Offering Statement

Respond to each question in each paragraph of this part. Set forth each question and any notes, but not any instructions thereto, in their entirety. If disclosure in response to any question is responsive to one or more other questions, it is not necessary to repeat the disclosure. If a question or series of questions is inapplicable or the response is available elsewhere in the Form, either state that it is inapplicable, include a cross-reference to the responsive disclosure, or omit the question or series of questions.

Be very careful and precise in answering all questions. Give full and complete answers so that they are not misleading under the circumstances involved. Do not discuss any future performance or other anticipated event unless you have a reasonable basis to believe that it will actually occur within the foreseeable future. If any answer requiring significant information is materially inaccurate, incomplete or misleading, the Company, its management and principal shareholders may be liable to investors based on that information.

THE COMPANY

1. Name of issuer:

GEOTOLL, INC.

COMPANY ELIGIBILITY

2. Check this box to certify that all of the following statements are true for the issuer.

- Organized under, and subject to, the laws of a State or territory of the United States or the District of Columbia.
- Not subject to the requirement to file reports pursuant to Section 13 or Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934.
- Not an investment company registered or required to be registered under the Investment Company Act of 1940.
- Not ineligible to rely on this exemption under Section 4(a)(6) of the Securities Act as a result of a disqualification specified in Rule 503(a) of Regulation Crowdfunding.
- Has filed with the Commission and provided to investors, to the extent required, the ongoing annual reports required by Regulation Crowdfunding during the two years immediately preceding the filing of this offering statement (or for such shorter period that the issuer was required to file such reports).
- Not a development stage company that (a) has no specific business plan or (b) has indicated that its business plan is to engage in a merger or acquisition with an unidentified company or companies.

INSTRUCTION TO QUESTION 2: If any of these statements are not true, then you are NOT eligible to rely on this exemption under Section 4(a)(6) of the Securities Act.

3. Has the issuer or any of its predecessors previously failed to comply with the ongoing reporting requirements of Rule 202 of Regulation Crowdfunding?

Yes No

DIRECTORS OF THE COMPANY

4. Provide the following information about each director (and any persons occupying a similar status or performing a similar function) of the issuer.

Director	Principal Occupation	Main Employer	Year Joined as Director
Ankur Agarwal	President	Sustainable Sprinkler	2020
Dan Carroll	Principal	Shadow Spine and Orthopedic Solutions	2020
Jaime Borrás	CTO	GeoToll	2012
Richard Carrier	CEO	GeoToll	2013
Wyatt Geist	Director	GeoToll	2012

For three years of business experience, refer to Appendix D: Director & Officer Work History.

OFFICERS OF THE COMPANY

5. Provide the following information about each officer (and any persons occupying a similar status or performing a similar function) of the issuer.

Officer	Positions Held	Year Joined
Ray Johnson	CFO	2018
Jaime Borrás	CTO	2012
Jaime Borrás	Director	2012
Richard Carrier	CEO	2013
Richard Carrier	Director	2013
Wyatt Geist	Chairman	2012
Wyatt Geist	Director	2012

For three years of business experience, refer to Appendix D: Director & Officer Work History.

INSTRUCTION TO QUESTION 5: For purposes of this Question 5, the term officer means a president, vice president, secretary, treasurer or principal financial officer, comptroller or principal accounting officer, and any person that routinely performing similar functions.

PRINCIPAL SECURITY HOLDERS

6. Provide the name and ownership level of each person, as of the most recent practicable date, who is the beneficial owner of 20 percent or more of the issuer's outstanding voting equity securities, calculated on the basis of voting power.

Name of Holder	No. and Class of Securities Now Held	% of Voting Power Prior to Offering

No principal security holders.

INSTRUCTION TO QUESTION 6: The above information must be provided as of a date that is no more than 120 days prior to the date of filing of this offering statement.

To calculate total voting power, include all securities for which the person directly or indirectly has or shares the voting power, which includes the power to vote or to direct the voting of such securities. If the person has the right to acquire voting power of such securities within 60 days, including through the exercise of any option, warrant or right, the conversion of a security, or other arrangement, or if securities are held by a member of the family, through corporations or partnerships, or otherwise in a manner that would allow a person to direct or control the voting of the securities (or share in such direction or control – as, for example, a co-trustee) they should be included as being “beneficially owned.” You should include an explanation of these circumstances in a footnote to the “Number of and Class of Securities Now Held.” To calculate outstanding voting equity securities, assume all outstanding options are exercised and all outstanding convertible securities converted.

BUSINESS AND ANTICIPATED BUSINESS PLAN

7. Describe in detail the business of the issuer and the anticipated business plan of the issuer.

For a description of our business and our business plan, please refer to the attached Appendix A, Business Description & Plan

INSTRUCTION TO QUESTION 7: Wefunder will provide your company's Wefunder profile as an appendix (Appendix A) to the Form C in PDF format. The submission will include all Q&A items and “read more” links in an un-collapsed format. All videos will be transcribed.

This means that any information provided in your Wefunder profile will be provided to the SEC in response to this question. As a result, your company will be potentially liable for misstatements and omissions in your profile under the Securities Act of 1933, which requires you to provide material information related to your business and anticipated business plan. Please review your Wefunder profile carefully to ensure it provides all material information, is not false or misleading, and does not omit any information that would cause the information included to be false or misleading.

RISK FACTORS

A crowdfunding investment involves risk. You should not invest any funds in this offering unless you can afford to lose your entire investment.

In making an investment decision, investors must rely on their own examination of the issuer and the terms of the offering, including the merits and risks involved. These securities have not been recommended or approved by any federal or state securities commission or regulatory authority. Furthermore, these authorities have not passed upon the accuracy or adequacy of this document.

The U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission does not pass upon the merits of any securities offered or the terms of the offering, nor does it pass upon the accuracy or completeness of any offering document or literature.

These securities are offered under an exemption from registration; however, the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission has not made an independent determination that these securities are exempt from registration.

8. Discuss the material factors that make an investment in the issuer speculative or risky:

The failure of our technology to gain market acceptance and/or to meet technical standards would have an adverse effect upon our ability to generate revenues and attain profitability. A significant challenge for us will be gaining market acceptance of our technology. The participation and interest of tolling agencies will be critical. It may require significant time, effort and expense to attract sufficient number of tolling agencies for our technology to gain attract sufficient numbers of tolling agencies for our technology to gain widespread acceptance. We cannot assure you that a sufficient number of tolling agencies will invest the time required to gain familiarity with or pilot test our technology, or that once tested, they will be committed to continued usage. Similarly, other technology can also be used for many of the same applications that our technology is used for. The tolling industry widely accepts many alternative technologies and many of these other technologies have a long history of prior use. We cannot be certain that our technology will gain acceptance over established technologies or that either tolling agencies or the tolling industry in general will accept and use our technology. Market acceptance of our technology depends on many factors, including our ability to convince prospective customers that our technology is an attractive alternative to other technologies, at an acceptable cost, and to license our technology directly or through our strategic alliances. The industry is subject to rapid and continuous change arising from, among other things, consolidation and technological improvements. One or more of these factors may vary unpredictably, which could have a material adverse effect upon our business, prospects, financial condition and results of operations.

