Write on Sports, Inc.

Sep 2013 – Oct 2015 • 2 yrs 2 mos

Children

The concept of Write on Sports (WOS) is to teach youth to write by teaching them to write about sports, a subject they are passionate about.

During their time in Write on Sports, students learn the basic elements of good journalism and apply their knowledge to writing spot stories and a feature piece. As part of the learning process, WOS introduces youth to professional journalists and athletes, whom they interview and then write about.
