If you're like me, when looking at a profile and it shows the person is a second level connection, you want to see who it is you have in common. After all, shared connections not only gives context but it also can serve to be an important point to bring up in an introduction. But LinkedIn feels it is no longer important to show us who the connections are, just that one or perhaps 10 exist. Who knows who they are? LinkedIn knows—but you won't. No ...see more

Fundraise Up

Jun 2017 – Present · 1 yr 4 mos

Greater New York City Area

Fundraise Up empowers non-profits to raise donations by supplying them with a powerful AI-powered donor-centric widget that removes friction from the donation process.

It significantly decreases the donation abandon rate which is extremely high currently in the nonprofit sector. More donor conversions mean more revenue for nonprofits to do good work in the world.

 I am co-founder and creative director for Campus On Fire. We build custom peer-to-peer marketplaces. We do it well and we do it fast. We are able to go to market approximately 75% faster than a traditional custom build without compromising quality by leveraging vetted, shared components and libraries. This allows us to cut development time and cost ... See more
