The Company's preferred units have preferred dividend rights equal to a percentage return defined in the subscription agreement or 8% per year on a cumulative non-compounded basis if no such percentage return is defined. Holders of preferred units have no voting rights. Holders of preferred units have liquidation preferences over our common units and restricted units. (c) Common Units. Each Common Unit shall carry the right to cast one vote on any matter submitted to the Members of the Company and be entitled to profit and loss distributions and allocations. New Members may be admitted upon the affirmative, written approval of our chief executive officer or our board of directors.

2.6 Reserved.

2.7 Withdrawal of Contributions. No Member shall have the right or be permitted to withdraw from the Company or demand the return of all or any part of its Capital Contribution except as agreed in writing by all the Members. Any voluntary act of a Member that constitutes a withdrawal from the Company shall constitute material breach of this Agreement and the Company shall be entitled to collect damages for such breach. Such damages shall offset any cash or other property otherwise distributable to such Member by the Company.

2.8 Transfer of Membership Units. Membership Units are held, and may only be transferred, assigned, pledged, hypothecated, sold, or otherwise disposed of, in accordance with all the terms and conditions of this Agreement. Any such transfer, assignment, pledge, hypothecation, sale, or disposition, even though in full compliance with the terms of this Agreement, shall only transfer the right represented by such transferred Membership Unit to receive a share of the capital, profits, and cash available for distribution by the Company and shall not result in making any such subsequent holder a Member of the Company. Additional Members shall only be admitted as provided in Section

2.9.

2.9 Admission of Additional Members. On the issuance of newly authorized Membership Units in accordance with the provisions of Section 2.4 and on receipt of the Capital Contribution specified and the delivery to the Company of an executed Counterpart Signature Page indicating the holder's agreement to be bound by all of the terms and conditions of this Agreement, such holder shall become an additional Member of the Company (an "Additional Member"). On the transfer, assignment, pledge, hypothecation, sale, or other disposition of any Membership Units in accordance with the provisions of Section 2.8, the subsequent holder shall be entitled to receive a share of the capital, profits, and cash available for distribution from the Company represented by the number and class of Membership Units pursuant to this Agreement held by such holder but shall not become a Member of the Company and shall have no right to participate in the affairs of the Company unless the chief executive officer consents to the admission of such holder as an Additional Member, such holder has delivered to the Company an executed Counterpart Signature Page agreeing to be bound by all the terms and conditions of this Agreement, and such holder has paid any reasonable expenses in connection with such holder's admission as an Additional Member. Until approval and admission of the subsequent holder as an Additional Member has been completed, the transferor shall continue as a Member of the Company with respect to such transferred Membership Units for all purposes other than participation in the capital, profits, and cash available for distribution by the Company related to the transferred Membership Units. The admission of a transferee of Membership Units as an Additional Member shall not affect the dissolution of the Company. No Additional Members shall be entitled to any retroactive allocation of losses, income or expense deductions incurred by the Company. The chief executive officer may, at the time an Additional Member is admitted, close the Company books (as though the Company's tax year had ended) or make pro rata allocation of loss, income and expense deductions to an Additional Member for that portion of the Company's tax year in which the Additional Member was admitted in accordance with the provisions of Section 706(d) of the Code and the Treasury Regulations issued by the United States Treasury Department promulgated thereunder ("Regulations").

2.10 Transfer Limitations. In addition to other limitations on transfer or disposition of a Membership Unit set forth herein, no disposition of any Membership Unit by a Member may be made if the Membership Unit or any part thereof sought to be transferred, when added to the total of all other Membership Units disposed of within the period of 12 consecutive months prior to the proposed date of disposition, in the opinion of counsel for the Company, results in the termination of the Company under the Code. Further, no disposition of any Membership Unit may be made without registration under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, and under state securities laws or unless the Company receives an opinion of counsel satisfactory to it that an exemption from registration is available. In addition, no disposition of any Membership Unit may be made if, in the opinion of counsel of the Company, such disposition would cause the Company to be treated as an association taxable as a corporation rather than as a limited liability company subject to the provisions of Subchapter K of the Code, or any comparable provisions then in effect.

If transmitted by email, such notice shall be deemed to be delivered on the date of such email, if any, for the respective Member which has been supplied by such Member to the Company and identified as such Member's email address.

