Who Are We

Earth, Wind & Books: coffee and brunch is the ideal meeting space for young book lovers and coffee drinkers. We offer a way to relax and browse books with the addition of hot coffee and pastries.

- Earth, Wind & Books is currently an online bookstore serving worldwide physical, audio and eBooks.
- As we are different among the 300 bookstores in the state, Earth, Wind & Books will identify as a black-owned independent bookshop. This is relevant in that we will be 1 of the 6 bookstores across the state and 125 in the country to represent diverse reading. Our goal is to push underrepresented books to be more accessible, visible and promoted.
- We believe that bookstores are the cornerstones of civil, creative and healthy communities. Building in a way that brings like-minded individuals together, Earth, Wind & Books will be a destination to connect locals. A physical space is needed as it serves a physiological purpose that ecommerce bookstores such as Amazon cannot replicate.
- We have set in place some strategic goals to stay relevant during our down seasons. These goals include partnering with local nonprofit foundations to raise benefits for low-income, k-12 reading and tutoring. With this in mind, Earth, Wind & Books will hold multiple events centered around charity, book reads, holidays, etc. to bring in numerous customers across the Dallas Metroplex. With our strong team and customer service, we will gain customers and keep them.

Target Market

The target audience for Earth Wind & Books are millennial/ generation Z creatives that casually engage in aesthetically pleasing environments such as a coffee shop.

- The average individual would be an educated, between 20 and 30 years old, woman that is ready to experience Dallas culture. Our café/bookstore will serve as a bridge between late gen Z and early millennial adults. This target age group will help keep our shop relevant as they prevail through popular social media platforms like Instagram, Facebook and Twitter.
- Specifically, we expect most of our customers to come from middle class family neighborhoods as we aim to be stationed in the heart of multiple southern Dallas suburbs. As this will be a created welcoming space for lower to middle class minorities, our target customers are aimed to share a place where many racial groups will share the same welcoming experience.
- Our target customers are willing to travel across town just to engage in our books and coffee.

Explanation

A “material change” means a change that an average, careful investor would want to know about before making an investment decision. If a material change occurs after you make an investment commitment but before the Offering closes, then the Company will notify you and ask whether you want to invest anyway. If you do not affirmatively choose to invest, then your commitment will be cancelled, your funds will be returned to you, and you will not receive any securities.

(L) Price of the Securities

The Company is offering “securities” in the form of revenue sharing notes, which we refer to as “Notes.” The Notes are being offered at their face amount. For example, you will pay $1,000 for a Note with a face amount of $1,000.

(M) Terms of the Securities

Overview

The Company is offering “securities” in the form of revenue sharing notes, which we refer to as the “Notes.” The Terms of the Notes are set forth in the Revenue Share Agreement accompanying this Form C in Appendix A. Copies of the Note and Revenue Sharing Agreement are attached to this Form C.

Summary of Terms

Revenue Percentage ¹	2.6 - 10.4% ²
Payment Deadline	2027-04-01
Maximum Payment Multiple	1.6 x
Sharing Start Date	The first day after disbursement that the company has revenues greater than one ($1) dollar
First Payment Date	The last day of the calendar quarter ending not less than 90 days after the Sharing Start Date
Seniority	Subordinated
Securitization	Unsecured
Accrual Rate	1.02%

¹ as defined in the note agreement included in Appendix A

² The rate of revenue sharing is calculated on a linear scale with a minimum rate of 2.6% and a maximum rate of 10.4% and is rounded to the nearest 1/10th percent. The final rate is based on the amount raised and is calculated after the offering has successfully closed. As the amount raised in the offering increases, the rate of revenue sharing increases. For example, a hypothetical offering could result in the following revenue sharing percentages, depending on the amount raised:

Amount Raised	Revenue Sharing Percentage
$15,000	2.6%
$26,250	4.6%
$37,500	6.5%
$48,750	8.5%
$60,000	10.4%

Your Right to Payments under the Note

Your right to payments under the Note is set forth in the Note, together with a separate document called the Revenue Sharing Agreement. Copies of the Note and Revenue Sharing Agreement are attached to this Form C. Additionally, general terms are outlined below and in the Company’s offering page.

Obligation to Contribute Capital

Once you pay for your Note, you will have no obligation to contribute more money to the Company, and you will not be personally obligated for any debts of the Company. However, under some circumstances you could be required by law to return some or all of a distribution you receive from the Company.

No Right to Transfer

You should plan to hold the Notes until maturity. The Notes will be illiquid (meaning you might not be able to sell them) for at least four reasons:

- The Revenue Sharing Agreement prohibits the sale or other transfer of Notes without the Company's consent.
- If you want to sell your Note the Company will have the first right of refusal to buy it, which could make it harder to find a buyer.
- Even if a sale were permitted, there is no ready market for Notes, as there would be for a publicly-traded stock.
- By law, for a period of one year you won't be allowed to transfer the Investor Shares except (i) to the Company itself, (ii) to an "accredited" investor, (iii) to a family or trust, or (iii) in a public offering of the Company's shares.

Security

The Notes are not secured by any assets of the Company or any assets of persons associated with the Company.

Modification of Terms of Notes

The terms of the Notes and the Revenue Sharing Agreement may be modified or amended with the consent of Investors holding 50% of the Notes, measured by the total amount outstanding under each Note.

Other Classes of Securities

Name of Security	Limited Liability Company Interests
Number of Shares Outstanding	N/A
Describe Voting Rights of These Securities, Including Any Limitations on Voting Rights	N/A
How these securities differ from the revenue sharing notes being offered to investors	Limited Liability Company Interests are an equity interest, whereas Revenue Sharing Notes are a debt obligation of the Company.

Dilution of Rights

The Company has the right to create additional classes of securities, both equity securities and debt securities (e.g., other classes of promissory notes). Some of these additional classes of securities could have rights that are superior to those of the Notes. For example, the Company could issue promissory notes that are secured by specific property of the Company.

The People Who Control the Company

Each of these people owns 20% or more of the total voting power of the Company:

Name of Holder	% of Voting Power (Prior to Offering)
Kimari Hodges	100%

How the Exercise of Voting Rights Could Affect You

You will receive payments with respect to your Note only if the Company makes enough money to pay you, or, if the Company does not make enough money to pay you, if there is enough value in the collateral the Company pledged as security for the Notes.

The people with voting rights control the Company and make all the decisions about running its business. If they make good business decisions, it is more likely you will be paid. If they make poor business decisions, it is less likely you will be paid. For example, if they hire too many people and/or try to expand too quickly, the business could be harmed. The people with voting rights could also decide to file for bankruptcy protection, making it more difficult for you to be paid.

How the Notes are Being Valued

The Notes are being valued at their face value. We don't anticipate that we'll ever need to place a value on the Notes in the future.

(N) The Funding Portal

The Company is offering its securities through MainVest, Inc., which is a "Funding Portal" licensed by the Securities and Exchange Commission and FINRA.
