Notwithstanding the foregoing, a Qualified Financing shall not include an equity financing that is made for non-cash consideration.

2. Interest. Interest on each Loan under this Note shall accrue from the date such loan was made to the Borrower, compound annually, and be payable upon Investor's issuance of a Repayment Demand at any time on or subsequent to the Maturity Date, or upon acceleration of the payment Obligations of Borrower in accordance with Section 5 or, if applicable, Section 6(d).

Payment made by check shall be deemed paid on the date the Investor receives such check; provided, however, that if such check is subsequently returned to the Investor unpaid due to insufficient funds or otherwise, the payment shall not be deemed to have been made and shall continue to bear interest until collected. If payment hereunder becomes due and payable on a day other than on a Business Day, the due date thereof shall be extended to the next succeeding Business Day.

4. Events of Default. The occurrence and continuance of any of the following shall constitute an "Event of Default" under this Note:

(a) Failure to Pay. The Borrower shall fail to pay, whether by conversion or otherwise, (i) any principal or interest payment within ten (10) Business Days of the due date hereunder, as such due date may be extended pursuant to an agreement of the Borrower and Investor in accordance with the terms hereof, or (ii) any other payment required under the terms of this Note within ten (10) Business Days of the date due; or

(b) Voluntary Bankruptcy or Insolvency Proceedings. The Borrower shall (i) apply for or consent to the appointment of a receiver, trustee, liquidator or custodian of itself or of all or a substantial part of its property, (ii) make a general assignment for the benefit of its or any of its creditors, (iii) be dissolved or liquidated, (iv) commence a voluntary case or other proceeding seeking liquidation, reorganization or other relief with respect to itself or its debts under any bankruptcy, insolvency or other similar law now or hereafter in effect or consent to any such relief or to the appointment of or taking possession of its property by any official in an involuntary case or other proceeding commenced against it, or (v) take any action for the purpose of effecting any of the foregoing; or

The Borrower shall fail to observe or perform any other covenant, obligation, condition or agreement contained in this Note or another agreement between Borrower and Investor, and such failure, if capable of cure, shall continue for thirty (30) days following, and otherwise upon, Borrower's receipt of written notice of such failure from the Investor.

(h) Repurchase. If the Company determines, in its sole discretion, that it is likely that within six months the securities of the Company will be held of record by a number of persons that would require the Company to register a class of its equity securities under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, as required by Section 12(g) thereof, the Company shall have the option to repurchase this instrument from the Holder for the greater of: (i) the Principal Amount of the Note plus outstanding accrued interest; and (ii) the fair market value of this instrument, as determined by an independent appraiser of securities chosen by the Company (such repurchase, the "Repurchase," and such greater value, the "Repurchase Value"); provided, however, that, in the event a Qualified Financing occurs within three months after the Repurchase and the Repurchase Value is less than the Aggregate Value (as defined below) of the Preferred Units the Holder would have received had the Repurchase not occurred (where such value is determined by multiplying the number of Units of Preferred Units by the Conversion Price and is referred to as the "Aggregate Value"), the Company shall pay to the Holder an amount equal to the difference between the Aggregate Value and the Repurchase Value promptly following the consummation of the Qualified Financing. Such independent appraiser shall be regularly engaged in the valuation of securities. The foregoing repurchase option terminates upon a Change of Control or Dissolution Event.

5. Rights of Investor upon Event of Default. Upon the occurrence or existence of any Event of Default, immediately and without notice, all outstanding Obligations payable by the Borrower hereunder shall automatically become immediately due and payable, without presentment, demand, protest or any other notice of any kind, all of which are hereby expressly waived. Interest shall accrue from and after an Event of Default at the Base Rate plus three percent (3%). In addition to the foregoing remedy, Investor may exercise any other right, power or remedy granted to it or otherwise permitted to it by law, either by suit in equity or by action at law, or both. The Investor may, by an instrument or instruments in writing, signed by the Investor at Investor's sole discretion, waive any Event of Default which has occurred and any of the consequences of such Event of Default, and, in such event, the Investor and Borrower will be restored to their respective former positions, rights and obligations hereunder.

