Passion.

One thing (of many) I love about vet med is that you don't have to search for long to find passionate people.

Passion for the human animal bond.

Passion for respecting and protecting the lives of animals.

Passion for innovation in our profession.

Passion for supporting our friends, family, and colleagues who work alongside us.

In a world where we can easily find ourselves picking sides, this shared, unifying passion is a beautiful thing.

Hound has a passion for creating a better, brighter future for the people of veterinary medicine. You probably do, too.

We're here to unite veterinary medicine, to work together with talent and employers, and to build better things to make things better for the people of vet med.

Hound is a veterinary software company doing things differently. We've raised large funds from accredited investors and will continue to, but we saw an opportunity.

We're crowdfunding! This is an opportunity to allow the people of veterinary medicine to invest in the multi-billion dollar industry we've all built together.

We're crowdfunding! This is an opportunity to allow the people of veterinary medicine to invest in the multi-billion dollar industry we've all built together.

An opportunity that is not just available to wealthy investors, but truly accessible and equitable for everyone in our profession.

This is a rare opportunity - but one the people of veterinary medicine very much deserve. Regardless of income, from veterinary receptionists to CEOs, we've made it possible for everyone to participate.

Do you want a better, brighter future for the people of veterinary medicine?

Do you want to invest in a company growing quickly and putting people first in vet med?

Do you share our passion for the people of vet med?

Click to learn how easy it is to invest in hound and support us in building a better experience for the people of veterinary medicine.
