ARTICLE V

ALLOCATIONS AND DISTRIBUTIONS

5.1 Allocation of Net Income and Net Loss Among Members. For purposes of maintaining the Capital Accounts and in determining the rights of the Members among themselves, after giving effect to the required allocations set forth in Section 5.1(a) hereof, Net Income or Net Loss for any taxable year (or portion thereof) shall be allocated among the Members pro rata in proportion to their respective Units.

(a) Required Allocations. Prior to making any allocations provided above, the following required allocations shall be made:

(i) Allocation Regulations. Items of Company income, gain, loss and deduction shall be allocated as necessary to cause the allocations provided in this Agreement to have economic effect or, with respect to non-recourse deductions, to be deemed to be in accordance with the Members' interests in the Company, as provided in the Allocation Regulations. The allocations required pursuant to this Section 5.1(a)(i) are intended to constitute a "qualified income offset" and, if necessary, a "minimum gain chargeback" as such terms are defined in the Allocation Regulations.

(ii) Gross Income Allocations. In the event any Member has a deficit balance in its Capital Account at the end of any Company taxable period, other than a deficit attributable to nonrecourse deductions as permitted in the Allocation Regulations, such Member shall be specially allocated items of Company gross income and gain in the amount of such deficit as quickly as possible.

(iii) Code Section 754 Adjustments. To the extent an adjustment to the adjusted tax basis of any Company asset pursuant to Section 734(b) or 743(b) of the Code is required pursuant to the Allocation Regulations to be taken into account in determining Capital Accounts, the amount of such adjustment to the Capital Accounts shall be treated as an item of gain (if the adjustment increases the basis of the asset) or loss (if the adjustment decreases such basis), and such item of gain or loss shall be specially allocated to the Members in a manner consistent with the manner in which their Capital Accounts are required to be adjusted pursuant to the Allocation Regulations.

(iv) Curative Allocation. The allocations set forth in Section 5.1(a)(i) and (ii) hereof (the “Required Allocations”) are intended to comply with the Allocation Regulations. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Section 5.1 hereof, the Required Allocations shall be taken into account in allocating Net Income, Net Loss and other items of income, gain, loss and deduction among the Members so that, to the extent possible, the net amount of such items of Net Income, Net Loss and other items of income, gain, loss and deduction allocated to each Member pursuant to this Article V, when taken together, shall be equal to the net amount of such items that would have been allocated to each such Member had the Required Allocations and the curative allocations provided in this Section 5.1(a)(iv) not otherwise been made.

5.2 Tax Allocations.

(a) For federal income tax purposes, except as otherwise provided in this Section 5.2, each item of income, gain, loss and deduction of the Company shall be allocated among the Members in accordance with the manner in which Net Income or Net Loss was allocated as provided in Section 5.1 hereof.

(b) With respect to any Adjusted Property, the President shall have complete discretion to make allocations of gain, loss, depreciation and cost recovery deductions attributable to such property pursuant to this Section 5.2(b) and to make any adjustments to Capital Accounts in any manner consistent with Section 704 of the Code and the Allocation Regulations.

(c) All items of income, gain, loss, deduction, credit and basis allocation recognized by the Company for federal income tax purposes and allocated to the Members in accordance with the provisions hereof shall be determined without regard to any election under Section 754 of the Code that may be made by the Company; provided that such allocations, once made, shall be adjusted as necessary or appropriate to take into account the adjustments permitted by Sections 734 and 743 of the Code and, where appropriate, to provide only Members recognizing gain on Company distributions covered by Section 734 of the Code with the federal income tax benefits attributable to the increased basis in Company property resulting from any election under Section 754 of the Code.

(d) If any Recapture Income results from the sale or other taxable disposition of a Company asset, the amount of any gain from such disposition allocated to or recognized by a Member or its successor in interest for federal income tax purposes pursuant to this Section 5.2 shall be deemed to be Recapture Income to the extent that such Member has been allocated or has claimed any deduction directly or indirectly giving rise to the treatment of such gain as Recapture Income.

(e) Each item of Company income, gain, loss and deduction attributable to a transferred Unit shall, for federal income tax purposes, be determined on a monthly or other basis, as required or permitted by Section 706 of the Code and shall be allocated to the holder of such Units as of the close of business on the day preceding the first day of such month or other period; provided that gain or loss on a sale or other disposition of all or a substantial portion of the assets of the Company shall be allocated to the holder of the Units on the date of sale. The President may revise, alter or otherwise modify such methods of determination and allocation as it deems necessary, to the extent permitted by Section 706 of the Code and regulations or rulings promulgated thereunder.

