VP Clients and Supply at NUVIAD

July 31, 2009, Amir worked with Doron in the same group

I have been working with Amir Lavi since November 2007 as a business developer For SortFix.com. Amir is a natural leader, quick thinker and full of innovation. All these reasons lead Amir to succeed in running his own company while maintaining a calm and friendly work atmosphere. I enjoyed working with Amir on previous projects and still do on current ones.
