7. ABOUT THE ISSUER

Please provide an overview of yourself, and your professional activities, just like you would list on your website or social media. Be factual and accurate

Join The Violution, LLC is a music production company based in Las Vegas, Nevada, offering exclusive and unique string productions for all media while promoting “Fashion & Beauty through Music”.

From producing records from start to finish to providing contracting services for household names like Journey, to offering live performances, studio recordings, scoring, arranging and more, we are a female-driven company that strives to shift the narrative.

The enterprising forces behind Join The Violution are the pioneers behind our flagship, The Violution. CEO / Producer Patrick Caccia and Creator / Lead Violinist JLynn teamed up to deliver a unique world’s first — an all-female rock /metal band on electric violins.

https://youtu.be/z4u_iPa2Y7w

About the Creator JLynn:

Better known as the "VTAR ★" of The Violution, JLynn is a highly sought-after multi-genre performer, arranger and recording artist. Rigorous classical training from the young age of six propelled JLynn to graduate with honors from the prestigious Thornton School of Music at the University of Southern California with Bachelor and Master of Music degrees and a Graduate Certificate in Early Music. Her classical training and perfect pitch have led her to branch out to numerous other genres including folk, country, pop, rock, fusion and, most notably, hard rock and heavy metal.

JLynn has played to audiences all across the USA, India, Canada, Australia, Hong Kong, the UAE, Grand Cayman, Cambodia, South America and Mexico. Notable appearances include performing for Chivas Studio with Amaan and Ayaan Ali Khan, appearing with the Foo Fighters at the Grammy Awards, soloing at BlizzCon to an in-house audience of over 27,000 while airing live on DirecTV and performing nightly with Aerosmith for their Deuces are Wild residency in Las Vegas at the MGM Park Theater. Most recently, JLynn performed as Concertmaster and also contracted the 25-piece Symphony Orchestra for the legendary band Journey at The Colosseum at Caesar’s Palace, Las Vegas for a special one-time show that was filmed and recorded live and is planned to be released mid-2022 as a Live DVD.

On social media, JLynn was one of the first to go “viral” on YouTube as part of a trio of women performing and head banging to “Toxicity” by System of a Down on electric violins and drums (<https://youtu.be/WMKmQmkJ9gg>). She took note of the video’s popularity and developed the concept into a passion project called The Violution (which down the line spawned the creation of a female-based music production company, Join The Violution). The band features an all-female lineup of electric violinists utilizing pedal effects, blatantly defying the traditional role of the classical violinist, with JLynn front and center wielding her electric “VTAR”, as she so fondly likes to call it. The slogan “It’s not a guitar” refers to the role that the violin takes in our unique setting, which replaces all lead and rhythm guitar parts, creating a familiar yet “new” signature sound.

JLynn & The Violution recently completed their first full-length album, and are eagerly waiting to release their new music in anticipation of performing the songs live to a global audience.

About Producer Patrick Caccia:

When asked by colleagues and clients to describe Patrick Caccia, “passionate” and “professional” are the words frequently used. A highly respected creative and innovative music professional, he has an intrinsic desire to create, produce and build influence in the world of music, whether performing on stage or in-studio, or working as part of a studio or live production team.

Combining this innate passion, hard work and never-ending determination, Patrick started his music career as a touring professional drummer, with up to 285 live performances per calendar year, sharing the stage with recording and touring legends such as Grammy award-winning artist Steve Vai, blues rock guitarist Eric Sardinas, and Carlos Santana’s lead singer Andy Vargas.

After firmly establishing himself as a go-to behind the touring drum kit, Patrick then branched out into the world of music production as a session drummer and, eventually, vocalist, percussionist, and keyboardist. Establishing his very own “Cave Studios” in Los Angeles, Patrick’s reputation as a studio owner quickly led to working with an impressive resume of artists including Steve Lukather (Toto), Billy Sheehan (Mr. Big; David Lee Roth), Joey Heredia (Tower of Power), Tony MacAlpine (Planet X), Nuno Bettencourt (Extreme), Marco Mendoza (Whitesnake) and Kiko Loureiro (Megadeth), to name a few.

