SongVest offers a unique opportunity for fans to invest in the music industry by buying units of 50% of the sound recording royalties in "No Scrubs - TLC Version". This means that investors can earn money every time the song is streamed online.

You are reserving one or more units that allow you to be first in line to purchase these units once they are qualified by the SEC. Each unit represents a prorated percentage of the royalties collected from the sound recordings and paid by DistroKid.

Reserve - During the VIP Auction, you can reserve one or more SongShares at $100 per unit. If all of the units are reserved at the starting price, the unit price will increase. Any unit reserved at the higher price will displace a unit at the lower price. Based on demand, you could lose your reservation and have to bid again at the higher unit price to ensure you have your units reserved. The VIP Auction will end when time runs out and no new bids have been made in the last 5 minutes.

Buy - You will be able to purchase your units when the Offering goes on sale. This is usually 3 to 4 weeks after the VIP Auction closes and after notice of SEC qualification. You will receive an email with notice for a 24-hour window for successful bidders to purchase their reserved units. If any units are not purchased, it will open to the public to buy remaining SongShares.

Earn - SongVest will pay out any earned royalties quarterly.

*After SEC qualification, when the Offering is closed, SongVest will email purchasers with details on claiming their free digital collectible from OneOf. Purchasers may claim one token for each share purchased and will need to have, or register for, a free account at OneOf.com.

Sean Peace here, SongVest's Founder and CEO.

Thank you for investing in SongVest. We're happy to have you on the team. I'm writing today with an exciting update about the company.

First off, we continue to successfully close catalog sales and SEC-qualified fractional royalty offerings on the platform. And our royalty payouts continue to grow. Fractionalized shares of these three TLC songs are available to fans as SongShares®, SEC qualified fractionalized music royalty streams. Bidding is now open for all three SongShares® offerings on SongVest.com.