We incurred a loss in all prior years of business, and we expect to incur a loss in 2020. Pursuant to our business strategy, we expect to continue to make expenditures on research and product development, which will adversely affect operating results until revenues from sales and licensing of our technology reach a level at which these costs are supported. Our recent operations have been financed and are expected to continue to be financed primarily through sales by us of our equity and through debt.

We are a development stage company and have not sold and/or licensed any technology and/or services to date. We are subject to business risks that are typical of development stage companies, and "start-up" and "lead-time" factors are expected to affect the timing of our receipt of revenues. As a start-up entity, we are subject to many of the risks common to such enterprises, including inability to implement our business plan, under-capitalization, cash shortages, and limitations with respect to personnel, financing and other resources, as well as uncertainty of our ability to generate revenues. We cannot assure you that our activities will be successful or result in any revenues or profit for us, and the likelihood of our success must be considered in light of the stage of our development. Our success or failure will depend in large part upon decisions made by our management and the marketplace conditions, in addition to many factors beyond our control. Until we generate significant revenues, we will experience negative cash flows and financial losses. If we are unsuccessful, you may lose your entire investment.

Our inability to procure additional financing may have a material adverse effect on us. We require additional financing in the future, and may not be able to secure any additional financing we may need on terms favorable to us, or at all. To the extent we require additional financing and cannot raise it, we may have to limit our then-current operations and curtail all or certain portions of our business objectives and plans. Our inability to obtain any additional financing could have a material adverse effect upon us.

We will be dependent upon third party developers. Because of our limited resources, we will be dependent upon other companies to supply key components, including software, and to produce our technology. Our ability to develop and maintain relationships with these suppliers, as well as our ability to develop additional sources for key components and manufacturing capabilities, may be important for our long-term success. We cannot assure you that we will be able to establish or maintain relationships with third party suppliers and developers that may be necessary for the execution of our business plan.

Our industry is highly competitive. We will be competing for market share against established tolling system companies and other technology companies that possess greater resources and experience than we do. We may also face competition from other early-stage companies that have alternative technological solutions, as well as universities, research institutions and other non-profit entities. Many of our competitors will have access to greater financial, technical, research and development, marketing, manufacturing, sales, distribution and other resources than we do. Our more established competitors also will have substantially greater experience in conducting pilot testing and obtaining tolling agency approvals. Further, our competitors may be more effective at developing commercially viable technology based upon their technologies. We may need to develop new applications for our technology to become or remain competitive. Technological advances by one or more of our future competitors could render our present or future technology obsolete or uneconomical. Further, the removal of technological barriers in the future may also result in new competitors entering our business. Our future success will depend upon our ability to compete effectively against current technology as well as to respond effectively to technological advances and regulatory changes. Competitive pressures could have a material adverse effect upon our business, prospects, financial condition and results of operations.

Our operations will be subject to government regulation. Tolling devices are subject to government regulation and review. These regulations are constantly changing. While we believe that our proposed operations will be conducted in material compliance with applicable laws, we have not received or applied for a legal opinion from counsel or from any federal or state judicial or regulatory authority to this effect, and many aspects of our business operations have not been the subject of state or federal regulatory interpretation. Interpretation and enforcement of existing federal and state laws regulating tolling, and future laws regulating tolling, could have a material adverse effect upon our business, prospects, financial condition and results of operations.

We may not be able to obtain the tolling agency approvals necessary to sell and/or license our technology. Further, if we fail to comply with the governmental regulations that affect our business, we could be subject to penalties and could be precluded from selling and/or licensing our technology. Our research and development activities and the development and licensing of our technology may be subject to regulation by governmental agencies. Our technology may be subject to approvals or clearances prior to going live for use by tolling agencies. The process of obtaining necessary approvals or clearances can take years and is expensive and full of uncertainties. Our inability to obtain required tolling agency approvals on a timely or acceptable basis could have a material adverse effect upon our business, prospects, financial condition and results of operations. Further, approvals or clearances may place substantial restrictions on how our technology may be marketed or the persons to whom they may be marketed. Approved technology will be subject to continuing regulatory requirements relating to quality control and quality assurance, maintenance of records, documentation, and labeling and promotion of our technology. The tolling agencies may require that our technology be manufactured according to rigorous standards. These requirements may significantly increase our development costs above currently expected levels and may even prevent us from developing our technology to work with existing standardizations. If we change our approved technology, tolling agencies may require a new approval before the technology may be used. Failure to develop our technology to harmonize with existing standards may mean that even if we develop promising new technology, we may not be able to license and/or sell the technology profitably, as a result of delays and additional capital investment costs.

We may be subject to material liability or litigation expenses for claims associated with our technology. Because of the nature of our business, we may become a defendant in product liability or similar lawsuits and may become subject to the attendant risk of substantial damage awards. Direct claims, suits or complaints could be asserted against us. While we expect to address these risks through comprehensive general liability insurance, we cannot assure you that such insurance will be available to us, affordable for us, or that any claim asserted against us will be covered by insurance, or will not exceed the coverage limits of applicable insurance. Further, we cannot assure you that we will be able to obtain any such insurance in the future, or that the insurance, if available, will not be too costly to obtain or maintain. A claim against us that is not defended by an insurance carrier, or a successful claim against or settlement by us in excess of our insurance coverage, or our inability to obtain or maintain insurance, could have a material adverse effect upon our business, prospects, financial condition and results of operations. Notwithstanding anything to the foregoing herein, the Company has obtained and maintains for the time being, an insurance policy insuring against Errors and Omissions and Cyber Liability.

Changes in the tolling industry may require us to reduce the selling and/or licensing fees for our technology or result in a reduction in the size of the market for our technology, which could have a negative effect on our financial performance. Trends toward cell phone-based applications ("apps") and other changes in government and private sector initiatives are placing increased emphasis on the delivery of more cost-effective tolling systems that could adversely affect the sale and/or licensing fees for our technology. In addition, there may be laws and regulations that regulate the means by which companies in the tolling industry may compete by discounting their technology. Although we intend to exercise care in structuring our customer discount arrangements to comply with those laws and regulations, we cannot assure you that: (1) Government officials charged with responsibility for enforcing those laws will not assert that our customer discount arrangements are in violation of those laws or regulations, or (2) Government regulators or courts will interpret those laws or regulations in a manner consistent with our interpretation.

Our business is located in Florida and may be subject to interruptions caused by hurricanes and other natural disasters. Our physical facilities and employees are all located in South Florida and thus our business operations are more susceptible than businesses located in other parts of the country to interruptions caused by hurricanes and flooding. These natural disasters pose a risk of damage to our facilities and interruptions to our business, which could be prolonged, as a result of extended power outages, the unavailability of our employees during periods when they must attend to personal circumstances, and the inability of third parties to provide necessary services to us due to similar factors. Damage to our facilities and extended interruption of our business could result in lost revenues and other material adverse consequences for our business, which may not be adequately covered by insurance or for which insurance may not be available.

We may not effectively execute our strategy. Our business strategy requires that we successfully and simultaneously complete many tasks. To be successful, we will need to: (1) Raise sufficient capital to fund our financial requirements; (2) Gain market acceptance for our technology and license it at competitive prices; (3) Negotiate effective business relationships and licensing agreements with others in the tolling industry; (4) Attract and retain qualified, professional employees; and (5) Evolve our business to gain advantages in an increasingly competitive environment. We cannot assure you that we will be able to successfully execute any or all of the elements of our strategy. Our failure to successfully execute any one of the elements of our strategy may have a material adverse effect on our business and results of operations.

