Volunteer experience

Supporter & Volunteer
Big Brothers Big Sisters of America
2003 – Present · 17 yrs
Children

Mr. Wood's first experience with reaching out to underprivileged youth was at a boys home in Jacksonville, Florida when he met a little boy named Detroit Garrett. The encounter stayed with him for the rest of his life. He first volunteered with Big Brothers Big Sisters at a hot-air balloon show in 2003 and was touched by the spirit of the organization. He has since returned to donate a portion of his time to the effort that no child go without a mentor or moral compass to guide them in to adulthood.

Supporter & Volunteer
Wounded Warrior Project
Feb 2014 – Present · 6 yrs 10 mos

Mr. Wood is a supporter & volunteer for the Jacksonville branch Wounded Warrior Project and is dedicated to their mission: "To foster the most successful, well-adjusted generation of wounded service members in our nation's history."

An ardent supporter of our Nation's Military, Mr. Wood believes we owe each Veteran a debt of gratitude and contribution towards their eventual safe return and welcoming home. When not donating monetarily, he gives a portion of his time to efforts fostering mission success for the project.
