizona and one in Sydney Australia. The installation will have warehousing space available for national distribution from those locations.

Kookaburra will then pursue the independent sales representatives to launch on a national campaign for their local markets, including large box stores. The national launch will also include the affiliate sales program for online sales increased.

We will continue to pursue research and development of new products as we negotiate with a competitor. We have been in negotiations for a competitor with a letter of intent being done. This company has national contracts nationwide in the USA. This is still in the infancy stage and will require funds from this raising to complete. The business we would be acquiring has been in the business for 23 years and has in excess of 100,000 a year in sales with no marketing or sales force. Their product line compliments ours as well as gives our company exposure to the shelf space in several of those national contracts.

These plans have been in negotiations and the process for more than 5 years. These require funding and until this crowd funding opportunity made this venue a possible route for a small business owner it looked like a long road to get to our goal. With efforts together this will expedite our plans to be publicly traded and world distribution available is VERY EXCITING!!!! .

The Company reserves the right to change the closing date with such notice and with a minimum twenty-one (21) day period in which to carry out the offering.

Account Opening Requirement

If a potential investor is interested in participating in the Offering, such investor must first open an account with the Intermediary by registering at www.GrowthFountain.com. During such registration process, the Intermediary may request financial information to determine investor's eligibility and may require the acceptance of certain terms and conditions applicable to investor's use of the Platform. In addition, prior to communicating any investment commitment, each investor must (a) consent to electronic delivery of materials, (b) provide a representation that such investor has reviewed the educational material available from the Intermediary delivered pursuant to Rule 302 of Regulation Crowdfunding, (c) provide a representation that such investor understands that the entire investment amount may be lost and that such investor could bear such loss, (d) complete a questionnaire demonstrating such investor's understanding that there are limitations on cancelling an investment commitment and that it may be difficult to resell securities acquired in this Offering. Each potential investor is subject to investment limitations established by the Securities Act (15 USC 77d(a)(6)(B)) and Regulation Crowdfunding (17 CFR 227.100(a)(2)).

Offering Process After Registration

Each Offering is listed on the Platform for a minimum of twenty-one (21) days and the Offering period may extend beyond such twenty-one days if set forth in the Material or each investor is properly notified. During that period (or later if the investor is notified of a change), the Company must aggregate investor commitments that are equal to or greater than the Offering minimum target amount. Kookaburra Sustainable Solutions Inc as Issuer to participate in the Offering; (3) the investor transfers the funds required to purchase the offered securities to the Intermediary's designated third-party FDIC insured depository (4) once the targeted minimum offering amount is achieved or exceeded through investor commitments collectively, the issuer would be able to close the transaction on the original target closing date or an earlier date with at least five business days prior notice to the investors; and (5) the subscription agreement will be countersigned by the issuer; and (6) the funds would be released by the third-party depository to the issuer, less any required fees sent to the Intermediary, and the issuer would issue the securities to the investor.

Method for Investor Cancellation of a Commitment

Investors may cancel an investment commitment at any time up until forty-eight (48) hours prior to the applicable closing date. The process for any such cancellation is for the investor to log onto the Platform and indicate a cancellation by selecting such option in connection with the applicable offering once they have logged into their account and accessed their investor dashboard. With respect to specific scenarios: (1) if the target minimum offering amount is not met prior to the target closing date, then the Intermediary will automatically cancel all investment commitments and notify each investor of the return of their respective funds, (2) if the issuer reaches the target minimum offering amount prior to the deadline identified in the offering materials, then it may close the offering early (if it provides notice about the new offering deadline at least five business days prior to such new offering deadline) provided that the investor would be able to cancel the investment commitment before the 48-hour period prior to the new offering deadline, (3) if the issuer notifies the investor of a material change to an offering, then the investor must reconfirm their investment commitment after the material change is made to the offering, or such investor's investment commitment will be cancelled and the committed funds will be returned. In any situation where a return of investor commitments is triggered, such funds will be returned without any accrued interest and less any fees incurred.