Our business may be adversely affected by changes in general economic conditions. Our financial performance will be significantly affected by changes in national and local economic conditions, including: (1) Changes in the price or availability of materials that we utilize in the manufacture of our technology; (2) Changes in purchasing policies by tolling agencies and state governments; and (3) Entry of lower cost alternatives to our technology. Our business is highly dependent upon the volume of customers that pay for toll road usage electronically (i.e. non-cash methods). In turn, the demand for our technology is highly sensitive to the following factors: (1) The development of alternative technologies; (2) The number of toll roads; (3) The number of drivers using the toll roads; and (4) Changes in market demand for the product. Because these factors can be volatile, our revenue levels can also be volatile.

Temporary Rule 201(z)(2) provides temporary relief from certain financial information requirements by allowing issuers to omit the financial statements required by Rule 201(t) in the initial Form C filed with the Commission. This offering has commenced in reliance of Temporary Rule 201(z)(2).

COVID-19 can materially impact our business. It is unclear how long the COVID-19 pandemic will last and to what degree it could hurt our ability to generate revenues.

Ray Johnson and Wyatt Geist are part-time officers. As such, it is likely that the company will not make the same progress as it would if that were not the case.

Our future success depends on the efforts of a small management team. The loss of services of the members of the management team may have an adverse effect on the company. There can be no assurance that we will be successful in attracting and retaining other personnel we require to successfully grow our business.

should not repeat the factors addressed in the legends set forth above. No specific number or risk factors is required to be identified.

The Offering

USE OF FUNDS

9. What is the purpose of this offering?

The Company intends to use the net proceeds of this offering for working capital and general corporate purposes, which includes the specific items listed in Item 10 below. While the Company expects to use the net proceeds from the Offering in the manner described above, it cannot specify with certainty the particular uses of the net proceeds that it will receive from this Offering. Accordingly, the Company will have broad discretion in using these proceeds.

10. How does the issuer intend to use the proceeds of this offering?

If we raise: $50,000

Use of Proceeds: Product development and completion of pilot test projects that we currently have underway (50%), sales and marketing (32.5%), G&A/operations (10%), and WeFunder fees (7.5%).

If we raise: $250,000

Use of Proceeds: Product development and completion of pilot test projects that we currently have underway (20%), sales and marketing (40%), recruiting and onboarding industry experts (10%), G&A/operations (4%), and WeFunder fees (7.5%), improvement of app and back-office technology (10%), expanding to toll agencies across the United States and abroad (8.5%).

INSTRUCTION TO QUESTION 10: An issuer must provide a reasonably detailed description of any intended use of proceeds, such that investors are provided with an adequate amount of information to understand how the offering proceeds will be used. If an issuer has identified a range of possible uses, the issuer should identify and describe each probable use and the factors the issuer may consider in allocating proceeds among the potential uses. If the issuer will accept proceeds in excess of the target offering amount, the issuer must describe the purpose, method for allocating oversubscriptions, and intended use of the excess proceeds with similar specificity. Please include all potential uses of the proceeds of the offering, including any that may apply only in the case of oversubscriptions. If you do not do so, you may later be required to amend your Form C. WeFunder is not responsible for any failure by you to describe a potential use of offering proceeds.

DELIVERY & CANCELLATIONS

11. How will the issuer complete the transaction and deliver securities to the investors?

Book Entry and Use of XX Investments LLC as Transfer Agent and Custodian. Investments will be in book entry form. This means that the investor will not receive a certificate representing his or her investment. Each investment will be recorded in the books and records of our transfer agent, XX Investments LLC. XX Investments LLC will act as custodian and hold legal title to the investments for investors that enter into a Custodial and Voting Agreement with XX Investments LLC and will keep track of those investors' beneficial interests in the investments. In addition, investors' interests in the investments will be recorded in each investor's "My Investments" screen. The investor will also be emailed again the Investor Agreement and, if applicable, the Custodial and Voting Agreement. The Investor Agreement and, if applicable, the Custodial and Voting Agreement will also be available on the "My Investments" screen.

12. How can an investor cancel an investment commitment?

NOTE: Investors may cancel an investment commitment until 48 hours prior to the deadline identified in these offering materials.

The intermediary will notify investors when the target offering amount has been met. If the issuer reaches the target offering amount prior to the deadline identified in the offering materials, it may close the offering early if it provides notice about the new offering deadline at least five business days prior to such new offering deadline (absent a material change that would require an extension of the offering and reconfirmation of the investment commitment).

If an investor does not cancel an investment commitment before the 48-hour period prior to the offering deadline, the funds will be released to the issuer upon closing of the offering and the investor will receive securities in exchange for his or her investment.

If an investor does not reconfirm his or her investment commitment after a material change is made to the offering, the investor's investment commitment will be cancelled and the committed funds will be returned.

An Investor's right to cancel. An Investor may cancel his or her investment commitment at any time until 48 hours prior to the offering deadline.

If there is a material change to the terms of the offering or the information provided to the investor about the offering and/or the Company, the investor will be provided notice of the change and must re-confirm his or her investment commitment within five business days of receipt of the notice. If the investor does not reconfirm, he or she will receive notifications disclosing that the commitment was cancelled, the reason for the cancellation, and the refund amount that the investor is required to receive. If a material change occurs within five business days of the maximum number of days the offering is to remain open, the offering will be extended to allow for a period of five business days for the investor to reconfirm.

If the investor cancels his or her investment commitment during the period when cancellation is permissible, or does not reconfirm a commitment in the case of a material change to the investment, or the offering does not close, all of the investor's funds will be returned within five business days.

Within five business days of cancellation of an offering by the Company, the Company will give each investor notification of the cancellation, disclose the reason for the cancellation, identify the refund amount the Investor will receive, and refund the Investor's funds.

The Company's right to cancel. The Investment Agreement you will execute with us provides the Company the right to cancel for any reason before the offering deadline.

If the sum of the investment commitments from all investors does not equal or exceed the target offering amount at the time of the offering deadline, no securities will be sold in the offering, investment commitments will be cancelled and committed funds will be returned.

In addition, we may cap at 450 the total number of investors who will be allowed to invest through the offering that are not "accredited investors," as defined in Rule 501(a) of Regulation D under the Securities Act of 1933. In the event that more than 450 non-accredited investors are initially accepted into an offering in step (2) described in Question 11, the Company may cancel investments based on the order in which payments by Investors were received, or other criteria at the discretion of the Company, before the offering deadline.

Ownership and Capital Structure

THE OFFERING

13. Describe the terms of the securities being offered.

Convertible note with $33,484,850.00 valuation cap; 20.000% discount; 12% interest.

See exact security attached as Appendix B, Investor Contracts.

Type of Security: Convertible Promissory Notes ("Notes").

Amount to be Offered: The goal of the raise is $50,000.00

Valuation Cap: $33,484,850

Discount Rate: 80%

Maturity Date: 36 months from the Effective Date.

