ALL OF HIRECLUB

Diversity is core to who we are.

We believe everyone deserves to find their dream job.

- Underrepresented minorities, women, veterans and more all sometimes struggle in the job market.
- HireClub is founded by immigrants who know how much hard work it takes to succeed.
- We want to give back to our community by ensuring everyone is welcome and heard.

Recruiting is $416 billion market worldwide

We're solving a huge problem.

Companies aren't finding great talent and great talent is not being seen.

- Companies would love to have more diverse candidates but often their network is small.
- Job seekers would love to be seen by companies but don't often have enough reach or access.
- HireClub lets job seekers share their job goals and hear back from companies who are interested in them.

Companies and People love HireClub!

The HireClub team wakes up every morning to thank you messages. It's one of our favorite parts of the day. Whether we found someone a job, got them an interview or they are just happy to join a welcoming and helpful community, these messages give life to our mission.

HireClub has been an organic source of talent for Samba, loaded with authentic discourse with job seekers, and access to talent in our industry. It's refreshing to interact directly with our candidates rather than through a recruiting agencies which isn't always aligned with their clients or the talent.

Ashwin Navin, CEO of Samba TV

HireClub transformed my entire life for the better by finding me a job. Twice. And that's literally the only way I can sum it up.

Anjali R

HireClub has been a great communication and networking tool. I hired my fantastic financial manager through HireClub, which saved money on recruiting fees.

Erik Nakamura, VP of Finance at Roofstock

I interned at a startup (whose recruiter reached out to me through HireClub) and signed my full-time offer today. This wouldn't have been possible without HireClub!

Message from Ketan

I started HireClub as a side project over 6 years ago in 2011. I wanted to hire skilled professionals quickly and I knew many of my friends had the same need. Referrals are how business gets done.

Since then, HireClub has grown and I wake up every morning at 5am to wonderful messages how we are able to help people find their dream jobs and connect to our community.

The internet can be a scary place but on HireClub we see strangers helping each other and paying it forward. People are respectful, kind and most of all professionally engaged to help each other succeed.

As an immigrant and minority, I've personally seen many times how good talent can be overlooked when it looks different from what people are used to.

Everyone deserves to find their dream job. Your skills and hard work determine your value, not just who you know or where you went to school.

HireClub gives people access to jobs they might not have access to. We make hiring a conversation, not a lonely job post and we welcome everyone regardless of race, gender, orientation, religion, pedigree, education or location.

We've doubled in size this year alone and that's still only with me and the team working 1 day a week on HireClub. Imagine how many more people we could help working on HireClub full time!

With your investment, our team can dedicate themselves to helping everyone find their dream job, we can build out the features and community with feedback from you. From day one, HireClub has always been about what we make it together.

With equity crowdfunding, everyday people like you and me can build companies that we believe in. Not just ones that cater to specific people, but ones that are community oriented and welcome all. Your investment helps HireClub achieve it's purpose in helping you and your friends find jobs.

You can invest as little as $25, we always want HireClub to be accessible to everyone, regardless of income. If every single member out of 19,000 invested $25, we'd have $475,000 in a heartbeat.

Imagine a community that decides its future by investing together. Imagine a community that helps friends find work and companies find skilled talent all while paying a livable wage for those people.

Your investment in HireClub makes that dream come true. Thank you HireClub for the opportunity to serve you!

With all my heart,

Ketan Anjaria

Our proposed operations are subject to all business risks associated with new enterprises.
