THE COMPANY AND ITS BUSINESS

The company's business

Description of Business

Boku International, Inc produces, and markets organic superfood products under the BōKU® brand. Boku is an established brand with a proven track record benefiting from over a million consumer impressions. More than a product, BōKU® is a Lifestyle!

Development Stage: Boku International, Inc currently produces and markets Organic Superfood Products. Boku is an established brand with existing customers and we currently sell our products online at bokusuperfoods.com.

We embody three key elements that define and establish why BōKU® is so special and unique in the industry:

1. AUTHENTICITY: We're not in the superfood industry because it's trendy. We discovered superfoods nearly 25 years ago through an authentic, transformative experience in a quest to help our child
2. QUALITY: BōKU® has forged direct relationships over 10 years, with best in class superfood farmers supplying the most pristine ingredients on earth
3. CONSCIOUSNESS: We maintain a high level of consciousness and teachability dedicated to sharing what we learn, through social outreach and unprecedented customer experiences

Sales, Supply Chain, & Customer Base

The genesis of BōKU® in 2007 embodied our vision to create the world's greatest superfood. Our first commercial sales began with an astoundingly favorable editorial review on NaturalNews.com, a leading consumer information source for natural health and wellness readers. This resulted in us being awarded the first ever - Editor's Choice Best Superfood Award.

We have spent more than a decade sourcing the finest organic ingredients from the most pristine, mineral rich soils on earth. We shake the hands that farm the land - forging deep and trusting relationships directly with the producers of these precious, rare earth superfoods. Raw materials that are staples in our business are purchased worldwide from numerous suppliers. In general, these materials are available from multiple sources. We currently distribute our product in the USA and are looking into other potential markets.

We organically grew to our initial 15,000 customers through word-of-mouth and industry recognition, informing and educating a broad range of consumers through blogs, social media, and passionate brand ambassadors. Finally in 2015, we launched on a national television network garnering millions of brand impressions over nearly 200 hours of live broadcast, leading to an additional 55,000 active customers purchasing and using BōKU® Superfood products.

We market and sell our products direct-to-consumers through our website, BokuSuperfood.com, and through our store on Amazon. We have an existing customer base which signs up for monthly subscriptions of our products, as well as returns on a regular basis to our website. We currently distribute our product primarily in North America and are looking into other potential markets.

Competition

There is an untapped and growing market for organic superfood products, with more and more consumers realizing that what they put in their body has a direct effect on their well-being. Since the founding of Boku over 10 years ago, there have been a number of other companies launching into the superfood space. We see this as validation of the market, and the competition as a positive thing as more and more consumers are discovering and learning about the importance of diet and good health. We believe that we have pioneered the movement in our category and will continue to lead the marketplace with new and innovative products. Competition in the superfood space includes Amazing Grass, Aloha, and Vega.

- Organic food sales in the U.S. totaled around $43B in 2016, with almost 30% in the direct-to-consumer category. This is an increase of $3.3B (8.4%) over prior year, marking the first time the organic food market has broken through the $40-billion mark. Following Amazon's recent acquisition of Whole Foods, this trend is expected to continue.* Source: Statista, Mintel, and Nutrition Business

RISK FACTORS

These are the principal risks that related to the company and its business:

