Risk Factors

RISKS RELATED TO CROWDFUNDING

A crowdfunding Investment involves risk. You should not invest any funds in this offering unless you can afford to lose your entire investment.

These securities have not be recommended or approved by any federal or state commission or regulatory authority. These securities are offered an exemption from registration; however, the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission has not made an independent determination that these securities are exempt from registration.

RISKS RELATED TO OUR BUSINESS

If our technology is not fully completed & business plan fails, you may lose your entire investment.

We will use the net proceeds of this offering to build our web application based on our business plan. If we cannot successfully build this application, execute the business plan, you will likely lose most, if not all, of your investment.

We have no operating history and limited experience.

We are new operators with limited experience in the financial payments industry. We have no sales or revenues to date, no operating history, and are unproven in marketing Esgro, Inc. services we intend to offer. You must consider the risks and uncertainties frequently encountered by early stage companies like ours and risks and uncertainties in the highly competitive payment technologies industry.

We may not be able to raise the additional funding needed to fully implement our business plan.

Additional funding may be required subsequently even if our offering is fully funded. If this is the case, we may also need additional capital in the future. The amount of additional capital needed is dependent on many factors. If additional funding would be needed but not obtained, you may lose your entire investment.

If we obtain additional equity financing, your ownership interest will be diluted.

While not currently planned, if we subsequently determine there is a need for additional financing and decide to issue additional equity securities, such issuance(s) will dilute your ownership interest in the Company.

Series and Future classes of membership interests may be senior to your future equity Interests

If the Company issues new membership interests, which it may do in its sole discretion, the new classes of membership interests may be senior to these equity Interests.

The Managers own all the voting rights

It will be very difficult for the Members to remove the management team members without their approval. The management team will have control over all aspects of operation.

Establishing partnerships is not a given

It is not a given that we will close any deals we have in our pipeline. While we do have letters of intent, we cannot control the timing or predict whether they will contract with us.

Threat of Competitors in the Market

There are well established payment processors, cash transfer apps, and contractor technology companies already out there.

Business is reliant on regulatory compliance

The financial payments space is full of regulatory compliance needs. We will need to keep up with those needs from a legal standpoint and build it into our operational planning.

Legal dispute process may cause concern

Part of our business model is to handle payments disputes similar to arbitration.

We require a partnership with a payment processor to continue

We must partner with a payment processor in order to transact funds using the blockchain, they are the only company who does this work in the industry.

Customer Financial Fraud

The payments space is a target for fraudulent activity from payor's of services who purchase goods/services then turn around to claim they didn't receive goods/services. Conversely, its not uncommon for fraudulent service companies to defraud customers out of money in promise of goods/services that are never delivered.

Hacking of technology

The fintech space is a target for data hackers. Despite our best efforts to protect our customers, we cannot control if users grant access or password keys to hackers as a result of scams.

Utilizing blockchain for sending, receiving and storing money, and key management

We are using blockchain technology which is very secure, but since blockchain requires a customer to have a private key to access the blockchain, it's feasible that the customer misplaces their keys, they cannot retrieve that key and access that blockchain, resulting in lost money for customer.

Not a publicly launched product yet

The product is still under development, and it has not publicly launched in the Apple app store or Android stores.

RISKS RELATED TO THIS OFFERING

We can use the proceeds of your subscription after the $10,000 minimum is met and before the maximum amount is raised.

We are under no obligation to raise the maximum amount before using the proceeds from this offering. If this offering does not generate at least $107,000 we may not be able to fully implement our business plan and would need to scale back our plans. A portion of the proceeds raised will go towards our use of funds detailed with this offering.

Our Manager has unlimited discretion as to the use of proceeds from this offering.

Our Managers, have discretion with regard to the use of proceeds that we will receive from this offering, both by being Managers and by virtue of having all the voting shares in the company. We cannot assure you that the Manager will apply these funds effectively.

Additionally, we cannot assure you that our use of the proceeds will be successful in generating the interest in our business model necessary to produce sufficient revenues to stay in business.

The Security Interests being offered are illiquid and not freely transferable.

The Security Interests we are offering will not be registered under the Securities Act or qualified under applicable state securities laws, and may not be resold unless registered (and qualified) or an exemption from registration (and qualification) is available. There is no public market for the interests and we do not expect that any such market will develop. In addition, there are restrictions on the transferability of the interests pursuant to the terms of the Operating Agreement. If you invest in the Security Interests, you should expect to hold the shares for an indefinite period of time.

The offering price may not accurately reflect the value of the Security Interests.

The pricing of the Security Interests which we are offering was determined subjectively. The pricing is not based on any conventional pricing criteria such as the liquidation value of the Membership Interests or a multiple of net earnings per Unit. We have not obtained any third party valuations of the Company or Security Interests.

The rights of the Security Interests in this offering differ in various respects from the other classes of Membership Interests, including that these Security Interests have no voting rights.

