TeensJobFind Crowdfunding Deck2020v2.pdf

Problem: Finding household help is stressful and risk.

Inviting professionals into and around your home can be a risky and scary proposition. If you do find experienced, vetted talent, it often comes with a hefty price tag.

Before TeenJobFiz, there was no safe, credible platform for teens to find

From this simple idea, we've created mobile app that provides a safe and easy solution to connect job posters with local teens in and around their neighborhood.

Freelance workforce is growing 3x faster than the overall U.S. workforce.

Majority of people will be seeking independence by 2022

Majority of people will be working independently by 2027

The 'oil sector' is currently worth $3.2 trillion and growing

TeenJobFind will take a small % of every transaction on the platform from the job poster (not the teen).

Free-lance features for job posters such as highlighted and bold job posting. Ability to request a specific type of change from more than 1 applicant

Monetize high quality user data for advertising : demographics, movements, recreation, activities, social connections, etc.

Steady positive growth since our inception with nearly 0 marketing effort

As of August 2019, we have over 75,000 users on the early access wait list.

As soon as we close this crowdfunding offering, we are going to deploy in the region with our largest unit—Southern California. We have already secured ambassadors on the ground ready to go.