- Governmental Regulations Our ability to sell products is dependent on the outside government regulation such as the FDA (Food and Drug Administration), FTC (Federal Trade Commission) and other relevant government laws and regulations. The laws and regulations concerning the selling of Boku's Superfood product may be subject to change and if they do then the selling of our products may no longer be in the best interest of the Company. At such point the Company may no longer want to sell a certain product and therefore your investment in the Company may be affected.
- Uncertain Risk An investment in the Company (also referred to as “we”, “us”, “our”, or “Company”) involves a high degree of risk and should only be considered by those who can afford the loss of their entire investment. Furthermore, the purchase of any of the company’s securities should only be undertaken by persons whose financial resources are sufficient to enable them to indefinitely retain an illiquid investment. Each investor in the Company should consider all of the information provided to such potential investor regarding the Company as well as the following risk factors, in addition to the other information listed in the Company’s Form C. The following risk factors are not intended, and shall not be deemed to be, a complete description of the commercial and other risks inherent in the investment in the Company.
- Business Projections There can be no assurance that the company will meet our projections. There can be no assurance that the company will be able to find sufficient demand for our product, that people think it’s a better option than a competing product, or that we will able to provide the service at a level that allows the company to make a profit and still attract business.
- Undercapitalization We anticipate needing access to credit in order to support our working capital requirements as we grow. Although interest rates are low, it is still a difficult environment for obtaining credit on favorable terms. If we cannot obtain credit when we need it, we could be forced to raise additional equity capital, modify our growth plans, or take some other action. Issuing more equity may require bringing on additional investors. Securing these additional investors could require pricing our equity below its current price. If so, your investment could lose value as a result of this additional dilution. In addition, even if the equity is not priced lower, your ownership percentage would be decreased with the addition of more investors. If we are unable to find additional investors willing to provide capital, then it is possible that we will choose to cease our sales activity. In that case, the only asset remaining to generate a return on your investment could be our intellectual property. Even if we are not forced to cease our sales activity, the unavailability of credit could result in the Company performing below expectations, which could adversely impact the value of your investment.

- Transfer Rights Any stock purchased through this crowdfunding campaign is subject to SEC limitations of transfer. This means that the stock that you purchase cannot be resold for a period of one year. The exception to this rule is if you are transferring the stock back to the Company, to an “accredited investor,” as part of an offering registered with the Commission, to a member of your family, trust created for the benefit of your family, or in connection with your death or divorce.
- Key Personnel To be successful, the Company requires capable people to run its day to day operations. As the Company grows, it will need to attract and hire additional employees in sales, marketing, design, development, operations, finance, legal, human resources and other areas. Depending on the economic environment and the Company’s performance, we may not be able to locate or attract qualified individuals for such positions when we need them. We may also make hiring mistakes, which can be costly in terms of resources spent in recruiting, hiring and investing in the incorrect individual and in the time delay in locating the right employee fit. If we are unable to attract, hire and retain the right talent or make too many hiring mistakes, it is likely our business will suffer from not having the right employees in the right positions at the right time. This would likely adversely impact the value of your investment.
- Valuation The valuation for the offering was established by the company. Unlike listed companies that are valued publicly through market-driven stock prices, the valuation of private companies, especially startups, is difficult to assess and you may risk overpaying for your investment. You should be prepared to hold this investment for several years or longer. For the 12 months following your investment there will be restrictions on how you can resell the securities you receive. More importantly, there is no established market for these securities and there may never be one. As a result, if you decide to sell these securities in the future, you may not be able to find a buyer. The Company may be acquired by an existing player in the industry. However, that may never happen or it may happen at a price that results in you losing money on this investment.
- Management Discretion Our success will be substantially dependent upon the discretion and judgment of our management team with respect to the application and allocation of the proceeds of this Offering. The use of proceeds described below is an estimate based on our current business plan. We, however, may find it necessary or advisable to re-allocate portions of the net proceeds reserved for one category to another, and we will have broad discretion in doing so.

THE COMPANY SHALL NOT REGISTER OR OTHERWISE RECOGNIZE OR GIVE EFFECT TO ANY PURPORTED TRANSFER OF SHARES OF STOCK THAT DOES NOT COMPLY WITH THE COMPANY'S BYLAWS.

The corporation shall take all such actions as are practicable to cause the certificates representing, and notices of issuance with respect to, shares that are subject to the restrictions on transfer set forth in this Section to contain the foregoing legend.

What it means to be a Minority Holder

As a minority holder of common shares, you will have limited ability, if all, to influence our policies or any other corporate matter, including the election of directors, changes to the Company's governance documents, additional issuances of securities, company repurchases of securities, a sale of the Company or of assets of the Company, or transactions with related parties.

Dilution

Investors should understand the potential for dilution. Each Investor's stake in the Company, could be diluted due to the Company issuing additional shares. In other words, when the Company issues more shares, the percentage of the Company that you own will decrease, even though the value of the Company may increase. You will own a smaller piece of a larger company. This increases in number of shares outstanding could result from a stock offering (such as an initial public offering, another crowdfunding round, a venture capital round or angel investment), employees exercising stock options, or by conversion of certain instruments (e.g., convertible notes, preferred shares or warrants) into stock.