Interest Rate: 12%. Interest shall commence with the date of the convertible note and shall continue on the outstanding principal amount until paid in full or converted. Interest shall be computed on the basis of a year of 365 days for the actual number of days elapsed. All unpaid interest and principal shall be due and payable upon request of the Majority Holders on or after the Maturity Date.

Conversion and Repayment

(a) Conversion Upon Qualified Financing In the event that the Company issues and sells shares of its equity securities ("Equity Securities") to investors (the "Investors") while this Note remains outstanding in an equity financing with total proceeds to the Company of not less than $1,000,000 (excluding the conversion of the Notes or other convertible securities issued for capital raising purposes (e.g., Simple Agreements for Future Equity)) (a "Qualified Financing"), then the outstanding principal amount of this Note and any unpaid accrued interest, at the Company's option, may be converted in whole without any further action by the Holder into Equity Securities sold in the Qualified Financing at a conversion price that is the lesser of (1) the cash price paid per share for Equity Securities by the Investors in the Qualified Financing multiplied by 0.80; or (2) $2.00 per Share. The issuance of Equity Securities pursuant to the conversion of this Note shall be upon and subject to the same terms and conditions applicable to Equity Securities sold in the Qualified Financing

(b) Optional Conversion at non-Qualified Financing In the event the Company consummates, while this Note remains outstanding, an equity financing pursuant to which it sells shares of Common Stock in a transaction that does not constitute a Qualified Financing, then the Holder shall have the option to treat such equity financing as a Qualified Financing on the same terms set forth herein.

(c) Conversion by Initiation of Holder. At any time prior to completion of a Qualified Financing, the Holder may convert the Note into Company Common Shares at a conversion price equal to $2.00 per Common Share.

(d) Change of Control. If the Company consummates a Change of Control (as defined below) while this Note remains outstanding, the Company shall repay the Holder in cash in an amount equal to the outstanding principal amount of this Note plus any unpaid accrued interest on the original principal. For purposes of this Note, a "Change of Control" means (i) a consolidation or merger of the Company with or into any other corporation or other entity or person, or any other corporate reorganization, other than any such consolidation, merger or reorganization in which the shares of capital stock of the Company immediately prior to such consolidation, merger or reorganization continue to represent a majority of the voting power of the surviving entity immediately after such consolidation, merger or reorganization; (ii) any transaction or series of related transactions to which the Company is a party in which in excess of 50% of the Company's voting power is transferred; or (iii) the sale or transfer of all or substantially all of the Company's assets, or the exclusive license of all or substantially all of the Company's material intellectual property; provided that a Change of Control shall not include any transaction or series of transactions principally for bona fide equity financing purposes in which cash is received by the Company or any successor, indebtedness of the Company is cancelled or converted or a combination thereof. The Company shall give the Holder notice of a Change of Control not less than 10 days prior to the anticipated date of consummation of the Change of Control. Any repayment pursuant to this paragraph in connection with a Change of Control shall be subject to any required tax withholdings, and may be made by the Company (or any party to such Change or Control or its agent) following the Change or Control in connection with payment procedures established in connection with such Change of Control.

(e) Procedure for Conversion. In connection with any conversion of this Note into Equity Securities, the Holder shall surrender this Note to the Company and deliver to the Company any documentation reasonably required by the Company (including, in the case of a Qualified Financing, all financing documents executed by the Investors in connection with such Qualified Financing). The Company shall not be required to issue or deliver the Equity Securities into which this Note may convert until the Holder has surrendered this Note to the Company and delivered to the Company any such documentation. Upon the conversion of this Note into Equity Securities pursuant to the terms hereof, in lieu of any fractional shares to which the Holder would otherwise be entitled, the Company shall pay the Holder cash equal to such fraction multiplied by the price at which this Note converts.

(f) Interest Accrual. If a Change of Control or Qualified Financing is consummated, all interest on this Note shall be deemed to have stopped accruing as of a date selected by the Company that is up to 10 days prior to the signing of the definitive agreement for the Change of Control or Qualified Financing.

Senior Indebtedness. The indebtedness evidenced by this Note is subordinated in right of payment to the prior payment in full of any Senior Indebtedness in existence on the date of this Note or hereafter incurred. "Senior Indebtedness" shall mean, unless expressly subordinated to or made on a parity with the amounts due under this Note, all amounts due in connection with (i) indebtedness of the Company to banks or other lending institutions regularly engaged in the business of lending money (excluding venture capital, investment banking or similar institutions and their affiliates, which sometimes engage in lending activities but which are primarily engaged in investments in Equity Securities), and (ii) any such indebtedness or any debentures, notes or other evidence of indebtedness issued in exchange for such Senior Indebtedness, or any indebtedness arising from the satisfaction of such Senior Indebtedness by a guarantor.

Stock Options. As additional consideration for the Note, the Holder shall be awarded stock options to purchase common stock of the Company at a purchase price of two dollars ($2.00) per share. The number of stock options awarded shall be equal to the principal amount of the Note. (e.g. If the principal amount of the Note is $50,000 then the Holder shall be issued the option to purchase 50,000 common shares). The stock option shall expire in five (5) years. Investors will receive the stock option at no additional cost which provides the investor with the right but not the obligation to purchase shares for up to 5 years at a fixed price of $2.00 per share. This incentive will expire after $250,000 is raised through the Company's crowdfunding fund raise on the WeFunder platform.

Irrevocable Proxy. The Investor and his, her, or its transferees or assignees (collectively, the "Investor"), through a power of attorney granted by Investor in the Investor Agreement, will appoint XX Team LLC ("XX Team") as the Investor's true and lawful proxy and attorney (the "Proxy"), with the power to act alone and with full power of substitution, on behalf of the Investor to: (i) direct the voting of all securities purchased through wefunder.com, and to direct the exercise of all voting and other rights of Investor with respect to the Company's securities, and (ii) direct, in connection with such voting power, the execution of any instrument or document that XX Team determines is necessary and appropriate in the exercise of its authority. Such Proxy will be irrevocable. If an investor has entered into the Custodial and Voting Agreement with XX Investments LLC ("XX Investments"), then XX Investments will be the entity that XX Team directs to vote and take any other actions in connection with such voting (including the execution of documents) on behalf of such investor.

Repurchase. If the Company determines, in its sole discretion, that it is likely that within six months the securities of the Company will be held of record by a number of persons that would require the Company to register a class of its equity securities under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended ("Exchange Act"), as required by Section 12(g) or 15(d) thereof, the Company shall have the option to repurchase the securities from each Investor for the greater of (i) the purchase price of the securities, and (ii) the fair market value of the securities, as determined by an independent appraiser of securities chosen by the Company. The foregoing repurchase option will terminate upon a Change of Control (as defined in the Company's Investment Agreement) or dissolution.

14. Do the securities offered have voting rights?

- Yes
 No

15. Are there any limitations on any voting or other rights identified above?

- Yes:
 No: Irrevocable voting proxy granted to XX Team.

16. How may the terms of the securities being offered be modified?

Any term of this Note may be amended or waived with the written consent of the Company and the Holder. In addition, any term of this Note may be amended or waived with the written consent of the Company and the Majority Holders. Upon the effectuation of such waiver or amendment with the consent of the Majority Holders in conformance with this paragraph, such amendment or waiver shall be effective as to, and binding against the holders of, all of the Notes, and the Company shall promptly give written notice thereof to the Holder if the Holder has not previously consented to such amendment or waiver in writing; provided that the failure to give such notice shall not affect the validity of such amendment or waiver.

