THE OFFERING AND THE SECURITIES

The Offering

The Issuer is offering a minimum amount of $50,000 (the “Target Offering Amount”) and up to a maximum amount of $1,235,000 (the “Maximum Offering Amount”) of SAFE (Simple Agreement for Future Equity) (the “Securities”) on a best efforts basis as described in this Form C (this “Offering”). The Minimum Individual Purchase Amount is $250 and the Maximum Individual Purchase Amount is $125,000. Subscriptions will be made to become members of the SPV (as defined below), which will purchase a corresponding amount of the Securities and hold such for the benefit of the investors. The Issuer reserves the right to amend the Minimum Individual Purchase Amount and Maximum Individual Purchase Amount, in its sole discretion. In particular, the Issuer may elect to participate in one of the Intermediary’s special investment programs and may offer alternative Minimum Individual Purchase Amounts and Maximum Individual Purchase Amounts to Investors participating in such programs without notice. The Issuer must raise an amount equal to or greater than the Target Offering Amount by March 3, 2025 (the “Offering Deadline”). Unless the Issuer receives investment commitments, which are fully paid for and meet all other requirements set by this Offering, in an amount not less than the Target Offering Amount by the Offering Deadline, no Securities will be sold in this Offering, all investment commitments will be canceled and all committed funds will be returned.

The price of the Securities was determined arbitrarily, does not necessarily bear any relationship to the Issuer’s asset value, net worth, revenues or other objective established criteria of value, and should not be considered indicative of the actual value of the Securities.

In order to purchase the Securities, you must make a commitment to purchase by completing the purchase process hosted by the Intermediary (as defined above), including complying with the Intermediary’s know your customer (KYC) and anti-money laundering (AML) policies. If an Investor makes an investment commitment under a name that is not their legal name, they may be unable to redeem their Security indefinitely, and neither the Intermediary nor the Issuer are required to correct any errors or omissions made by the Investor.

Investor funds will be held in escrow with a qualified third party escrow agent meeting the requirements of Regulation CF (“Escrow Agent”) until the Target Offering Amount has been met or exceeded and one or more closings occur. Investors may cancel an investment commitment until up to 48 hours prior to the Offering Deadline or an intermediate close, using the cancellation mechanism provided by the Intermediary. Investors using a credit card to invest must represent and warrant to cancel any investment commitment(s) by submitting a request through the Intermediary at least 48 hours prior to the Offering Deadline, instead of attempting to claim fraud or claw back their committed funds. If the Investor does not cancel an investment commitment before the 48-hour period prior to the Offering Deadline, the funds will be released to the Issuer and the Investor will receive their Securities.

The Issuer is conducting the offering with a co-issuer, a crowdfunding special purpose vehicle formed by the Issuer pursuant to Rule 3a-9, as promulgated under the Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended (“Rule 3a-9”), to facilitate the Issuer’s offering under Regulation Crowdfunding (the “SPV”). Investment commitments made in this Offering will be made by subscribing to become a member of the SPV; no direct investments in the Securities will be permitted. Only persons and entities with U.S. tax payer identification numbers will be permitted to subscribe to be a member of the SPV. The legal title to the Securities purchased in this Offering will be held exclusively by the SPV for the benefit of the subscribers in their capacity as members of the SPV. The terms and conditions of the SPV, including the SPV’s financial statements, operating agreement (the “SPV Operating Agreement”) and the subscription agreement investors will be subject to (the “SPV Subscription Agreement”), are attached hereto in Exhibit C.

All references in the Form C to an investors interest in the Securities mean the SPV’s interest, for the benefit of the investors, whose rights and interests will be managed by and through the SPV Operating Agreement.

The Issuer will notify Investors when the Target Offering Amount has been reached through the Intermediary. If the Issuer reaches the Target Offering Amount prior to the Offering Deadline, it may close the Offering early provided (i) the expedited Offering Deadline must be twenty-one (21) days from the time the Offering was opened, (ii) the Intermediary must provide at least five (5) business days’ notice prior to the expedited Offering Deadline to the Investors and (iii) the Issuer continues to meet or exceed the Target Offering Amount on the date of the expedited Offering Deadline.

The Deal Page

A description of our products, services and business plan can be found on the Issuer's profile page on the Intermediary's website under <https://republic.com/suntrain> (the "Deal Page"). The Deal Page can be used by prospective Investors to ask the Issuer questions and for the Issuer to post immaterial updates to this Form C as well as make general announcements. You should view the Deal Page at the time you consider making an investment commitment. Updates on the status of this Offering can also be found on the Deal Page, a copy of which has been provided as Exhibit F to this Form C.

Material Changes

If any material change occurs related to the Offering prior to the current Offering Deadline the Issuer will provide notice to Investors and receive reconfirmations from Investors who have already made commitments. If an Investor does not reconfirm their investment commitment after a material change is made to the terms of the Offering within five (5) business days of receiving notice, the Investor's investment commitment will be canceled and the committed funds will be returned without interest or deductions.

Intermediate Closings

In the event an amount equal to two (2) times the Target Offering Amount is committed and meets all required terms of the Offering prior to the Offering Deadline on such date or such later time the Issuer designates pursuant to Rule 304(b) of Regulation CF, the Issuer may conduct the first of multiple closings of the Offering early, provided (i) the early closing date must be twenty-one (21) days from the time the Offering opened and (ii) that all Investors will receive notice of such early closing date at least five (5) business days prior to such new offering deadline (absent a material change that would require an extension of the Offering and reconfirmation of all investment commitments). Investors who committed on the date such notice is provided or prior to the issuance of such notice will be able to cancel their investment commitment until 48 hours before such early closing date.

If the Issuer conducts an initial closing (the "Initial Closing"), the Issuer agrees to only withdraw seventy percent (70%) of the proceeds that are in escrow and will only conduct such Initial Closing if there are more than twenty-one (21) days remaining before the Offering Deadline as of the date of the Initial Closing. The Issuer may only conduct another close (a "Subsequent Closing") before the Offering Deadline if the amount of investment commitments made as of the date of such Subsequent Closing exceeds two times the Target Offering Amount as of the date of the Initial Closing and there are more than twenty-one (21) days remaining before the Offering Deadline as of the date of such Subsequent Closing. Any closing will see the SPV purchasing Securities from the Issuer using the proceeds of the Offering.

Any investment commitments received after an intermediate closing will be released to the Issuer upon a subsequent closing and the Investor will receive evidence of the Securities via electronic certificate/PDF in exchange for their investment commitment as soon as practicable thereafter.

The Issuer has agreed to return all funds to Investors in the event a Form C-W is ultimately filed in relation to this Offering, regardless of whether multiple closings are conducted.

Investment commitments are not binding on the Issuer until they are accepted by the Issuer, which reserves the right to reject, in whole or in part, in its sole and absolute discretion, any investment commitment. If the Issuer rejects all or a portion of any investment commitment, the applicable prospective Investor's funds will be returned without interest or deduction.

The Securities

We request that you please review this Form C, the SAFE attached as Exhibit B and the SPV Subscription Agreement attached in Exhibit C, in conjunction with the following summary information. Subscriptions will be made to become members of the SPV via the SPV Subscription Agreement, which will purchase a corresponding SAFE amount and hold such for the benefit of the investors.

Not Currently Equity Interests

The Securities are not currently equity interests in the Issuer and merely provide a right to receive equity at some point in the future upon the occurrence of certain events (which may or may not occur).

Dividends and/or Distributions

The Securities do not entitle Investors to any dividends.

Conversion

Upon any bona fide transaction or series of transactions with the principal purpose of raising capital, pursuant to which the Company issues and sells Preferred Stock at a fixed valuation, including but not limited to, a pre-money or post-money valuation (each an “Equity Financing”), the Securities are convertible into shares of the securities issued in said Equity Financing, at the option of the Issuer.

Conversion Upon an Equity Financing Event

Upon an Equity Financing, the Investor will receive the number of securities equal to the greater of the quotient obtained by dividing the amount the Investor paid for the Securities (the “Purchase Amount”) by (a), (b) or (c) immediately below:

(a) the quotient of $15,000,000 (“Valuation Cap”) divided by as of immediately prior to the Equity Financing and (without double-counting, in each case calculated on an as-converted to Common Stock basis): including all shares of Capital Stock issued and outstanding, which includes all Converting Securities; all (i) issued and outstanding Options and (ii) Promised Options; and the Unissued Option Pool, except that any increase to the Unissued Option Pool in connection with the Equity Financing shall only be included to the extent that the number of Promised Options exceeds the Unissued Option Pool prior to such increase (the “Company Capitalization”);

OR

(b) the price per share of the securities sold in such Equity Financing multiplied by 80%.

OR

(c) if the pre-money valuation of the Issuer immediately prior to the Equity Financing is less than or equal to the Valuation Cap, the lowest price per share of the securities sold in such Equity Financing”.

Such conversion price shall be deemed the “Equity Financing Price”.

Conversion Upon a Liquidity Event

In the case of the Issuer’s undergoing an IPO (as defined below) of its Capital Stock (as defined in the Security), a Direct Listing (as defined below), or a Change of Control (as defined below) of the Issuer (either of these events, a “Liquidity Event”) prior to any Equity Financing, the Investor will receive, at its option and within thirty (30) days of receiving notice (whether actual or constructive), either (i) a cash payment equal to the Purchase Amount subject to the following paragraph (the “Cash Out Option”) or (ii) a number of shares of Common Stock of the Issuer equal to the Purchase Amount divided by the quotient of (a) the Valuation Cap divided by (b) the number, as of immediately prior to the Liquidity Event and (without double-counting, in each case calculated on an as-converted to Common Stock basis), which includes all shares of Capital Stock issued and outstanding; all (i) issued and outstanding Options and (ii) to the extent receiving Proceeds, Promised Options; all Converting Securities, other than any Safes and other convertible securities (including without limitation shares of Preferred Stock) where the holders of such securities are receiving Cash-Out Amounts or similar liquidation preference payments in lieu of Conversion Amounts or similar “as-converted” payments; and excludes the Unissued Option Pool..

In connection with the Cash Out Option, the Purchase Amount (or a lesser amount as described below) will be due and payable by the Issuer to the Investor immediately prior to, or concurrent with, the consummation of the Liquidity Event. If there are not enough funds to pay the Investors and the holders of other SAFEs (collectively, the “Cash-Out Investors”) in full, then all of the Issuer’s available funds will be distributed with equal priority and pro rata among the Cash-Out Investors in proportion to their Purchase Amounts.

Certain Definitions:

“Company Capitalization” is calculated as of immediately prior to the Equity Financing and (without double-counting, in each case calculated on an as-converted to Common Stock basis):

- Includes all shares of Capital Stock issued and outstanding;
- Includes all Converting Securities;
- Includes all (i) issued and outstanding Options and (ii) Promised Options; and
- Includes the Unissued Option Pool, except that any increase to the Unissued Option Pool in connection with the Equity Financing shall only be included to the extent that the number of Promised Options exceeds the Unissued Option Pool prior to such increase.

“Converting Securities” includes this Safe and other convertible securities issued by the Company, including but not limited to: (i) other Safes; (ii) convertible promissory notes and other convertible debt instruments; and (iii) convertible securities that have the right to convert into shares of Capital Stock.

“Direct Listing” means the Company’s initial listing of its Common Stock (other than shares of Common Stock not eligible for resale under Rule 144 under the Securities Act) on a national securities exchange by means of an effective registration statement on Form S-1 filed by the Company with the SEC that registers shares of existing capital stock of the Company for resale, as approved by the Company’s board of directors. For the avoidance of doubt, a Direct Listing shall not be deemed to be an underwritten offering and shall not involve any underwriting services.

“Dissolution Event” means (i) a voluntary termination of operations, (ii) a general assignment for the benefit of the Company’s creditors or (iii) any other liquidation, dissolution or winding up of the Company (excluding a Liquidity Event), whether voluntary or involuntary.

“Initial Public Offering” means the closing of the Company’s first firm commitment underwritten initial public offering of Common Stock pursuant to a registration statement filed under the Securities Act.

“Liquidity Capitalization” is calculated as of immediately prior to the Liquidity Event, and (without double-counting, in each case calculated on an as-converted to Common Stock basis):

- Includes all shares of Capital Stock issued and outstanding;
- Includes all (i) issued and outstanding Options and (ii) to the extent receiving Proceeds, Promised Options;
- Includes all Converting Securities, other than any Safes and other convertible securities (including without limitation shares of Preferred Stock) where the holders of such securities are receiving Cash-Out Amounts or similar liquidation preference payments in lieu of Conversion Amounts or similar “as-converted” payments; and
- Excludes the Unissued Option Pool.

“Liquidity Event” means a Change of Control, a Direct Listing or an Initial Public Offering.

“Liquidity Price” means the price per share equal to the Post-Money Valuation Cap divided by the Liquidity Capitalization.

“Options” includes options, restricted stock awards or purchases, RSUs, SARs, warrants or similar securities, vested or unvested.

“Proceeds” means cash and other assets (including without limitation stock consideration) that are proceeds from the Liquidity Event or the Dissolution Event, as applicable, and legally available for distribution.

“Promised Options” means promised but ungranted Options that are the greater of those (i) promised pursuant to agreements or understandings made prior to the execution of, or in connection with, the term sheet or letter of intent for the Equity Financing or Liquidity Event, as applicable (or the initial closing of the Equity Financing or consummation of the Liquidity Event, if there is no term sheet or letter of intent), (ii) in the case of an Equity Financing, treated as outstanding Options in the calculation of the Standard Preferred Stock’s price per share, or (iii) in the case of a Liquidity Event, treated as outstanding Options in the calculation of the distribution of the Proceeds.