6.5 Meeting of all Members. If all of the Members meet at any time and place, either within or outside of the State of Nevada, and consent to the holding of a meeting at such time and place, such meeting shall be valid without call or notice, and lawful action may be taken at such meeting.

6.6 Record Date. For the purpose of determining Members entitled to notice of or to vote at any meeting of Members or any adjournment thereof, or to express consent to the Company action in writing without a meeting; or Members entitled to receive any distribution; or allotment of any rights; or entitled to exercise any rights in respect to any change, conversion, or exchange of Common Units; or for the purpose of any other lawful action, the chief executive officer of the Company may fix in advance a date as the record date for any such determination of Members, such date in any case to be not more than thirty (30) days and, in the case of a meeting of Members, not less than ten (10) days prior to the date on which the particular action requiring such determination of Members is to be taken. If no record date is fixed for the determination of Members entitled to notice of or to vote at a meeting, the day preceding the date on which notice of the meeting is mailed shall be the record date. For any other purpose, the record date shall be the close of business on the date on which the resolution of the chief executive officer pertaining thereto is adopted. When a determination of Members entitled to vote at any meeting of the Members has been made as provided in this Section, such determination shall apply to any adjournment thereof. Failure to comply with this Section shall not affect the validity of any action taken at a meeting of Members.

A Majority-In-Interest, represented in person or by proxy, together, shall constitute a quorum at any meeting of Members for the transaction of business, except as otherwise provided by statute or by the Articles of Organization. In the absence of a quorum at any such meeting, a majority of the Membership Units so represented may adjourn the meeting from time to time for a period not to exceed 60 days without further notice. At such adjourned meeting at which a quorum shall be present or represented, any business may be transacted which might have been transacted at the meeting as originally noticed. If the adjournment is for more than 60 days, however, or if after the adjournment a new record date is fixed for the adjourned meeting, a notice of the adjourned meeting shall be given to each Member of record entitled to vote at a meeting.

6.9 Manner of Acting. If a quorum is present, the affirmative vote of the Majority-In-Interest in person or represented by proxy shall be the act of the Members, unless the vote of a greater or lesser proportion or number is otherwise required by this Agreement.

6.10 Voting of Common Units. Each Member shall at every meeting of the Members be entitled to one vote in person or by proxy for each of the voting Common Units held by such Member, subject to the modification of such voting rights of any Common Units by this Amended Operating Agreement. Holders of Common Units who are not Members shall not be entitled to vote on any matter submitted to the Members.

6.11 Proxies. At all meetings of the Members, each Member entitled to vote shall be entitled to vote in person or by proxy; Provided, however, that the right to vote by proxy shall exist only if the instrument authorizing such proxy to act shall have been executed in writing by the registered holder or holders of such Common Units, as the case may be, as shown on the Common Unit ledger of the Company or by its or their attorney thereunto duly authorized in writing. Such instrument authorizing a proxy to act shall be delivered to the chief executive officer at the beginning of such meeting. Notice of such action shall be provided to all Members not signing the consent within ten (10) days of such action.

6.13 Waiver of Notice. When any notice is required to be given to any Member, a waiver thereof in writing signed by the Member entitled to such notice, whether before, at, or after the time stated herein, shall be equivalent to the giving of such notice. A Member's attendance at any meeting, in person or by proxy, (i) waives objection to lack of notice or defective notice of the meeting, unless the Member at the beginning of the meeting objects to holding the meeting or transacting business at the meeting, and (ii) waives objection to consideration of a particular matter at the meeting that is not within the purposes described in the meeting notice, unless the Member objects to considering the matter when it is presented.

Subject to this Section 8.1(a), Section 13.3 (Curative Allocations) and Section 2.1 (Membership Units), the Company's Net Profits and Net Losses shall be allocated to the Members in that proportion which is equal to the total number of Common and Restricted Units owned or held by each respective Member at the time such allocations are made, as recorded in the Company's Membership Unit ledger, divided by the total number of Common and Restricted Units owned or held by all of the Members at the time of such allocations, as recorded in the Company's Membership Unit ledger (the "Percentage Interest").