5.3 Distributions. Distributions shall be made to the Members on a pro rata basis as they may be approved by the President from time to time. Any distributions provided herein shall be subject to the payment of any then currently due and payable obligations or liabilities of the distributee to the Company. Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary contained in this Agreement, the Company shall not be required to make a distribution to the Members on account of their interest in the Company if such distribution would violate Section 18-607 of the Act or any other applicable law.

However, if such resignation violates any provisions contained in this Agreement or the provision of any contractual agreement between the President and the Company, the Company may recover from the President damages for such breach as provided in this Agreement or by law. The election or appointment of the President shall not in and of itself create contractual rights in favor of any party. The President may be appointed and removed by a Majority of the Board of Directors.

- (i) The approval of annual operating budgets and quarterly financial statements of the Company.

In addition, any Director may call a Board meeting by giving notice to all Directors of the date and time of the meeting at least five (5) days prior to the meeting or such longer or shorter period of time as the Board may establish by resolution adopted by the Board. The notice need not state the purpose of the meeting. The notice shall be delivered to each Director by U.S. Mail, by hand delivery, or by e-mail to the addresses of each Director as set forth in the Company's records. If a meeting schedule is adopted by the Board, or if the date and time of a Board meeting has been announced at a previous meeting, no notice shall be required. A Director may waive notice of any meeting before, at or after the meeting, in writing, orally or by attendance. Attendance at a meeting by a Director is a waiver of notice of that meeting unless the Director objects at the beginning of the meeting to the transaction of business because the meeting is not lawfully called or convened and does not participate thereafter in the meeting.

6.7 Quorum. A majority of the Directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. In the absence of a quorum, a majority of the Directors present may adjourn a meeting from time to time until a quorum is present. If a quorum is present when a duly called or held

6.8 Participation by Conference Telephone. Directors may participate in a meeting of the Board by means of conference telephone or similar communications equipment through which all Directors participating in the meeting may hear and speak to each other. Participation in a meeting pursuant to this Section 6.8 shall constitute presence in person at the meeting.

6.14 Compensation. Directors shall not receive compensation for their services as Directors; provided, however, that the Company may reimburse the Directors for expenses incurred to attend meetings and other appropriate activities. 6.16 Liability for Certain Acts. Neither the Directors nor the President shall be personally liable to the Company or its Members for damages for any breach of duty as Directors or the President, as the case may be, except for any matter in respect to which such Director or President shall be liable for reason that, in addition to any and all other requirements for such liability, there shall have been a judgment or other final adjudication adverse to the Director or the President, as the case may be, that establishes that such Director's or President's (as the case may be) acts or omissions were in bad faith or involved intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law, or that such Director or the President personally gained in fact a financial profit or other benefit to which such Director or the President was not legally entitled or that with respect to a distribution subject to the limitations of Section 18-607 of the Act, such Director's or the President's acts were not performed in accordance with Section 18-402 of the Act. Neither the amendment nor the repeal of this Section 6.16 shall eliminate or reduce the effect of this Section 6.16 in respect to any matter occurring, or any cause of action, suit or claim that, but for this Section 6.16, would accrue or arise, prior to such amendment, repeal or adoption of an inconsistent provision.

6.17 No Exclusive Duty to Company. Neither a Director nor the President shall be required to manage the Company as such Director's or the President's sole and exclusive function, and the Directors and the President may have other business interests and may engage in other activities in addition to those relating to the Company. Neither the Company nor any Member shall have any right pursuant to this Agreement to share or participate in such other business interests or activities or to the income or proceeds derived therefrom. Neither a Director nor the President shall incur liability to the Company or any Member as a result of engaging in any other business interests or activities.