The Company currently has two classes of membership interests outstanding. Voting Common Interests, and Non-Voting Future Equity Shares, pursuant to this offering. The Voting Common Interests are substantially similar to the common stock of a corporation in that the holders of the Voting Common Interests will only receive a return on their investment after all creditors of the Company have been paid and non-voting common Interests have also been paid.

The Voting Common Interests have “drag-along” rights and can force all Director interests to sell their respective Interests in the event of a merger or an asset sale.

A Majority of Voting Common Interests may elect to sell all of the Company’s Member Interests to a third party. In such an instance, a Majority of the Voting Common Interests is permitted to force the other Members, including the all other Members, to sell their Interests on the same terms as the Voting Common Member Interests are being sold.

The Manager has the right to transfer Interests to others without offering those Interests to be purchased by other Members.

Managers may transfer a portion of their Voting Common Interests that they currently hold, at their discretion, without offering other Members the right to purchase said Interests. The intent is for the Managers to use these Interests to compensate employees or future officers in exchange for services.

These Security interests being Offered under Reg CF are different from the Reg D 506C offering of a different class of shares

The company intends to dilute as much as 19.1% of this business using both the Reg CF up to $107,000 pursuant to this offering or up to $535,000 raised under a Reg D 506C Convertible note. The Reg D 506C offering is a convertible debt note and is only available for qualified accredited investors, and has different terms including a 30% discount for investors +$25K, and a 20% discount for investors +$10K. Those investors will have different purchase agreement terms from this Reg CF offering.

The Offering

Purpose

Esgro, Inc. plans to use the proceeds from the maximum offering to build out the application, fund marketing, business development activities and wages. The company intends to raise up to $107,000 pursuant to this Reg CF offering amongst non-accredited investors.

Under a separate Reg D 506C offering, the company intends to raise up to $535,000 as a convertible debt note. Because it is a Reg D 506C offering, that separate offering is only available for qualified accredited investors. As a result, the terms and rights of investors will be different from those in this offering.

Investors may Cancel an investment commitment at any time until 48 hours prior to the deadline specified in their Form C.

Wunderfund will notify investors when the funding goal amount has been met.

If Esgro, Inc. reaches the Oversubscription limit prior to the deadline specified in their Form C, it may close the offering early if it provides notice about the new offering deadline at least five business days prior to such new offering deadline (absent a material change that would require an extension of the offering and reconfirmation of the investment commitment).

If an investor does not cancel an investment before the 48-hour period to the offering deadline, the funds will be released to the issuer upon closing of the offering and the investor will receive securities in exchange for his or her investment.

If an investor does not reconfirm his or her investment commitment after a material change is made to the offering, the investor's investment commitment will be cancelled and the committed funds will be returned.

The offering will be completed upon transfer of funds from the Escrow Agent to Esgro, Inc. . At that time Shares to be acquired in conjunction with the receipt of the corresponding funds under the Subscription Agreement, will be registered in the name of the corresponding investor. The shares acquired by investors pursuant to this Regulation Crowdfunding offering are uncertified. Once an uncertified share is registered in an investor's name by Esgro, Inc., it is deemed delivered under the Uniform Commercial Code. Investors will be provided with written confirmation of such delivery following the closing of the transaction.

Oversubscription will be allocated first based upon size of the investment, with larger investments receiving priority over smaller investments, and then, with regard to the minimum sized investments, on a first come-first served basis.

If the sum of the investment commitments does not equal or exceed the target offering amount at the offering deadline, no securities will be sold in the offering, investment commitments will be cancelled and committed funds will be returned to investors, less the non-refundable processing fee.

If Esgro, Inc. reaches their funding goal prior to the campaign close date, then we, the company, may conduct multiple closings of escrow. If we provide notice about the new offering deadline to the investors, then the affected investors will have at least five business days to cancel their investment. This is absent of a material change that would require an extension of the offering, and reconfirmation of investment commitment from all investors. The first investments drawn down on will be the largest investments, and then for all investments of the same size drawn down on, it will be on a first come first serve basis similar to the terms of how oversubscription will be dealt.

In other words, when the Company issues more shares, the percentage of the Company that an investor participating in this Regulation Crowdfunding offering will own will decrease, even though the value of Esgro, Inc. may increase. Such investors will own a smaller share of the aggregate outstanding capital stock of Esgro, Inc.

Such increases in number of shares of Esgro, Inc. capital stock outstanding could be the result of another stock offering, employee restricted stock grants, employees exercising stock options, or conversion of certain instruments (e.g., convertible notes, preferred shares or warrants) into shares of the capital stock of Esgro, Inc. If Esgro, Inc. issues more shares, an investor could experience value dilution, with each share being worth less than before, and control dilution, with the total percentage an investor owns being less than before. There may also be earnings dilution, with a reduction in the amount earned per share if newly authorized and issued securities included stated dividend provisions.

Importantly, Esgro, Inc. may issue preferred shares in the future that include liquidation preferences to which the Non-Voting Common Stock is subordinated.
