REAL-TIME FEEDBACK

from students, which can tell professors

WHAT'S WORKING, WHAT ISN'T.

PROBLEM

#1

Online education platforms are outclassing traditional higher education in plain sight of students who comfortably use YouTube and other online tools to acquire skills and credentials.

SOLUTION

Help higher ed “catch up”

- ▷ Provide better tools than online competition
- ▷ Enable interaction with students inside the content

STORY #1: STUDENTS "SPEAK UP" a problem with timing...

Weekly Planner

Week 1	Cover Material
Week 2	Assign Homework
Week 3	Homework Due
Week 4	Evaluate Homework
Week 5
Week 6
Week 7
Week 8	Midterm

NET RESULT

Finding out about Week 1
Issues in Week 4 is almost too late

Need to get feedback from students

IMMEDIATELY

PROBLEM #2

Lecturers and professors feel underpaid and colleges and universities feel helpless to solve the problem while facing ongoing budgetary pressure.

S OLUTION

Share revenue with faculty and admin by self-publishing them and giving them stores.