Method for Delivering the Securities

The issuer will record all investments in book entry form so that no certificates would be delivered. The fully executed Subscription and Purchase Agreement relating to the Offering will serve as a written record of the transaction and will be available on the Platform via the investor dashboard. The investor will also receive email confirmation of the successful closing of the Offering, which will confirm the number of securities purchased and the amount paid. All promoters and representatives of the Company participating in the communication channels on the Platform are required to disclose their relationship with the Company.

Such compensation is paid only if the Company's total Offering proceeds meet or exceed the target minimum offering amount indicated in this Material. Additionally, the Company reimburses the Intermediary for certain fees that the Intermediary passes through to the Company, such as the costs related to performing background checks and establishing an FBO Account. The Company must secure investor commitments that equal or exceed the minimum target amount for the Offering prior to the applicable closing date, or the Offering will be canceled and investor funds committed in connection with the Offering will be returned. An investor commitment is conditional after being made, but only up until the time that is 48 hours before the applicable closing date. For the 48-hour period prior to the applicable closing date, investor commitments may not be cancelled by the investor but in certain circumstances may still be returned (e.g. if the target minimum amount is not met). As a reminder, investors are required to reconfirm their investment commitment after receiving notice of a material change to the Offering. If an investor takes no action to reconfirm the investment commitment after the Company notifies the investor of a material change, the commitment will be cancelled and funds relating to that Offering returned, less any fees incurred, without any accrued interest.

At no point during the two years the company has obligated itself to repay these debts shall it exceed that 10%. These debts were incurred during that start up and setting up of the company structure but put as an investment from the founders for the company to be started. This is why the debt is not to be fully paid until 2 years from the date of start of the formation. This is agreed by founders that the focus shall be on growth of the company and longevity and stability before recouping the offsetting costs assuming the company within the 2 years shall be stable enough to repay these debts.

Material Indebtedness

The Company has indicated that it currently has outstanding material indebtedness. The general terms of the Company's current and outstanding indebtedness are reflected of the following table:

Creditor	Amount Outstanding	Interest Rate	Maturity Date	Material Terms
Michael Arthur Schieck	$45,000	0 %	2019-01-01	This will be paid from the 10% revenues as explained in the campaign. The funds from this raise will not be used for the repayment of this debt for the 8 months of work performed without pay. This has 2 years before being due in full.
George Mingin	$20,000	0 %	2019-01-01	Loaned funds for expenses incurred for start up. This has been agreed for waiting the 2 years from start up for repayment in full.

CROWDFUNDING RISK FACTORS

An investment in the Company's securities involves substantial risk. Prospective investors should carefully consider the risk factors referred to in this Material. An investor should not invest any funds in the Offering unless he or she can afford to lose his or her entire investment. In making an investment decision, investors must rely on their own examination of the Company and the terms of the Offering, including the merits and risks involved. The Shares have not been recommended or reviewed by any federal or state securities commission or regulatory authority. There is no ready market for the sale of the Shares and it may be difficult or impossible for an investor to sell or otherwise dispose of the Shares.

Risks from Relying on Issuer Supplied Information

There is the risk that some of the information supplied by the Company may be inaccurate. The management of the Company has provided all of the information stated in this Material without any third party verifying or investigating such information. The Company makes no express or implied representation or warranty as to the completeness of this information or, in the case of projections, estimates, future plans, or forward looking assumptions or statements, as to their attainability or the accuracy and completeness of the assumptions from which they are derived. It is expected that each prospective investor will pursue their own independent investigation. Forward-looking statements are subject to certain risks, trends and uncertainties that could cause actual results to differ materially from those projected.

Risks as a Minority Holder

Purchasers of a minority ownership have risks relating to limited control, limited information and limited rights. Minority owners have no control over the marketability and value of their purchased securities and they may be required to hold onto their minority ownership position for an indefinite period. Additionally, minority owners must address the following risks:

Minority owners have no right to participate in any management decisions of the Company or the day-to-day operations. There is the risk that the majority owners make decisions or take actions that a minority owner thinks is bad for the Company. A minority owner has limited ability to influence the governance and operations of a Company.