“Safe Preferred Stock” means the shares of the series of Preferred Stock issued to the Investor in an Equity Financing, having the identical rights, privileges, preferences and restrictions as the shares of Standard Preferred Stock, other than with respect to: (i) the per share liquidation preference and the initial conversion price for purposes of price-based anti-dilution protection, which will equal the Equity Financing Price; and (ii) the basis for any dividend rights, which will be based on the Equity Financing Price.

“Standard Preferred Stock” means the shares of the series of Preferred Stock issued to the investors investing new money in the Company in connection with the initial closing of the Equity Financing.

“Unissued Option Pool” means all shares of Capital Stock that are reserved, available for future grant and not subject to any outstanding Options or Promised Options (but in the case of a Liquidity Event, only to the extent Proceeds are payable on such Promised Options) under any equity incentive or similar Company plan.

Dissolution

If there is a Dissolution Event or a Liquidity Event before the Securities terminate, the Investor will automatically be entitled (subject to the liquidation priority set forth in Section 1(d) below) to receive a portion of Proceeds equal to the Cash-Out Amount, due and payable to the Investor immediately prior to the consummation of the Dissolution Event. The SPV would then issue those proceeds ratably to the investors.

Termination

The Securities terminate (without relieving the Issuer of any obligations arising from a prior breach of or non-compliance with the Securities) upon the earlier to occur of: (i) the issuance of shares in the converted securities to the Investor pursuant to the conversion provisions of the SAFE agreement or (ii) the payment, or setting aside for payment, of amounts due to the Investor pursuant to a Liquidity Event or a Dissolution Event.

Voting and Control

Neither the Securities nor the securities issuable upon the conversion of the Securities have voting rights unless otherwise provided for by the Issuer.

In connection with its Series Seed financing round, the Issuer and certain of its investors entered into that certain (i) Voting Agreement, dated March 25, 2022, (ii) Investors’ Rights Agreement, dated March 25, 2022 and (iii) Right of First Refusal and Co-Sale Agreement, dated March 25, 2022. If the Securities are converted to SAFE Preferred Stock, they will likely become a party to an amended and restated suite of the same agreements.

Anti-Dilution Rights

The Securities do not have anti-dilution rights, which means that future equity issuances and other events will dilute the ownership percentage that Investors may eventually have in the Issuer.

Restrictions on Transfer

Any Securities sold pursuant to Regulation CF being offered may not be transferred by any Investor of such Securities during the one-year holding period beginning when the Securities were issued, unless such Securities are transferred: (1) to the Issuer; (2) to an accredited investor, as defined by Rule 501(d) of Regulation D promulgated under the Securities Act; (3) as part of an IPO; or (4) to a member of the family of the Investor or the equivalent, to a trust controlled by the Investor, to a trust created for the benefit of a member of the family of the Investor or the equivalent, or in connection with the death or divorce of the Investor or other similar circumstances. “Member of the family” as used herein means a child, stepchild, grandchild, parent, stepparent, grandparent, spouse or spousal equivalent, sibling, mother/father/daughter/son/sister/brother-in-law, and includes adoptive relationships. Each Investor should be aware that although the Securities may legally be able to be transferred, there is no guarantee that another party will be willing to purchase them.

In addition to the foregoing restrictions, prior to making any transfer of the Securities or any capital stock into which they are convertible, such transferring Investor must either make such transfer pursuant to an effective registration statement filed with the SEC or provide the Issuer with an opinion of counsel reasonably satisfactory to the Issuer stating that a registration statement is not necessary to effect such transfer.

In addition, the Investor may not transfer the Securities or any capital stock into which they are convertible to any of the Issuer’s competitors, as determined by the Issuer in good faith.

Furthermore, upon the event of an IPO, the capital stock into which the Securities are converted will be subject to a lock-up period and may not be lent, offered, pledged, or sold for up to 180 days following such IPO.

Other Material Terms

- The Issuer does not have the right to repurchase the Securities.
- The Securities do not have a stated return or liquidation preference.
- The Issuer cannot determine if it currently has enough capital stock authorized to issue upon the conversion of the Securities, because the amount of capital stock to be issued is based on the occurrence of future events.

COMMISSION AND FEES

Cash Commission

At the conclusion of the Offering, the Issuer shall pay the Intermediary (i) a cash fee equal to the greater of (A) $15,000.00 or (B) the amount determined pursuant to the following schedule: (I) zero percent (0%) of any amount raised up to $100,000.00, and (II) six percent (6%) of any amounts raised exceeding $100,000.01 but not exceeding $5,000,000.00; (ii) a non-refundable onboarding fee of $7,500.00 and (iii) all payment processing fees including, but not limited to, Stripe, Inc. or Zero Hash LLC.

Other Compensation

The Intermediary will also receive compensation in the form of the Securities equal to two percent (2%) of the total number of the Securities sold in the Offering. The total number of Securities outstanding after the Offering is subject to increase in an amount equal to the Intermediary's fee of two percent (2%) of the Securities issued in this Offering.

RISK FACTORS

Investing in the Securities involves a high degree of risk and may result in the loss of your entire investment. Before making an investment decision with respect to the Securities, we urge you to carefully consider the risks described in this section and other factors set forth in this Form C. In addition to the risks specified below, the Issuer is subject to the same risks that all companies in its business, and all companies in the economy, are exposed to. These include risks relating to economic downturns, political and economic events and technological developments (such as hacking and the ability to prevent hacking). Additionally, early-stage companies are inherently riskier than more developed companies. Prospective Investors should consult with their legal, tax and financial advisors prior to making an investment in the Securities. The Securities should only be purchased by persons who can afford to lose all of their investment.

Risks Related to the Issuer's Business and Industry

We have a limited operating history upon which you can evaluate our performance, and accordingly, our prospects must be considered in light of the risks that any new company encounters.

The Issuer is still in an early phase and we are just beginning to implement our business plan. There can be no assurance that we will ever operate profitably. The likelihood of our success should be considered in light of the problems, expenses, difficulties, complications and delays usually encountered by early stage companies. The Issuer may not be successful in attaining the objectives necessary for it to overcome these risks and uncertainties.

Our future growth and success are dependent upon the widespread adoption of renewable energy technologies.

The market for renewable energy technologies is emerging and rapidly evolving, and our future success is uncertain. If renewable energy technologies prove unsuitable for widespread commercial deployment or if demand for such technologies fails to develop sufficiently, we would be unable to generate enough revenues to achieve and sustain profitability and positive cash flow. The factors influencing the widespread adoption of renewable energy technology include but are not limited to:

- cost-effectiveness of renewable energy technologies as compared to conventional energy technologies;
- performance and reliability of renewable energy technologies as compared to conventional energy technologies;
- fluctuations in economic and market conditions which impact the viability of conventional energy sources, such as increases or decreases in the prices of natural gas, oil and other fossil fuels;
- continued deregulation of the electric power industry and broader energy industry; and
- availability of governmental subsidies and incentives.

The amount of capital the Issuer is attempting to raise in this Offering may not be enough to sustain the Issuer's current business plan.

In order to achieve the Issuer's near and long-term goals, the Issuer may need to procure funds in addition to the amount raised in the Offering. There is no guarantee the Issuer will be able to raise such funds on acceptable terms or at all. If we are not able to raise sufficient capital in the future, we may not be able to execute our business plan, our continued operations will be in jeopardy and we may be forced to cease operations and sell or otherwise transfer all or substantially all of our remaining assets, which could cause an Investor to lose all or a portion of their investment.

We may face potential difficulties in obtaining capital.

We may have difficulty raising needed capital in the future as a result of, among other factors, our lack of revenues from sales, as well as the inherent business risks associated with the Issuer and present and future market conditions. Additionally, our business currently does not generate any sales and future sources of revenue may not be sufficient to meet our future capital requirements. We will require additional funds to execute our business strategy and conduct our operations. If adequate funds are unavailable, we may be required to delay, reduce the scope of or eliminate one or more of our research, development or commercialization programs, product launches or marketing efforts, any of which may materially harm our business, financial condition and results of operations.

We may not have enough authorized capital stock to issue shares of common stock to investors upon the conversion of all securities which are convertible into shares of our common stock, including the Securities.

Unless we increase our authorized capital stock, we may not have enough authorized common stock to be able to issue shares of our common stock or securities convertible into shares of our common stock. We may also not have enough authorized capital stock to issue shares of common stock to investors upon the conversion of any security convertible into shares of our common stock, including the Securities.

We may implement new lines of business or offer new products and services within existing lines of business.

As an early-stage company, we may implement new lines of business at any time. There are substantial risks and uncertainties associated with these efforts, particularly in instances where the markets are not fully developed. In developing and marketing new lines of business and/or new products and services, we may invest significant time and resources. Initial timetables for the introduction and development of new lines of business and/or new products or services may not be achieved, and price and profitability targets may not prove feasible. We may not be successful in introducing new products and services in response to industry trends or developments in technology, or those new products may not achieve market acceptance. As a result, we could lose business, be forced to price products and services on less advantageous terms to retain or attract clients or be subject to cost increases. As a result, our business, financial condition or results of operations may be adversely affected.

We rely on other companies to provide components and services for our products.

We depend on suppliers and contractors to meet our contractual obligations to our customers and conduct our operations. Our ability to meet our obligations to our customers may be adversely affected if suppliers or contractors do not provide the agreed-upon supplies or perform the agreed-upon services in compliance with customer requirements and in a timely and cost-effective manner.

In particular, we are dependent upon the availability of sufficient supplies of lithium iron phosphate batteries priced at or below the current average market price per megawatt hour to secure and construct new projects. A disruption to supply chains for battery raw materials, components, or the delivery of finished products could cause price spikes that limit the types of projects we could undertake. In addition, we are currently sourcing batteries from a major supplier with production in China, which could be negatively impacted by potential trade issues between China and the United States. While non-China based suppliers are becoming more common, they do not yet have the production capacity we would require to satisfy our projected demand, which would limit our flexibility to switch to non-China sources in the event of price spikes caused by the imposition of tariffs or supply constraints caused by other trade barriers.

Furthermore, the quality of our products may be adversely impacted if companies to whom we delegate manufacture of major components or subsystems for our products, or from whom we acquire such items, do not provide components which meet required specifications and perform to our and our customers' expectations. Our suppliers may be unable to quickly recover from natural disasters and other events beyond their control and may be subject to additional risks such as financial problems that limit their ability to conduct their operations. The risk of these adverse effects may be greater in circumstances where we rely on only one or two contractors or suppliers for a particular component. Our products may utilize custom components available from only one source. Continued availability of those components at acceptable prices, or at all, may be affected for any number of reasons, including if those suppliers decide to concentrate on the production of common components instead of components customized to meet our requirements. The supply of components for a new or existing product could be delayed or constrained, or a key manufacturing vendor could delay shipments of completed products to us adversely affecting our business and results of operations.

We rely on various intellectual property rights, including trademarks, in order to operate our business.

The Issuer relies on certain intellectual property rights to operate its business. The Issuer's intellectual property rights may not be sufficiently broad or otherwise may not provide us a significant competitive advantage. In addition, the steps that we have taken to maintain and protect our intellectual property may not prevent it from being challenged, invalidated, circumvented or designed-around, particularly in countries where intellectual property rights are not highly developed or protected. In some circumstances, enforcement may not be available to us because an infringer has a dominant intellectual property position or for other business reasons, or countries may require compulsory licensing of our intellectual property. Our failure to obtain or maintain intellectual property rights that convey competitive advantage, adequately protect our intellectual property or detect or prevent circumvention or unauthorized use of such property, could adversely impact our competitive position and results of operations. We also rely on nondisclosure and noncompetition agreements with employees, consultants and other parties to protect, in part, trade secrets and other proprietary rights. There can be no assurance that these agreements will adequately protect our trade secrets and other proprietary rights and will not be breached, that we will have adequate remedies for any breach, that others will not independently develop substantially equivalent proprietary information or that third parties will not otherwise gain access to our trade secrets or other proprietary rights. As we expand our business, protecting our intellectual property will become increasingly important. The protective steps we have taken may be inadequate to deter our competitors from using our proprietary information. In order to protect or enforce our patent rights, we may be required to initiate litigation against third parties, such as infringement lawsuits. Also, these third parties may assert claims against us with or without provocation. These lawsuits could be expensive, take significant time and could divert management's attention from other business concerns. The law relating to the scope and validity of claims in the technology field in which we operate is still evolving and, consequently, intellectual property positions in our industry are generally uncertain. We cannot assure you that we will prevail in any of these potential suits or that the damages or other remedies awarded, if any, would be commercially valuable.

The Issuer's success depends on the experience and skill of its executive officers and key personnel.

The success of our business is dependent on our executive officers and key personnel. The loss of our executive officers and key personnel could harm the Issuer's business, financial condition, cash flow and results of operations.

Although dependent on certain key personnel, the Issuer does not have any key person life insurance policies on any such people.

We are dependent on certain key personnel in order to conduct our operations and execute our business plan, however, the Issuer has not purchased any insurance policies with respect to those individuals in the event of their death or disability. Therefore, if any of these personnel die or become disabled, the Issuer will not receive any compensation to assist with such person's absence. The loss of such person could negatively affect the Issuer and our operations. We have no way to guarantee key personnel will stay with the Issuer, as many states do not enforce non-competition agreements, and therefore acquiring key man insurance will not ameliorate all of the risk of relying on key personnel.

