SUBJECT Invest in Arrived the Company From Arrived CEO

PREHEADER We've partnered with Wefunder to give investors this opportunity.

Arrived x Wefunder

YOU CAN NOW INVEST IN ARRIVED

Hi there,

I am pleased to offer you a sneak peek of an email that we plan on sending next week. As you've shown interest in this opportunity, we wanted to give you the first look. Check out the exciting details on investing in Arrived equity below! 🥳

Since we started Arrived a few years ago, one of the most common questions we have heard from our clients is, "Can we invest in the company?" We value that level of trust in us, and as a result, we are thrilled to announce we are preparing a small community funding round that will only be available to owners of Arrived investment properties and that will enable existing investors to become part owners of the company Arrived as well.

Starting today, investors are able to learn more about the opportunity and indicate your interest on our offering page on the Wefunder platform. Because the goal is to offer our valued clients the opportunity to invest in our company rather than seek additional investment capital for operations, we have a limited amount of capital that we are able to raise, with a maximum total investment cap of $500,000. This will be alongside investors from our last round of financing.

We intend to gather interest over the next few months and subsequently distribute investment amounts among those who have expressed interest. In this initial phase, we will not be accepting any payments. If you submit a reservation to invest, please refrain from wiring money to Wefunder.

Investing in startups is a highly risky endeavor, and we strongly advise individuals to exercise caution when considering investing in Arrived equity (or any tech startup for that matter). While we are very optimistic about our future given the rapid growth we are seeing, there are always significant risks associated with investing in equity for early-stage startups.

We would also like to emphasize that any risk associated with investing in Arrived company equity does not translate to risk investing in Arrived investment properties. We structure all of our rental home and vacation rental properties as independent series LLCs, which means those investments continue to hold their value and operate independent of the Arrived company performance.

We appreciate the trust you have placed in us over the last few years and are excited to partner with you on our journey to make real estate investing accessible for all.