6. Conversion and Change of Control; Participation Right.

(a) Automatic Conversion – Qualified Financing. Upon the consummation of a

Qualified Financing, the aggregate outstanding principal and accrued and unpaid interest on this Note automatically shall convert into a number of Conversion Units of the Borrower equal to the quotient obtained by dividing (i) the amount of such principal and interest by (ii) the Conversion Price. For the avoidance of doubt, any Investor under this Note may also separately be an equity investor in such Qualified Financing.

(b) Optional Conversion – Maturity Date. If a Qualified Financing shall not have been consummated by the Maturity Date or this Note shall not have otherwise been converted into Conversion Units by the Maturity Date, on or after the Maturity Date at Investor’s option the aggregate outstanding principal and accrued and unpaid interest on this Note may convert into a number of Maturity Date Preferred Units of the Borrower equal to the quotient obtained by dividing (i) the amount of such principal and interest by (ii) the price per unit equal to the quotient of (x) a pre-money valuation of $3,600,000 divided by (y) the aggregate number of Units outstanding immediately prior to the Maturity Date or other date agreeable to the Investor and the Borrower (assuming full conversion or exercise of all convertible and exercisable options and other securities then outstanding) (a “Maturity Date Conversion”).

(c) Optional Conversion. At any time concurrent with or within thirty (30) days after the consummation of a Non-Qualified Financing, the Investor, subject to the terms and conditions set forth herein, shall have the right to convert all, but not less than all, of the aggregate outstanding principal and accrued and unpaid interest on this Note into a number of Conversion Units in the Borrower equal to the quotient obtained by dividing (i) the amount of such principal and interest by (ii) the Conversion Price. To exercise such option, the Investor shall deliver written notice of its election to the Borrower. Borrower shall give the Investor five (5) days’ prior written notice of the Non-Qualified Financing and the proposed closing date (which notice will include all of the material terms associated with such Non-Qualified Financing).

(d) Change of Control.

(i) If the Borrower shall consummate a Change of Control prior to conversion of this Note and/or Investor’s issuance of a Repayment Demand, the aggregate outstanding principal and accrued and unpaid interest on this Note automatically shall convert into a number of Conversion Units of the Borrower equal to the quotient obtained by dividing (i) the amount of such principal and interest by (ii) the price per Unit equal to the quotient of (x) a pre-money valuation of $3,600,000 divided by (y) the aggregate number of Units outstanding immediately prior to the initial closing of such Change of Control (assuming full conversion or exercise of all convertible and exercisable options and other securities then outstanding).

(ii) Notwithstanding Section 6(d)(i), in the event the Investor delivers written notice of its election to the Borrower at least five (5) Business Days prior to the closing date of the applicable Change of Control, in lieu of the automatic conversion of this Note as set forth in Section 6(d)(i), the Borrower shall pay to the Investor an amount equal to 1.5 times (150%) the outstanding principal and interest of this Note, which amount shall be due and payable immediately upon consummation of the applicable Change of Control (it being acknowledged and agreed that such amount shall be deemed to satisfy in full all obligations of the Borrower hereunder, including, without limitation, with respect to accrued but unpaid interest, and that after the payment of such amount, this Note shall be deemed to be paid in full).

(iii) In the event Borrower effects a restructuring that does not constitute a Change of Control for the purpose is to changing the state of the Borrower's formation or incorporation, changing the Borrower's entity-type or creating a holding company the securities of which will be owned in substantially the same proportions by the persons who held the Borrower's securities immediately prior to such transaction, the surviving entity shall issue to the holder of this Note such instruments and documents as the Borrower's board of managers or directors determines necessary to most closely approximate the rights, economic benefits and other terms set forth in this Note.

(e) Conditions to Conversion. As a condition precedent (which may be waived by Borrower) to conversion of this Note as provided for in this Section 6, the Investor will be required to execute any agreements that have been or are then being executed by investors of Borrower (including, without limitation, any right of first refusal, voting and other equity holder agreements) and such other reasonable agreements prepared in connection with a conversion, Change of Control or otherwise reasonably required by Borrower in connection with a conversion or Change of Control.

(f) Participation Rights. The Borrower hereby grants to the Major Investor (or its affiliates) the right to purchase in a Qualified Financing or Non-Qualified Financing, in addition to the securities (if any) into which this Note converts, an amount equal to twenty percent (20%) of the total securities sold in such financing at the same purchase price and on the same terms as the Qualified Financing or Non-Qualified Financing (for avoidance of doubt, including, without limitation, the securities issued to the holders of this Note). If this provision is applicable, the Borrower shall give the Investor written notice of such offering of securities, describing the type of securities, the consideration and the general terms upon which the Borrower proposes to issue the same.

