

The following links provide some examples of newer developments related to the world's food production, consumption and delivery.

Top 7 Vertical Farming Companies

<https://www.growpodsolutions.com/top-7-vertical-farming-companies/>

Hydroponics Farming: Companies Disrupting Indoor Agriculture

<https://stories.pinduoduo-global.com/agritech-hub/hydroponics-companies-disrupting-indoor-farming>

GROUNDBREAKING: Plant Based Food Market To Skyrocket To $162 Billion, Says Bloomberg

<https://plantbasednews.org/news/economics/plant-based-market-skyrocket/>

Recirculating Aquaculture Systems (RAS)

https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Recirculating_aquaculture_system

Grocery Stores Are Turning Some Locations Into 'Dark Stores' Dedicated To Delivery Orders

<https://www.delish.com/food-news/a32174531/what-are-dark-stores/>

Can Upcycled Foods Make a Meaningful Impact on Food Waste?

<https://foodprint.org/blog/upcycled-foods/>

Why do we need to change our food system? (United Nations video)

<https://youtu.be/VcL3BQeteCc>

Revenue of the food market worldwide between 2012 to 2025

<https://www.statista.com/forecasts/1243605/revenue-food-market-worldwide>