Dear Friends & Family,

Through the pandemic, I have had the pleasure to help write and produce a feature film called "Escaping Ohio" with my friend Jessica Michael Davis. It's a story about growing up in a small town and being faced with the difficult choice of accepting a life that's been planned for you or "escaping" and forging your own path.

We have put together an incredible team for this project, including the phenomenal actress and producing partner Emily Bergl. We've also been fortunate enough to work with The Sundance Institute on the script to ensure this film is the best that it can possibly be. We're so excited to begin production this August and we have decided to move forward with a crowd-funding platform that has just been opened up to the public.

You can read more info on the investment terms, the synopsis, our business plan & more on <https://wefunder.com/escapingohio>

Any donations, small or large, are greatly appreciated and if you aren't able to invest, your continued support or kind words are just as important to us.

This has been an amazing experience and I'm so looking forward to sharing the final product with you all. Thank you so much and please reach out if you have any questions!

Hello Ohio filmmakers! Last year, we made a short film called Escaping Ohio, which has now been developed into a feature length film and will be shooting here in Ohio this August! We have an incredibly talented cast & crew, including the well known actress Emily Bergl. We are seeking more investors to join our team through the online platform WeFunder, <https://WeFunder.com/escapingohio>. If anyone knows any Ohioans wanting to support film in Ohio & female filmmakers, or receive a producing credit, we would love if you would either forward this along or send them my way 😊 Information about the film, our team, the business plan, etc. can be found on the platform.

*Update: We're now attached with the Greater Cleveland Film Commission.