Minority owners have limited rights to information beyond those filings that are required by law to be made available. There is the risk that minority owners may be denied immediate information about the Company's performance or corporate affairs.

Minority owners have limited rights, if any, to demand current distributions from an operating business. Majority owners likely have the right and power to avoid making any distributions of profits at their discretion. There is also the risk that the management of the Company pursues a spending plan that causes the Company not to generate any profits to be distributed.

Minority owners have limited rights, if any, to have their interest bought out. There is the risk that a minority owner will want to sell their interest and they will have no right to force the Company to buy them out. There will also be liquidity risk if there is no secondary market for the Company's securities.

Minority owners have limited input into fundamental corporate changes such as sale of the Company. There is a risk that a sale could be structured in a way to avoid certain payouts to minority owners, such as a sale of assets over time with the proceeds reinvested in another business.

Minority owners may have interests that are different than shareholder-officers or shareholders that are part of the management team of the Company. There is the risk that minority owners perceive a conflict of interest if, for example, the managers that are shareholders receive a significant raise. Additionally, there is the risk that a minority owner will want to remove a manager or board member but have no independent power to do so.

Risks Regarding Corporate Actions

The Company may take certain corporate actions that could impact investors that purchase the Shares.

Regarding the additional issuances of securities, there is the risk that an investor has their ownership percentage diluted if, for example, the Company decides to raise additional amounts in the future. There is also the risk that an investor is excluded from the opportunity to participate in future fund-raising so that they are unable to maintain their ownership percentage.

FORM C Offering Material for

Kookaburra Sustainable Solutions Inc as Issuer

Regarding the authorization of new securities with different rights, there is the risk that a future investor is able to obtain rights that are superior to the rights afforded to the purchasers of the security available in this offering.

To the extent that there is ever an offer to repurchase the Shares by the Company, there is the risk that investors may feel pressured to sell their Shares to the Company without fully participating in or capturing the potential increase in value of such Shares.

Regarding a sale of the Company or of assets of the Company, there is the risk that any such transaction fails to maximize the value of the Company's securities. The investor will be required to rely on the business judgement of the management team and the Board of Directors of the Company so there can be no guarantee that the investor will receive the full market value of their Shares.

Regarding transactions with related parties, there is the risk that the Company is placed in a position that creates the possibility of a conflict of interest. The Company may choose to participate in transactions with affiliates and related persons, with limited disclosure required to investors.

Risks from an Investment in Securities

This Offering is being made on a conditional basis with no minimum number of Shares guaranteed to be sold. The Company has not engaged the services of an underwriter with respect to the Offering, and there is no guarantee that the minimum required amount of proceeds will be realized by the Company.

The Shares are not guaranteed or insured by any government agency or by any private party. The amount of earnings is not guaranteed and can vary with market conditions. The return of all or any portion of capital invested in the Shares is not guaranteed, and the Shares could become worthless.

Investors should be aware of the potentially long-term nature of their investment. Each purchaser of Shares will be required to represent that it is purchasing such securities for its own account for investment purposes and not with an intention to resell or distribute.

Purchasers may be required to bear the economic risks of the investment for an indefinite period of time. There is currently no public market for the Company's securities. Ultimately, each investor's risk with respect to this Offering includes the potential for a complete loss of their investment.

FORM C Offering Material for

Kookaburra Sustainable Solutions Inc as Issuer

Risks from Uncertain Capital Needs

The Company believes that the net proceeds of the Offering will be sufficient to fund the implementation of the Company's business plan, operations and growth for the foreseeable future. Nevertheless, in the event that additional capital is required, no assurance can be given that additional financing will be available at all or on terms favorable to the Company. If adequate funds were not available to satisfy either short or long-term capital requirements, the Company may be unable to continue in business, with a resulting loss of all or part of investments made by the Company's investors. Moreover, if additional equity securities are issued in connection with future financings, the ownership percentages of then shareholders could be diluted. Dilution of ownership percentages may also occur as a result of equity securities issued pursuant to possible sales or grants to existing shareholders, officers, managers, consultants, advisors, and/or employees.