In order for the Issuer to compete and grow, it must attract, recruit, retain and develop the necessary personnel who have the needed experience.

Recruiting and retaining highly qualified personnel is critical to our success. These demands may require us to hire additional personnel and will require our existing management and other personnel to develop additional expertise. We face intense competition for personnel, making recruitment time-consuming and expensive. The failure to attract and retain personnel or to develop such expertise could delay or halt the development and commercialization of our product candidates. Furthermore, we rely upon a highly skilled workforce drawn from many different skill sets including electricians, freight rail operators, and renewable energy project developers, among others, the general availability of whom are essential to our business, which could impact our ability to scale operations to meet future demand growth. For example, we have an agreement in place with the National Electrical Contractors Association and the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers which allows us to only hire members of the contractors association or electrical workers union, which could expose us to future impacts from strikes or other collective labor actions. If we experience difficulties in hiring and retaining personnel in key positions, we could suffer from delays in product development, loss of customers and sales and diversion of management resources, which could adversely affect our operating results.

The development and commercialization of our products is highly competitive.

We face competition with respect to any products that we may seek to develop or commercialize in the future. Our competitors include major companies worldwide. Many of our competitors have significantly greater financial, technical and human resources than we have and superior expertise in research and development and marketing approved products and thus may be better equipped than us to develop and commercialize products. These competitors also compete with us in recruiting and retaining qualified personnel and acquiring technologies. Smaller or early stage companies may also prove to be significant competitors, particularly through collaborative arrangements with large and established companies. Accordingly, our competitors may commercialize products more rapidly or effectively than we are able to, which would adversely affect our competitive position, the likelihood that our products will achieve initial market acceptance, and our ability to generate meaningful additional revenues from our products.

Damage to our reputation could negatively impact our business, financial condition and results of operations.

Our reputation and the quality of our brand are critical to our business and success in existing markets, and will be critical to our success as we enter new markets. Any incident that erodes consumer loyalty for our brand could significantly reduce its value and damage our business. We may be adversely affected by any negative publicity, regardless of its accuracy. Also, there has been a marked increase in the use of social media platforms and similar devices, including blogs, social media websites and other forms of internet-based communications that provide individuals with access to a broad audience of consumers and other interested persons. The availability of information on social media platforms is virtually immediate as is its impact. Information posted may be adverse to our interests or may be inaccurate, each of which may harm our performance, prospects or business. The harm may be immediate and may disseminate rapidly and broadly, without affording us an opportunity for redress or correction.

Our business could be negatively impacted by cyber security threats, attacks and other disruptions.

We may face advanced and persistent attacks on our information infrastructure where we manage and store various proprietary information and sensitive/confidential data relating to our operations. These attacks may include sophisticated malware (viruses, worms, and other malicious software programs) and phishing emails that attack our products or otherwise exploit any security vulnerabilities. These intrusions sometimes may be zero-day malware that are difficult to identify because they are not included in the signature set of commercially available antivirus scanning programs. Experienced computer programmers and hackers may be able to penetrate our network security and misappropriate or compromise our confidential information or that of our customers or other third-parties, create system disruptions, or cause shutdowns. Additionally, sophisticated software and applications that we may produce or procure from third-parties may contain defects in design or manufacture, including “bugs” and other problems that could unexpectedly interfere with the operation of the information infrastructure. A disruption, infiltration or failure of our information infrastructure systems or any of our data centers as a result of software or hardware malfunctions, computer viruses, cyber-attacks, employee theft or misuse, power disruptions, natural disasters or accidents could cause breaches of data security, loss of critical data and performance delays, which in turn could adversely affect our business.

Security breaches of confidential customer information or confidential employee information may adversely affect our business.

Our business requires the collection, transmission and retention of personally identifiable information, in various information technology systems that we maintain and in those maintained by third parties with whom we contract to provide services. The integrity and protection of that data is critical to us. The information, security and privacy requirements imposed by governmental regulation are increasingly demanding. Our systems may not be able to satisfy these changing requirements and customer and employee expectations, or may require significant additional investments or time in order to do so. A breach in the security of our information technology systems or those of our service providers could lead to an interruption in the operation of our systems, resulting in operational inefficiencies and a loss of profits. Additionally, a significant theft, loss or misappropriation of, or access to, customers’ or other proprietary data or other breach of our information technology systems could result in fines, legal claims or proceedings.

The use of individually identifiable data by our business, our business associates and third parties is regulated at the state, federal and international levels.

The regulation of individual data is changing rapidly, and in unpredictable ways. A change in regulation could adversely affect our business, including causing our business model to no longer be viable. Costs associated with information security – such as investment in technology, the costs of compliance with consumer protection laws and costs resulting from consumer fraud – could cause our business and results of operations to suffer materially. Additionally, the success of our online operations depends upon the secure transmission of confidential information over public networks, including the use of cashless payments. The intentional or negligent actions of employees, business associates or third parties may undermine our security measures. As a result, unauthorized parties may obtain access to our data systems and misappropriate confidential data. There can be no assurance that advances in computer capabilities, new discoveries in the field of cryptography or other developments will prevent the compromise of our customer transaction processing capabilities and personal data. If any such compromise of our security or the security of information residing with our business associates or third parties were to occur, it could have a material adverse effect on our reputation, operating results and financial condition. Any compromise of our data security may materially increase the costs we incur to protect against such breaches and could subject us to additional legal risk.

We have not prepared any audited financial statements.

The financial statement attached as Exhibit A to this Form C have been “reviewed” only and such financial statements have not been verified with outside evidence as to management’s amounts and disclosures. Additionally, tests on internal controls have not been conducted. Therefore, you will have no audited financial information regarding the Issuer’s capitalization or assets or liabilities on which to make your investment decision. Please see Annex III to Exhibit C for the financial statements prepared for the SPV, which show no historic activity, have been “reviewed” only and such financial statements have not been verified with outside evidence as to management’s amounts and disclosures

The Issuer is not subject to Sarbanes-Oxley regulations and may lack the financial controls and procedures of public companies.

The Issuer may not have the internal control infrastructure that would meet the standards of a public company, including the requirements of the Sarbanes Oxley Act of 2002. As a privately-held (non-public) issuer, the Issuer is currently not subject to the Sarbanes Oxley Act of 2002, and its financial and disclosure controls and procedures reflect its status as a development stage, non-public company. There can be no guarantee that there are no significant deficiencies or material weaknesses in the quality of the Issuer’s financial and disclosure controls and procedures. If it were necessary to implement such financial and disclosure controls and procedures, the cost to the Issuer of such compliance could be substantial and could have a material adverse effect on the Issuer’s results of operations.

We operate in a highly regulated environment, and if we are found to be in violation of any of the federal, state, or local laws or regulations applicable to us, our business could suffer.

While our business is not highly regulated, our key vendors are subject to a wide range of federal, state, and local laws and regulations, such as federal rail and transportation regulations, environmental health and safety regulations, and local licensing requirements, among others. The violation of these or future requirements or laws and regulations could result in administrative, civil, or criminal sanctions against our vendors, which may affect our ability to identify, retain and utilize these vendors. Vendors we rely on may be subject to fines, cease and desist orders against the subject operations or even revocation or suspension of our license to operate the subject business. As a result, we may incur capital and operating expenditures and other costs to comply with these requirements and laws and regulations.

We rely upon existing freight rail networks and local electrical distribution infrastructure to charge our trains and discharge the energy to supply users, which could be subject to disruptions.

In conducting our business, we rely upon existing freight rail networks and local electrical distribution infrastructure to charge our trains or discharge energy to supply users. As such, we are vulnerable to disruptions impacting existing freight rail networks and local electrical distribution infrastructure which may arise as a result of natural disasters, strikes, or civil unrest, among other causes, and our ability to fulfill our obligations under power delivery and purchase agreements could be delayed. This may lead to the damage of our reputation and the perception of our brand, slow sales growth, or trigger contractual penalties for failure to deliver power per the agreed upon delivery schedule, and adversely affect our business, financial condition or results of operations.

The dangers inherent in storage and transportation of renewable energy could cause disruptions in our operations and could expose us to potentially significant losses, costs or liabilities.

Transportation and logistical operating expenses comprise a significant portion of the costs incurred by our business as we deliver power by mounting lithium iron phosphate batteries to railcars, which are much larger than any existing stationary storage system. As such, we are subject to significant hazards and risks inherent in transporting and storing such batteries. These hazards and risks include, but are not limited to, accidents, fires, explosions, spills, discharges, and other releases, any of which could result in distribution difficulties and disruptions, environmental pollution, governmentally imposed fines or clean-up obligations, personal injury or wrongful death claims, and other damage to property. Any such event not covered by our insurance could have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition and results of operations. Furthermore, a high-profile catastrophic failure of other energy storage systems could raise general safety concerns about the use of any energy storage systems and negatively impact our business development and sales activities or delay any needed regulatory permits required for new projects.

Our operations are capital intensive and we will require significant additional financing for our projects.

Our operations are capital intensive and future capital expenditures are expected to be substantial. We will require significant additional financing to fund our operations. In the absence of such additional financing we would not be able to fund our operations, which may result in delays, curtailment or abandonment of any one or all of our projects.

The unavailability, reduction or elimination of government and economic incentives could have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition and results of operations.

We benefit from certain government subsidies and economic incentives from time to time, including tax credits, rebates and other incentives that support the development and adoption of clean energy technology. For example, the Inflation Reduction Act of 2022 introduces or extends a number of tax credits to promote clean energy development. Any reduction, elimination or discriminatory application of government subsidies and economic incentives because of policy changes, or the reduced need for such subsidies and incentives due to the perceived success of clean and renewable energy products or other reasons, may require us to seek additional financing, which may not be obtainable on commercially attractive terms or at all, and may result in the diminished competitiveness of the battery cell industry generally or our silicon anode battery cells in particular. We cannot assure you that we will be able to benefit from such programs or that these subsidies and incentive programs will be available to us at the same or comparable levels in the future, and any change in the level of subsidies and incentives from which we benefit could materially and adversely affect our business, financial condition and results of operations.

Global crises and geopolitical events can have a significant effect on our business operations and revenue projections.

Global crises and geopolitical events, including but not limited to wars, conflicts or the outbreak of contagious diseases, could result in global disruptions to supply chains, political uncertainty and displacement. Each of these crises could adversely affect the economies and financial markets of many countries, including the United States where we principally operate, resulting in an economic downturn that could reduce the demand for our products and services and impair our business prospects, including as a result of being unable to raise additional capital on acceptable terms, if at all.

Risks Related to the Offering

State and federal securities laws are complex, and the Issuer could potentially be found to have not complied with all relevant state and federal securities law in prior offerings of securities.

The Issuer has conducted previous offerings of securities and may not have complied with all relevant state and federal securities laws. If a court or regulatory body with the required jurisdiction ever concluded that the Issuer may have violated state or federal securities laws, any such violation could result in the Issuer being required to offer rescission rights to investors in such offering. If such investors exercised their rescission rights, the Issuer would have to pay to such investors an amount of funds equal to the purchase price paid by such investors plus interest from the date of any such purchase. No assurances can be given the Issuer will, if it is required to offer such investors a rescission right, have sufficient funds to pay the prior investors the amounts required or that proceeds from this Offering would not be used to pay such amounts.

In addition, if the Issuer violated federal or state securities laws in connection with a prior offering and/or sale of its securities, federal or state regulators could bring an enforcement, regulatory and/or other legal action against the Issuer which, among other things, could result in the Issuer having to pay substantial fines and be prohibited from selling securities in the future.

The Issuer could potentially be found to have not complied with securities law in connection with this Offering related to a Reservation Campaign (also known as “Testing the Waters”)

Prior to filing this Form C, the Issuer engaged in a Reservation Campaign (also known as “testing the waters”) permitted under Regulation Crowdfunding (17 CFR 227.206), which allows issuers to communicate to determine whether there is interest in the offering. All communication sent is deemed to be an offer of securities for purposes of the antifraud provisions of federal securities laws. Any Investor who expressed interest prior to the date of this Offering should read this Form C thoroughly and rely only on the information provided herein and not on any statement made prior to the Offering. The communications sent to Investors prior to the Offering are attached as Exhibit E. Some of these communications may not have included proper disclaimers required for a Reservation Campaign.

The U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission does not pass upon the merits of the Securities or the terms of the Offering, nor does it pass upon the accuracy or completeness of any Offering document or literature.

You should not rely on the fact that our Form C is accessible through the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission’s EDGAR filing system as an approval, endorsement or guarantee of compliance as it relates to this Offering. The U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission has not reviewed this Form C, nor any document or literature related to this Offering.

Neither the Offering nor the Securities have been registered under federal or state securities laws.

No governmental agency has reviewed or passed upon this Offering or the Securities. Neither the Offering nor the Securities have been registered under federal or state securities laws. Investors will not receive any of the benefits available in registered offerings, which may include access to quarterly and annual financial statements that have been audited by an independent accounting firm. Investors must therefore assess the adequacy of disclosure and the fairness of the terms of this Offering based on the information provided in this Form C and the accompanying exhibits.

The Issuer’s management may have broad discretion in how the Issuer uses the net proceeds of the Offering.

Unless the Issuer has agreed to a specific use of the proceeds from the Offering, the Issuer’s management will have considerable discretion over the use of proceeds from the Offering. You may not have the opportunity, as part of your investment decision, to assess whether the proceeds are being used appropriately.

The Intermediary Fees paid by the Issuer are subject to change depending on the success of the Offering.

