

GHOST FLOWER, INC.
SUBSCRIPTION AGREEMENT

This SUBSCRIPTION AGREEMENT (this "Agreement") is made as of [EFFECTIVE DATE] by and between GHOST FLOWER, INC., a Texas corporation (the "Company"), and the undersigned investor (the "Investor").

RECITALS

A. The Company is conducting an offering designed to raise up to $399,999.99 through the sale and issuance of its shares of Series Seed-3A Preferred Stock (the "Series Seed-3A Preferred Stock") and its shares of Series Seed-3B Preferred Stock (the "Series Seed-3B Preferred Stock" and, together with the Series Seed-3A Preferred Stock, the "Series Seed-3 Preferred Stock") to investors who satisfy the qualification requirements for exemption of the offering under Regulation CF and who complete and execute this Agreement and the investment paperwork required by WeFunder, who serves as the Company's investment intermediary in the offering (the "Offering").

B. The Investor desires to participate in the Offering and is entering into this Agreement in order to effectuate its purchase of Series Seed-3 Preferred Stock pursuant to the terms and conditions of this Agreement.

AGREEMENTS

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the foregoing premises and certain other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged, and subject to the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement, the parties hereby agree as follows:

1. Subscription

The Company is selling shares at a 30% discount, or $0.78 per share, until the Company cumulatively has received subscriptions for at least $150,000.24 of share purchases, and will raise up to $249,999.75 of additional proceeds from shares sold at a price of $1.11 per share. If the final order for the discounted shares in total should exceed the $150,000.24 limit, the discount will still apply to all the shares purchased in that order even if that causes the aggregate subscription amounts at that 30% discounted price to exceed $150,000.24.

(a) The Investor hereby agrees to purchase:

(i) For Investors purchasing the 30% discounted shares (until the Company cumulatively has received subscriptions for at least $150,000.24 of share purchases): Series Seed-3A Preferred Stock (the "Shares"), at a price of $0.78 per share.

(ii) For Investors purchasing the non-discounted shares (i.e., shares issuable after the Company cumulatively has received subscriptions for at least $150,000.24 of share purchases): [SHARES] shares of Series Seed-3B Preferred Stock (the "Shares"), at a price of $1.11 per share, for a total purchase price of [$[AMOUNT]] (the "Subscription").

The Investor acknowledges and agrees that its Series Seed-3 Preferred Stock will be issued as either Series Seed-3A Preferred Stock or Series Seed-3B Preferred Stock, as set forth above. The Series Seed-3A Preferred Stock is being issued at a 30% discount from the price per share of the Series Seed-3B Preferred

Stock in order to incentivize early investment in the Offering. Other than the purchase price, the terms of the Series Seed-3A Preferred Stock and Series Seed-3B Preferred Stock are identical.

An investment is subject to a minimum investment per Investor in such amount as is established by the Company from time to time and described on the website of Wefunder on which the offering of Shares is described. The Company will not hold the initial closing of the Offering unless and until it has an aggregate of $50,000.34 in Subscriptions and will not raise more than $399,999.99 of new equity capital in the Offering. Notwithstanding the foregoing, in addition to the shares of Series Seed-3A and Series Seed-3B Preferred Stock issued to Investors subscribing in the aggregate for up to $399,999.99 of such shares, the Company will be issuing shares of Series Seed-3A Preferred Stock at a price of $0.78 per share to an existing lender in satisfaction of loans from that lender to the Company in the aggregate principal amount of $76,500.

(b) The Shares shall be deemed granted when (i) the Investor executes and delivers this Agreement to the Company, (ii) the Company executes this Agreement, and (iii) the Investor pays to the Company the purchase price for the Subscription specified in Section 1(a). The Investor's failure to pay the purchase price for the Subscription shall be a default under this Agreement.

(c) The Investor understands and agrees that the Company has the right, at its sole discretion, to accept or reject the Subscription, in whole or in part, for any or no reason and that the Subscription shall be deemed to be accepted by the Company only when this Agreement is signed by the Company. Subscriptions need not be accepted in the order received and the Series Seed-3 Preferred Stock being offered in the Offering may be allocated among investors.

2. Investor's Representations and Warranties

(h) The Investor confirms that the Company has not (i) given any guarantee or representation as to the potential success, return, effect or benefit (either legal, regulatory, tax, financial, accounting or otherwise) of an investment in the Shares or (ii) made any representation to the Investor regarding the legality of an investment in the Shares under applicable legal investment or similar laws or regulations. In deciding to purchase the Shares, the undersigned is not relying on the advice or recommendations of the Company and the undersigned has made its own independent decision that the investment in the Shares is suitable and appropriate for the undersigned.