Caccia went on to co-found Atomix Entertainment, a music production company that specialized in TV Commercials and independent film scores, working with companies dominating the Asian TV commercial market, including corporate giants such as Honda, Suzuki, Samsung, Panasonic, Tokyo Disney, Kirin, and KFC Japan amongst others.

Whilst at Atomix, he also tracked and recorded critically acclaimed full-length records at legendary Capitol Studios, and Steve Vai’s world-renowned Mothership Studios in the Hollywood Hills. These recordings personified his ability to create world-class commercial music and solidified his status as an elite Producer, Engineer, Drummer and Musical Director in the highly competitive business of records, film and television.

Not to be complacent, Patrick set off to achieve a new milestone by merging his live touring experience with his seasoned production skills. Joining forces with JLynn of The Violution, the two worked relentlessly to complete an EP in anticipation of a full-length record release revealing the unprecedented concept of a rock band with no guitars. The EP signified a breakthrough for the world’s first live act of its kind. The business partnership between Patrick and JLynn flourished and culminated in the creation of a new production company “Join The Violution” specializing in acoustic and electric string productions including arranging, composing, scoring and recording for live performances and studio sessions.

8. BUSINESS AND ANTICIPATED BUSINESS PLAN

Join The Violution intends to use the proceeds from the Offering to create a Las Vegas Show / Residency as well as initiate studio production for a Violution franchise nationwide.

THE VIOLUTION is the world's first female VTAR rock band.

Featuring lead VTAR STAR JLynn and an all-female electric VTAR line-up with live drums and bass backed by an acoustic string section, JLynn and The Violution bring you 1hr and 20min of Rock/Metal experience never before heard or seen. Guitars are replaced by Vtars and the power string trio takes you on a journey, performing head-banging radio hits from the 70s into the twenty-first century, delivering a high-energy show from beginning to end.

From Deep Purple, Led Zeppelin and early Jeff Beck to System of A Down, Foo Fighters and Evanescence mixed in with fist-pumping originals, The Violution is a trend among all ages and genders.

Depending on the funding amount from the Offering investment, the band is available in the following configurations:

- 5-piece band (drums, bass, 3 electric violins)
- 9-piece band (drums, bass, 3 electric violins and SYMPHOLYNN acoustic quartet)
- 11-piece band (drums, bass, 5 electric violins and SYMPHOLYNN acoustic quartet)
- 13-piece band (drums, bass, 3 electric violins and SYMPHOLYNN acoustic octet)
- 15-piece band (drums, bass, 5 electric violins and SYMPHOLYNN acoustic octet)

LAS VEGAS SHOW:

Initially The VIOLUTION shall be securing a full-time room in Las Vegas, Nevada, USA for a residency. Las Vegas has not seen anything like this before.

The target audience is multi-cultural and split equally across all genders and age groups. The appeal is truly international because the lead “vocalist” is an electric violin – meaning that the show breaks through any language barriers.

INTERNATIONAL FRANCHISE:

Because of this multicultural and international appeal, the intention is to create “franchise” replicas of The Violution worldwide, in the same way that Circus du Soleil and The Trans-Siberian Orchestra have done. To achieve this, the Company intends to leverage its good standing and relationships with Las Vegas hotel groups that also operate globally.

Competition: The Company faces competition from other companies/ individuals with better funding or more experience in the industry. These competitors include other music artists and companies worldwide. Many of these artists may have access to other financial, technical, and human resources, which could give them advantages in developing and marketing their music. These competitors can take away market share from the Company, which could significantly impact revenues.

Dependence on Key Personnel: The Company's future success depends, in a significant part upon the continued service of certain performers, and professionals that assist the Company in its day-to-day operations. The Company's success is dependent on the ability of the Company to retain or be able to replace such persons. The loss of such persons could have a material adverse effect on the Company .

Piracy: The proliferation of unauthorized copies and piracy of the Company's products could result in a reduction in revenues the Company receives from legitimate sales. There is no guarantee that the Company's efforts to enforce its rights and combat piracy will be successful.