(g) Termination of Rights. All rights of the Investor with respect to this Note as set forth in this Section 6 shall terminate upon the issuance of the Units to Investor upon the voluntary or involuntary conversion of this Note or payment made in full to Investor pursuant to Section 6(d)(ii), whether or not this Note has been surrendered. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Investor agrees to surrender this Note to Borrower for cancellation as soon as is practicable following conversion of this Note or payment in full pursuant to Section 6(d)(ii).

7. Covenants.

(a) Baseline Equity Terms. In connection with any conversion of this Note, the Investor shall be entitled to the same rights of other Investors in any Qualified Financing or Non-Qualified Financing.

(b) Compliance with Laws. Borrower shall comply in all material respects with all applicable laws, rules, regulations and orders, such compliance to include, without limitation, paying before the same become delinquent all taxes, assessments and governmental charges imposed upon the Borrower or upon the Borrower's property.

(c) Affiliate Transactions. The prior written approval of the Investor shall be required for any related party transaction or agreement between the Borrower and any of the Borrower's officers, managers, directors or equity owners (or their respective affiliates).

(d) Use of Proceeds. The Borrower hereby covenants and agrees that the proceeds received by the Borrower in return for the issuance of this Note shall be used for the general working capital needs of the Borrower in accordance with an annual budget approved by Investor.

(e) Dividends. The Borrower shall not pay dividends or make any distributions with respect to, or purchase, redeem or otherwise acquire any of its equity interests; provided, however, notwithstanding the foregoing, Borrower shall be permitted to pay reasonable salary or guaranteed payments to members of Borrower in accordance with past practice.

(f) Survival. The above covenants shall be incorporated into conversion investment documents or shall otherwise survive the conversion of this Note. If this Note is repaid in full and not converted into equity as set forth above, Section 7(c) shall survive and all other subsections shall terminate.

8. Representations and Warranties. Borrower hereby represents and warrants to Investor as follows:

(a) Organization and Standing. The Borrower is a limited liability company duly organized, validly existing and in good standing under the laws of the State of Wisconsin and has full power and authority to conduct its business as presently conducted and as proposed to be conducted by it and to enter into and perform this Note and to carry out the transactions contemplated by this Note.

(b) Issuance of Note. The issuance and delivery of this Note has been duly authorized by all necessary limited liability company action on the part of the Borrower.

(c) Authority for Agreement. This Note has been duly executed and delivered by the Borrower and constitutes a valid and binding obligation of the Borrower enforceable in accordance with its terms, subject to bankruptcy, insolvency, fraudulent conveyance and similar laws affecting creditors' rights generally, and general principles of equity (regardless of whether the application of such principles is considered in a proceeding in equity or at law). The execution of and performance of the transactions contemplated by this Note and compliance with its provisions by the Borrower will not violate any provision of law and will not conflict with or result in any breach of any of the terms, conditions or provisions of, or constitute a default under, or require a consent or waiver under, its Certificate of Formation or Articles of Organization (as the same may have been amended or restated prior to the date hereof) or any indenture, lease, agreement or other instrument to which the Borrower is a party or by which it or any of its properties is bound, or any decree, judgment, order, statute, rule or regulation applicable to the Borrower.

(d) Litigation. There is no pending action, suit, proceeding, arbitration, mediation, complaint, claim, charge or investigation before any court, arbitrator, mediator or governmental body, or to the Borrower's knowledge, currently threatened in writing against the Borrower.

(e) Intellectual Property. No product or service marketed or sold (or proposed to be marketed or sold) by the Borrower violates or will violate any license or infringes or will infringe any intellectual property rights of any other party. The Borrower has not received any communications alleging that the Borrower has violated, or by conducting its business, would violate any of the patents, trademarks, copyrights, trade secrets, mask works or other proprietary rights or processes of any other person or entity. To the Borrower's knowledge, it will not be necessary to use any inventions of any of its employees or consultants made prior to their employment by the Borrower that has not otherwise been assigned to the Borrower. Each employee and consultant has assigned to the Borrower all intellectual property rights he or she owns that are used in the Borrower's business as now conducted and as presently proposed to be conducted and which are material to the business of the Borrower.