Notwithstanding any provisions above to the contrary, gain or loss of the Company realized in connection with a sale or other disposition of any of the assets of the Company will be allocated solely to the parties owning Membership Units in the Company as of the date the sale or other disposition occurs. All amounts withheld pursuant to the Code or any provisions of state or local tax law with respect to any payment or distribution to the Members from the Company shall be treated as amounts distributed to the relevant Member or Members pursuant to this Section. No distribution shall be declared and paid unless, after the distribution is made, the assets of the Company are in excess of all liabilities of the Company, except liabilities to Members on account of their contributions. Following the death or expulsion of a Member, the Member (and the Member's successor, personal representatives and assigns) shall cease to have any rights of a Member except only the right to receive distributions to the same extent as a permitted assignee of the Member's Membership Units in the Company, in accordance with the terms of this Agreement, until such time as the Company is wound up and terminated. The proceeds of liquidation of the Company's assets, to the extent sufficient therefor, shall be applied and distributed as follows:

- a. First, to the payment and discharge of all of the Company's debts and liabilities to third parties except those owing to Members or to the establishment of any reasonable reserves for contingent or unliquidated debts and liabilities;
 - b. Second, to the payment of any debts and liabilities owing to Members; and
 - c. - (c) Upon completion of the winding up, liquidation and distribution of the assets, the Company shall be deemed terminated.
- (d) The chief executive officer shall comply with any requirements of applicable law pertaining to the winding up of the affairs of the Company and the final distribution of its assets.

ARTICLE XII

ACCOUNTS

12.1 Books. The chief executive officer shall maintain complete and accurate books of account of all transactions of the Company, which books of account shall be kept in a secure location in the cloud. The chief executive officer may transfer to the Member's Capital Account all or any portion of the credit balances in the Member's Distribution Account. Any amounts transferred shall be in proportion to the Member's Percentage Interest. A credit balance in a Member's Distribution Account shall constitute a liability of the Company to that Member; it shall not constitute a part of the Member's interest in the Company's capital, until closed to said Member's Capital Account. A debit balance in a Member's Distribution Account, whether occasioned by distributions in excess of his or her share of the Company profits or by charging such Member for his or her share of the Company loss, shall not constitute an obligation of the Member to the Company; it shall not reduce such Member's interest in the Company's capital, until closed to said Member's Capital Account. Payment of any amount owed to the Company shall be made at such time and in such manner as the chief executive officer may determine.

12.3 Reports. The chief executive officer shall close the books of account promptly after the close of each Fiscal Year and shall prepare and send to each Member a statement of such Member's distributive share of income and loss for federal income tax reporting purposes.

In such event, subsequent allocations of Profits or Losses pursuant to Section 13.1 hereof shall be allocated (i) first, so as to offset the Profits (or Losses) allocated for such Fiscal Year or years and (ii) the balance, if any, to the Members in proportion to their Percentage Interests.

In the event the Book Value of any the Company asset is adjusted pursuant to subsection (b) of the definition of "Book Value" in Section 13.1 hereof, subsequent allocations of income, gain, loss and deduction with respect to such asset shall take account of any variation between the adjusted basis of such asset for federal income tax purposes and its Book Value in the same manner as under Code Section 704(c) and the Regulations thereunder. Any elections or other decisions relating to such allocations shall be made by the chief executive officer in any manner that reasonably reflects the purpose and intention of this Agreement.

13.6 Minimum Gain Chargeback. Except as otherwise provided in section 1.704-2(f) of the Regulations, notwithstanding any other provision of this Article XIII, if there is a net decrease in the Minimum Gain of the Company during any Fiscal Year, each Member shall be specially allocated items of Company income and gain for such year (and, if necessary, subsequent years) in an amount equal to the portion of such Member's share of the net decrease in the Minimum Gain of the Company, determined in accordance with section 1.704-2(g) of the Regulations. This Section 13.7 is intended to comply with section 1.704-2(i)(4) of the Regulations and shall be interpreted consistently therewith.

