LEAD INVESTOR

Gale Wilkinson

We are investing in Cyber Pop-up because: 1. The company's value proposition as a marketplace for small and medium businesses to hire vetted cybersecurity experts is differentiated; we believe Cyber Pop-up has significant competitive positioning in a large, fast-growing market. 2. The company has strong management and advisory teams and has deep experience in both cybersecurity best practices and marketplace development. 3. The company has early traction including a waitlist of 500+ security professionals and $180,000 of completed client projects.
