

Hi Jazz,

I'm Brandon and I started Propeller in 2015 to inspire activism and be a positive force for good in the world.

Together our community has generated millions of actions and run impactful campaigns with hundreds of leading nonprofits and the biggest influencers. What we're doing works and it's because of people like you.

But the truth is that we need investment to take the next leap forward. I have always felt that if we were going to get investors involved, then they needed to be aligned with the mission of the company.

That's why I am reaching out personally today to ask you for your support on an upcoming round of equity crowdfunding we're doing via a platform called WeFunder.

This is the chance for our most active and visionary community members like you to become investors in the company before it goes live. There are even early bird perks for doing it now.

Please consider making your most generous pledge today here.

If you have questions, I'd be happy to set up a time to chat. Here is a link to my calendar to book a 10-min Zoom call with me: ZoomCalendar

As always, I really appreciate your support of Propeller and hope this finds you well!

Best,
Brandon