At the conclusion of the Offering, the Issuer shall pay the Intermediary (i) a cash fee equal to the greater of (A) $15,000.00 or (B) the amount determined pursuant to the following schedule: (I) zero percent (0%) of any amount raised up to $100,000.00, and (II) six percent (6%) of any amounts raised exceeding $100,000.01 but not exceeding $5,000,000.00; (ii) a non-refundable onboarding fee of $7,500.00 and (iii) all payment processing fees including, but not limited to, Stripe, Inc. or Zero Hash LLC. The Intermediary will also receive compensation in the form of securities equal to two percent (2%) of the total number of the securities sold in the Offering. The compensation paid by the Issuer to the Intermediary may impact how the Issuer uses the net proceeds of the Offering.

The Issuer has the right to limit individual Investor commitment amounts based on the Issuer’s determination of an Investor’s sophistication.

The Issuer may prevent any Investor from committing more than a certain amount in this Offering based on the Issuer’s determination of the Investor’s sophistication and ability to assume the risk of the investment. This means that your desired investment amount may be limited or lowered based solely on the Issuer’s determination and not in line with relevant investment limits set forth by the Regulation CF rules. This also means that other Investors may receive larger allocations of the Offering based solely on the Issuer’s determination.

The Issuer has the right to extend the Offering Deadline.

The Issuer may extend the Offering Deadline beyond what is currently stated herein. This means that your investment may continue to be held in escrow while the Issuer attempts to raise the Target Offering Amount even after the Offering Deadline stated herein is reached. While you have the right to cancel your investment in the event the Issuer extends the Offering Deadline, if you choose to reconfirm your investment, your investment will not be accruing interest during this time and will simply be held until such time as the new Offering Deadline is reached without the Issuer receiving the Target Offering Amount, at which time it will be returned to you without interest or deduction, or the Issuer receives the Target Offering Amount, at which time it will be released to the Issuer to be used as set forth herein. Upon or shortly after the release of such funds to the Issuer, the Securities will be issued and distributed to you.

The Issuer may also end the Offering early.

If the Target Offering Amount is met after 21 calendar days, but before the Offering Deadline, the Issuer can end the Offering by providing notice to Investors at least five (5) business days prior to the end of the Offering. This means your failure to participate in the Offering in a timely manner, may prevent you from being able to invest in this Offering – it also means the Issuer may limit the amount of capital it can raise during the Offering by ending the Offering early.

The Issuer has the right to conduct multiple closings during the Offering.

If the Issuer meets certain terms and conditions, an intermediate close (also known as a rolling close) of the Offering can occur, which will allow the Issuer to draw down on seventy percent (70%) of Investor proceeds committed and captured in the Offering during the relevant period. The Issuer may choose to continue the Offering thereafter. Investors should be mindful that this means they can make multiple investment commitments in the Offering, which may be subject to different cancellation rights. For example, if an intermediate close occurs and later a material change occurs as the Offering continues, Investors whose investment commitments were previously closed upon will not have the right to re-confirm their investment as it will be deemed to have been completed prior to the material change.

Risks Related to the SPV and the SPV Subscription Agreement

Please see Exhibit C for the terms and conditions of investing via the SPV, which is the sole method by which Investors may own a beneficial interest in the Securities. All references to the “Investor” below are references to the SPV as the owner of the Securities.

Risks Related to the Securities

The Securities will not be freely tradable under the Securities Act until one year from when the securities are issued. Although the Securities may be tradable under federal securities law, state securities regulations may apply, and each Investor should consult with their attorney.

You should be aware of the long-term nature of this investment. There is not now and likely will not ever be a public market for the Securities. Because the Securities have not been registered under the Securities Act or under the securities laws of any state or foreign jurisdiction, the Securities have transfer restrictions and cannot be resold in the United States except pursuant to Rule 501 of Regulation CF. It is not currently contemplated that registration under the Securities Act or other securities laws will be effected. Limitations on the transfer of the Securities may also adversely affect the price that you might be able to obtain for the Securities in a private sale. Investors should be aware of the long-term nature of their investment in the Issuer. Each Investor in this Offering will be required to represent that they are purchasing the Securities for their own account, for investment purposes and not with a view to resale or distribution thereof.

Investors will not become equity holders until the Securities are converted or until there is a change of control or sale of substantially all of the Issuer’s assets. The Investor may never directly hold equity in the Issuer.

Investors will not have an ownership claim to the Issuer or to any of its assets or revenues for an indefinite amount of time and depending on when and how the Securities are converted, the Investors may never become equity holders of the Issuer. Investors will not become equity holders of the Issuer unless the Issuer receives a future round of financing great enough to trigger a conversion and the Issuer elects to convert the Securities. The Issuer is under no obligation to convert the Securities. In certain instances, such as a sale of the Issuer or substantially all of its assets, an initial public offering or a dissolution or bankruptcy, the Investors may only have a right to receive cash, to the extent available, rather than equity in the Issuer.

Investors will be unable to declare the Security in “default” and demand repayment.

Unlike convertible notes and some other securities, the Securities do not have any “default” provisions upon which Investors will be able to demand repayment of their investment. The Issuer has ultimate discretion as to whether or not to convert the Securities upon a future equity financing and Investors have no right to demand such conversion. Only in limited circumstances, such as a liquidity event, may Investors demand payment and even then, such payments will be limited to the amount of cash available to the Issuer.

The Issuer may conduct a financing which converts the Securities or undergo a liquidity event and Investors may have to hold the Securities indefinitely.

The Issuer may never conduct a future equity financing, resulting in the Securities remaining non-equity interests. In addition, the Issuer may never undergo a liquidity event such as a sale of the Issuer or an initial public offering. If neither the conversion of the Securities nor a liquidity event occurs, Investors could be left holding the Securities in perpetuity. The Securities have numerous transfer restrictions and will likely be highly illiquid, with no secondary market on which to sell them.

Any equity securities acquired upon conversion of the Securities may be significantly diluted as a consequence of subsequent equity financings.

The Issuer's equity securities will be subject to dilution. The Issuer intends to issue additional equity to employees and third-party financing sources in amounts that are uncertain at this time, and as a consequence holders of equity securities resulting from the conversion of the Securities will be subject to dilution in an unpredictable amount. Such dilution may reduce the Investor's control and economic interests in the Issuer.

The amount of additional financing needed by the Issuer will depend upon several contingencies not foreseen at the time of this Offering. Generally, additional financing (whether in the form of loans or the issuance of other securities) will be intended to provide the Issuer with enough capital to reach the next major corporate milestone. If the funds received in any additional financing are not sufficient to meet the Issuer's needs, the Issuer may have to raise additional capital at a price unfavorable to their existing investors, including the holders of the Securities. The availability of capital is at least partially a function of capital market conditions that are beyond the control of the Issuer. There can be no assurance that the Issuer will be able to accurately predict the future capital requirements necessary for success or that additional funds will be available from any source. Failure to obtain financing on favorable terms could dilute or otherwise severely impair the value of the Securities.

In addition, the Issuer has certain equity grants and convertible securities outstanding. Should the Issuer enter into a financing that would trigger any conversion rights, the converting securities would further dilute the equity securities receivable by the holders of the Securities upon a qualifying financing.

Any equity securities issued upon conversion of the Securities may be substantially different from other equity securities offered or issued by the Issuer at the time of conversion.

In the event the Issuer decides to exercise the conversion right, the Issuer will convert the Securities into equity securities that are materially different from the equity securities being issued to new investors at the time of conversion in many ways, including, but not limited to, liquidation preferences, dividend rights, or anti-dilution protection. Additionally, any equity securities issued via the conversion of the Securities shall have only such preferences, rights, and protections in proportion the price per share at which the Securities were converted, and not in proportion to the price per share paid by new investors receiving the equity securities. Upon conversion of the Securities, the Issuer may not provide the holders of such Securities with the same rights, preferences, protections, and other benefits or privileges provided to other investors of the Issuer.

The foregoing paragraph is only a summary of a portion of the conversion feature of the Securities; it is not intended to be complete, and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the SAFE agreement, which is attached as Exhibit B.

There is no present market for the Securities and we have arbitrarily set the price.

The offering price was not established in a competitive market. We have arbitrarily set the price of the Securities with reference to the general status of the securities market and other relevant factors. The offering price for the Securities should not be considered an indication of the actual value of the Securities and is not based on our asset value, net worth, revenues or other established criteria of value. We cannot guarantee that the Securities can be resold at the offering price or at any other price.

In the event of the dissolution or bankruptcy of the Issuer, Investors will not be treated as debt holders and therefore are unlikely to recover any proceeds.

In the event of the dissolution or bankruptcy of the Issuer, the holders of the Securities that have not been converted will be entitled to distributions as described in the Securities. This means that such holders will only receive distributions once all of the creditors and more senior security holders, including any holders of preferred stock, have been paid in full. No holders of any of the Securities can be guaranteed any proceeds in the event of the dissolution or bankruptcy of the Issuer.

While the Securities provide mechanisms whereby holders of the Securities would be entitled to a return of their purchase amount upon the occurrence of certain events, if the Issuer does not have sufficient cash on hand, this obligation may not be fulfilled.

Upon the occurrence of certain events, as provided in the Securities, holders of the Securities may be entitled to a return of the principal amount invested. Despite the contractual provisions in the Securities, this right cannot be guaranteed if the Issuer does not have sufficient liquid assets on hand. Therefore, potential Investors should not assume a guaranteed return of their investment amount.

There is no guarantee of a return on an Investor's investment.

There is no assurance that an Investor will realize a return on their investment or that they will not lose their entire investment. For this reason, each Investor should read this Form C and all exhibits carefully and should consult with their attorney and business advisor prior to making any investment decision.

IN ADDITION TO THE RISKS LISTED ABOVE, RISKS AND UNCERTAINTIES NOT PRESENTLY KNOWN, OR WHICH WE CONSIDER IMMATERIAL AS OF THE DATE OF THIS FORM C, MAY ALSO HAVE AN ADVERSE EFFECT ON OUR BUSINESS AND RESULT IN THE TOTAL LOSS OF YOUR INVESTMENT.

BUSINESS

Description of the Business

SunTrain, Inc., known as SunTrain, is a renewable energy project and technology developer that seeks to bypass the existing congested power transmission network. SunTrain resolves massive transmission bottlenecks that are throttling renewable energy development and generation by seamlessly storing green energy from remote solar and wind farms within customized battery containers that are transported over existing railroad networks. This links generation sites and congested substation nodes, bypassing the conventional transmission system. SunTrain solves the problems of decades long transmission bottlenecks through a new means of green energy distribution: “Trainsmission®”.

The Issuer was incorporated on August 31, 2021 in Delaware and is headquartered in California, and has projects in early development throughout the United States. The Issuer’s website is <https://www.suntrain.co>.

Business Plan

SunTrain resolves massive transmission bottlenecks that are stalling the development and generation of renewable energy by seamlessly storing gigawatt-hours of clean energy from remote solar and wind farms in battery railcars that are then transported over existing freight rail networks. This provides an immediate, alternative connection between renewable energy producers, substation nodes, and former fossil-fueled power plants, bypassing the congested transmission system.

The power grid does not have enough capacity to serve the current or projected demand for low-cost electricity from renewable resources, and expanding the grid is not an immediate or sufficient solution due to the twin obstacles of time and money. To build a new transmission line in the U.S. requires an average of 10 years and up to 20 years, at a cost of $2.3 million per mile. To meet projected 2050 demand, transmission capacity must triple from 2020 levels at a cost of $2.4 trillion. The gap between renewable generation and transmission construction is already having a broad economic impact. "Grid interconnection uncertainty" is reported as the primary barrier to financing and constructing projects of any kind, whether they are trying to add additional power to the grid or draw more power from it.

A 100-car SunTrain, the length of a typical coal train, delivers over 1.9 GWh of energy with a 98% round trip efficiency. This is equivalent to the output of five natural gas power plants. The SunTrain can be charged with (a) renewable power from SunTrain generation projects or those of third-party developers or (b) existing renewables otherwise curtailed due to grid congestion. At the discharge location, the railcars seamlessly integrate this power into the grid using SunTrain’s bi-directional charging system. Once discharged, the SunTrain returns to the generation site, while a new, fully charged SunTrain takes its place at the discharge location.

SunTrains allow energy to be shifted in both time and location, providing a new type of energy capacity that avoids transmission congestion and reduces curtailment and emissions. It provides this at a levelized cost of capacity comparable to natural gas generation, while eliminating half a gigaton of carbon emissions per train each year. Unlike stationary storage systems, it does not compound capacity shortages by charging within constrained regions and can be repositioned to adapt to changing grid needs over time. Importantly, it also supports a just economic transition for workers and communities by replacing lost coal transport business with battery freight cars and repurposing stranded fossil fuel power plants as charge/discharge points.

SunTrain’s dynamic business model enables it to meet the needs of different market verticals and customer types, including utilities, renewable project developers, grid operators, and specialty applications such as data centers, electric vehicle charging locations, industrial facilities, and disaster response agencies. It operates using a capital-efficient development company model, building projects using an off-balance sheet project finance structure or direct financing by end-users using their own balance sheets. Projects can produce three types of revenue: up-front development fees, annual operations and maintenance fees, and recurring equity returns based on the ownership percentage retained by SunTrain in each project. As SunTrain's operational and financial capacity increases, it will roll its project portfolio into a subsidiary yield company that can raise additional project capital from investors that value less risk and higher stability of returns.

In 2022, SunTrain raised $2.5 million in seed funding to build and operate a proof-of-concept scale 750 KWh railcar. This has been charged with solar energy from SunTrain’s San Francisco test bed and transported over 6,500 miles on the Union Pacific network for discharge demonstrations around the state of California.