6.18 Indemnification. The Company shall indemnify, insure, reimburse and hold harmless each Indemnitee as follows:

(a) In any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, to which an Indemnitee was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party by reason of the fact that such Indemnitee is or was a member, manager, director, officer, employee or agent of the Company or any Member or a Person serving at the request of any Member or the Company in another entity in a similar capacity, involving an alleged cause of action arising directly or indirectly from the activities of such Indemnitee under this Agreement or from the management of the affairs of the Company, the Company shall indemnify, insure and hold harmless such Indemnitee for, from and against, and reimburse such Indemnitee for, all expenses, including attorneys' fees, judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement, actually and reasonably incurred by such Indemnitee in connection with the defense or settlement of such action, suit or proceeding, if such Indemnitee acted in good faith and in a manner reasonably believed by such Indemnitee to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Company; provided that the Indemnitee's conduct shall not have constituted gross negligence or willful or wanton misconduct. The termination of a proceeding by judgment, order, settlement, conviction or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent shall not of itself create a presumption that an Indemnitee did not act in good faith and in a manner reasonably believed by such Indemnitee to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Company. The Company also shall indemnify, insure and hold harmless such Indemnitee for, from and against, and reimburse such Indemnitee for any action, suit or proceeding by or in the right of the Company to procure a judgment in its favor; provided that if in such action, suit or proceeding the Indemnitee shall have been adjudged to be liable for gross negligence or willful or wanton misconduct, such indemnification shall be provided only if, and only to the extent that, the court in which such action, suit or proceeding was brought shall determine upon application that, despite the adjudication of liability but in view of all circumstances of the case, the Indemnitee is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity for such expenses as such court shall deem proper.

(b) Expenses (including attorneys' fees and expenses) incurred in defending any action, suit or proceeding subject to Section 6.18(a) hereof shall be paid by the Company in advance of the final disposition of such proceeding upon receipt of an undertaking (which need not be secured) by or on behalf of the Indemnitee to repay such amount if it shall ultimately be determined, by a court of competent jurisdiction or otherwise, that the Indemnitee is not entitled to be indemnified by the Company as authorized hereunder.

(c) Any payment or other performance for or on behalf of any Indemnitee under Section 6.18(a) hereof, unless ordered by a court, shall be made by the Company only as authorized in the specific case and only upon a determination that such payment or performance is proper in the circumstances because such Indemnitee has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in Section 6.18(a) hereof. Such determination shall be made by the President. Any such payment or performance shall be made only from the assets of the Company.

(d) The rights provided by this Section 6.18 shall be in addition to any other rights to which an Indemnitee may be entitled under any agreement, by consent of all the Members, as a matter of law or otherwise. Such rights shall continue as to an Indemnitee who has ceased to serve in the capacity giving rise to such right of indemnification and shall inure to the benefit of the heirs, successors, assigns, administrators and personal representatives of such Indemnitee.

(e) The Company may purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any one or more Indemnitees and other Persons as the President shall determine against any liability that may be asserted against or expense that may be incurred by such Person in connection with the activities of the Company, whether or not the Company would have the power to indemnify, insure or hold harmless such Person from and against or reimburse such Person for such liability hereunder.

(f) The rights of an Indemnitee under this Section 6.18 shall not be denied in whole or in part because the Indemnitee had an interest in the transaction with respect to which such rights apply if the transaction was otherwise permitted by the terms hereof.

(g) The provisions of this Section 6.18 are for the benefit of the Indemnitees and their heirs, successors, assigns, administrators and personal representatives and shall not be deemed to create any rights for the benefit of any other Persons.

8.3 Reports; Other Information. The President shall furnish to the Members annual statements of income and loss, cash flow and a balance sheet for the Company and any other information required by the Act. The President shall promptly provide to the Members such other reports and information as any of the Members may request, however shall not be required to do so more often than once per quarter.

ARTICLE IX

TAX MATTERS

9.1 Preparation of Tax Returns. The President shall arrange for the preparation and timely filing of all returns of Company income, gains, deductions, losses and other items necessary for federal and state income tax purposes and shall furnish to Members such tax information as is reasonably required for federal and state income tax reporting purposes or such additional information as it in its sole discretion determines. Each Member shall cooperate fully with the preparation of such returns, including providing such information on a timely basis as the President may require.

9.2 Tax Elections. The President shall, in his sole discretion, determine whether to make or revoke any available election under the Code.

9.3 Tax Controversies. The President shall designate the “Tax Matters Partner” (as defined in Section 6231 of the Code). In such capacity, the Tax Matters Partner shall use reasonable efforts to notify and consult with the Members regarding any action which it proposes to take in the capacity of Tax Matters Partner and shall duly consider any requests or suggestions made by the other Members, in each case to the extent that applicable deadlines reasonably allow it to do so. Notwithstanding the foregoing, each Member shall be authorized to participate in all examinations of the affairs of the Company by tax authorities, including resulting administrative and judicial proceedings and to expend Company funds for professional services and costs associated therewith. Each Member agrees to cooperate with the other Members and to do or refrain from doing any or all things reasonably required to conduct such proceedings in the manner most advantageous to the Company and the Members.