Risks from Relying on an Exemption from Registration

The Shares are being offered for sale in reliance upon certain exemptions from the registration requirements of the Securities Act and applicable state securities laws. If the sale of the Shares were to fail to qualify for these exemptions, purchasers may seek rescission of their purchases of the Shares. If a number of purchasers were to obtain rescission, the Company would face significant financial demands, which could adversely affect the Company as a whole, as well as any non-rescinding purchasers.

ISSUER-SPECIFIC RISK FACTORSMARKET AND CUSTOMER RISK FACTORS

We must correctly predict, identify, and interpret changes in consumer preferences and demand, offer new products to meet those changes, and respond to competitive innovation.

Our success depends on our ability to predict, identify, and interpret the tastes and habits of consumers and to offer products that appeal to consumer preferences. If we do not offer products that appeal to consumers, our sales and market share will decrease. If we do not accurately predict which shifts in consumer preferences will be long-term, or if we fail to introduce new and improved products to satisfy those preferences, our sales could decline. If we fail to expand our product offerings successfully across product categories, or if we do not rapidly develop products in faster growing and more profitable categories, demand for our products could decrease, which could materially and adversely affect our product sales, financial condition, and results of operations.

We MUST be able to attain shelf space in stores where other competitors are which may be a problem for a startup company. This is also the case where we are newly on the internet and must create a larger traffic flow to the website for awareness and sales. The key to these risks is our marketing and predictions of the needs of our clients and target marketing. Being a new company we will be effected by brand loyalty of some consumers not willing to try a new product.

FINANCIAL RISK FACTORS

Our company may need additional funding in the future, which may not be available.

The Company's operations may require additional capital sooner than currently anticipated. If the Company is unable to obtain additional capital if needed, in the amount and at the time needed, this may restrict planned or future development; limit our company's ability to take advantage of future opportunities; negatively affect its ability to implement its business strategies and meet its goals; and possibly limit its ability to continue operations. The company's working capital requirements may significantly vary from those currently anticipated.

We will need to utilize the finances to the best usage with appointed pieces to create revenues immediately and start production. The possibility of requiring more space, more equipment, more inventory, more staff, or possible need more marketing is very possible which could possibly lead to another round of funding required. This is a risk whereas the need may not be met with a second round of funding without going into debt.

Our company may be required to take on debt which could result in limitations on our business.

If the Company incurs indebtedness, a portion of its cash flow will have to be dedicated to the payment of principal and interest on such indebtedness. Typical loan agreements also might contain restrictive covenants, which may impair the Company's operating flexibility.

FORM C Offering Material for

Kookaburra Sustainable Solutions Inc as Issuer

Such loan agreements would also provide for default under certain circumstances, such as failure to meet certain financial covenants. A default under a loan agreement could result in the loan becoming immediately due and payable and, if unpaid, a judgment in favor of such lender which would be senior to the rights of shareholders of the Company. A judgment creditor would have the right to foreclose on any of the Company's assets resulting in a material adverse effect on the Company's business, operating results or financial condition. The fear of taking on debt is always a possibility whereas it is not what is wanted but is possible. These goals are not of certainty to happen and only estimates whereas this may need more funding. This may also need to go into debt for such funding which would result in the value of shares would be reflected in the valuation from carrying debts. This is a possibility and one which the company fears for any debts but must keep in mind as a possibility.

OPERATIONAL RISK FACTORS

We have a limited operating history upon which you can evaluate our performance.

We have a limited history upon which an evaluation of our prospects and future performance can be made. Our proposed operations are subject to all business risks associated with new enterprises. The likelihood of our creation of a viable business must be considered in light of the problems, expenses, difficulties, complications, and delays frequently encountered in connection with the inception of a business, operation in a competitive industry, and the continued development of advertising, promotions, and a corresponding client base.