To advance to commercialization, in addition to this Offering, SunTrain is raising a $2.5 - $3.0 million seed extension round to complete the design of a $125 million, 20-railcar, 384 MWh pilot-scale project for a major utility. The Pilot will operate between two former coal-fired power plants to capture frequently curtailed renewable wind and solar energy at one site and move it inside a large metropolitan area to reduce gas peaker plant emissions. The project will capture critical design and operational data, help develop engineering component and system designs, and define the operational characteristics required by grid planners for the mass deployment and adoption of SunTrains. While the utility plans to directly fund the construction costs of the Pilot project itself, SunTrain will need to raise an additional $8.5 million by Q4 of 2025, or earlier if time-to-market is prioritized. This additional capital will cover costs related to the implementation of the Pilot and for adding financial and human resources needed to create a pipeline of projects. The launch of A round fundraising will begin as soon as the value inflection point of Pilot contracting has been achieved.

NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
FOR THE YEARS ENDED DECEMBER 31, 2023 AND 2022
(See Independent Accountants' Review Report)

NOTE 1. NATURE OF BUSINESS AND SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Nature of Business

SunTrain, Inc. (the "Company") was organized under the laws of the State of Delaware in August 2021, and as amended in March 2022. The Company provides and develops renewable energy storage and distribution by storing green energy from remote solar and wind farms with customized battery containers that are transported over existing railroad networks. This links generation sites and congested substation nodes, bypassing the conventional transmission system. The Company serves regions where energy storage is nearly nonexistent and new traditional hard-wired transmission lines face insurmountable obstacles.

Basis of Presentation

The accompanying financial statements have been prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America ("GAAP").

Going Concern

The accompanying financial statements have been prepared on a going concern basis, which contemplates the realization of assets and the settlement of liabilities and commitments in the normal course of business. As reflected in the accompanying financial statements, the Company has suffered recurring losses from operations since inception and used cash in operations during the year ended December 31, 2023. Based on the foregoing, management has concluded that there is substantial doubt about the Company's ability to continue as a going concern within one year after the date that the financial statements are being issued. The financial statements also do not reflect any adjustments relating to the recoverability of assets and liabilities that might be necessary if the Company is unable to continue as a going concern. The ability to continue as a going concern is dependent on the Company attaining and maintaining profitable operations in the future and raising additional capital to meet its obligations arising from normal business operations when they come due. Since inception, the Company has funded its operations primarily through equity and debt financings, and it expects to continue to rely on these sources of capital in the future.

No assurance can be given that any future financing will be available or, if available, that it will be on terms that are satisfactory to the Company. Even if the Company is able to obtain additional financing, it may contain undue restrictions on our operations, in the case of debt financing, or cause substantial dilution for our stockholders, in case of equity financing.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosures of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Significant estimates include those that relate to the useful lives of property and equipment, the accrual of potential liabilities and valuation allowance for deferred tax assets. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents include unrestricted deposits and short-term investments with an original maturity of three months or less.

Property and Equipment

Property and equipment is stated at cost net of depreciation and amortization. Depreciation and amortization are provided for on the straight-line method over the estimated useful lives of the respective assets which range from 5 to 10 years. Maintenance and repairs are charged to expense as incurred; major renewals and betterments are capitalized. When assets are fully depreciated, or otherwise disposed of, the related cost and accumulated depreciation are removed from the accounts and any gain or loss on disposition is credited or charged to income.

Management regularly reviews property, equipment and other long-lived assets for possible impairment. This review occurs annually or more frequently if events or changes in circumstances indicate the carrying amount of the asset may not be recoverable. The carrying amount of a long-lived asset is not recoverable if it exceeds the sum of the undiscounted cash flows expected to result from the use and eventual disposition of the asset. Based upon management's annual assessment, there were no indicators of impairment of the Company's property and equipment as of December 31, 2023 or 2022.

Fair Value Measurements

The Company uses various inputs in determining the fair value of its investments and measures these assets on a recurring basis. Financial assets recorded at fair value in the balance sheets are categorized by the level of objectivity associated with the inputs used to measure their fair value. ASC Topic 820 defines the following levels directly related to the amount of subjectivity associated with the inputs:

- |         |   |
|---------|---|
| Level 1 | Quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities.                                      |
| Level 2 | Inputs, other than the quoted prices in active markets, that is observable either directly or indirectly. |
| Level 3 | Unobservable inputs based on the Company's assumptions.   |

As of December 31, 2023 and 2022, the carrying value of financial assets and liabilities such as cash, and accounts payable and accrued liabilities approximates their fair value because of the short-term maturity of these instruments. Unless otherwise noted, it is management's opinion that the Company is not exposed to significant interest, currency or credit risks arising from these financial instruments.

Concentrations

The Company's cash balances on deposit with banks are guaranteed by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation up to $250,000 at December 31, 2023 and 2022. At times, the amount on deposit may exceed the federally insured limits. In assessing the risk, the Company's policy is to maintain cash balances with high quality financial institutions. The Company has never experienced any losses related to these balances.

Stock Based Compensation

The Company periodically issues stock options to employees and non-employees in non-capital raising transactions for services and for financing costs. The Company accounts for such grants issued and vesting based on ASC 718, Compensation-Stock Compensation whereby the value of the award is measured on the date of grant and recognized for employees as compensation expense on the straight-line basis over the vesting period. The Company recognizes the fair value of stock-based compensation within its Statements of Operations with classification depending on the nature of the services rendered.

The fair value of each option grant is estimated using the Black-Scholes option-pricing model. The Company is a private company and lacks company-specific historical and implied volatility information. Therefore, it estimates its expected stock volatility based on the historical volatility of a publicly traded set of peer companies within its industry with characteristics similar to the Company. The expected term of the Company's stock options has been determined utilizing the "simplified" method for awards that qualify as "plain vanilla" options. The expected term of stock options granted to non-employees is equal to the contractual term of the option award. The risk-free interest rate is determined by reference to the U.S. Treasury yield curve in effect at the time of grant of the award for time periods approximately equal to the expected term of the award. Expected dividend yield is zero, based on the fact that the Company has never paid cash dividends and does not expect to pay any cash dividends in the foreseeable future.

During the years ended December 31, 2023 and 2022, common shares of the Company were not publicly traded. As such, during the period, the Company estimated the fair value of common stock using an appropriate valuation methodology, in accordance with the framework of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants' Technical Practice Aid, Valuation of Privately-Held Company Equity Securities Issued as Compensation. Each valuation methodology includes estimates and assumptions that require the Company's judgment. These estimates and assumptions include a number of objective and subjective factors, including external market conditions, guideline public company information, the prices at which the Company sold its preferred stock to third parties in arms' length transactions, the rights, and preferences of securities senior to the Company's common stock at the time, and the likelihood of achieving a liquidity event such as an initial public offering or sale. Significant changes to the assumptions used in the valuations could result in different fair values of stock options at each valuation date, as applicable.

Income Taxes

The Company accounts for income taxes in accordance with FASB ASC 70, Income Taxes, which requires the recognition of deferred income taxes for differences between the basis of assets and liabilities for financial statement and income tax purposes. Deferred tax assets and liabilities represent future tax consequences for those differences, which will either be deductible or taxable when the assets and liabilities are recovered and settled. Deferred taxes are also recognized for operating losses that are available to offset future taxable income. A valuation allowance is established when necessary to reduce deferred tax assets to the amount expected to be realized. Based upon all available evidence, management concluded that it was more-likely-than-not that its deferred tax assets would not be realized, and therefore a full valuation allowance was in place as of December 31, 2023 and 2022.

The Company follows the provisions of FASB ASC 740-10-25, which prescribes a recognition threshold and measurement attribute for the recognition and measurement of tax positions or expected to be taken in income tax returns. FASB ASC 740-10-25 also provides guidance on de-recognition of income taxes assets and liabilities, classification of current and deferred income taxes and liabilities, and accounting for interest and penalties associated with tax positions.

The Company has not been recently audited by the IRS or state agencies; and accordingly, the business tax returns for the past three years are open to examination. The Company has evaluated its tax positions and has concluded that they do not result in anything that would require either recording or disclosure in the financial statements based upon the criteria set forth in ASC 740.

NOTE 2. PROPERTY AND EQUIPMENT

Property and equipment consist of the following at December 31,

	2023	2022
Machinery and equipment	$ 511,850	$ 555,398
Furniture and fixtures	4,323	-
	516,173	555,398
Accumulated depreciation	(62,226)	(12,690)
	$ 453,957	$ 542,708

During 2023, the Company received a refund of $88,770 on equipment originally purchased in 2022. The Company reflected this refund as an adjustment to cost basis. Also during 2023, the Company sold equipment with a cost basis of $40,605 for $30,000 resulting in a loss of $10,605. For the years ended December 31, 2023 and 2022, total depreciation expense related to property and equipment amounted to $50,731 and $12,690, respectively.

NOTE 3. PREFERRED STOCK

Series Seed Preferred Stock (the "Preferred Stock") consists of $0.00001 par value, 4,617,657 shares are authorized, 7% non-cumulative, voting, participating preferred stock, with a liquidation preference of $0.48726 per share. During the year ended December 31, 2022, the Company issued 4,617,657 shares of Series Seed preferred stock resulting to net proceeds to the Company of $2,247,760. As of December 31, 2023, and 2022, there were 4,617,657 shares outstanding.

Dividends are payable at the rate of 7% annually, pro-rata and non-cumulative. The Company cannot declare or pay any dividend on shares of our common stock until the holders of the Preferred Stock have received their dividend. In addition, the holders of the Preferred Stock are entitled to receive pro rata distributions of dividends on an "as converted" basis with the holders of common stock.

In the event of any liquidation, dissolution or winding up of the Company, or if there is a change of control event as defined, the holders of the Preferred Stock are entitled to receive, prior to distributions to the holders of common stock, $0.42726 per share plus all accrued and unpaid dividends. Thereafter, all remaining assets are distributed pro rata among all security holders.

The Preferred Stock may be converted at any time, at the option of the holder, into one share of common stock at $0.48726 per share, subject to adjustment in the event of stock splits, reverse stock splits, stock dividends, recapitalization, reclassification, and similar transactions. The Company is obligated to reserve authorized but unissued shares of common stock sufficient to affect the conversion of all outstanding shares of Preferred Stock.

Each holder of outstanding shares of the Preferred Stock shall be entitled to cast the number of votes equal to the number of whole shares of common stock into which the shares of Preferred Stock held by each holder are convertible into on any matters. The holders of Preferred stock shall be entitled to elect one director of the Company and the holders of common stock shall be entitled to elect two directors. In addition, at any time when at least thirty percent of the shares of Preferred Stock originally issued are outstanding, the Corporation shall not, either directly or indirectly by amendment, merger, consolidation, recapitalization, reclassification, or otherwise, do certain preferred stock protective provisions, as defined in the Certificate of Incorporation.

NOTE 4. STOCK OPTION PLANS

In 2021, the Company established the SunTrain, Inc. 2021 Equity Incentive Plan ("The Plan"). Under the Plan, which covers all employees, officers and directors, as well as consultants and advisors, the Company may grant shares of common stock in officers and directors, as well as consultants and advisors, the Company may grant shares of common stock in the form of incentive stock options ("ISO") or non-statutory stock options ("NSO"). Options grants generally vest over four years and vest options are available to exercise for 90 days following an employee's departure. A change in control, as defined in the plan, will trigger a full acceleration of the exercisability of outstanding incentive awards held by some or all participants, provided that the Company, in its sole discretion, may condition such acceleration.

Stock-based compensation cost is measured at the grant date, based on the fair value of the awards that are ultimately expected to vest, and recognized on a straight-line basis over the requisite service period, which is generally the vesting period.

The following is an analysis of options to purchase shares of the Company's stock issued and outstanding as of December 31, 2023 and 2022:

	Shares	Weighted average Exercise price	Weighted Average Remaining Life in Years
Options outstanding, January 1, 2022
Granted	138,530	$ 0.08
Options exercised
Forfeited
Options outstanding, December 31, 2022	138,530	0.08	9.94
Granted	25,000	0.08
Options exercised	-
Forfeited	-
Options outstanding, December 31, 2023	163,530	$ 0.08	9.19
Vested and exercisable as of December 31, 2023	34,633	$ 0.08

As of December 31, 2023 and 2022, the outstanding options have no intrinsic value.

During the years ended December 31, 2023 and 2022, the Company approved the grant of options to purchase 25,000 and 138,530 shares, respectively, of the Company's common stock to consultants. The options vesting over a four-year vesting period, with one year cliff vesting. The stock options are exercisable at a price of $0.08 per share and expire in ten years. The total fair value of the options at grant date was approximately $1,935 and $10,708 during the years ended December 31, 2023 and 2022, respectively, which was determined using a Black-Scholes-Merton option pricing model. The following table presents the assumptions used to estimate the fair values based upon a Black-Scholes option pricing model of the stock options granted.

	Years Ended December 31,
	2023	2022
Expected dividend yield	—%	—%
Risk-free interest rate	3.85 %	3.62 %
Expected life (in years)	10	10
Expected volatility	130 %	130 %

The total fair value of options that vested during the years ended December 31, 2023 and 2022 was $3,161 and $224, respectively, and are included in general and administrative expenses in the accompanying statement of operations. As of December 31, 2023, the amount of unamortized compensation related to stock options was approximately $9,000 which will be recorded as an expense in future periods as the options vest.