Pursuant to authorization in the Investor Agreement between each Investor and Wefunder Portal, Wefunder Portal is authorized to take the following actions with respect to the investment contract between the Company and an investor:

- A. Wefunder Portal may amend the terms of an investment contract, provided that the amended terms are more favorable to the investor than the original terms; and
B. Wefunder Portal may reduce the amount of an investor's investment if the reason for the reduction is that the Company's offering is oversubscribed.

RESTRICTIONS ON TRANSFER OF THE SECURITIES BEING OFFERED:

The securities being offered may not be transferred by any purchaser of such securities during the one year period beginning when the securities were issued, unless such securities are transferred:

1. to the issuer;
2. to an accredited investor;
3. as part of an offering registered with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission; or
4. to a member of the family of the purchaser or the equivalent, to a trust controlled by the purchaser, to a trust created for the benefit of a member of the family of the purchaser or the equivalent, or in connection with the death or divorce of the purchaser or other similar circumstance.

NOTE: The term "accredited investor" means any person who comes within any of the categories set forth in Rule 501(a) of Regulation D, or who the seller reasonably believes comes within any of such categories, at the time of the sale of the securities to that person.

The term "member of the family of the purchaser or the equivalent" includes a child, stepchild, grandchild, parent, stepparent, grandparent, spouse or spousal equivalent, sibling, mother-in-law, father-in-law, son-in-law, daughter-in-law, brother-in-law, or sister-in-law of the purchaser, and includes adoptive relationships. The term "spousal equivalent" means a cohabitant occupying a relationship generally equivalent to that of a spouse.

DESCRIPTION OF ISSUER'S SECURITIES

17. What other securities or classes of securities of the issuer are outstanding? Describe the material terms of any other outstanding securities or classes of securities of the issuer.

Class of Security	Securities (or Amount) Authorized	Securities (or Amount) Outstanding	Voting Rights
Common Shares	16,742,425	16,742,425	Yes

Class of Security Securities Reserved for Issuance upon Exercise or Conversion

Warrants: _____

Options: 5,494,200

Describe any other rights:

Only stock issued so far is Common stock. When we do a future priced round, we plan to issue Preferred stock with liquidation preferences and voting rights.

There are no shareholders with over 20% ownership. The company has 79 shareholders. Collectively, management and consultants (all executive officers and/or current/former Directors) have 28.7% ownership.

18. How may the rights of the securities being offered be materially limited, diluted or qualified by the rights of any other class of security identified above?

The holders of a majority-in-interest of voting rights in the Company could limit the Investor's rights in a material way. For example, those interest holders could vote to change the terms of the agreements governing the Company's operations or cause the Company to engage in additional offerings (including potentially a public offering). These changes could result in further limitations on the voting rights the Investor will have as an owner of equity in the Company, for example by diluting those rights or limiting them to certain types of events or consents. To the extent applicable, in cases where the rights of holders of convertible debt, SAFES, or other outstanding options or warrants are exercised, or if new awards are granted under our equity compensation plans, an Investor's interests in the Company may be diluted. This means that the pro-rata portion of the Company represented by the Investor's securities will decrease, which could also diminish the Investor's voting and/or economic rights. In addition, as discussed above, if a majority-in-interest of holders of securities with voting rights cause the Company to issue additional equity, an Investor's interest will typically also be diluted. Based on the risk that an Investor's rights could be limited, diluted or otherwise qualified, the Investor could lose all or part of his or her investment in the securities in this offering, and may never see positive returns. Additional risks related to the rights of other security holders are discussed below, in Question 20.

19. Are there any differences not reflected above between the securities being offered and each other class of security of the issuer?

No.

20. How could the exercise of rights held by the principal shareholders identified in Question 6 above affect the purchasers of the securities being offered?

As holders of a majority-in-interest of voting rights in the Company, the shareholders may make decisions with which the Investor disagrees, or that negatively affect the value of the Investor's securities in the Company, and the Investor will have no recourse to change these decisions. The Investor's interests may conflict with those of other investors, and there is no guarantee that the Company will develop in a way that is optimal for or advantageous to the Investor.

For example, the shareholders may change the terms of the articles of incorporation for the company, change the terms of securities issued by the Company, change the management of the Company, and even force out minority holders of securities. The shareholders may make changes that affect the tax treatment of the Company in ways that are unfavorable to you but favorable to them. They may also vote to engage in new offerings and/or to register certain of the Company's securities in a way that negatively affects the value of the securities the Investor owns. Other holders of securities of the Company may also have access to more information than the Investor, leaving the Investor at a disadvantage with respect to any decisions regarding the securities he or she owns.

The shareholders have the right to redeem their securities at any time. Shareholders could decide to force the Company to redeem their securities at a time that is not favorable to the Investor and is damaging to the Company. Investors' exit may affect the value of the Company and/or its viability.

In cases where the rights of holders of convertible debt, SAFES, or other outstanding options or warrants are exercised, or if new awards are granted under our equity compensation plans, an Investor's interests in the Company may be diluted. This means that the pro-rata portion of the Company represented by the Investor's securities will decrease, which could also diminish the Investor's voting and/or economic rights. In addition, as discussed above, if a majority-in-interest of holders of securities with voting rights cause the Company to issue additional stock, an Investor's interest will typically also be diluted.

21. How are the securities being offered being valued? Include examples of methods for how such securities may be valued by the issuer in the future, including during subsequent corporate actions.

The offering price for the securities offered pursuant to this Form C has been determined arbitrarily by the Company, and does not necessarily bear any relationship to the Company's book value, assets, earnings or other generally accepted valuation criteria. In determining the offering price, the Company did not employ investment banking firms or other outside organizations to make an independent appraisal or evaluation. Accordingly, the offering price should not be considered to be indicative of the actual value of the securities offered hereby.

The initial amount invested in a Convertible Note is determined by the investor, and we do not guarantee that the Convertible Note will be converted into any particular number of shares.

As discussed in Question 13, when we engage in an offering of equity involving Stock, Investors may receive a number of shares of Preferred Stock calculated as either the conversion price equal to the lesser of (i) 80% of the price paid per share for Equity Securities by the Investors in the Qualified Financing or (ii) the price equal to the quotient of the valuation cap of $33,484,850.00 (the "Valuation Cap") divided by the aggregate number of outstanding shares of the Company's stock as of immediately prior to the initial closing of the Qualified Financing (assuming full conversion or exercise of all convertible and exercisable securities then outstanding, but excluding the shares of equity securities of the Company issuable upon the conversion of the Notes or any other debt).

Because there will likely be no public market for our securities prior to an initial public offering or similar liquidity event, the price of the Stock that Investors will receive, and/or the total value of the Company's capitalization, will be determined by our board of directors. Among the factors we may consider in determining the price of Stock are prevailing market conditions, our financial information, market valuations of other companies that we believe to be comparable to us, estimates of our business potential, the present state of our development and other factors deemed relevant.