If we decide to issue more shares, an Investor could experience value dilution, with each share being worth less than before, and control dilution, with the total percentage an investor owns being less than before. There may also be earnings dilution, with a reduction in the amount earned per share.

If you are making an investment expecting to own a certain percentage of the Company or expecting each share to hold a certain amount of value, it is important to realize how the value of those shares can decrease by actions taken by the Company. Dilution can make drastic changes to the value of each share, ownership percentage, voting control, and earnings per share.

Transferability of securities

For a year, the securities can only be resold:

- In an IPO;
- To the company;
- To an accredited investor; and
- To a member of the family of the purchaser or the equivalent, to a trust controlled by the purchaser, to a trust created for the benefit of a member of the family of the purchaser or the equivalent, or in connection with the death or divorce of the purchaser or other similar circumstance.

FINANCIAL STATEMENTS AND FINANCIAL CONDITION; MATERIAL INDEBTEDNESS

Financial Statements

Our financial statements can be found attached to this document. The financial review covers the period ending in 2017-12-31.

Financial Condition

Results of Operation

For the Years Ended December 31, 2017 and December 31, 2016

Revenue. Total revenue for the year ended December 31, 2017 was $1,673,973 compared to $2,767,338 for the year ended December 31, 2016. The decrease in revenue of $1,093,365 is attributable to the transition out of the Evine television sales relationship and reduced hours of live television sales during the year.

Operating Expenses. Operating expenses for the year ended December 31, 2017 were $1,331,658 compared to $1,987,685 for the year ended December 31, 2016. The decrease in operating expenses is attributable to a reduction of overhead and expenses related to transitioning out of the Evine relationship, decrease in employee count, reduced marketing expense, reduced salary and wages, professional fees, and the associated reduction in sales and marketing activities.

Net Loss. Net loss year for the year ended December 31, 2017 was $59,975 compared to a loss of $361,044 for the year ended December 31, 2016. This reduction in net loss is due to the decrease in costs, expenses, and overhead related to the Evine relationship and associated lower employee count, professional fees, and sales and marketing activities. Currently operating costs exceed revenue due to the renewed focus on direct-to-consumer sales and marketing, and the associated increase in marketing spend in social media, influencer marketing, search engine marketing and optimization, as well as the revamp of our digital and ecommerce platforms. We cannot assure when or if revenue will exceed operating costs.

Financial Milestones

The company has been in operation for over 10 years, and has seen consistent product sales through word-of-mouth for most of these years. In 2015 the company made a push into the television shopping channel with Evine and saw immediate consumer interest and growth of sales. The company terminated the Evine relationship in 2017 due to a challenging cost structure and made the decision to return to the direct-to-consumer model. This has resulted in a return to a base annual revenue in 2018 projected at just under $1 million, with the annual COG's and operating expenses projected at approximately $1.2 million.

The company is now positioned to launch a major consumer digital marketing program through social marketing, influencer marketing, as well as a push into Amazon. This initiative should generate continued growth and marketing of the brand, but will generate net income losses over the next couple of years as a result.

Liquidity and Capital Resources

The company plans to use the proceeds from this offering to execute its business and marketing plan. The company is currently generating operating losses and requires the continued infusion of new capital to continue business operations. Assuming the company is successful in this offering at the minimum level, this will result in adequate capital through the end of 2018 and we will seek to continue raising capital under crowdfunding offerings, equity, or debt issuances. In the event that the company is successful in this offering at the maximum level, we believe that we will have enough capital to operate and grow the business to profitability and beyond.

The proceeds from crowdfunding offering will be used right away to invest in marketing to grow our sales and gain more market shares in our industry. If we meet our maximum target, the proceeds can allow us to operate for a couple of years as our gross revenues have been above 1 million for the past 2 years. We've also made major business investments in assets in 2017 and 2018 that will start generating return on investment in the upcoming years. We've simultaneously reduced our cost of goods sold and expenses from 2016 to 2017. Therefore, the proceeds from the offerings will be used strategically to increase our sales and inventories to meet the expected increased in demand.

Other sources of funding we've relied on in the past are accounts payable to vendors, due to shareholder, credit cards and business line of credit. However, the business line of credit was paid off in 2017, leading to a decrease in interest .

