Media, Pennsylvania, United States

Summary

As a Realtor® licensed in Pennsylvania, I provide strategic marketing and transaction management services across multiple Pennsylvania markets, with a strong focus on Delaware and Chester County. My client-first approach is built on four key pillars: Dedication, Communication, Determination, and Trust—ensuring that I can adapt to and deliver on every client's unique real estate needs.

"Just as the real estate industry evolves to become more innovative and efficient, so do I."

I am committed to delivering exceptional real estate services that empower buyers, sellers, and investors to make confident decisions. With a deep understanding of market trends and investment strategies, I ensure that each transaction is tailored to maximize value, efficiency, and long-term success.

Strategic Growth & Investment Expertise

Beyond my work as a Realtor®, I have a diverse background in real estate strategy and investment. I currently own a real estate company that has:

- ✓ Helped over 170 Buyers and Sellers
- ✓ Owned & Managed 50+ Rental Properties
- ✓ Completed 100+ Property Flips
- ✓ Led Development of a 41-Home Subdivision
- ✓ Secured $1M+ in Investor Funding

My expertise extends beyond traditional real estate—having led market expansion, revenue growth, and strategic planning for industry leaders like Redfin. I drove a 12% increase in market share and exceeded revenue targets by 135%, leading a team of high-performing agents.

Engineering Precision Meets Real Estate Innovation

I bring a unique engineering and problem-solving mindset to real estate. A graduate with honors from SUNY Buffalo with a B.S. in Engineering, I began my career at Rolls-Royce Aerospace, where I worked as a Project Engineer on Control Systems. This background has equipped me with a data-driven, analytical approach that I apply to market analysis, investment strategy, and real estate innovation.

"Rest assured, I will listen to you! With an understanding of your needs and goals, I will do my best to help you achieve them all."

Whether you're buying, selling, investing, or scaling a real estate portfolio, I bring the expertise, strategy, and dedication to help you achieve success.