NOTE 5. COMMON STOCK

Prior to December 31, 2022, the Company had issued 7,500,000 restricted common shares to its founders.

During the years ended December 31, 2023 and 2022, the Company issued 350,000 and 105,000 shares, respectively, of the Company's common stock to employees and consultants. The total fair value of the shares was determined to be approximately $28,000 and $8,400 during the years ended December 31, 2023 and 2022, respectively, based on the price per share of the Company's common stock on the dates granted. The Company accounts for the share awards using the straight-line attribution or graded vesting method over the requisite service period, provided that the amount of compensation cost recognized at any date is no less than the portion of the grant-date fair value of the award that is vested at that date. During the years ended December 31, 2023 and 2022, total share-based expense recognized related to vested restricted shares totaled approximately $10,500 and $5,833, respectively. At December 31, 2023, there was approximately $20,000 of unvested compensation related to these awards that will be amortized over a remaining vesting period.

NOTE 6. INCOME TAXES

The Company is subject to taxation in the U.S. and states in those country's jurisdictions. As of December 31, 2023, the Company has NOL carryforwards of approximately $125,000 for federal and $475,000 for state. Since its inception, the Company has not paid any income taxes.

The tax benefit of NOL carryforwards is recorded as a deferred tax asset to the extent that management assesses the realization is "more likely than not." Future realization of the tax benefit ultimately depends on the existence of sufficient taxable income within the period available under the tax law. At December 31, 2023 and 2022, the Company established a valuation allowance against all federal and state net deferred tax assets that are not supported by taxable temporary differences as based on all available evidence. Management believes that the deferred tax assets are not more likely than not to be realized.

The Company is considered a "start-up" company for tax purposes. As such, the Company must capitalize all of its costs under Internal Revenue Code Section 195. When the Company begins to generate revenue, it will be able to elect to amortize its start-up costs over 15 years.

The Company's practice is to recognize interest and penalties related to income tax matters in income tax expense. The Company had no accrued interest or penalties related to income tax matters in the Company's balance sheet at December 31, 2023 and 2022, and has not recognized interest or penalties in the Company's statements of operations and comprehensive income for the years ended December 31, 2023 and 2022. Further, the Company is not currently under examination by any federal, state or local tax authority.

Deferred taxes are provided for the differences in the tax and accounting basis of assets and liabilities as of December 31, 2023 and 2022 as follows:

	At December 31, 2023	At December 31, 2022
Deferred tax assets
Net operating loss carryforwards	$ 68,310	$ 7,228
Start-up costs	285,137	105,313
Total deferred tax assets	353,447	112,541
Deferred tax liabilities
Accumulated depreciation	-	-
Total deferred tax liabilities	-	-
Net deferred tax assets	353,447	112,541
Less: Valuation allowance	(353,447)	(112,541)
Net deferred tax assets	$ -	$ -

NOTE 7. COMMITMENTS & CONTINGENCIES

From time to time, the Company is a party to claims and legal proceedings arising in the normal course of business. Management believes the ultimate resolution of such disputes will not have a material effect on the financial statements.

NOTE 8. SUBSEQUENT EVENTS

The Company management performed an evaluation of subsequent events through October 14, 2024, the date the financial statements were available to be issued, noting no other items requiring disclosure in the financial statements, except as follows:

Subsequent to December 31, 2023, the Company received $500,000 gross proceeds from Bioeconomy Fund 2, LP, (Bioeconomy) and $65,000 from certain investors, for an aggregate of $565,000, pursuant to Simple Agreements for Future Equity (SAFE) agreement. Bioeconomy is also the holders of the preferred shares. The SAFE investments will convert into the next equity financing of the Company at the greater of: (1) the number of shares of Standard Preferred Stock equal to the Purchase Amount divided by the lowest price per share of the Standard Preferred Stock; (2) the number of shares of Safe Preferred Stock equal to the Purchase Amount divided by the Safe Price, or (3) the number of shares of Safe Preferred Stock equal to the Purchase Amount divided by the Discount Price.

SUNTRAIN, INC.

SAFE
(Simple Agreement for Future Equity)

[DATE], 2024

THIS CERTIFIES THAT in exchange for the payment by SunTrain CF, LLC (the “Investor”) of $[Gross Purchase Amount] (the “Purchase Amount”) on or around the date hereof, SunTrain, Inc., a Delaware corporation (the “Company”), issues to the Investor the right to certain shares of the Company’s Capital Stock, subject to the terms described below.

The “Post-Money Valuation Cap” is $15,000,000. See Section 2 for certain additional defined terms.

The “Discount Rate” is 80%.

1. Events

(a) Equity Financing. If there is an Equity Financing before the termination of this Safe, on the initial closing of such Equity Financing, this Safe will automatically convert into the greater of: (1) the number of shares of Standard Preferred Stock equal to the Purchase Amount divided by the lowest price per share of the Standard Preferred Stock; (2) the number of shares of Safe Preferred Stock equal to the Purchase Amount divided by the Safe Price, or (3) the number of shares of Safe Preferred Stock equal to the Purchase Amount divided by the Discount Price. In connection with the automatic conversion of this Safe into shares of Standard Preferred Stock or Safe Preferred Stock, the Investor will execute and deliver to the Company all of the transaction documents related to the Equity Financing; provided, that such documents (i) are the same documents to be entered into with the purchasers of Standard Preferred Stock, with appropriate variations for the Safe Preferred Stock if applicable, and (ii) have customary exceptions to any drag-along applicable to the Investor, including (without limitation) limited representations, warranties, liability and indemnification obligations for the Investor.

(b) Liquidity Event. If there is a Liquidity Event before the termination of this Safe, this Safe will automatically be entitled (subject to the liquidation priority set forth in Section 1(d) below) to receive a portion of Proceeds, due and payable to the Investor immediately prior to, or concurrent with, the consummation of such Liquidity Event, equal to the greater of (i) the Purchase Amount (the “Cash-Out Amount”) or (ii) the amount payable on the number of shares of Common Stock equal to the Purchase Amount divided by the Liquidity Price (the “Conversion Amount”). If any of the Company’s securityholders are given a choice as to the form and amount of Proceeds to be received in a Liquidity Event, the Investor will be given the same choice, provided that the Investor may not choose to receive a form of consideration that the Investor would be ineligible to receive as a result of the Investor's failure to satisfy any requirement or limitation generally applicable to the Company's securityholders, or under any applicable laws.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, in connection with a Change of Control intended to qualify as a tax-free reorganization, the Company may reduce the cash portion of Proceeds payable to the Investor by the amount determined by its board of directors in good faith for such Change of Control to qualify as a tax-free reorganization for U.S. federal income tax purposes, provided that such reduction (A) does not reduce the total Proceeds payable to such Investor and (B) is applied in the same manner and on a pro rata basis to all securityholders who have equal priority to the Investor under Section 1(d).

(c) Dissolution Event. If there is a Dissolution Event before the termination of this Safe, the Investor will automatically be entitled (subject to the liquidation priority set forth in Section 1(d) below) to receive a portion of Proceeds equal to the Cash-Out Amount, due and payable to the Investor immediately prior to the consummation of the Dissolution Event.

(d) Liquidation Priority. In a Liquidity Event or Dissolution Event, this Safe is intended to operate like standard non-participating Preferred Stock. The Investor's right to receive its Cash-Out Amount is:

(i) Junior to payment of outstanding indebtedness and creditor claims, including contractual claims for payment and convertible promissory notes (to the extent such convertible promissory notes are not actually or notionally converted into Capital Stock);

(ii) On par with payments for other Safes and/or Preferred Stock, and if the applicable Proceeds are insufficient to permit full payments to the Investor and such other Safes and/or Preferred Stock, the applicable Proceeds will be distributed pro rata to the Investor and such other Safes and/or Preferred Stock in proportion to the full payments that would otherwise be due; and

(iii) Senior to payments for Common Stock.

The Investor's right to receive its Conversion Amount is (A) on par with payments for Common Stock and other Safes and/or Preferred Stock who are also receiving Conversion Amounts or Proceeds on a similar as-converted to Common Stock basis, and (B) junior to payments described in clauses (i) and (ii) above (in the latter case, to the extent such payments are Cash-Out Amounts or similar liquidation preferences).

(e) Termination. This Safe will automatically terminate (without relieving the Company of any obligations arising from a prior breach of or non-compliance with this Safe) immediately following the earliest to occur of: (i) the issuance of Capital Stock to the Investor pursuant to the automatic conversion of this Safe under Section 1(a); or (ii) the payment, or setting aside for payment, of amounts due the Investor pursuant to Section 1(b) or Section 1(c).

EXHIBIT C

EXHIBIT C

In reliance on Section 4(a)(6) of the Securities Act and pursuant to Regulation Crowdfunding (§ 227.100 et seq.), the Crowdfunding Vehicle (as defined by Section 3a-9 of the Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended) has caused to be filed this term sheet (the “Term Sheet”) prior to the commencement of the offering and including the information required by Rule 201 of Regulation Crowdfunding (§ 227.201). This Term Sheet incorporates by reference the Form C it is an exhibit to and all capitalized terms not otherwise defined herein are controlled by the Form C, as amended..

1) Crowdfunding Vehicle:

- a) Name: SunTrain CF, LLC ,(the “Crowdfunding Vehicle”)
- b) Entity Type: Limited Liability Company
- c) State of Formation: Delaware
- d) Date of Formation: October 25, 2024
- e) Address: 1540 Market Street San Francisco CA 94102
- f) Website: See cover page of the Form C

2) Management: The sole executive of the Crowdfunding Vehicle is the Company, which has organized its creation and will act as the Manager (as defined by the Crowdfunding Vehicles’ Operating Agreement (attached hereto as Annex I). The Crowdfunding Vehicle is therefore controlled by the Company and all officers, directors, and executives disclosures for the Company, as provided in the Form C, should be imputed onto the Crowdfunding Vehicle. The Manager may engage a third party to perform certain administrative functions of the Crowdfunding Vehicle and the Manager, as further disclosed in the Offering Agreement.

3) Ownership: The Crowdfunding Vehicle currently has no owners, the sole owners of the Crowdfunding Vehicle will be Investors in the Offering, if the Offering is successful.

4) Business Plan: The Crowdfunding Vehicle was organized solely to facilitate investment into the Company in association with the Offering. If the Offering is Successful, the Crowdfunding Vehicle will deploy all of its capital into the Company in exchange for the Securities and will thereafter hold them until such time as there is a liquidation event.

5) Employees: As the Crowdfunding Vehicle is not an operating company, it has no employees.

6) Risk Factors:

Your investment is in a limited liability company formed by the Company to serve as a “crowdfunding vehicle” (the “Crowdfunding Vehicle”), and therefore you are not a direct holder of the Company’s Securities.

The Company has formed a special purpose vehicle, i.e., the Crowdfunding Vehicle, for all Investors in this Offering. If you invest in or through the Crowdfunding Vehicle you will not be a direct owner of the Company’s Securities, but rather you will hold an indirect interest in the Company’s Securities via your ownership of the Crowdfunding Vehicle. Your rights as a member of Crowdfunding Vehicle are as set forth in the limited liability company of the Crowdfunding Vehicle (the “Crowdfunding Vehicle Operating Agreement”) and applicable law. As an indirect holder of the Securities, it may be more difficult for you to assert certain rights or claims that would otherwise be available to you if you were a direct holder.

The organization, governance, and administration of Crowdfunding Vehicle Company are subject to various regulatory requirements that are novel and are their interpretation and application are subject to uncertainty.

The Crowdfunding Vehicle is organized in accordance with Rule 3a-9 promulgated under the Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended (“Rule 3a-9”). That rule was adopted in 2020 and imposes various requirements on the organization and administration of “crowdfunding vehicles”, like Crowdfunding Vehicle. There is little legal guidance or precedent related to crowdfunding vehicles organized under Rule 3a-9, and the regulations and guidance in the crowdfunding arena evolve and may be difficult to interpret and apply. The application of Rule 3a-9 or other rules that may later be proposed or enacted, or other administrative guidance that may later be released, could lead a regulatory authority or other third party to reach the conclusion that the organization, governance, and/or administration of Crowdfunding Vehicle does not strictly with Rule 3a-9 and Regulation Crowdfunding. Any such determination could result in Crowdfunding Vehicle and the Offering being deemed not to comply with all applicable legal requirements, unilateral amendments to the terms of the Crowdfunding Vehicle Operating Agreement, or other results or actions that are adverse to the Company, Crowdfunding Vehicle and investors in this offering.

Crowdfunding Vehicle and its individual members will rely solely on the Manager, its affiliates and designees for funding and the administration of its assets and affairs.

Crowdfunding Vehicle’s sole purpose is to serve as a crowdfunding vehicle under Rule 3a-9 and Regulation CF with respect to the Offering, and it will not separately conduct any operations, own other assets, or generate any separate revenues. Crowdfunding Vehicle and its members will be solely dependent upon the efforts, experience, contacts, and skills of the individual members of the Manager and its affiliates and principals. The Manager is charged with governing all affairs and assets of the Company and the Manager cannot be removed by the Members of Crowdfunding Vehicle. In addition, the Crowdfunding Vehicle Operating Agreement provides that all expenses, costs, and obligations of Crowdfunding Vehicle are to be paid by the Manager, and, at any point in time the Crowdfunding Vehicle may not have cash reserves to cover unexpected costs or expenses that may arise. The Manager may delegate most of its duties under the Crowdfunding Vehicle Operating Agreement to a third-party administrator (the “Administrator”), which may be an unrelated party. If the Manager loses any of its key personnel, is unable to dedicate the necessary resources to the Crowdfunding Vehicle (both in terms of financial and managerial), or if the Administrator is unable for any reason to oversee and administer the affairs of the Crowdfunding Vehicle, it could have a material adverse effect on Crowdfunding Vehicle and its members.