Indebtedness

The company has an outstanding promissory note for $307,000 owed to Promethean Equity LLC. The note bears interest of 10% per year, accrued monthly in arrears, with the balance due at maturity on September 17, 2019. The company also has an outstanding note to one of its existing shareholders, Lynn Rolle, for $121,639. The note bears cash interest of 8% per year, accrued monthly, with the balance due and payable on December 31, 2019.

Valuation

$5,351,470.00

We have not undertaken any efforts to produce a valuation of the Company. The price of the notes merely reflects the opinion of the board as to what would be fair market value. The Company has based this opinion on the strength of its intellectual property, sales history and the experience of the management team. The Company has also compared the value of similarly situated competitors such as Amazing Grass, Aloha, and Vega and believes that the valuation is correct to the best of their abilities.

R&D & Production: Test new product lines and ramp up production

NOTE 1 – NATURE OF OPERATIONS

Boku International, Inc was formed on 09/29/14 (“Inception”) in the State of CA. The financial statements of Boku International, Inc (which may be referred to as the “Company”, “we,” “us,” or “our”) are prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America (“U.S. GAAP”). The Company’s headquarters are located in Ojai, California.

Boku International, Inc produces, and markets organic superfood products under the Boku brand. Boku is an established brand with a proven track record benefiting from millions of consumer impressions. More than a product, Boku is a Lifestyle! We embody three key elements that define and establish why Boku is so special and unique in the industry: Authenticity: We’re not in the superfood industry because it’s trendy. We discovered superfoods nearly 25 years ago through an authentic, transformative experience in a quest to help our child. Quality: Boku has forged direct relationships over 12 years, with best in class superfood farmers supplying the most pristine ingredients on earth. Consciousness: We maintain a high level of consciousness and teachability dedicated to sharing what we learn, through social outreach and unprecedented customer experiences

NOTE 2 – SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with U.S. GAAP requires management to make certain estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities, and the reported amount of expenses during the reporting periods. Actual results could materially differ from these estimates. It is reasonably possible that changes in estimates will occur in the near term.

Fair Value of Financial Instruments

Fair value is defined as the exchange price that would be received for an asset or paid to transfer a liability (an exit price) in the principal or most advantageous market for the asset or liability in an orderly transaction between market participants as of the measurement date. Applicable accounting guidance provides an established hierarchy for inputs used in measuring fair value that maximizes the use of observable inputs and minimizes the use of unobservable inputs by requiring that the most observable inputs be used when available. Observable inputs are inputs that market participants would use in valuing the asset or liability and are developed based on market data obtained from sources independent of the Company. Unobservable inputs are inputs that reflect the Company’s assumptions about the factors that market participants would use in valuing the asset or liability. There are three levels of inputs that may be used to measure fair value:

Level 1 - Observable inputs that reflect quoted prices (unadjusted) for identical assets or liabilities in active markets.

Level 2 - Include other inputs that are directly or indirectly observable in the marketplace.

Level 3 - Unobservable inputs which are supported by little or no market activity.

The fair value hierarchy also requires an entity to maximize the use of observable inputs and minimize the use of unobservable inputs when measuring fair value.

Fair-value estimates discussed herein are based upon certain market assumptions and pertinent information available to management as of December 31, 2017 and 2016. The respective carrying value of certain onbalance-sheet financial instruments approximated their fair values.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

For purpose of the statement of cash flows, the Company considers all highly liquid debt instruments purchased with an original maturity of three months or less to be cash equivalents.

Revenue Recognition

The Company will recognize revenues from the marketing and selling of our products direct-to-consumers through our website, BokuSuperfood.com, and through our store on Amazon. We have an existing customer base which signs up for monthly subscriptions of our products, as well as returns on a regular basis to our website. We currently distribute our product primarily in North America and are looking into other potential markets. When (a) persuasive evidence that an agreement exists; (b) the service has been performed; (c) the prices are fixed and determinable and not subject to refund or adjustment; and (d) collection of the amounts due is reasonably assured.

Income Taxes

The Company applies ASC 740 Income Taxes ("ASC 740"). Deferred income taxes are recognized for the tax consequences in future years of differences between the tax bases of assets and liabilities and their financial statement reported amounts at each period end, based on enacted tax laws and statutory tax rates applicable to the periods in which the differences are expected to affect taxable income. Valuation allowances are established, when necessary, to reduce deferred tax assets to the amount expected to be realized. The provision for income taxes represents the tax expense for the period, if any and the change during the period in deferred tax assets and liabilities.