ARTICLE XIV

INDEMNIFICATION OF MEMBERS AND MANAGER; OFFICER AND MANAGER CONTRACTS; LIMITATION OF LIABILITY

14.1 Indemnification of Members and Chief Executive Officer.

- (a) Third Party Actions. To the greatest extent not inconsistent with the laws and public policies of the State of Nevada, the Company will indemnify any Member or officer or director who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed proceeding because such individual is or was a Member or officer or director, as a matter of right, against all liability incurred by such individual in connection with any proceeding; provided that it is determined that the specific indemnification of such individual is permissible in the circumstances because the individual has met the standard of conduct for indemnification set forth in subsection (d) of this Section. The Company will pay for or reimburse the reasonable expenses incurred by a Member, officer or director in connection with any such proceeding in advance of final disposition thereof if (i) the individual furnishes the Company a written affirmation of the standard of conduct for indemnification described in subsection (d) of this Section, (ii) the individual furnishes the Company a written undertaking, executed personally or on such individual's behalf, to repay the advance if it is ultimately determined that such individual did not meet such standards of conduct, and (iii) a determination is made in accordance with subsection (e) that, based upon facts then known to those making the determination, indemnification would not be precluded under this Section. The undertaking described in subsection (a)(ii) above must be a general obligation of the Member, officer or director, subject to such reasonable limitations as the Company may permit, but need not be secured and may be accepted without reference to financial ability to make repayment. The Company will indemnify a Member, officer or director who is successful, on the merits or otherwise, in the defense of any such proceeding or in defense of any claim, issue, or matter therein, without the requirement of a determination as set forth in subsection (d) of this Section. Upon demand by a Member, officer or director for indemnification or advancement of expenses, as the case may be, the Company will expeditiously determine whether the Member, officer or director is entitled thereto in accordance with this Section. The indemnification and advancement of expenses provided for under this Section will be applicable to any proceeding arising from acts or omissions occurring before or after the adoption of this Section.

- (b) The Company Actions. To the greatest extent not inconsistent with the laws and public policies of State of Nevada, the Company will indemnify any Member, officer or director who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed proceeding by or in the right of the Company because such individual is or was a Member, officer or director, as a matter of right, against all liability incurred by such individual in connection with proceeding; provided that it is determined that the specific indemnification of such individual is permissible in the circumstances because the individual has met the standard of conduct for indemnification set forth in subsection (d) of this Section, except that no indemnification shall be made in respect of any claim, issue, or matter as to which such person shall have been adjudged to be liable for gross negligence or misconduct in the performance of his duty to the Company unless and only to the extent that the court in which the action or suit was brought shall determine on application that, despite the adjudication of liability, but in view of all the circumstances of the case, the person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity for such expenses as the court deems proper. The Company will pay for or reimburse the reasonable expenses incurred by a Member, officer or director in connection with any such proceeding in advance of final disposition thereof if, (i) the individual furnishes the Company a written affirmation of the standard of conduct for indemnification described in subsection (d) of this Section, (ii) the individual furnishes the Company a written undertaking, executed personally or on such individual's behalf, to repay the advance if it is ultimately determined that such individual did not meet such standards of conduct, and (iii) a determination is made in accordance with subsection (e) that, based upon facts then known to those making the determination, indemnification would not be precluded under this Section. The undertaking described in subsection (b)(ii) above must be a general obligation of the Member, officer or director, subject to such reasonable limitations as the Company may permit, but need not be secured and may be accepted without reference to financial ability to make repayment. The Company will indemnify a Member, officer or director who is successful, on the merits or otherwise, in the defense of any such proceeding or in defense of any claim, issue, or matter therein, without the requirement of a determination as set forth in subsection (d) of this Section. Upon demand by a Member, officer or director for indemnification or advancement of expenses, as the case may be, the Company will expeditiously determine whether the Member, officer or director is entitled thereto in accordance with this Section. The indemnification and advancement of expenses provided for under this Section will be applicable to any proceeding arising from acts or omissions occurring before or after the adoption of this Section.

- (c) Additional Capacities. The Company will have the power, but not the obligation, to indemnify any individual or entity who is or was an employee, officer or agent of the Company or is or was serving at the request of the Company as an officer, director, member, trustee, employee, or agent of another limited partnership, limited liability company, association, corporation, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan, or other enterprise to the same extent as if such individual is or was a Member, officer or director.
- (d) Required Conduct. Indemnification is permissible under this Section only if (i) the subject party conducted himself in good faith, (ii) the subject party reasonably believed that his conduct was in or at least not opposed to the Company's best interest; and (iii) in the case of a criminal proceeding, the subject party had no reasonable cause to believe his conduct was unlawful. The termination of a proceeding by judgment, order, settlement, conviction, or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent is not, of itself, demonstrative or sufficient to create a presumption that the individual did not meet the standard of conduct described in this subsection.
- (e) Determination. A determination as to whether indemnification or advancement of expenses is permissible shall be made by one of the following procedures; (i) by the chief executive officer, if not a party to such proceeding; (ii) if the chief executive officer is party to the proceeding, by the Majority-In-Interest, not at the time party to such proceedings, at any meeting duly called for such purpose; or (iii) by independent legal counsel selected by the Majority-In-Interest at any meeting duly called for such purpose.