9.4 Tax Status. No election shall be made by the Company or any Member for the Company to be excluded from the application of any of the provisions of Subchapter K, Chapter 1 of Subtitle A of the Code or from any similar provisions of any state tax laws except to the extent that the Company is disregarded as an entity for federal and state income tax purposes pursuant to applicable provisions of the Code.

ARTICLE X

TRANSFER OF INTERESTS

10.1 General. Except as expressly permitted by this Article X, no Member shall gift, bequeath, sell, assign, encumber, pledge, hypothecate, exchange or otherwise transfer to another Person any Unit or any portion of a Unit.

10.2 Requirement for Board Approval. Except as set forth in Section 10.5 hereof (in which case this Section 10.2 shall not apply), if a Member desires to voluntarily transfer Units to another Person, such Member (the “Selling Member”) shall obtain from such Person a bona fide written offer to purchase such Units, stating the terms and conditions upon which the transfer is to be made. The Selling Member shall give written notification to the Company and the other Members of his, her or its intention to transfer such Units and a copy of such bona fide written offer. The Board of Directors shall determine whether the Selling Member may transfer such Selling Member's Units to the Person set forth in the bona fide written offer. Assuming that the Board of Directors approves the Selling Member's transfer of such Selling Member's Units to the Person in the bona fide written offer, such Selling Member may transfer the Selling Member's Units to the Person in the bona fide written offer, and such Person shall be admitted as a Member pursuant to Sections 10.3 and 10.4 hereof. In the event that the Board of Directors fails to approve the Selling Member's transfer of such Selling Member's Units to the Person in the bona fide written offer, the Selling Member may not transfer such Selling Member's Units to the Person in the bona fide written offer.

10.3 Transferee Not a Member. Except as set forth in Section 10.2 hereof, no Person acquiring Units pursuant to this Article X or otherwise (other than Units acquired by an issuance directly from the Company, which is addressed in Sections 4.2 and 11.2 hereof), other than a Member, shall become a Member, unless such Person is approved as a Member by a vote of the Board of Directors. If no such approval is obtained, such Person's Units shall only entitle such Person to receive the distributions and allocations of profits and losses to which the Member from whom or which such Person received such Units would be entitled.

10.4 Additional Requirements for Admission. The admission of any additional or substitute Member otherwise permitted pursuant to this Article X shall not become effective until (i) there shall have been filed with the Company a written instrument, pursuant to which such additional or substitute Member shall agree to be bound by all the terms and conditions of this Agreement, (ii) such additional or substitute Member shall have paid all reasonable legal fees and other out-of-pocket costs incurred by the Company in connection with such assignment or substitution, and (iii) all documents reasonably required by the President to effect the substitution or assignment shall have been executed and delivered to the Company.

10.5 Drag-Along Rights. Notwithstanding the provisions of Sections 10.1 and 10.2, if Members who collectively own a Majority in Interest of the Units (collectively, the "Majority Selling Members") desire to sell, and receive a bona fide offer to acquire, any of the Units owned by the Majority Selling Members, whether in a single transaction or in a related series of transactions, and such offer is acceptable to the Majority Selling Members but contingent on the purchase in such transaction or related series of transactions of all Units owned by the Members, then each of the remaining Members shall be obligated to, and hereby agrees to, sell all (but not less than all) of the remaining Members' Units to such third party purchaser upon the same terms and conditions offered to the Majority Selling Members. Each of the remaining Members further agrees to execute and deliver any and all agreements, documents and instruments, and to take all other actions, necessary or required to consummate such sale.

ARTICLE XI

ADMISSION OF MEMBERS

11.1 Members. On the Effective Date, the parties listed in Schedule 1.1 hereto shall be the Members of the Company.

11.2 Admission of Additional Members. A Person may be issued Units in the Company upon the written consent of a Majority of the Board of Directors. Upon the written consent of a Majority of the Board of Directors, a Person (other than a Member listed in Schedule 1.1) who will be issued Units by the Company shall be admitted to the Company as a Member of the Company (an “Additional Member”) upon furnishing to the President (a) acceptance, in form satisfactory to the President, of all the terms and conditions of this Agreement and (b) such other documents as the President shall require. Such admission shall become effective on the date that the President determines that such conditions have been satisfied.

ARTICLE XII

RESIGNATION OF MEMBERS

No Member may resign from the Company except with the approval of the President.