The Borrower is not indebted, directly or indirectly, to any of its managers, directors, officers or employees or to their respective spouses or children or to any affiliate of any of the foregoing, other than in connection with expenses or advances of expenses incurred in the ordinary course of business or employee relocation expenses and for other customary employee benefits made generally available to all employees. None of the Borrower's managers, directors, officers or employees, or any members of their immediate families, or to Borrower's knowledge any affiliate of the foregoing are, directly or indirectly, indebted to the Borrower or have any (i) material commercial or familial relationship with any of the Borrower's customers, suppliers, service providers, joint venture partners, licensees, (ii) direct or indirect ownership interest in any firm or corporation with which the Borrower is affiliated or with which the Borrower has a business relationship, or (iii) financial interest in any material contract with the Borrower.

(j) Irrevocable Proxy; SPV Reorganization.

(1) If the Holder is not a Major Investor, the Holder hereby appoints, and shall appoint in the future upon request, the Designated Lead Investor as the Holder's true and lawful proxy and attorney, with the power to act alone and with full power of substitution, to, consistent with this instrument and on behalf of the Holder: a) give and receive notices and communications; b) execute any instrument or document that the Designated Lead Investor determines is necessary or appropriate in the exercise of its authority under this instrument; and c) take all actions necessary or appropriate in the judgment of the Designated Lead Investor for the accomplishment of the foregoing. The proxy and power granted by the Holder pursuant to this subsection (j) are coupled with an interest. Such proxy and power will be irrevocable through and including the date of the final closing of an Qualified Financing, in which case the terms of subsection (j)(2) will thereafter govern. The proxy and power, so long as the Holder is an individual, will survive the death, incompetency and disability of the Holder and, so long as the Holder is an entity, will survive the merger or reorganization of the Holder or any other entity holding this instrument. The Designated Lead Investor is an intended third-party beneficiary of this subsection (j)(1)c. and subsection (j)(2) and has the right, power and authority to enforce the provisions hereof as though it was a party hereto.

(2) If the Holder is not a Major Investor, after the date of the final closing of an Qualified Financing, the Holder hereby appoints, and shall appoint in the future upon request, the then-current Chief Executive Officer of the Company (the "CEO"), as the Holder's true and lawful proxy and attorney, with the power to act alone and with full power of substitution, to, consistent with this instrument and on behalf of the Holder: a) vote all Unit issued pursuant to the terms of this instrument as the holders of a majority of the Units of Preferred Unit vote; b) give and receive notices and communications; c) execute any instrument or document that the CEO determines is necessary or appropriate in the exercise of the CEO's authority under this instrument; and d) take all actions necessary or appropriate in the judgment of the CEO for the accomplishment of the foregoing. The proxy and power granted by the Holder pursuant to this subsection (j)(2)d. are coupled with an interest. Such proxy and power will be irrevocable. The proxy and power, so long as the Holder is an individual, will survive the death, incompetency and disability of the Holder and, so long as the Holder is an entity, will survive the merger or reorganization of the Holder or any other entity holding Units of the Unit issued pursuant to the terms of this instrument. The CEO is an intended third-party beneficiary of this subsection (j)(2)d. and subsection (j)(3) and has the right, power and authority to enforce the provisions hereof as though he or she was a party hereto.

(3) If the Holder is not a Major Investor:

a. Other than with respect to the gross negligence or willful misconduct of the Designated Lead Investor or the CEO, in his or her capacity as the Holder's true and lawful proxy and attorney pursuant to subsection (j) (collectively, the "Proxy"), the Proxy will not be liable for any act done or omitted in his, her or its capacity as representative of the Holder pursuant to this instrument while acting in good faith, and any act done or omitted pursuant to the written advice of outside counsel will be conclusive evidence of such good faith. The Proxy has no duties or responsibilities except those expressly set forth in this instrument, and no implied covenants, functions, responsibilities, duties, obligations or liabilities on behalf of the Holder otherwise exist against the Proxy. The Holder shall indemnify, defend and hold harmless the Proxy from and against any and all losses, liabilities, damages, claims, penalties, fines, forfeitures, actions, fees, costs and expenses (including the fees and expenses of counsel and experts and their staffs and all expense of document location, duplication and shipment) (collectively, "Proxy Losses") arising out of or in connection with any act done or omitted in the Proxy's capacity as representative of the Holder pursuant to this instrument, in each case as such Proxy Losses are suffered or incurred; provided, that in the event that any such Proxy Losses are finally adjudicated to have been directly caused by the gross negligence or willful misconduct of the Proxy, the Proxy (or, in the case of the CEO, the Company) shall reimburse the Holder the amount of such indemnified Proxy Losses to the extent attributable to such gross negligence or willful misconduct (provided that the Proxy's aggregate liability hereunder shall in no event exceed the Purchase Amount). In no event will the Proxy be required to advance his, her or its own funds on behalf of the Holder or otherwise. The Holder acknowledges and agrees that the foregoing indemnities will survive the resignation or removal of the Proxy or the termination of this instrument.

b. A decision, act, consent or instruction of the Proxy constitutes a decision of the Holder and is final, binding and conclusive upon the Holder. The Company, members of the Company and any other third party may rely upon any decision, act, consent or instruction of the Proxy as being the decision, act, consent or instruction of the Holder. The Company, members of the Company and any other third party are hereby relieved from any liability to any person for any acts done by them in accordance with such decision, act, consent or instruction of the Proxy.

(4) The Holder hereby agrees to take any and all actions determined by the Board in good faith to be advisable to reorganize this instrument and any Units of the Unit issued pursuant to the terms of this instrument into a special-purpose vehicle or other entity designed to aggregate the interests of holders of Notes.

9. Successors and Assigns. Subject to the restrictions on transfer described in Sections 10 and 11 below, the rights and obligations of the Borrower and the Investor shall be binding upon and benefit the successors, assigns, heirs, administrators and transferees of the parties.

10. Waiver and Amendment. Any provision of this Note may be amended, waived or modified only upon the written consent of the Investor and the Borrower.

11. Transfer of this Note. With respect to any offer, sale or other disposition of any portion of this Note, the Investor shall give written notice to the Borrower describing briefly the manner thereof, together with a written opinion of the Investor's counsel, or other evidence if reasonably satisfactory to the Borrower, to the effect that such offer, sale or other distribution may be effected without registration or qualification (under any federal or state law then in effect). Upon receiving such written notice and reasonably satisfactory opinion, if so requested, or other evidence, the Borrower shall have the right to approve or reject such transfer and if approved the Investor may sell or otherwise dispose of the portion of this Note, all in accordance with the terms of the notice delivered to the Borrower. A condition to such disposition shall be the transferee's acceptance of this Note. If a determination has been made pursuant to this Section 11 that the opinion of counsel for the Investor, or other evidence, is not reasonably satisfactory to the Borrower or Investor, the Borrower shall so notify the Investor promptly after such determination has been made.

12. Assignment by the Borrower. Neither this Note nor any of the rights, interests or obligations hereunder may be assigned, by operation of law or otherwise, in whole or in part, by the Borrower without the prior written consent of the Investor.

13. Notices. All notices, requests, demands, consents, instructions or other communications required or permitted hereunder shall be in writing and faxed, e-mailed, mailed or delivered to each party at the respective addresses of the parties as set forth on the signature pages to this Note or at such other address, e-mail or facsimile number as any party shall have furnished to the other parties in writing as set forth above. All such notices and communications will be deemed effectively given the earlier of: (i) when received; (ii) when delivered personally, (iii) one Business Day after being delivered by e-mail or facsimile (with receipt of appropriate confirmation); (iv) one Business Day after being deposited with an overnight courier service of recognized standing; or (v) four days after being deposited in the U.S. mail, first class with postage prepaid. For avoidance of doubt, fax, e-mail or other electronic communications shall be deemed to be written and written consent may be given by each such electronic means.

14. Usury; Business Loan. In the event any interest is paid on this Note which is deemed to be in excess of the then legal maximum rate, then that portion of the interest payment representing an amount in excess of the then legal maximum rate shall be deemed a payment of principal and applied against the principal of this Note. The Borrower agrees that the obligations evidenced by this Note are an exempted transaction under the Truth In Lending Act, 15 U.S.C., Section 1601, et seq. Time is of the essence with respect to all obligations due under this Note.

15. Waivers.
