LEAD INVESTOR

Misty Patel

This is a great organization to work; especially Neil. I have been a investor for quite a few years I think the bourbon is going to do well. I also like that the company supports different charities and up and coming musicians which is the core of the company. I like companies that like to give back to what they believe in. And all of our friends and family who try three chord all love it.

Three Chord Bourbon: Mid-stage American Whiskey Blending House

Three Chord Bourbon is a mid-stage American whiskey blending house that embraces the spirit of creativity through a unique brand rooted in music. Founded in 2017 by celebrity, Neil Giraldo (5-time Grammy award winning musician, producer, and composer as well as Rock & Roll Hall of Famer), Three Chord carefully formulates its award-winning bourbon blends and uses unique barrel finishing that first began shipping in mid-2018.

Market demand for bourbon continues unprecedented growth, which has further propelled acquisitions of craft bourbon brands by large spirits conglomerates such as the recent acquisition by Italy's Campari of Wilderness Trail Distillery at a $600 million valuation. Three Chord intends to build upon its success over the last several years for a target exit in 5 years. This Series A offering will be spent primarily on sales and marketing to help the company achieve sales targets required for a successful sale. (Projections not guaranteed).

Our Awards & Accolades: Double Gold Medals and 93-97 Point Scores

Three Chord has won over 40 industry awards and accolades over the last 5 years scoring:

- 97 points Barleycorn Awards – Three Chord Strange Collaboration
- (blended Kentucky bourbon aged in pinot noir barrels)
- 94 points WhiskyCast – Three Chord Twelve Bar Reserve
- (blended Kentucky 12-year bourbon seasonal release)
- 93 points Whisky Advocate – Three Chord Amplify Rye
- (double oaked, blended rye whiskey from Kentucky and Indiana)

We have taken home Double Gold medals at the World Spirits Competition and Barleycorn Awards as well as over 40 Gold and Silver medals. In addition, industry experts ranging from renowned whiskey critics to leading influencer podcasters have rated Three Chord amongst the best in the whiskey world – here's what they have to say:

2023

We now sell 9 core whiskey products in 38 states at over 3,000 retailers, and surpassed 11,000 cases sold in 2021. Our plan is to continue adding another state per month, achieving a nationwide footprint by the end of 2023. We are already stocked by major retail chains including Costco, Wegmans, Shoprite, BevMo and Specs as well as numerous local premium liquor stores that specialize in craft spirits brands sought after by true whiskey and bourbon enthusiasts.

Distribution

BREAKTHRU
BEVERAGE GROUP

Three Chord's network of distributors consists of leading industry names such as RNDC, Empire Merchants, Johnson Brothers, and Breakthru Beverage. Due to the three-tier alcoholic beverage distribution system, all producers (which includes Three Chord) by law must sell their products through distributors who then sell to retailers. These relationships can take years to build and are a major barrier to entry for new spirits companies. Three Chord is now reaping the benefits of 5 years of grueling hard work to not only secure those valuable contracts but move product through the top distributors for the widest and deepest reach.

THE BOURBON MARKET CONTINUES UNPRECEDENTED GROWTH

The spirits industry in the United States has steadily grown in both value and volume surpassing $35,000,000,000 in sales in 2021, and has continuously captured increasing market share away from wine and beer, growing from 34% to over 41% of total alcohol industry revenues over the past decade.

American whiskey (which includes bourbon) has also experienced consistent growth in domestic demand achieving nearly 30,000,000 cases sold in 2021, ranking it as the second largest category within spirits after vodka. Consumers have become much more knowledgeable about whiskey and bourbon, which has led to significant focus on premium brands where the average price point for American whiskey has exceeded that of vodka with strong demand at the super premium level particularly for unique small batch runs with a penchant for unique blended bourbons and whiskies.

CONTINUED M&A ACTIVITY

Large distilleries have acquired leading craft distilleries over the last fifteen years at high valuations based primarily on brand value and cases sold since the larger corporations can absorb these craft brands into their fold, eliminate overhead in production, marketing, sales and administration due to their economies of scale, and broaden their brand portfolios. Here are some notable examples:

Brand Acquired	Acquirer	Year	Purchase Price	Cases Sold	Valuation per Case
Casamigos Tequila	Diageo	2017	$700 million	120,000	$5,833
Aviation Gin & Davos Brands	Diageo	2020	$610 million	95,000	$6,421
Pendleton Whiskey	Proximo	2018	$205 million	Undisclosed	N/A
Forty Creek Distillery	Campari	2013	$186 million	Undisclosed	N/A
High West Distillery	Constellation	2016	$160 million	70,000	$2,285
Angel's Envy	Bacardi	2015	$160 million	55,000	$2,909

THREE CHORD EXIT METRICS AS AN ACQUISITION TARGET

Three Chord has already begun approaching potential buyout suitors to set industry standard buyout metrics. General consensus indicates achievement of 75,000 cases sold, $10 million in gross sales revenue and nationwide sales reach as critical achievements for a successful acquisition target. Based on on a conservative valuation factor of roughly $2,700/case, this could yield approximately a $200,000,000 acquisition exit price (not guaranteed).

OUR STORY: PERFECTLY TUNED TASTE

Neil Giraldo approaches music with passion and precision, creating pieces that attract worldwide praise due to their familiar yet unique nature. When discussing bourbon with his buddies back in 2017, he wondered whether that same process could be applied to craft the perfect drink. So, he set out on a new adventure: shaking up the bourbon industry while maintaining respect for the tradition and legacy of heritage whiskeys. A new method, “Perfectly Tuned Taste,” was developed, and we haven’t looked back since.