(i) The Investor is a resident of the state listed on the signature page hereto.

(j) The Investor represents and warrants that the foregoing representations and warranties, along with the acknowledgements in Section 3, below, will be true and correct upon the Company's acceptance of the Subscription. 3. Acknowledgments

The Investor understands and acknowledges that:

(a) The Shares have not been registered or qualified under the Securities Act or any state securities laws in reliance upon exemptions from the registration requirements of such laws, and the Shares may not be sold, transferred or otherwise disposed of by the Investor except in compliance with the registration requirements of such laws or pursuant to available exemptions from registration. The Investor has no immediate right to require registration of the Shares under the Securities Act or state securities laws, and there is no assurance that any trading market in the Shares will develop. The offer and sale of the Shares

(b) There is no market for the Shares, it is unknown whether a market for the Shares will ever develop, and, accordingly, the Investor may have to hold the Shares for an indefinite period of time.

(c) The Company has directed the Investor to seek independent advice regarding the tax consequences of the Investor's purchase of the Shares and that the Investor has not relied on either the Company or counsel to the Company with respect to such tax consequences.

7. Risk Factors

An investment in the Company involves significant risks and is designed only for sophisticated investors who are able to bear the economic risk of a complete loss of their investment in the Company. Prospective investors should carefully consider the following risk factors, among other things, in making their investment decision. There can be no assurance that the Company will be able to achieve its investment objectives or will generate any returns for investors. By executing this Agreement, the Investor certifies that the Investor has carefully reviewed and fully understands the risks of an investment in the Company, including each of the risk factors described in this Section 7.

(a) Investment Risks.

(i) Speculative Nature of Investment. The Company will use the proceeds of the Offering as working capital for its luxury activewear and related business (the "Business"). While the Company believes that the Business is potentially profitable, all investments in the apparel industry, including the Business, are speculative in nature, and the possibility of partial or total loss of capital will exist. Investors should not invest in the Company unless they can readily bear the consequences of such loss.

(ii) Ability to Obtain Financing. The Company is seeking to raise up to $400,000 of new equity capital through the sale and issuance of Series Seed-3 Preferred Stock to investors. The Company currently believes that amount will provide sufficient working capital for the Company to develop its Business in the manner envisioned by the Company's management. However, there is no assurance that (A) the targeted amount will be sufficient to develop the Business in the manner envisioned by the Company's management, or (B) the Company will be able to raise the full targeted amount. If either the targeted amount ends up being insufficient to develop the Business in the manner envisioned by the Company's management or the Company is unable to raise the full targeted amount, the quality, appeal, reach, and profitability of the Business may suffer, resulting in reduced returns to investors, or no returns to investors at all.

(iii) Lack of Diversification. All of the Company's assets will be committed to the development and operation of the Business. As a result, the Company will lack diversification in its assets and the potential profitability of the Company (and therefore the Shares) will be limited solely to the profitability of the Business, which could be adversely affected by many factors, including, among other things, a downturn in the luxury activewear industry.

(iv) Indefinite Term for Investment. The Company is a private entity with no immediate plans to sell the Company or offer the Company's securities on a freely-tradeable public exchange. As a result, investments in the Shares are highly illiquid and investors must be prepared to bear a long-term investment with potentially no liquidity option.

(v) Economic and Business Conditions. Changes in economic conditions, industry conditions, tax laws and innumerable other factors can affect substantially and adversely the business and prospects of the Company and, accordingly, the Shares. None of these conditions will be within the control of the Company. Accordingly, the ultimate value of the Business could be less than the purchase price. If the Business fails to appreciate in value, then holders of Shares could lose some or all of their investment.

(b) Company Risks.

(i) Limited Operating History. The Company was formed in 2016 and has only a limited operating history upon which an investor can base its prediction of future success or failure. Similarly, neither the Company nor its management is able to predict whether the Company will be profitable or able to produce any investment returns to investors.

(ii) No Assurance of Profits or Dividends. There is no assurance that the Business will be profitable or that any dividends will be paid to investors. Any return on investment to the investors will depend ultimately on the success of the Business. The value of the Business will depend on many factors beyond the control of the Company. The expenses of the Company may exceed its income and investors could lose the entire amount of their investment.

(iii) Limited Governance Rights. Although the investors will have certain rights specifically granted to them in the Company's governing documents, they will have limited rights with respect to the management and control of the Company. In addition, any voting, management, and control rights provided to investors will be exercised by the Custodian at the discretion of a "Lead Investor" appointed by the Company, as described in Section 6, and therefore investors will have no individual voting, management, or control rights. No person should purchase an Shares unless such person is willing to entrust all aspects of the Business to the Company's management and such other professionals as are engaged by the Company.