ASC 740 also provides criteria for the recognition, measurement, presentation and disclosure of uncertain tax positions. A tax benefit from an uncertain position is recognized only if it is "more likely than not" that the position is sustainable upon examination by the relevant taxing authority based on its technical merit.

The Company is subject to tax in the United States ("U.S.") and files tax returns in the U.S. Federal jurisdiction and CA state jurisdiction. The Company is subject to U.S. Federal, state and local income tax examinations by tax authorities for the last 3 years. The Company currently is not under examination by any tax authority.

Concentration of Credit Risk

The Company maintains its cash with a major financial institution located in the United States of America which it believes to be creditworthy. Balances are insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation up to $250,000. At times, the Company may maintain balances in excess of the federally insured limits.

Change Your Life

Invest in BōkU

We are BōkU, "A True Family-Owned Superfood Company." For over 10 years, we have been helping people all around the globe live healthier, more fulfilling lives.

In a world full of toxins, pesticides, and other nasty things, it's sometimes hard for us to recognize the toll our environment takes on our bodies. Complications such as cancer, diabetes, obesity and more have been linked directly to what we eat. Trans fats, hydrogenated this and that, chemicals we can't even pronounce are unfortunately a large part of many people's diets...

BōkU has set out to change that. Family is the backbone of our DNA, so caring for the greater good comes easily to us. We have made great-tasting, affordable products so everyone has an opportunity to live a better life.

We have had opportunities to cash out on BōkU in the past, but we have always been asked to compromise. Because of this, we continue to politely refuse. We want to be aligned with people who share our passion for wellbeing, people who look out for others like family.

We are now looking for investors who want to join our family and help us grow. We want investors who share our same values and goals. Do you want to help BōkU reach and make a positive difference for as many people as we can?

Our Story

23 years ago, like many children, our son Reno Jr. began struggling with behavioral problems at school. The issues started off small. First, we just received concerned phone calls home. But soon, the behavioral problems began to impede his learning and ability to focus.

We were asked to come in to meet with the teacher and a medical doctor to help Reno Jr. through the issue. While in the meeting, without even looking up at us, the doctor began writing a prescription for Ritalin. While we understood the need to help our son, we are also a family with a rich history of farming and natural, holistic approaches to life. We didn't want to just give him drugs to treat symptoms, we wanted to find healthier, more natural solutions. So that's exactly what we did. We politely declined and set off on our quest for an alternative cure.

While consulting a naturopathic doctor, we were clued in to a superfood in California that we decided to try with Reno Jr. When it arrived, it smelled like fish food and didn't taste much better.

We encouraged Reno Jr. to stick with the new superfood regimen by taking it ourselves as well. I began using it before hikes—I felt so good that I would run to the top of a spot, wait for everyone to catch up, and then run to the next spot. I felt like I was a teenager again running circles around everyone.

The idea for BökU name actually came to my wife Lynn in her sleep. Signs like this along the way constantly reminded us that we were on the right path and had to share what we discovered with the world. Since then, we believe millions of people have been exposed to the power of BökU superfoods. And family is the fabric of BökU—when you become one of our customers, you become part of our family.

Problems

The United States is the 10th unhealthiest country in the world and is ninth highest in obesity rate with 35% of the country being classified as dangerously overweight. 1 in 5 adults suffer from a mental health condition.

It starts at the top; there are 1 billion pounds of pesticides applied to U.S. farms every year. 70% of our diets are processed foods and there can be up to 10,000 toxic chemical additives in these processed foods.