WHAT MOVES US

Our portfolio embodies the heart and soul of music. Our inspiration comes from a place of expression, innovation, and creativity. Like any artist/musician we are moved by the pioneers before us to develop something that is familiar yet unique.

WHISKEY BLENDING: OUR UNIQUE PRODUCTS AND PROCESS

Distilling is a science. Blending is an art.

The Three Chord team of expert blenders, coopers and sensory professionals have refined the multi-step process we call “Perfectly Tuned Taste.” Our process begins by carefully selecting the finest bourbon and rye whiskeys from stocks in Kentucky, Tennessee, Indiana and North Carolina. Once the blend of spirits is assembled, we apply our proprietary process of pyrolysis — heating American oak to precise temperatures to release specific flavor and aroma compounds — and our proprietary blending process to integrate these compounds into the blended spirit through a second aging in those barrels.

TOP RATED TOP SELLER

We are masters at unique expressions of whiskey and bourbon. Our top award winner is Three Chord Amplify Rye, which blends select Kentucky and Indiana rye whiskeys then ages them again in American oak barrels for flavor enhancement. Our top seller in the country is Three Chord Strange Collaboration, which blends 3 kinds of Kentucky bourbon then finishes that off for 6 months in pinot noir barrels provided by Strange Family Vineyards in the California Central Coast.

Returned to special barrels for further aging

By sourcing bourbon and whiskey from the country's top producers, this reduces significant overhead through eliminating the need for a complete distillery plant and warehouse. In addition, Three Chord works with a sister company, Barrelmark, LLC whereby aging American whiskey has already been allocated to Three Chord to avoid future raw material shortages.

Our Master Whiskeymaker Ari Sussman

Three Chord now spans 8 core expressions augmented by single barrel picks, custom order blends and special seasonal releases. Our facility in Chelsea, Michigan is led by Whiskeymaker Ari Sussman who ensures every small batch blend of Three Chord is evaluated by a trained sensory panel to ensure an uncommon depth of flavor, aroma, and character in each bottle. Ari was one of the first lecturers in the country on whiskey making at Michigan State University, and continues to push innovation at Three Chord.

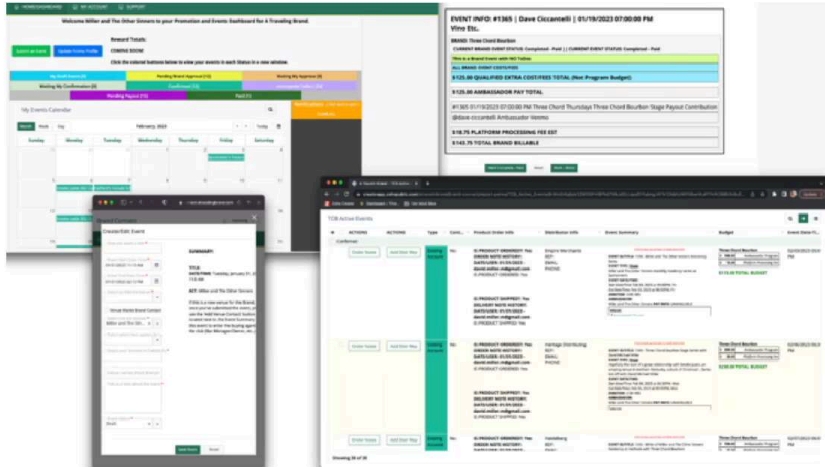

When Neil founded the company, he also wanted to make giving back to musicians and the music community a core value of the company. Three Chord philanthropically supports several music charities ranging from those that aid school music programs facing budget cuts to regional blues societies that preserve and promote the artform.

Ground Game Marketing: Music Ambassador Program

In addition, Three Chord is proud of its Musical Ambassadorship program which financially supports leading regional artists across genres. Every time these ambassadors promote Three Chord while performing be it product placement or social media shoutouts, they get paid by the company.

We use a proprietary management app that allows our ambassadors to immediately upload their activities and get paid sometimes within an hour of the event, which boosts what they can make per gig while powerfully plugging the brand. When your favorite local artists asks you in the audience to support their music by supporting Three Chord, immediate sales are seen. Our plan is to recruit 400 Musical Ambassadors over 5 years, which may produce as many as 20,000 Three Chord branded performances each able to generate on premise and off premise sales.

Neil and his wife, Pat Benatar, were recently inducted into the Rock & Roll Hall of Fame, which electrified fans and generated significant buzz for Three Chord.

Neil and Pat continue to reach their fans through an extensive summer concert tour of nearly 50 shows where Three Chord is heavily promoted at every performance venue, and linked to tie-ins to other local promotional events. These drive immediate sales during concerts and immediately after in that city. We expect these annual tours to continue boosting sales and awareness and are in discussions for international concerts to launch an exports strategy.

Neil and Pat recently produced a new Broadway-style musical in late 2022 called Invincible, which masterfully weaved together their repertoire from their two multi-platinum albums, five platinum albums, and 15 Billboard Top 40 singles into a modern Romeo and Juliet love story. Three Chord was featured during the show run and covered extensively by the media. If the musical is taken on the road, Three Chord will be integrated into its marketing and sold on premise.