- (f) Application to the Court. A Member, officer or director of the Company who is a party to a proceeding may apply for indemnification from the Company to the court, if any, conducting the proceeding or to another court of competent jurisdiction. On receipt of an application, the court, after giving notice the court considers necessary, may order indemnification if it determines: (i) in a proceeding in which the Member, officer or director is wholly successful, on their merits or otherwise, the Member, officer or director is entitled to indemnification under this Section, in which case the court will order the Company to pay the Member, officer or director his reasonable expenses incurred to obtain such court ordered indemnification; or (ii) the Member, officer or director is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnification in view of all the relevant circumstances, whether or not the Member, officer or director meets the standard of conduct set forth in subsection (d) of this Section.
- (g) Employee Benefit Plan. Indemnification will be provided for an individual's conduct with respect to an employee benefit plan if the individual reasonably believed his conduct to be in the interests of the participants and beneficiaries of the plan.
- (h) General Indemnification. Nothing contained in this Section will limit or preclude the exercise or be deemed exclusive of any right under the law, by contract or otherwise, relating to indemnification of or advancement of expenses to any individual who is or was a Member, officer or director of the Company or is or was serving at the Company's request as a manager, officer, director, member, trustee, employee, or agent of another, limited partnership, association, limited liability company, corporation, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan, or other enterprise. Nothing contained in this Section will limit the ability of the Company to otherwise indemnify or advance expenses to any individual. It is the intent of this Section to provide indemnification to Members and the chief executive officer to the fullest extent now or hereafter permitted by the law consistent with the terms and conditions of this Section. Indemnification will be provided in accordance with this Section irrespective of the nature of the legal or equitable theory upon which a claim is made including, without limitation, negligence, breach of duty, mismanagement, waste, breach of contract, breach of warranty, strict liability, violation of federal or state securities law, as amended, or violation of any other state or federal law.
- (i) General Definitions for Purposes of This Section:

- a. The term “expenses” includes all direct and indirect costs (including, without limitation, counsel fees, retainers, court costs, transcripts, fees of experts, witness fees, travel expenses, duplicating costs, printing and binding costs, telephone charges, postage, delivery service fees, and all other disbursements or out-of-pocket expenses) actually incurred in connection with the investigation, defense, settlement, or appeal of a proceeding or establishing or enforcing a right to indemnification under this Section, applicable law or otherwise.
- b. The term “liability” means the obligation to pay a judgment, settlement, penalty, fine, excise tax (including an excise tax assessed with respect to an employee benefit plan), or reasonable expenses incurred with respect to a proceeding.
- c. The term “party” includes an individual who was, is, or is threatened to be made a named defendant or respondent in a proceeding.
- d. The term “proceeding” means any threatened, pending, or completed action, suit, or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative and whether formal or informal.
- (j) Scope of Indemnification. The indemnification authorized by this section shall apply to all present and future managers, officers, employees, and agents of the Company and shall continue as to such persons who cease to be managers, officers, employees, or agents of the Company, and shall inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors, and administrators of all such persons and shall be in addition to all other indemnification permitted by law.
- (k) Insurance. The Company may purchase and maintain insurance for its benefit, the benefit of any individual who is entitled to indemnification under this Section, or both, against any liability asserted against or incurred by such individual in any capacity or arising out of such individual’s service, whether or not the Company would have the power to indemnify such individual against such liability.

14.2 Officer and Manager Contracts; Limitation of Liability. No contract or other transaction between the Company and any other person, firm, or entity shall be affected by the fact that a manager, officer, employee, or agent of the Company has an interest in, or is a manager or officer of the Company or any such other entity. Any officer or manager, individually or with others, may be a party to, or may have an interest in, any transaction of the Company or any transaction in which the Company is a party or has an interest. Each person who is now or may become an officer or manager of the Company is hereby relieved from liability that such person might otherwise obtain in the event such officer or manager contracts with the Company for the benefit of himself or any firm or other entity in which he or she may have an interest; provided, such officer or manager acts in good faith. The foregoing limitation on liability extends to any and all actions referred to in Section 3.6 of this Agreement taken by the manager and officers, employees, and agents of the Company and by the officers, directors, and agents of the chief executive officer.