ARTICLE XIII

DISSOLUTION AND LIQUIDATION

13.1 Dissolution. The Company shall be dissolved only upon the following:

- (a) the sale or other disposition of substantially all of the Company’s assets;
- (b) the termination of the legal existence of the last remaining Member of the Company or the occurrence of any other event that terminates the continued membership of the last remaining Member of the Company in the Company unless the business of the Company is continued in a manner permitted by this Agreement or the Act; or
- (c) the entry of a decree of judicial dissolution under Section 18-802 of the Act.

Upon the occurrence of any event that causes the last remaining Member of the Company to cease to be a Member of the Company, to the fullest extent permitted by law, the personal representative of such Member is hereby authorized to, and shall, within ninety (90) days after the occurrence of the event that terminated the continued membership of such Member in the Company, agree in writing (i) to continue the Company and (ii) to the admission of the personal representative or its nominee or designee, as the case may be, as a substitute Member of the Company, effective as of the occurrence of the event that terminated the continued membership of the last remaining Member of the Company in the Company.

13.2 Continuation of Business of Company after Dissolution. Upon dissolution of the Company in accordance with Section 13.1(c) hereof, to the fullest extent permitted by law, the President may elect to reconstitute the Company and continue its business on the same terms and conditions set forth herein. Unless such an election is made within 90 days after dissolution, to the fullest extent permitted by law, the Company shall conduct only activities necessary to wind up its affairs.

13.3 Liquidation. Upon dissolution of the Company, unless the Company is continued pursuant to Section 13.2 hereof, the President shall act as Liquidator. If the President is unable to serve in such capacity, the President may be removed, and a Liquidator appointed by a Majority in Interest of the Member and a majority of the Members. The Liquidator shall be entitled to receive such compensation for its services as may be approved by a Majority in Interest of the Member and a majority of the Members. Except as expressly provided in this Article XIII, the Liquidator shall have and may exercise, without further authorization or consent of any of the parties hereto, all of the powers conferred upon the President under the terms hereof (but subject to all of the applicable limitations, contractual and otherwise, upon the exercise of such powers) to the extent necessary or desirable in the good faith judgment of the Liquidator to carry out its duties and functions hereunder for and during such period of time as shall be reasonably required in the good faith judgment of the Liquidator to complete the Winding-Up and liquidation of the Company. The Liquidator shall liquidate the assets of the Company, and shall apply and distribute the proceeds of such liquidation, unless otherwise required by mandatory provisions of applicable law as follows:

- (a) To Company liabilities owed to creditors including to Members other than for their interests in capital and income;
- (b) To reasonable reserves, if any, deemed necessary by the President to provide for the contingent liabilities of the Company; and
- (c) To the Members in an amount equal to the positive balances in their respective Capital Accounts.

13.4 No Distribution in Kind. Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 13.3 hereof which require the liquidation of the assets of the Company, but subject to the order of priorities set forth therein, if on dissolution of the Company the Liquidator determines that an immediate sale of part or all of the assets of the Company would be impractical or would cause undue loss to the Members, the Liquidator may, in its absolute discretion, defer for a reasonable time the liquidation of any assets except those necessary to satisfy liabilities of the Company (other than those to Members) but shall not, under any circumstances, make any distributions in kind, other than cash or cash equivalents, to the Members unless agreed to in writing by a Majority in Interest of the Members and a Majority of the Members. For allocation purposes only, any property distributed in kind in liquidation shall be valued and treated as though the property was sold and the cash proceeds distributed; the difference between such value of property distributed in kind and its book value shall be treated as gain or loss on the sale of property and shall be credited or charged to the Members in the proportions in which they share income and taking into account the adjustments for income tax purposes, if any, all as set forth in Article V hereof. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Company shall not be terminated until all assets are reduced to cash or cash equivalents and such cash or cash equivalents are distributed to the Members.

13.5 Cancellation of Certificate of Formation. Upon the completion of the distribution of Company property as provided in Sections 13.3 and 13.4 hereof, the Liquidator (or the President, if necessary) shall cause the Certificate of Formation and all qualifications of the Company as a foreign limited liability company in any jurisdictions to be canceled and shall take such other actions as may be necessary to terminate the Company. Upon the effectiveness of cancellation of the Certificate of Formation, the Company shall be terminated.

13.6 Return of Capital. No Members shall be personally liable for the return of the Capital Contributions of the Members, or any portion thereof. Any such return shall be made solely from Company assets.

13.7 Waiver of Partition. Each Member hereby waives any rights to partition of the Company property.