Unit holders of Crowdfunding Vehicle will not have a vote or influence on the management of Crowdfunding Vehicle.

The Units of Crowdfunding Vehicle do not entitle holders to vote on matters that may affect the administration or affairs of Crowdfunding Vehicle. All decisions with respect to the management of the Crowdfunding Vehicle will effectively be made by the Manager and its Board of Directors and affiliates. Crowdfunding Vehicle members will not have the right or power to take part in the management of the affairs of Crowdfunding Vehicle, will not be represented on any board of directors or similar managing body of the Company, and will grant to the Manager a broad power of attorney to, among other things, administer Crowdfunding Vehicle and its assets and affairs. Thus, by participating in the offering and subscribing to purchase Units in Crowdfunding Vehicle, investors will grant broad discretion to a third party (the Manager and its agents, including the Administrator) to take various actions on their behalf, and investors will essentially not be able to vote upon matters related to the governance and affairs of the Crowdfunding Vehicle nor take or effect actions that might otherwise be available to holders of a membership interest in a limited liability company. Accordingly, no person should purchase a Unit in the Crowdfunding Vehicle unless such person is willing to entrust all aspects of management and administration of the Crowdfunding Vehicle to the Manager and the Administrator.

The Manager faces conflicts of interest with respect to the Crowdfunding Vehicle's governance structure and relating to the allocation of time and resources between Crowdfunding Vehicle and the affairs of the Company as a whole.

The Manager of Crowdfunding Vehicle is the Company. The Manager will devote such time to manage Crowdfunding Vehicle as it, in its sole discretion, deems necessary. Any officers, managers, directors, or other control persons of the Manager and its affiliates will have responsibilities related to the oversight and management of the Company as a whole. The activities and interests of the Company as a whole may, from time to time, differ from the interests of Crowdfunding Vehicle and its members. The Manager does not expect to organize or enact any specific policy or procedure to resolve conflicts that may arise between the Manager, the Crowdfunding Vehicle and its members, and the Company as a whole. As a result, the Manager and its affiliates from time to time may have conflicts of interest, among other things, in (i) allocating time, resources, and activity between Crowdfunding Vehicle and the Company, and (ii) proposing or taking actions on behalf of Crowdfunding Vehicle and the Company, and there will not be a formal policy or other mechanism to address and resolve any such conflicts.

If appointed, the Administrator will not devote all of its time to the affairs of Crowdfunding Vehicle.

If appointed, the Administrator would be a third-party service provider that has been engaged by the Company to serve as the administrator of Crowdfunding Vehicle. The Administrator may or may not provide similar services for other crowdfunding vehicles that are not associated with the Company. As a result, we cannot provide any assurances regarding the amount of time any Administrator will dedicate to the management of Crowdfunding Vehicle's affairs. Accordingly, Crowdfunding Vehicle may compete with similar crowdfunding vehicles or other vehicles, ventures, or entities to which Administrator provides services and for the time and attention of personnel of Administrator in connection with its assets and affairs. Crowdfunding Vehicle may not receive the level of support and assistance that it might otherwise receive if we were internally managed. Moreover, members of Crowdfunding Vehicle cannot remove or replace the Administrator.

The Crowdfunding Vehicle Operating Agreement contains provisions that reduce or eliminate duties (including fiduciary duties) of the Manager.

The Crowdfunding Vehicle Operating Agreement provides that the Manager, in exercising its rights in its capacity as manager, is not subject to an independent duty to Crowdfunding Vehicle and to the fullest extent permitted by law each member of Crowdfunding Vehicle waives all fiduciary duties and liabilities of the Manager. In addition, the Administrator has no fiduciary duties to Crowdfunding Vehicle or its members and instead its obligations to Crowdfunding Vehicle are solely contractual. As a result, members of Crowdfunding Vehicle may not be entitled to certain protections that are afforded to equity holders in certain other entities, such as corporations or limited liability companies that have not sought to expressly waive the fiduciary duties of their governing body or other affiliates.

The federal income tax aspects of an investment in the Crowdfunding Vehicle are complex and their impact may vary depending on an investor's individual circumstances. Investors in Crowdfunding Vehicle should consider the following tax risks, among others:

- The amount and times of any distributions from the Company to Crowdfunding Vehicle will be determined by the Manager in its sole discretion. Whether or not distributions are made, investors will be required each year to pay applicable federal and state income taxes on their respective shares of the Company's and, in turn, the Crowdfunding Vehicle's taxable income and will have to pay applicable taxes from other sources. If the Manager elects not to make distributions to the investors to pay their tax liabilities, investors will have to fund the payment of their tax liabilities from other sources.
- Any net losses of the Company, and thus the Crowdfunding Vehicle, and any interest expenses on any debt incurred by an investor to acquire or carry an ownership interest in the Crowdfunding Vehicle, are likely to be subject to the limitations on deduction of passive activity losses.
- The IRS may challenge the Crowdfunding Vehicle's allocation and/or characterization of income, gain, loss, deduction, and credit.
- Investors may be precluded from claiming certain deductions by virtue of application of the at-risk rules.
- The Company or the Crowdfunding Vehicle may claim deductions or other tax benefits to which they believe they are entitled, but there can be no assurance that the deductions or other benefits will be allowed in the event of an audit.
- The IRS may challenge reporting positions taken by the Company or the Crowdfunding Vehicle on its tax returns and, if the challenge is successful, seek to impose interest and penalties on taxes found to be due.
- Tax laws, rules, regulations, and rulings may change, with or without retroactive effect.

The Company, and, in turn, the Crowdfunding Vehicle do not intend to seek any advance ruling from the IRS on any tax issue, nor does the Company or the Crowdfunding Vehicle intend to seek any opinion of counsel regarding the tax aspects associated with the Company's or the Crowdfunding Vehicle's operations or the potential tax impact of an investment in the Company or the Crowdfunding Vehicle. Each investor must consult its own tax advisor regarding the tax consequences (including federal and state income tax consequences) of investing in the Crowdfunding Vehicle, with specific reference to such investor's own tax situation.

The Units will not be freely tradable under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the "Securities Act") until one year from the initial purchase date, and you are otherwise prohibited from transferring the Units under the Crowdfunding Vehicle Operating Agreement.

You should be aware of the long-term nature of this investment. There is not now and likely will not ever be a public market for the Units. Because the Units have not been registered under the Securities Act or under the securities laws of any state or foreign jurisdiction, the Units have transfer restrictions and cannot be resold in the United States except pursuant to Rule 501 of Reg CF. It is not currently contemplated that registration under the Securities Act or other securities laws will be effected. Limitations on the transfer of the Units may also adversely affect the price that you might be able to obtain for the Units in a private sale. Investors should be aware of the long-term nature of their investment in the Crowdfunding Vehicle. Each

Investor in this offering will be required to represent that such investor is purchasing the Units for such person's own account, for investment purposes, and not with a view to resale or distribution thereof. In addition to the restrictions on transferability under the securities laws, the Crowdfunding Vehicle Operating Agreement generally prohibits transfers without the consent of the Manager. Further, in the event any transfer is permitted, transfers of Units will not be effective until the last calendar day of the quarter in which they are initiated.

The Crowdfunding Vehicle Operating Agreement provides Investors the right to assert their rights under State and Federal law as if the Investor had invested directly in the Company, however, to do so, an Investor must bare all costs associated with such assertion.

Rule 3a-9 requires that the Crowdfunding Vehicle provides to each investor the right to direct the Crowdfunding Vehicle to assert the rights under State and Federal law that the investor would have if he or she had invested directly in the crowdfunding issuer and provides to each investor any information that it receives from the crowdfunding issuer as a shareholder of record of the crowdfunding issuer. The Crowdfunding Vehicle Operating Agreement provides Investors the right to assert their rights under State and Federal law as if the Investor had invested directly in the Company, however, to do so, an Investor must bare all costs associated with such assertion. The cost of asserting such rights may exceed the basis of any investment in the Crowdfunding Vehicle. The Manager has an inherent conflict of interest with respect to facilitating this right for the benefit of the Investors.

The Crowdfunding Vehicle Operating Agreement provides that the Manager will seek instruction from the Investors with respect to the voting of the Securities and participating in tender or exchange offers or similar transactions conducted by the Company but such processes may be inefficient or may be superseded by governing documents associated with the Securities.

Rule 3a-9 requires that the Crowdfunding Vehicle will seek instruction from the Investors with respect to the voting of the Securities and participating in tender or exchange offers or similar transactions conducted by the Company. The Crowdfunding Vehicle Operating Agreement provides that the Manager will seek instruction from the Investors with respect to the voting of the Securities and participating in tender or exchange offers or similar transactions conducted by the Company and will follow such directions or decisions per the terms of the Crowdfunding Vehicle Operating Agreement. However, such process may be inefficient, leading to delays in the execution of the instructions. Further, transactional documents associated with or governing the Securities may supersede each individual Investors' right or ability to exercise their voting rights or investment decisions with respect to in tender or exchange offers or similar transactions conducted by the Company

- 7) Offering: The Crowdfunding Vehicle was formed solely for the purposes of facilitating investment into SunTrain, Inc. (the "Company"). In the event the Offering is not successful, no securities will be sold in the offering, investment commitments will be cancelled and committed funds will be returned. Whether or not the Crowdfunding Vehicle will accept investment commitments in excess of the offering amount, and the method of allocation if it does, will be determined by the terms of the Offering.

- 9) Offering Mechanics: Please see the Form C for a description of the process to complete the transaction or cancel an investment commitment. In the event of a material change, if an investor does not reconfirm his or her investment commitment after a material change is made to the offering, the investor's investment commitment will be cancelled and the committed funds will be returned. The Offering will be conducted by the intermediary identified within the Form C. The Company will pay all fees, commissions and satisfy all reimbursements associated with the Offering and the formation, operation and winddown of the Crowdfunding Vehicle. Updates regarding the offering will be displayed on the intermediary's portal.
- 10) The Crowdfunding Vehicle Securities: The Crowdfunding Vehicle is offering units of membership (the "Units"). As further defined by the Crowdfunding Vehicle Operating Agreement, the Units are meant to track on a one-to-one basis, each of the Securities acquired by the Crowdfunding Vehicle from the Company. There is no price per Unit. The subscription agreement for the Units is attached hereto as Annex II (the "Subscription Agreement"). The Subscription Agreement and Crowdfunding Vehicle Operating Agreement provide for additional restrictions on transfer of the Units. Members of the Crowdfunding Vehicle will only be owners of the Units and will not have a direct economic interest in the Securities
- 11) Related Persons Transactions: The Crowdfunding Vehicle is newly formed and has no historic transactions. The only proposed transaction of the Crowdfunding Vehicle is this Offering.
- 12) Financial Condition and Capitalization of the Crowdfunding Vehicle: The Crowdfunding Vehicle has no historic capitalization and no current beneficial owners. In the event the Offering is unsuccessful, the Crowdfunding Vehicle will be dissolved. In the event of a successful Offering, the Crowdfunding Vehicle will accept 100% of the gross proceeds of the offering and use such gross proceeds to invest in the Securities. The Offering will be conducted by the intermediary identified within the Form C. The Company will pay all fees, commissions and satisfy all reimbursements associated with the Offering and the formation, operation and winddown of the Crowdfunding Vehicle.
- 13) Financial Statements: The Crowdfunding Vehicle is newly formed and has no historic financial statements. Therefore, blank financial statements have been attached to this Term Sheet as Annex III.
- 14) Continued Reporting: Any reports the Crowdfunding Vehicle is required to provide investors pursuant to Regulation Crowdfunding will be posted on the Company's website or as otherwise described by the Form C.
- 15) Disqualification and Failures to make reports pursuant to Regulation Crowdfunding The Crowdfunding vehicle has never failed to comply with the ongoing reporting requirements of § 227.202 nor is the Crowdfunding Vehicle, its Manager or the Company statutorily disqualified from conducting the Offering pursuant to § 227.501.

16) Investment Company Act Compliance: As further described in the Form C and the Crowdfunding Vehicle Operating Agreement, the Crowdfunding Vehicle has been organized in compliance with Rule 3a-9 of the Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended and has the following terms and conditions associated with its operations:

2.1 Formation. The Company was formed and organized as a Delaware limited liability company by the filing of a Certificate of Formation (as may be amended or restated from time to time, the “Certificate”) on October 25, 2024 with the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware.

2.2 Name. The name of the Company is “Suntrain CF, LLC,” and all Company business shall be conducted in that name or such other name as the Manager may select.

2.3 Registered Office and Registered Agent. The registered office and registered agent of the Company in the State of Delaware shall be as set forth in the Certificate. From time to time, the Manager may change the Company’s registered office and/or registered agent in the State of Delaware as provided in the Act.

2.4 Purpose. The sole purpose of the Company is to raise capital in accordance with Regulation CF by serving as a “crowdfunding vehicle” as defined in Rule 3a-9 and to utilize the Capital Contributions of the Members to acquire, hold, and dispose of a portion of the Securities (as defined herein) issued by the Issuer (as defined herein) in one or more offerings conducted by the Issuer under Regulation CF (collectively, the “Offering”), and to engage in activities that are necessary or incidental thereto. That portion of the Securities held by, or issued in the name of, the Company are referred to herein as the “Acquired Securities.” The “Securities” and the “Acquired Securities,” in each case, shall include any additional securities, digital assets, rights, and other non-cash assets distributed to the Company in respect of the Acquired Securities, whether by dividend, airdrop, or otherwise.