In the future, we will perform valuations of our units that take into account, as applicable, factors such as the following:

- unrelated third party valuations;
- the price at which we sell other securities in light of the relative rights, preferences and privileges of those
- our results of operations, financial position and capital resources;
- current business conditions and projections;
- the marketability or lack thereof of the securities;
- the hiring of key personnel and the experience of our management;
- the introduction of new products;
- the risk inherent in the development and expansion of our products;
- our stage of development and material risks related to our business;
- the likelihood of achieving a liquidity event, such as an initial public offering or a sale of our company given the
- market conditions and the nature and history of our business;
- industry trends and competitive environment;
- trends in consumer spending, including consumer confidence;
- overall economic indicators, including gross domestic product, employment, inflation and interest rates; and
- the general economic outlook.

We will analyze factors such as those described above using a combination of financial and market-based methodologies to determine our business enterprise value. For example, we may use methodologies that assume that businesses operating in the same industry will share similar characteristics and that the Company's value will correlate to those characteristics, and/or methodologies that compare transactions in similar securities issued by us that were conducted in the market.

22. What are the risks to purchasers of the securities relating to minority ownership in the issuer?

An Investor in the Company will likely hold a minority position in the Company, and thus be limited as to its ability to control or influence the governance and operations of the Company.

The marketability and value of the Investor's interest in the Company will depend upon many factors outside the control of the Investor. The Company will be managed by its officers and be governed in accordance with the strategic direction and decision-making of its Board Of Directors, and the Investor will have no independent right to name or remove an officer or member of the Board Of Directors of the Company.

Following the Investor's investment in the Company, the Company may sell interests to additional investors, which will dilute the percentage interest of the Investor in the Company. The Investor may have the opportunity to increase its investment in the Company in such a transaction, but such opportunity cannot be

The amount of additional financing needed by the Company, if any, will depend upon the maturity and objectives of the Company. The declining of an opportunity or the inability of the Investor to make a follow-on investment, or the lack of an opportunity to make such a follow-on investment, may result in substantial dilution of the Investor's interest in the Company.

23. What are the risks to purchasers associated with corporate actions, including additional issuances of securities, issuer repurchases of securities, a sale of the issuer or of assets of the issuer or transactions with related parties?

Additional issuances of securities. Following the Investor's investment in the Company, the Company may sell interests to additional investors, which will dilute the percentage interest of the Investor in the Company. The Investor may have the opportunity to increase its investment in the Company in such a transaction, but such opportunity cannot be assured. The amount of additional financing needed by the Company, if any, will depend upon the maturity and objectives of the Company. The declining of an opportunity or the inability of the Investor to make a follow-on investment, or the lack of an opportunity to make such a follow-on investment, may result in substantial dilution of the Investor's interest in the Company.

Issuer repurchases of securities. The Company may have authority to repurchase its securities from shareholders, which may serve to decrease any liquidity in the market for such securities, decrease the percentage interests held by other similarly situated investors to the Investor, and create pressure on the Investor to sell its securities to the Company concurrently.

A sale of the issuer or of assets of the issuer. As a minority owner of the Company, the Investor will have limited or no ability to influence a potential sale of the Company or a substantial portion of its assets. Thus, the Investor will rely upon the executive management of the Company and the Board of Directors of the Company to manage the Company so as to maximize value for shareholders. Accordingly, the success of the Investor's investment in the Company will depend in large part upon the skill and expertise of the executive management of the Company and the Board of Directors of the Company. If the Board Of Directors of the Company authorizes a sale of all or a part of the Company, or a disposition of a substantial portion of the Company's assets, there can be no guarantee that the value received by the Investor, together with the fair market estimate of the value remaining in the Company, will be equal to or exceed the value of the Investor's initial investment in the Company.

Transactions with related parties. The Investor should be aware that there will be occasions when the Company may encounter potential conflicts of interest in its operations. On any issue involving conflicts of interest, the executive management and Board of Directors of the Company will be guided by their good faith judgement as to the Company's best interests. The Company may engage in transactions with affiliates, subsidiaries or other related parties, which may be on terms which are not arm's-length, but will be in all cases consistent with the duties of the management of the Company to its shareholders. By acquiring an interest in the Company, the Investor will be deemed to have acknowledged the existence of any such actual or potential conflicts of interest and to have waived any claim with respect to any liability arising from the existence of any such conflict of interest.

24. Describe the material terms of any indebtedness of the issuer:

Convertible Note

Issue date 11/08/20
Amount $775,000.00
Interest rate 12.0% per annum
Discount rate 20.0%
Valuation cap $66,709,875.00
Maturity date 11/09/23

The round has not been formally closed.

INSTRUCTION TO QUESTION 24: name the creditor, amount owed, interest rate, maturity date, and any other material terms.

25. What other exempt offerings has the issuer conducted within the past three years?

Offering Date	Exemption	Security Type	Amount Sold	Use of Proceeds
4/2020	Section 4(a)(2)	Common stock	$3,167,500	General operations
11/2020	Regulation D, Rule 506(b)	Convertible Note	$775,000	General operations

26. Was or is the issuer or any entities controlled by or under common control with the issuer a party to any transaction since the beginning of the issuer's last fiscal year, or any currently proposed transaction, where the amount involved exceeds five percent of the aggregate amount of capital raised by the issuer in reliance on Section 4(a)(6) of the Securities Act during the preceding 12- month period, including the amount the issuer seeks to raise in the current offering, in which any of the following persons had or is to have a direct or indirect material interest:

1. any director or officer of the issuer;
2. any person who is, as of the most recent practicable date, the beneficial owner of 20 percent or more of the issuer's outstanding voting equity securities, calculated on the basis of voting power;
3. if the issuer was incorporated or organized within the past three years, any promoter of the issuer;
4. or (4) any immediate family member of any of the foregoing persons.

Yes
 No

For each transaction specify the person, relationship to issuer, nature of interest in transaction, and amount of interest.

INSTRUCTIONS TO QUESTION 26: The term transaction includes, but is not limited to, any financial transaction, arrangement or relationship (including any indebtedness or guarantee of indebtedness) or any series of similar transactions, arrangements or relationships.

Beneficial ownership for purposes of paragraph (2) shall be determined as of a date that is no more than 120 days prior to the date of filing of this offering statement and using the same calculation described in Question 6 of this Question and Answer format.

The term "member of the family" includes any child, stepchild, grandchild, parent, stepparent, grandparent, spouse or spousal equivalent, sibling, mother-in-law, father-in-law, son-in-law, daughter-in-law, brother-in-law, or sister-in-law of the person, and includes adoptive relationships. The term "spousal equivalent" means a cohabitant occupying a relationship generally equivalent to that of a spouse.

Compute the amount of a related party's interest in any transaction without regard to the amount of the profit or loss involved in the transaction. Where it is not practicable to state the approximate amount of the interest, disclose the approximate amount involved in the transaction.

FINANCIAL CONDITION OF THE ISSUER

27. Does the issuer have an operating history?

- Yes
 No

28. Describe the financial condition of the issuer, including, to the extent material, liquidity, capital resources and historical results of operations.

Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations

You should read the following discussion and analysis of our financial condition and results of operations together with our financial statements and the related notes and other financial information included elsewhere in this offering. Some of the information contained in this discussion and analysis, including information regarding the strategy and plans for our business, includes forward-looking statements that involve risks and uncertainties. You should review the "Risk Factors" section for a discussion of important factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from the results described in or implied by the forward-looking statements contained in the following discussion and analysis.

