NOTE 1 – SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Nature of Business

Afocusedpath.com, Inc. (the "Company") specializes in developing and marketing a specialty educational software platform. The platform supports a child's education by creating an online educational village of family, close friends, previous teachers and other supporters to stay involved in their child's education.

The significant accounting policies and practices followed by the Company are as follows:

Basis of Accounting

The Company uses the accrual method of accounting, in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

The Company considers all highly liquid investments with an original maturity of three months or less to be cash equivalents.

Income Taxes

The Company is a C corporation for federal income tax purposes. Income taxes are reported in accordance with Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) Accounting Standards Codification (ASC) Topic 740, Income Taxes. The financial statements may contain a provision for federal income taxes and state franchise, excise, and income taxes.

Uncertain Tax Positions

The Company follows the accounting guidance for uncertainty in income taxes using the provisions of ASC Topic 740, Income Taxes. Using that guidance, tax positions initially need to be recognized in the financial statements when it is more-likely-than-not the position will be sustained upon examination by the tax authorities. Such tax positions initially and subsequently need to be measured as the largest amount of tax benefit that has a greater than 50% likelihood of being realized upon ultimate settlement with the tax authority assuming full knowledge of the position and relevant facts.

The Company has concluded that there are no significant uncertain tax positions requiring disclosure, and there are no material amounts of unrecognized tax benefits.

Revenue Recognition

The Company recognizes revenues from subscription sales of its platform once the user license is granted to the customer.

Advertising and Promotion Costs

Advertising costs are expensed as incurred. During the year ended December 31, 2018, the Company did not incur any advertising expenses.

Use of Estimates

The presentation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

NOTE 2 – RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS

From time-to-time the Company's shareholder may loan resources to the Company and borrow resources from the Company. As of December 31, 2018, the Company reported a receivable from the sole-shareholder totaling $100.

NOTE 3 – SUBSEQUENT EVENTS

Management has evaluated events and transactions subsequent to December 31, 2018 through the date of the independent auditor's report (the date the financial statements were available to be issued) for potential recognition or disclosure in the consolidated financial statements. Management has identified the following event that requires disclosure.

Worldwide Pandemic

Subsequent to March 31, 2020, local, U.S., and world governments have encouraged self-isolation to curtail the spread of the global pandemic, coronavirus disease (COVID-19), by mandating temporary work stoppage in many sectors and imposing limitations on travel and size and duration of group meetings. Most industries, including the Organization, are experiencing significant disruption to activities as a result of these actions. There is unprecedented uncertainty surrounding the duration of the pandemic, its potential economic ramifications, and any government actions to mitigate them. Given there can be no assurances regarding the duration of this pandemic, it is at least possible that adverse consequences to the Organization's financial position, results of operations and cash flows could result.