We've identified what we believe to be several habits and issues, both individual lifestyle and societal that lead to unhealthy living habits in this country:

- Poor access to quality organic food
- Adulteration of food supply/poor agricultural practices
- Uneducated consumers
- Rate of chronic disease at all time historical highs
- Obesity rates skyrocketing
- Diminished quality of life
- Conventional medicine & health management failing

Solution

Reno Rolle Sr. I'm Reno Rolle from Boku Superfoods- America's #1 Family-Owned superfood company. Lynn and I discovered Superfoods nearly 23 years ago in an attempt to help our son who was diagnosed with a focus problem, like so many other kids his age. We were called in to meet with the principal of the school and there was a doctor present. He was actually hunched over and ready to write a prescription for a drug. Boku Superfood addressed and solved so many problems. Poor access to high quality organic food- many people simply don't have access to these amazing superfoods. The adulteration of our food supply and agricultural practices. Uneducated and unaware consumers simply aren't aware of what's happening to their food. The rate of chronic disease is at an all time, historical high. Obesity rates are skyrocketing. This has lead to a diminished quality of life. It's a fact- contemporary health medicine and management is failing. Boku Superfood ingredients are adaptogenic and mood elevating. So we provide organic nutrition you can actually feel.

Lacey Clemens: I love working at Boku. I love the people that I work for; I love the people that I work with. I believe in the product- I take it every day. And it's definitely changed my life.

Dustin Baker: My name is Dustin Baker. I oversee production manufacturing at Boku Superfoods and I make the best superfood in the world.

Reno Sr: The primary range of boku products is what we call our trifecta. Boku Superfood- your foundation. This is vitamins, minerals, antioxidants. THIS is how you should start every single day. One tablespoon of Boku Superfood contains more nutrition than the average person will normally consume in several days. Next we follow up with Boku Super Protein- the building block of life. No whey, no soy, no gluten, no dairy, no fillers of any kind. Pure organic protein- a full amino acid profile in your cells within minutes. Next rounding out the trifecta is Boku Super Fuel. THIS is the product people are going crazy for because it was originally created for elite endurance athletes. But now we are figuring out that everyone is an athlete- competing in the sport of life. And we all want to win!

Lynn Rolle: Coming to a time where I could take money in from many different people- it really came back to my heart and my soul of who I really want to be part of my company. And I like to come back to YOU my customer- to have you be a part of my dream, our dream together.

Reno Jr: So this is where our production unit is gonna go. As you can see we have our boards installed and the sinks. And we are just kind of waiting to get the rest of it done. We think its a blank slate- there is a lot of potential.

Reno Sr: The proven key to weight loss and proper weight management is the same: Superfood nutrition. Boku is an established brand with a proven track record of 12 years. We have educated 70k+ customers over our 12 years of disciplined brand growth and development. We have an average lifetime value of nearly $300 per customer. It's almost hard to image that in our 12 year history, we have customers who have not missed a shipment.

Ryann Rolle-Baker: There's just so many things that we have going on and I mean everyone always asks us “can we give this to our pets”, so we’ve got that, I mean, there’s a lot of things in the mix and that’s what’s most exciting.

Lynn: One of my true passions, is pets. Rasta, was 15 years old, a giant schnauzer and I would give him superfood everyday and I really really noticed a difference in him. I’ve given out this superfood for pets to other people, and again, I get more notes- thank you notes. From people who have experienced great results in their animals.

Reno Sr. It was superfoods that transformed Reno JR and impacted us in such a way that it ignited a passion for us to learn more, do more and set us on this path of discovery which lead us here, 12 years later. Boku Superfood is now feeding tens of thousands of people in 65 countries and we couldn’t be more honored. Through Start Engine we are so excited because we have an opportunity to share with you- our customers- people who are like-minded and understand our passion and commitment to superfoods. Our commitment to mother nature and preserving this beautiful planet of ours. It’s an incredible honor to reach out to you and give you the opportunity to take ownership in our company. We open up our family business to you- and hope that you’ll take advantage of this opportunity to invest and become an owner of Boku as we create a revolution and grow this business to positively impact people, animals, and the planet through every step in everything we do.

I’ve tested over a thousand foods and proteins in this laboratory where we can test parts per billion concentrations of mercury, lead, cadmium and arsenic and Boku Superfood is one of the cleanest that I have ever seen. That’s why I eat it myself, I recommend it to friends and neighbors. It’s one of the best superfoods i’ve ever seen in the marketplace. What this shows is that the Boku Superfood company is very detailed about their ingredients sourcing and they are meticulous about their formulation making sure that Boku Superfood is incredibly clean at the same time that it is nutritious and delicious.

