We make the most amazing towels that actually keep you clean.

Firstly, feel free to check out our (clickable link -->) investor deck.

We learned that towels are the perfect breeding ground for bacteria...

The longer you go without washing your towel, the worse the problem becomes..

Consumers want healthier products without compromising...

Silver Fiber Technology allows for healthier towels...

Healthy is important, but so are soft, plush, and amazing craftsmanship. So we went to Portugal...

Now we're getting ready to execute..

Aces stands for amazing product experiences, purposeful brand, an enjoyable shopping experience, disruptive aesthetic, and white glove customer service. We see an opportunity to disrupt the towel category by offering better products and having a differentiated brand and merchandising strategy. The various towel categories (bath, kitchen, beach, fitness, etc) give us the opportunity to drive customer repeatability and tell a really compelling brand and product story. Thank you for taking the time to check us out. Please reach out with any question.