Overview

GeoToll pays your tolls using only your phone. Simply download our app, enter your vehicle and payment information, and start driving! Whether you are driving your own car, a friend's car, or a rental, just drive through the toll gantry with your phone on. For tolling agencies, GeoToll means fewer misses (100% accuracy) and cost savings. For drivers, GeoToll means unprecedented convenience, no cash lane waiting, and unique features like expense reporting, trip planning, and carpool toll sharing.

Our 5-year goal is to become the go-to method for tolling payments. To start, we are piloting with leading tolling agencies to prove our benefit to customers and agencies alike. Next, we plan to expand across the US and even abroad. We are open to exploring strategic partnerships in 2 to 3 years to provide liquidity for our early investors. Finally, we patented a range of other applications for our tech, such as parking garages, parking meters, and anywhere location is needed to confirm payment. These are forward looking projections and are not guaranteed.

GeoToll holds several patents, all owned by company founders. GeoToll's patents can be viewed here: <https://tinyurl.com/yxa6qfla>

Given the Company's limited operating history, the Company cannot reliably estimate how much revenue it will receive in the future, if any.

Milestones

GEOTOLL, INC. was incorporated in the State of Florida in January 2012.

Since then, we have:

- We built a mobile tolling app for drivers to use, even when renting, using a rideshare, or traveling
- Our technology has been proven effective by successful pilots with major US

- Our technology has been proven effective by successful pilots with major tolling agencies
- Our CTO helped his team at Motorola invent phone-based GPS in the 90s
- In 5 years, we will laughing about how we had a box glued to our car windshield to pay for tolls

Historical Results of Operations

- Revenues & Gross Margin. For the period ended December 31, 2019, the Company had revenues of $290,822 compared to the year ended December 31, 2018, when the Company had revenues of $0.
- Assets. As of December 31, 2019, the Company had total assets of $27,056, including $26,784 in cash. As of December 31, 2018, the Company had $75,205 in total assets, including $73,307 in cash.
- Net Loss. The Company has had net losses of $1,512,828 and net losses of $1,020,713 for the fiscal years ended December 31, 2019 and December 31, 2018, respectively.
- Liabilities. The Company's liabilities totaled $760 for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2019 and $175,000 for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2018.

Related Party Transaction

Refer to Question 26 of this Form C for disclosure of all related party transactions.

Liquidity & Capital Resources

To-date, the company has been financed with $175,000 in debt, $5,300,500 in equity, and $775,000 in convertibles.

After the conclusion of this Offering, should we hit our minimum funding target, our projected runway is 6 months before we need to raise further capital.

We plan to use the proceeds as set forth in this Form C under "Use of Funds". We don't have any other sources of capital in the immediate future.

We will likely require additional financing in excess of the proceeds from the Offering in order to perform operations over the lifetime of the Company. We plan to raise capital in 6 months. Except as otherwise described in this Form C, we do not have additional sources of capital other than the proceeds from the offering. Because of the complexities and uncertainties in establishing a new business strategy, it is not possible to adequately project whether the proceeds of this offering will be sufficient to enable us to implement our strategy. This complexity and uncertainty will be increased if less than the maximum amount of securities offered in this offering is sold. The Company intends to raise additional capital in the future from investors. Although capital may be available for early-stage companies, there is no guarantee that the Company will receive any investments from investors.

Runway & Short/Mid Term Expenses

GEOTOLL, INC. cash in hand is $61,994, as of September 2020. Over the last three months, revenues have averaged $0/month, cost of goods sold has averaged $0/month, and operational expenses have averaged $40,000/month, for an average burn rate of $40,000 per month. Our intent is to be profitable in 12 months.

In 2019, the company received a contract from the Los Angeles County Metro Transit Authority (LA Metro) to pilot test the GeoToll system for collecting tolls on express lanes. The pilot was successfully completed in 2019 and generated $290K in revenue. LA Metro continues to consider pursuing a contract with GeoToll for full scale implementation of the system in 2021. In 2020, the company received a contract from the Bay Area Transit Authority (BATA) to pilot test the GeoToll system for collecting tolls on bridge in the San Francisco area. The pilot is currently in progress, albeit delayed due to the COVID-19 pandemic, and the company expects to generate revenue from BATA in 2021.

Since December 31, 2019, we've raised around $3.1M in a priced round in April 2020 and raised $775K in Convertible Notes in September - November 2020.

The company currently projects a need to raise $250K through the end of Q1 2021 to fund operations until such time that contracts with tolling authorities are finalized and generate positive cash flow.

Over the next 3-6 months, we expect $0 in revenue and to incur expenses of $150K. In 2021 overall, we hope to generate $2.4M in revenue, mostly from the contract with the Bay Area Toll Authority, with Operating Expenses of $2M (zero COGS), and EBITDA of $392K. These are forward looking projections and are not guaranteed.

Our alternative sources of capital include an SBA Economic Injury Disaster Loan (EIDL) of up to $150K; this is expected by the end of the year in 2020. The company continues to raise capital from accredited individual investors prior to the launch of the WeFunder campaign and will continue to do so after the close of the campaign.

INSTRUCTIONS TO QUESTION 28: The discussion must cover each year for which financial statements are provided. For issuers with no prior operating history, the discussion should focus on financial milestones and operational, liquidity and other challenges. For issuers with an operating history, the discussion should focus on whether historical results and cash flows are representative of what investors should expect in the future. Take into account the proceeds of the offering and any other known or pending sources of capital. Discuss how the proceeds from the offering will affect liquidity, whether receiving these funds and any other additional funds is necessary to the viability of the business, and how quickly the issuer anticipates using its available cash. Describe the other available sources of capital to the business, such as lines of credit or required contributions by shareholders. References to the issuer in this Question 28 and these instructions refer to the issuer and its predecessors, if any.

- i. any scienter-based anti-fraud provision of the federal securities laws, including without limitation Section 17(a)(1) of the Securities Act, Section 10(b) of the Exchange Act, Section 15(c)(1) of the Exchange Act and Section 206(1) of the Investment Advisers Act of 1940 or any other rule or regulation thereunder? Yes No
- ii. Section 5 of the Securities Act? Yes No

(6) Is any such person suspended or expelled from membership in, or suspended or barred from association with a member of, a registered national securities exchange or a registered national or affiliated securities association for any act or omission to act constituting conduct inconsistent with just and equitable principles of trade?

Yes No

(7) Has any such person filed (as a registrant or issuer), or was any such person or was any such person named as an underwriter in, any registration statement or Regulation A offering statement filed with the Commission that, within five years before the filing of this offering statement, was the subject of a refusal order, stop order, or order suspending the Regulation A exemption, or is any such person, at the time of such filing, the subject of an investigation or proceeding to determine whether a stop order or suspension order should be issued?

Yes No

(8) Is any such person subject to a United States Postal Service false representation order entered within five years before the filing of the information required by Section 4A(b) of the Securities Act, or is any such person, at the time of filing of this offering statement, subject to a temporary restraining order or preliminary injunction with respect to conduct alleged by the United States Postal Service to constitute a scheme or device for obtaining money or property through the mail by means of false representations?