Video #3 (Maria Roth)

I love Boku! I believe in it so much because of what it has done for my family. My daughter and son take it, and my husband has even referred to it as his ‘fountain of life’. For me personally, I have a very stressful job. And I know I need quality nutrition. That’s where Boku comes in. It gives me energy, focus, and it lifts me up.

Video #4 (Joe Desena)

First thing I did was fly out to California, meet the owners, and find out if their philosophy was the same as ours. It was. Check. Second thing I did was I wanted to go see the suppliers. Were they getting the best of the best ingredients no matter what the cost was , into their products? They were. Check. Third thing I did was I spent three years feeding it to my children and my wife. We stopped getting sick, we started feeling healthier. I take Boku superfood because I want an edge. I’ve been in races that are eight or ten days or twelve days long. I’ve lost 32 pounds over eight days. I know what it’s like to not have nutrients and be really hungry, really thirsty, and really broken. For me I want to fuel my body. You only get one chance at this. At the end of life you don’t get to put another quarter in and replay things. I’ve got one shot, I want to be healthy, and I'm taking superfoods. I had the fortune and misfortune of growing up with a mother who is extremely strict on diet and exercise. She was vegan before anybody knew what it was here in America. She was teaching yoga, she was meditating, and she taught my sister and I over the years to be really strict with our food. Now sure I go off track like everybody else, but it's hard to find great food. Even if you have the best intentions. In everyday life it's just not available. I'm not a big believer in all kinds of supplements, I don't think your kitchen should be filled with pills and powders and things, but I do think we should all give ourselves a little edge, a little leg up, and make sure we are getting at least the basic nutrients the human body needs. And I've found over testing three years of Boku products on my family, that it works! And when I find something that works and its healthy, and it has the same exact philosophy that I have or my mother had, I'm sticking with it.

STARTENGINE SUBSCRIPTION PROCESS (Exhibit E)

Platform Compensation

- As compensation for the services provided by StartEngine Capital, the issuer is required to pay to StartEngine Capital a fee consisting of a 6-8% (six to eight percent) commission based on the dollar amount of securities sold in the Offering and paid upon disbursement of funds from escrow at the time of a closing. The commission is paid in cash and in securities of the Issuer identical to those offered to the public in the Offering at the sole discretion of StartEngine Capital. Additionally, the issuer must reimburse certain expenses related to the Offering. The securities issued to StartEngine Capital, if any, will be of the same class and have the same terms, conditions and rights as the securities being offered and sold by the issuer on StartEngine Capital's website.

Information Regarding Length of Time of Offering

- Investment Cancellations: Investors will have up to 48 hours prior to the end of the offering period to change their minds and cancel their investment commitments for any reason. Once within 48 hours of ending, investors will not be able to cancel for any reason, even if they make a commitment during this period.
- Material Changes: Material changes to an offering include but are not limited to: A change in minimum offering amount, change in security price, change in management, material change to financial information, etc. If an issuer makes a material change to the offering terms or other information disclosed, including a change to the offering deadline, investors will be given five business days to reconfirm their investment commitment. If investors do not reconfirm, their investment will be cancelled and the funds will be returned.

Hitting The Target Goal Early & Oversubscriptions

- StartEngine Capital will notify investors by email when the target offering amount has hit 25%, 50% and 100% of the funding goal. If the issuer hits its goal early, and the minimum offering period of 21 days has been met, the issuer can create a new target deadline at least 5 business days out. Investors will be notified of the new target deadline via email and will then have the opportunity to cancel up to 48 hours before new deadline.
- Oversubscriptions: We require all issuers to accept oversubscriptions. This may not be possible if: 1) it vaults an issuer into a different category for financial statement requirements (and they do not have the requisite financial statements); or 2) they reach $1.07M in investments. In the event of an oversubscription, shares will be allocated at the discretion of the issuer.
- If the sum of the investment commitments does not equal or exceed the target offering amount at the offering deadline, no securities will be sold in the offering, investment commitments will be cancelled and committed funds will be returned.
- If a StartEngine issuer reaches its target offering amount prior to the deadline, it may conduct an initial closing of the offering early if they provide notice of the new offering deadline at least five business days prior to the new offering deadline (absent a material change that would require an extension of the offering and reconfirmation of the investment commitment). StartEngine will notify investors when the issuer meets its target offering amount. Thereafter, the issuer may conduct additional closings until the offering deadline.