This is definitely a risk for an investor as the company is a start up and new. There is no history for the company and investors are expected to make such a decision. This is very speculative.

Certain future relationships have not been established and existing relationships are not guaranteed to endure.

The Company has established and will establish certain relationships with others. We will need to maintain such relationships and, in some cases, establish new ones or replace existing ones. There will be several agreements and documents that remain to be negotiated, executed, and implemented with respect to certain aspects of our planned operations. In some cases, the parties with whom we would need to establish a relationship may not yet be identified. If we are unable to enter into these agreements or relationships on satisfactory terms, our operations could be delayed or curtailed, expenses could be increased, and profitability and the likelihood of returns to investors could be adversely affected.

Being a newly formed company with a new product is a risk. Having no clients and customers in contracts at this time and none from previous as being new, it is speculative about building a loyalty and our marketing abilities are very needed and will be a major role player in the success of the company sales.

COMPETITIVE RISK FACTORS

The development and commercialization of our services is highly competitive.

Many of our competitors have significantly greater financial, technical and human resources than we have. Accordingly, our competitors may commercialize products more rapidly or effectively than we are able to, which would adversely affect our competitive position.

We are in the cleaning and air freshener business which is highly competitive. The factors of having so many larger corporations which is definitely a risk. Being new and competitive sector with brand loyalties will play a role in the need for such pressure on the marketing of our products.

Many of our competitors have greater brand recognition and more extensive resources.

This may place us at a disadvantage in responding to our competitors' pricing strategies, advertising campaigns, strategic alliances and other initiatives. Consequently, such competitors may be in a better position than the Company to take advantage of customer acquisition and business opportunities and devote greater resources to marketing and sale of their offerings. These competitors may limit our opportunity to acquire customers and facilitate business arrangements. There is no certainty that the Company will be able to compete successfully. If the Company cannot break through and compete successfully, investors may be at risk of losing their investment.

Being a new company in a sector such as cleaning products with such giants as Proctor and Gamble in this sector is definitely a risk to investors. The brand loyalties of clients and buyers are a concern which we will be forced to evaluate and build our own loyalty which is a time and service factor from marketing on larger creatively. These are risks we will need to take to be competitive and it is speculating.

LEGAL AND REGULATORY RISK FACTORS

Changes in federal, state or local laws and regulations could increase our expenses and adversely affect our results of operations.

Our business is subject to a wide array of laws and regulations. The current political environment, financial reform legislation, the current high level of government intervention and activism and regulatory reform may result in substantial new regulations and disclosure obligations and/or changes in the interpretation of existing laws and regulations, which may lead to additional compliance costs as well as the diversion of our management's time and attention from strategic initiatives. If we fail to comply with applicable laws and regulations we could be subject to legal risk, including government enforcement action and class action civil litigation that could disrupt our operations and increase our costs of doing business. Changes in the regulatory environment regarding topics such as privacy and information security, product safety or environmental protection, including regulations in response to concerns regarding climate change, collective bargaining activities, minimum wage laws and health care mandates, among others, could also cause our compliance costs to increase and adversely affect our business and results of operations.

The chances of having regulations changed on the interpretations of organic or natural for labels could be a factor which has risks due to having to comply for the usage of such terms in our marketing and products. These are reviewed often which means complete following will be required to ensure we as a company stay on top of the newest laws for these labels. Changing in how the organic and natural wording is regulated for the industry could result in the need to remake our labels and such cost us the funds for doing such to comply. This is a risk.

MISCELLANEOUS RISK FACTORS

How does the company plan to expand past the statistical data of start up failure rates?

Being a new business is always a risk with data to back it where most new businesses fail in the first 5 years. The need for marketing, exposure, customer service, loyalty and sales revenues are all a direct effect of the future of a business. These each carry a degree of risk of failure as it is not certain for success but planned to avoid to the best of our abilities.