Yes No

If you would have answered "Yes" to any of these questions had the conviction, order, judgment, decree, suspension, expulsion or bar occurred or been issued after May 16, 2016, then you are NOT eligible to rely on this exemption under Section 4(a)(6) of the Securities Act.

INSTRUCTIONS TO QUESTION 30: Final order means a written directive or declaratory statement issued by a federal or state agency, described in Rule 503(a)(3) of Regulation Crowdfunding, under applicable statutory authority that provides for notice and an opportunity for hearing, which constitutes a final disposition or action by that federal or state agency.

No matters are required to be disclosed with respect to events relating to any affiliated issuer that occurred before the affiliation arose if the affiliated entity is not (i) in control of the issuer or (ii) under common control with the issuer by a third party that was in control of the affiliated entity at the time of such events.

OTHER MATERIAL INFORMATION

31. In addition to the information expressly required to be included in this Form, include:

- (1) any other material information presented to investors; and
- (2) such further material information, if any, as may be necessary to make the required statements, in the light of the circumstances under which they are made, not misleading.

The Company is using the services of XX as part of its offering. XX is comprised of XX Investments, LLC, XX Team LLC, and the Lead Investors who provide services on behalf of XX Team LLC. The services of XX are available to companies that offer securities through Wefunder Portal LLC and to investors who invest in such companies through Wefunder Portal, but XX is not affiliated with Wefunder Portal or its affiliates.

XX Investments is the Company's transfer agent and also acts as custodian, paying agent, and proxy agent on behalf of all investors that enter into the Custodial and Voting Agreement with XX Investments through the Wefunder Portal website ("Investors"). XX Investments holds legal title to the securities the Company issues through Wefunder Portal (which are uncertificated) on behalf of Investors. Investors, in turn, hold the beneficial interests in the Company's securities. XX Investments keeps track of each Investor's beneficial ownership interest and makes any distributions to the Investors (or other parties, as directed by the Investors).

In addition to the above services, at the direction of XX Team, XX Investments votes the securities and take any other actions in connection with such voting on behalf of the Investors. XX Investments acts at the direction of XX Team, because XX Team holds a power of attorney from each Investor that has entered into the Investor Agreement to make voting decisions on behalf of that Investor. XX Investments will not charge Investors for its services. XX Investments does charge the Company $1,000/year for services; however, those fees may be paid by Wefunder Inc. on behalf of the Company.

As noted, XX Team holds a power of attorney from each Investor that has entered into the Investor Agreement to make voting decisions on behalf of that Investor. Pursuant to the power of attorney, XX Team will make voting decisions and then direct XX Investments to vote and take any other actions in connection with the voting on Investors' behalf. XX Team will act, with respect to the Company, through our Lead Investor, who is a representative of XX Team. As compensation for its voting services, each Investor authorizes XX Investments to distribute to XX Team 10% of any distributions the Investor would otherwise receive from the Company. XX Team will share its compensation with our Lead Investor. XX Team, through our Lead Investor, may also provide consulting services to the Company and may be compensated for these services by the Company; although, fees owed by the Company may be paid by Wefunder Inc. XX Team will share its consulting compensation with our Lead Investor.

The Lead Investor is an experienced investor that we choose to act in the role of Lead Investor, both on behalf of the Company and on behalf of Investors. As noted, the Lead Investor will be a representative of XX Team and will share in compensation that XX Team receives from the Company (or Wefunder Inc. on the Company behalf) or from Investors. The Lead Investor will be chosen by the Company and approved by Wefunder Inc., and the identity of the Lead Investor must be disclosed to Investors before Investors make a final investment decision to purchase the Company's securities. Investors will receive disclosure regarding all fees that may be received by the Lead Investor. In addition to the fees described above, the Lead Investor may receive compensation if, in the future, Wefunder Advisors LLC forms a special purpose vehicle ("SPV") for the purpose of investing in a non-Regulation Crowdfunding offering of the Company. In such a circumstance, the Lead Investor may act as a portfolio manager for that SPV (and as a supervised person of Wefunder Advisors) and may be compensated through that role. Although the Lead Investor may act in multiple roles and be compensated from multiple parties, the Lead Investor's goal is to maximize the value of the Company and therefore maximize the value of the Company's securities. As a result, the Lead Investor's interests should always be aligned with those of the Investors.

Investors that wish to purchase the Company's securities through Wefunder Portal must agree to (1) hire XX Investments to serve as custodian, paying agent, and proxy agent with respect to the Company's securities; (2) give a power of attorney to XX Team to make all voting decisions with respect to the Company's securities; and (3) direct XX Investments to share 10% of the Investor's distribution from the Company with XX Team. The Company may waive these requirements for certain investors with whom the Company has a pre-existing relationship.

The XX arrangement described above is intended to benefit the Company by allowing the Company to reflect one investor of its capitalization table (XX Investments) and by simplifying the voting process with respect to the Company's securities by having one entity (XX Team), through one person (the Lead Investor), make all voting decisions and having one entity (XX Investments) carry out XX Team's voting instruments and any take any related actions. The XX arrangement also is intended to benefit Investors by providing the services of an experienced Lead Investor (acting on behalf of XX Team) who is expected to make value-maximizing decisions regarding Investors' securities. XX Team (acting through the Lead Investor) may further benefit both the Company and Investors by providing consulting services to the Company that are intended to maximize both the value of the Company's business and also the value of its securities.

INSTRUCTIONS TO QUESTION 30: If information is presented to investors in a format, media or other means not able to be reflected in text or portable document format, the issuer should include:

- (a) a description of the material content of such information;*
- (b) a description of the format in which such disclosure is presented; and*
- (c) in the case of disclosure in video, audio or other dynamic media or format, a transcript or description of such disclosure.*

ONGOING REPORTING

32. The issuer will file a report electronically with the Securities & Exchange Commission annually and post the report on its website, no later than:

120 days after the end of each fiscal year covered by the report.

33. Once posted, the annual report may be found on the issuer's website at:

<https://geotoll.com/invest>

The issuer must continue to comply with the ongoing reporting requirements until:

1. the issuer is required to file reports under Exchange Act Sections 13(a) or 15(d);
2. the issuer has filed at least one annual report and has fewer than 300 holders of record;
3. the issuer has filed at least three annual reports and has total assets that do not exceed $10 million;
4. the issuer or another party purchases or repurchases all of the securities issued pursuant to Section 4(a)(6), including any payment in full of debt securities or any complete redemption of redeemable securities; or the issuer liquidates or dissolves in accordance with state law.

The Form C must be signed by the issuer, its principal executive officer or officers, its principal financial officer, its controller or principal accounting officer and at least a majority of the board of directors or persons performing similar functions.

I authorize Wefunder Portal to submit a Form C to the SEC based on the information I provided through this online form and my company's Wefunder profile.

As an authorized representative of the company, I appoint Wefunder Portal as the company's true and lawful representative and attorney-in-fact, in the company's name, place and stead to make, execute, sign, acknowledge, swear to and file a Form C on the company's behalf. This power of attorney is coupled with an interest and is irrevocable. The company hereby waives any and all defenses that may be available to contest, negate or disaffirm the actions of Wefunder Portal taken in good faith under or in reliance upon this power of attorney.