Streaming Royalties' Variances: The Album may be streamed on many different digital service providers. Each digital service provider may have a different rate on royalties per stream based on their business model. Additionally, industry rules and changes can affect this royalty payout. Recording and production: There are substantial risks associated with recording and producing music, including death or disability of key personnel, inability to stick to budget or recording timelines, and other factors causing delays. These potential problems may increase cost of recording or producing or may cause the entire project to be abandoned.

Potential need for additional financing: There is no assurance that unforeseen events will not occur, resulting in the need to raise additional funds beyond what the Company projects. Entities with limited operating histories, such as the Company, do not always use capital in the most efficient manner. Thus, the Company may need to raise additional capital to fund future operations and satisfy future capital requirements of the Company. Failure to raise additional needed funds may have an adverse effect on the Company. Additionally, any additional funds raised may result in dilution of each investment. The Company does not anticipate that additional financing will need to be obtained, but there can be no assurance that additional capital will not be needed, and the Company reserves the right to carry out such additional financing in its sole discretion.

Illiquidity of investment: There is no public market for the Securities being sold in this Offering. In addition, no sale, transfer, or assignment of Securities will be permitted unless authorized by the Company. These assumptions and future events are inherently uncertain and unpredictable. 19. Are there any differences not reflected above between the securities being offered and each other class of security of the issuer:

Class B Unit holders have no voting rights.

20. How could the exercise of rights held by the principal shareholders identified in Question 6 above affect the purchasers of the securities being offered:

The Manager pursuant of article 4 is vested with full, exclusive, and complete discretion, power, and authority, to manage, control, administer, and operate the business and affairs of the Company for the purposes herein stated. Therefore, the Manager may make decisions that the Investors disagrees with or that negatively affects the value of the Investor's securities in the Company and the Investors will have no recourse to change these decisions. The Manager will try to make decisions that are in the Company's best interest.

For example, voting rights holders could vote to change the agreements governing the Company's operations, engage in additional offerings, or sell the Company to a third party. These decisions could affect gross revenues and diminish payments made to Investors and could dilute Investment shares.

21. How are the securities being offered being valued? Include examples of methods for how such securities may be valued by the issuer in the future, including during subsequent corporate actions

The securities being offered in this Regulation Crowdfunding raise have been determined by the Company as a direct ratio to the budget of the Tour. The Company did not employ investment banking firms or other outside organizations to make an independent evaluation. The offering price should not be considered to be indicative of the actual value of the securities offered pursuant to this Form C.

In the future, these securities will be valued taking into account factors that are industry standard:

22. What are the risks to purchasers of the securities relating to minority ownership in the issuer?

An Investor in the Company will likely hold a minority position in the Company, and thus be limited as to its ability to control or influence the governance and operations of the Company.

The marketability and value of the Investor's interest in the Company will depend upon many factors outside the control of the Investor. The Manager will make strategic decisions for the Company and the Investor will have no independent right to name or remove a member or officer of the Management of the Company. The value of the Investor's securities in the Company will largely depend on the Tour's ability to generate revenue. There are many factors that will determine the tour's success. Other risks can be found under question 8.

The Company may sell securities to additional investors, which will dilute the percentage interest of the Investor in the Company. The Investor may have the opportunity to increase its investment in the Company in such a transaction.

The Company may also choose to sell the Company to a third party. Minority ownership holders will likely have little to no control of this decision, which could affect the return on investment.

23. What are the risks to purchasers associated with corporate actions including: •

MUSIC BENEFACTORS SECURITIES OFFERING FORM C

- additional issuances of securities,
- issuer repurchases of securities,
 - a sale of the issuer or of assets of the issuer or
 - transactions with related parties?

Additional Issuances of Securities:

The Issuer may decide to issue additional issuances of securities to entice strategic partners or seek more funding. These new securities may dilute the Investor's interest.

Issuer Repurchases of Securities:

The Issuer may have the authority to repurchase securities from the Investor, which may serve to decrease any liquidity in the market for such securities.