(c) Industry Risks.

(i) Luxury Activewear Industry. The Business primarily consists of the production, marketing, and sale of luxury activewear and related items. The factors dictating the success or failure of a venture in that industry are complex, diverse, and unpredictable, and include style trends and general economic conditions. There can be no assurance that conditions in the luxury activewear industry will be or will remain favorable to the Business and unfavorable conditions in the industry or economy generally could severely damage the Company's profitability and returns to investors.

(ii) Operating Risks. The success of enterprises such as the Business are subject to many operating risks that are outside of the Company's control, including (A) the popularity of the activities in which the Company's products are used, (B) the negotiation of favorable prices and terms for the production of the Company's products, (C) the ability of the Company's manufacturers to produce sufficient inventory of the Company's products, (D) cost overruns in marketing, production, shipping, or other areas, (E) competition in the luxury activewear market, (F) the Company's ability to hire and retain qualified personnel, and (G) the risk of litigation claims against the Company, including claims for employment-related issues and customer claims relating to their use of the Company's products. Each these risks, among other things, could substantially impact the Company's profitability and returns to investors.

There are no promises, terms, conditions, obligations, or warranties other than those contained in this Agreement and the Offering Documents. No waiver of any provision of this Agreement shall be deemed a waiver of any other provision of this Agreement or a waiver of such provision with respect to any subsequent breach, unless expressly provided in writing.

(e) Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in counterparts, each of which shall be deemed to be an original copy and all of which shall constitute one agreement, binding on all parties hereto. Delivery of an executed signature page to this Agreement by facsimile transmission, PDF, or electronic signature or similar software shall be as effective as delivery of a manually-signed counterpart of this Agreement.

(f) Specific Performance. The parties agree that monetary damages would not compensate an injured party for a breach of this Agreement by any other party, that this Agreement shall be specifically enforceable, and that any breach or threatened breach of this Agreement shall be the proper subject of a temporary or permanent injunction or restraining order. Further, each party hereto waives any claim or defense that there is adequate remedy at law for such breach or threatened breach.

In the event the Company has not sold within such 90-day period following the Election Period, or such 90-day period following the date of said agreement, the Company shall not thereafter issue or sell any New Securities, without first again offering such securities to the Investors in the manner provided in this Section 4.1.

SECTION 3

DRAG-ALONG RIGHTS

3.1 Drag-Along Rights. If a Change of Control Transaction (as defined below) is approved by (i) the Company's board of directors, and (ii) the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of the Company's Common Stock and Preferred Stock, as a single class on an as-converted basis (the "Selling Investors"), then each Voting Party agrees:

(a) if such Change of Control Transaction requires stockholder approval, with respect to all Shares that such Voting Party owns or over which such Voting Party otherwise exercises voting power, to vote (in person, by proxy or by action by written consent, as applicable) all Shares in favor of, and adopt, such Change of Control Transaction (together with any related amendment to the certificate of incorporation of the Company required in order to implement such Change of Control Transaction) and to vote in opposition to any and all other proposals that could or impair the ability of the Company to consummate such Change of Control Transaction;

(b) if such Change of Control Transaction is a sale of stock, to sell the same proportion of shares of capital stock of the Company beneficially held by such Voting Party as is being sold by the Selling Investors to the person to whom the Selling Investors propose to sell their shares, and, except as permitted in Section 3.2 below, on the same terms and conditions as the Selling Investors;

(c) to execute and deliver all related documentation and take such other action in support of the Change of Control Transaction as shall reasonably be requested by the Company or the Selling Investors in order to carry out the terms and provision of this Section 3, including, without limitation, executing and delivering instruments of conveyance and transfer, and any purchase agreement, merger agreement, indemnity agreement, escrow agreement, consent, waiver, governmental filing, share certificates duly endorsed for transfer (free and clear of impermissible liens, claims and encumbrances), and any similar or related documents;

(d) not to deposit, and to cause their affiliates not to deposit, except as provided in this Agreement, any shares of the Company owned by such party or affiliate in a voting trust or subject any shares to any arrangement or agreement with respect to the voting of such shares, unless specifically requested to do so by the acquiror in connection with the Change of Control Transaction;

(e) to refrain from exercising any dissenters' rights or rights of appraisal under applicable law at any time with respect to such Change of Control Transaction;

