I'm a 25-year fashion industry veteran and wellness visionary. A graduate of the Fashion Institute of Technology, I have worked with fashion risk-takers including Diane Benson, Norma Karmali and Donna Karan, launching, developing and driving sales for brands such as Urban Zen, Diane B. and Episode. Inspired by my own need for something to wear under my wedding dress - one that fit and made me still

After working in the fashion industry for over two decades I moved in a new direction filtering my creative abilities and vision into interior design and styling. While I have extensive experience running companies, overseeing branding, production and business growth, I prefer working deeply with one client at a time on projects that create more joy for everyone. This isn't just my business, this is my gift and