A sale of the issuer or of assets of the issuer:

The Manager may decide to sell part of, or all of the Company as written in the operating agreement. There can be no guarantee that the value received by the Investor from this sale including any remaining fair market estimate remaining in the Company will be equal to or exceed the Investor's initial capital contribution to the Company.

Transactions with related parties:

The Investor should be aware that there will be occasions when the Company may encounter potential conflicts of interest in its operations. On any issue involving conflicts of interest, the Manager of the Company will be guided by his/her good faith judgement as to the Company's best interest. The Company may engage in transactions with affiliates, subsidiaries or other related parties, which may be on terms which are not arm's-length but will be in all cases consistent with the duties of the management of the Company to its LLC Members. By acquiring an interest in the Company, the Investor will be deemed to have acknowledged the existence of any such actual or potential conflicts of interest and to have waived any claim with respect to any liability arising from the existence of any such conflict of interest.

24. Describe the material terms of any indebtedness of the issuer:

The Company has no debts.

25. What other exempt offerings has the issuer conducted within the past three years?

None

26. Was or is the issuer or any entities controlled by or under common control with the issuer a party to any transaction since the beginning of the issuer's last fiscal year, or any currently proposed transaction, where the amount involved exceeds five percent of the aggregate amount of capital raised by the issuer in reliance on Section 4(a)(6) of the Securities Act during the preceding 12-month period, including the amount the issuer seeks to raise in the current offering, in which any of the following persons had or is to have a direct or indirect material interest: (1) any director or officer of the issuer;

If the Company rejects such subscription, the Company shall refund to Subscriber all funds submitted by Subscriber to the Company in connection with such rejected subscription.

2.3 Default. If Subscriber fails to perform his obligations hereunder within five days after receipt of notice by the Company to Subscriber of such failure, the Company may, at its sole option: (a) if such failure occurs prior to the Closing, refuse to issue the Purchased Units to Subscriber; or (b) if such failure occurs after the Closing, result in the reversion of all rights, title and interest in the Units to the Company and a rescission of the transactions contemplated hereby.

2.4 Failure of Closing to Occur. The Company shall have no liability to Subscriber for (a) the failure of the Closing to occur or (b) its failure to issue the Purchased Units to Subscriber.

Subscriber's commitment to investments which are not readily marketable is not disproportionate to his net worth and his acquisition of the Purchased Units will not cause his overall commitment to such investments to become excessive.

MUSIC BENEFACTORS SECURITIES OFFERING FORM C

3.3 Access. Subscriber acknowledges that all documents, records and books pertaining to this investment have been made available for inspection by him, his counsel, and his accountants. Counsel and accountants for Subscriber, and Subscriber himself, have had the opportunity to obtain any additional information necessary to verify the accuracy of the contents of the documents presented to them, and to confer with and to ask questions of, and receive answers from, representatives of the Company or persons authorized to act on its behalf concerning the terms and conditions of this investment and any additional information requested by Subscriber or his representatives. Subscriber is making this investment without being furnished any offering literature other than the documents or answers to questions described above.

3.4 Investment Intent. The Purchased Units are being acquired by Subscriber for the account of Subscriber, for investment purposes only, and not with a view to, or in connection with, any resale or distribution thereof. 3.5 Reliance on Representations. Subscriber understands that no federal or state agency has passed on or made any recommendation or endorsement of the Units. Subscriber further understands that the Company, in offering the Purchased Units for sale to Subscriber, is relying on the truth and accuracy of the representations, declarations, and warranties made by Subscriber herein and in the investor suitability questionnaire completed, executed and delivered by Subscriber to the Company contemporaneously herewith.

3.9 No Oral Representations. No person representing the Company or purporting to do so has made any oral representation or warranty to Subscriber which is inconsistent with the information provided in writing to him. 3.15 Survival. The foregoing representations and warranties of Subscriber shall survive the Closing. Subscriber represents and warrants that the representations, warranties and acknowledgements set forth above are true and accurate as of the date hereof and as of the Closing.