(f) if the consideration to be paid in exchange for the shares pursuant to this Section 3 includes any securities and due receipt thereof by any Voting Party would require under applicable law (i) the registration or qualification of such securities or of any person as a broker or dealer or agent with respect to such securities; or (ii) the provision to any Voting Party of any information other than such information as a prudent issuer would generally furnish in an offering made solely to "accredited investors"

as defined in Regulation D promulgated under the Securities Act, the Company may cause to be paid to any such Voting Party in lieu thereof, against surrender of the shares which would have otherwise been sold by such Voting Party, an amount in cash equal to the fair value (as determined in good faith by the Company) of the securities which such Voting Party would otherwise receive as of the date of the issuance of such securities in exchange for the shares; and

(g) in the event that the Selling Investors, in connection with such Change of Control Transaction, appoint a stockholder representative (the "Stockholder Representative") with respect to matters affecting the Voting Parties under the applicable definitive transaction agreements following consummation of such Change of Control Transaction, (i) to consent to (A) the appointment of such Stockholder Representative, (B) the establishment of any applicable escrow, expense or similar fund in connection with any indemnification or similar obligations, and (C) the payment of such Voting Party's pro rata portion (from the applicable escrow or expense fund or otherwise) of any and all reasonable fees and expenses to such Stockholder Representative in connection with such Stockholder Representative's services and duties in connection with such Change of Control Transaction and its related service as the representative of the Voting Parties, and (ii) not to assert any claim or commence any suit against the Stockholder Representative or any other Voting Party with respect to any action or inaction taken or failed to be taken by the Stockholder Representative in connection with its service as the Stockholder Representative, absent fraud or willful misconduct.

3.2 Exceptions. Notwithstanding the foregoing, a Voting Party will be required to comply with Section 3.1 above in connection with any proposed Change of Control Transaction, subject to the following conditions:

(a) no Voting Party shall be required to make any representation, covenant or warranty in connection with the Change of Control Transaction, other than as to such Voting Party's ownership and authority to sell, free of liens, claims and encumbrances, the shares of capital stock proposed to be sold by such Voting Party;

(b) no Voting Party shall be required to accept consideration in the Change of Control Transaction other than cash or freely-tradable equity securities registered under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, and listed on the New York Stock Exchange, the American Stock Exchange, the Nasdaq Global Select Market or the Nasdaq Global Market;

(c) the consideration payable with respect to each share in each class or series as a result of such Change of Control Transaction is the same (except for cash payments in lieu of fractional shares) as for each other share in such class or series;

(d) each class and series of capital stock of the Company will be entitled to receive the same form of consideration (and be subject to the same indemnity and escrow provisions) as a result of such Change of Control Transaction;

(e) the payment with respect to each share of common stock is an amount at least equal to the amount payable in accordance with the Company's certificate of incorporation, if such Change of Control Transaction were deemed a "Reorganization" within the definition provided therein; and

(f) the liability for indemnification, if any, of such Voting Party in the Change of Control Transaction and for the inaccuracy of any representations and warranties made by the Company or its stockholders in connection with such Change of Control Transaction, is several and not joint with any other person (except to the extent that funds may be paid out of an escrow established to cover breach of representations, warranties and covenants of the Company as well as breach by any stockholder of any of identical representations, warranties and covenants provided by all stockholders), and is pro rata in proportion to, and does not exceed, the amount of consideration paid to such Voting Party in connection with such Change of Control Transaction.

Note: For purposes of the foregoing, a "Change of Control Transaction" means a "Reorganization" as defined in the Company's certificate of formation, which is defined as follows:

A "Reorganization" includes (i) the acquisition of the Corporation by another entity by means of any transaction or series of related transactions to which the Corporation is party (including, without limitation, any stock acquisition, reorganization, merger or consolidation but excluding any sale of stock for capital raising purposes) other than a transaction or series of transactions in which the holders of the voting securities of the Corporation outstanding immediately prior to such transaction retain, immediately after such transaction or series of transactions, as a result of shares in the Corporation held by such holders prior to such transaction, at least a majority of the total voting power represented by the outstanding voting securities of the Corporation or such other surviving or resulting entity (or if the Corporation or such other surviving or resulting entity is a wholly-owned subsidiary immediately following such acquisition, its parent); (ii) a sale, lease or other disposition of all or substantially all of the assets of the Corporation and its subsidiaries taken as a whole by means of any transaction or series of related transactions, except where such sale, lease or other disposition is to a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Corporation; or (iii) any liquidation, dissolution or winding up of the Corporation, whether voluntary or involuntary.

The foregoing rights terminate upon the Company's initial public offering or certain other circumstances provided in the Voting Agreement.
