We are expecting our latest app to be approved by both Apple and Google within the next day or two. Once that is done, we will continue to make improvements and immediately get to working on building out the attorney platform. I'm keeping this crowdfunding up for a few more days and than we are closing it up. I promise that you will not regret this investment.

When I tell y'all that every single one of you needs to go ahead and pre-order @daviddtss book, "The Movement Made Us." I'm still shook from the chapter that he just read

I haven't shared this in a while, but we are closing this down in a couple of weeks because I truly feel like we are in a great spot. I will reiterate this once again, I know I am building a company that will turn into a unicorn. If you know of people that are thinking about investing, tell them to put their money in here and see what kind of returns they will get in a few years.

I appreciate all of the love about the upcoming position at Davidson. If you have seen our growth over the past 7 years and you have wanted to be a part of it, now is your opportunity. If I could have been an early investor in Facebook, PayPal, Google, Apple or any of these unicorn companies, I would have jumped at the chance. I am building a unicorn, and I know that the world ha... See More
