Dear Friends and Fans of Asarasi Sparkling Tree Water. Due to our continued growth, we are now raising a round of growth capital via the SEC's REG CF Program. As it takes a community to build a brand, I wanted to democratize the investment opportunity to anyone that is interested in participating and we have set the minimum required investment in Asarasi at $100. So far, in short order, we have $71.5K committed and growing. If you are interested in investing in Asarasi, and would like to learn more about what we are up to and our growth trajectory, check out the link provided below to dive into the details of the business. I look forward to hearing from you and to having you involved with Asarasi! We are offering this to friends and fans first, so don't miss out!