2.5 Term. The Company’s existence commenced on the effectiveness of the Certificate, and the Company will have a perpetual existence, until it is dissolved and terminated in accordance with Article 11.

2.6 No State Law Partnership. The Members intend that the Company not be a partnership (including a limited partnership) or joint venture, and that no Member be a partner or joint venturer of any other Member, for any purposes other than federal or state income Tax purposes, and this Agreement may not be construed to suggest otherwise.

2.7 Title to Company Assets. Title to the Acquired Securities or any other Company assets will be vested in the Company as an entity. Accordingly, no Member or Manager will have a direct ownership interest in such Company assets (including any Acquired Securities, except to the extent contemplated by Rule 3a-9). All Company assets will be recorded as the property of the Company in its books and records, irrespective of the name in which record title to any such Company asset is held.

2.8 Payment and Reimbursement of Expenses. All Operating Expenses, expenses associated with the Offering, and all other expenses or undertakings incurred by the Company for its formation, operation, or winding up, shall be paid by the Issuer in its capacity as the Manager. If the Company incurs any of the foregoing costs or undertakings directly, the Manager shall promptly reimburse or indemnify the Company for any such incurred, expenses paid by or costs or undertakings incurred by the Company. The Manager shall not receive any compensation for serving in such capacity and in providing its services hereunder.

2.9 Foreign Qualification. The Manager shall cause the Company to qualify to do business in each jurisdiction where, in the discretion of the Manager, qualification is required. The Manager has the power and authority to execute, file, and publish all certificates, notices, statements, or other instruments necessary to permit the Company to conduct business as a limited liability company in all jurisdictions where the Company is deemed to do business.

ARTICLE 3 MEMBERS; UNITS

3.1 Units; Authorization and Issuance of Units.

(a) The Manager may admit any Person as a Member from time to time in its discretion and upon such Person's signing a counterpart of this Agreement and a "Subscription Agreement" (or similar agreement) to acquire Units. Each Member, and the amount of such Member's Capital Contribution(s), shall meet any ownership limitations, restrictions, and criteria set forth in Rule 100 of Regulation CF. The admission of a Member will be effective when the Manager enters into the register of Members, which may be maintained via electronic means, including automated mediums or utilization of distributed ledger technology (the "Register"), the name of such Member and the Units owned by such Member. The Manager shall update the Register upon the issuance or Transfer of any Units to any new or existing Member and to reflect any additional Capital Contributions that may be made by a Member.

(b) The Company shall only issue one class of Units to current or prospective Members, and such Units shall maintain a one-to-one relationship between the number, denomination, type, and rights of the Acquired Securities. By way of example and not limitation, it is expected that one unit of the Acquired Security will equate to one Unit, consistent with Rule 3a-9. Upon the Issuer effecting any in-kind dividend or distribution of the Securities to its holders, or any form of split (whether forward or reverse), combination, recapitalization, or similar event or transaction affecting the capitalization structure of the Issuer, the Units shall be adjusted (i) in a corresponding amount and manner to reflect such action in respect of the Acquired Securities and (ii) to cause the Units to maintain a one-to-one relationship with the Acquired Securities. The Units will be uncertificated unless otherwise determined by the Manager.

(c) The names, mailing and electronic addresses, and the number of Units attributable to the Members shall be maintained by the Manager on the Register. Each Member shall promptly provide the Manager with the information required to be set forth for that Member on the Register and shall promptly notify the Manager of any change to that information. The Manager shall update the Register from time to time as necessary to accurately reflect the information therein as known by the Manager, including admission of new Members, but no update will constitute an amendment for purposes of Section 12.3. The Manager may permit the Issuer to contact Members directly as if such Members directly held the Acquired Securities represented by such Member's Units, and any such contact by the Issuer shall be deemed a contact by the Manager hereunder. Any reference in this Agreement to the Register will be deemed to be a reference to the Register as amended and in effect from time to time. The Manager shall update the Register upon the issuance or Transfer of any Units to any new or existing Member in accordance with this Agreement. The Manager may engage a transfer agent, whether registered or not, to maintain the Register for Units.

3.2 No Other Persons Deemed Members. Unless admitted to the Company as a Member as provided in this Agreement, no Person (including an assignee of rights with respect to Units or a transferee of Units, whether voluntary, by operation of Law or otherwise) will be a Member. The Company may elect to deal only with Persons admitted to the Company as Members as provided in this Agreement (including their duly authorized representatives). Any distribution by the Company to a Person shown on the Company's records as a Member or to its legal representatives will relieve the Company of all liability to any other Person who may have an interest in such distribution by reason of any Transfer by the Member or for any other reason.

3.3 No Withdrawal or Expulsion. A Member shall not take any action to withdraw as a Member voluntarily, and a Member shall not be expelled or otherwise removed involuntarily as a Member, prior to the winding up and termination of existence of the Company, other than (a) as a result of a permitted Transfer of all of such Member's Units in accordance with Article 6 and each of the transferees of such Units being admitted as an Additional Member, (b) as otherwise expressly provided in this Agreement, or (c) as otherwise contemplated in Section 6.1 or as may be required by Law.

3.4 Admission of Additional Members.

(a) Subject to Section 3.1(a), additional Persons may be admitted as Members to the Company, or Members may be permitted to purchase Units, from time to time in the sole discretion of the Manager and consistent with the primary purpose of the Company set forth in Section 2.4.

(b) An Additional Member will only be admitted to the Company with all the rights and obligations of a Member if all applicable conditions of Article 6 are satisfied or waived by the Manager. The Transferor and any Person admitted as a Member in connection with a Transfer shall pay, or reimburse the Company for, all costs incurred by the Company in connection with the Transfer or admission as an Additional Member.

3.5 Death of a Member. In the event of the death of any Member, the Units owned by the deceased Member shall be automatically Transferred to such Member's executors, administrators, testamentary trustees, legatees, distributees, or beneficiaries, as applicable, to the extent (and, if applicable, in the manner) permitted by the Issuer Constituent Documents; and provided, that any such Transferee shall be admitted as a Member only upon compliance with the provisions of Section 3.4.

3.6 Limited Liability; No Liability of Members. No Member will be personally liable for the debts, obligations, or liabilities of the Company, including under a judgment, decree, or order of court, nor will any Member be obligated to guaranty any debt, obligation or liability of the Company. No Member will have any responsibility or obligation to restore any deficit balance in its Capital Account or to contribute to or in respect of the liabilities or obligations of the Company or to return distributions made by the Company, except as expressly provided in this Agreement or required by any non-waivable provision of the Act. However, if any court of competent jurisdiction orders, holds or determines that, despite this Agreement, any Member is obligated to restore any such negative balance, make any such contribution or make any such return, such obligation will be the obligation of such Member and not of any other Person.

3.7 Confidentiality.

(a) Each Member agrees that all Confidential Information is confidential and, unless approved in advance by the Manager, will not be (i) disclosed or otherwise released to any other Person (other than to a Manager or Member for a valid business purpose), or (ii) used for any purpose other than as necessary and appropriate in carrying out the business of the Company. The obligations of the Members under this Section 3.7 do not preclude any Member from disclosing information to such Member's direct and indirect beneficial owners or representatives, provided that the disclosing Member shall be legally liable for any breach of the provisions of this Section 3.7 by such beneficial owners and representatives. The restrictions set forth herein do not apply to any disclosures required by applicable law, so long as (A) the Person subject to such disclosure obligations provides prior written notice (to the extent reasonably practicable) to the Company and any affected Person stating the legal basis upon which the disclosure is asserted to be required, and (B) the Person subject to such disclosure obligations takes all commercially reasonable steps to oppose or mitigate any such disclosure.

(b) Each Member acknowledges that breach of the provisions of this Section 3.7 may cause irreparable injury to the Company and its Subsidiaries for which monetary damages are inadequate, difficult to compute, or both. Accordingly, each Member agrees that, in addition to any legal or other equitable damages that the Company is entitled to recover, the provisions of this Section 3.7 may be enforced by specific performance and that the Company shall be entitled to injunctive relief (without posting any bond or other security) in order to enforce the provisions of this Section 3.7.

(c) In addition, each Member is and shall be bound by any confidentiality covenants imposed on all holders of Securities by the Issuer in the Issuer Constituent Documents as if such Member was a party thereto or otherwise bound thereby, and any such covenants (as they may be amended from time to time) are hereby incorporated herein mutatis mutandis as if originally stated herein.

ARTICLE 4 CAPITAL CONTRIBUTIONS

4.1 Contributions. As of the Effective Date, the Members contributed to the Company cash (or are deemed to have contributed to the Company cash or other assets) equal to the amount set forth in the Register and, in exchange for such contribution, the Company issued to such Member the Units reflected in the Register. No Member is required to make additional capital contributions.

4.2 Return of Contributions. No Member is entitled to the return of any part of its Capital Contributions or to be paid interest in respect of either its Capital Account or its Capital Contributions. A Capital Contribution that has not been repaid is not a liability of the Company or of any Member. No Member is required to contribute or to lend any cash or property to the Company to enable the Company to return any Member's Capital Contributions.

4.3 Capital Account.

(a) A separate capital account (a "Capital Account") will be established and maintained for each Member in accordance with the requirements of Treasury Regulations Section 1.704-1(b)(2)(iv).

(b) On any permitted Transfer of all or part of a Member's Units, the Capital Account of the transferor that is attributable to the Transferred Units will carry over to the transferee Member in accordance with the provisions of Treasury Regulation Section 1.704-1(b)(2)(iv)(i).

ARTICLE 5 DISTRIBUTIONS AND ALLOCATIONS

5.1 Distributions.

(a) If any distributable cash or other assets are received by the Company from the Issuer pursuant to the terms of the Securities, the Manager shall make, or cause to be made, corresponding distributions promptly to the holders of the Units pro rata in accordance with their Percentage Interests and on a one-to-one basis as if the holders of the Units held the Acquired Securities directly. Without limiting the foregoing, the Manager may instruct the Issuer to make such distribution directly to the holders of the Units.

(b) The Company may, from time to time, distribute all or a portion of the Acquired Securities or other Company property in kind. In the event all or a portion of the Acquired Securities are distributed in kind, each Member shall be deemed to have accepted, and shall be bound by, the terms of the applicable governing documents for the Securities, and to the extent not already a party to such financing documents, as a condition precedent to the receipt of the Acquired Securities, shall become a party to or otherwise bound by such agreements.

(c) The Company is authorized to deduct or withhold from distributions, or with respect to allocations, to the holders of Units and to pay over to any U.S. federal, state, local, or non-U.S. taxing authority any amounts required to be so deducted or withheld pursuant to the Code or any provisions of applicable Law. For all purposes under this Agreement, any amount so deducted or withheld will be treated as actually distributed to the holder of Units with respect to which such amount was deducted or withheld, and will be credited against and reduce any further distributions to which such holder otherwise would have been entitled to receive under this Agreement.

5.2 Allocations of Profits and Losses. All items of income, gain, loss, deduction, and credit incurred or accrued by the Company shall be allocated among Members pro rata in accordance with their respective Percentage Interests and otherwise pursuant to the principles of Section 704 of the Code, and in conformity with the US Treasury Regulations promulgated thereunder, or the successor provisions to such section and US Treasury Regulations so as to reflect the manner in which distributions are to be made pursuant to this Agreement and the other relevant clauses of this Agreement.

ARTICLE 6 TRANSFER OF INTERESTS

6.1 Restrictions on Transfers of Units. A Member may not Transfer any Units except (a) with the prior consent of the Manager, which may not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned, or delayed (it being acknowledged and agreed that any such Transfer may be restricted in order to comply with Rule 3a-9, to avoid the Company becoming subject to adverse legal consequences (such as becoming subject to additional regulatory requirements or schemes), because such Transfer would have been prohibited under the Issuer Constituent Documents if the Member had directly held the Acquired Securities attributable to its Units, or otherwise to comply with applicable Law), (b) in compliance with Rule 501 of Regulation CF, (c) upon the redemption of the Units by, or surrender of the Units to, the Company or the Issuer as may be permitted or effected by the Manager whether at the volition of the Company or the Member, or (d) to the extent permitted by the Issuer Constituent Documents. Any Transfer or purported Transfer shall be void and of no effect unless it complies with this Article 6 and the transferee has executed a document or instrument causing such transferee to become a party to and bound by this Agreement. Unless otherwise determined by the Manager in its sole discretion, transfers shall be deemed effective as of the last day of the calendar quarter in which the Transfer is effected.

6.2 Effects of Transfers.

(a) A transferee of Units or an acquirer of newly issued Units, each of whom has been admitted as an Additional Member in accordance with this Agreement, will, from and after the date of the relevant Transfer, have all the rights and powers and be subject to all the restrictions and liabilities under this Agreement relating to a Member holding Units.

(b) If any Units are Transferred pursuant to the terms of this Agreement, the transferee will succeed to the Capital Account and the respective Units of the transferor to the extent the Capital Account and Units are attributable to the Units so Transferred.

6.3 Drag Along. In the event that a single purchaser, a single acquiring entity, or an affiliated group of purchasers or entities make a bona fide offer to acquire all or substantially all of the Securities as part of a Sale of the Issuer and the holders of the Securities approve such transaction in accordance with applicable Law and the governing documents of the Issuer, then the Manager shall have the right to cause and require all of the Members to participate in the sale as sellers of their Units or as otherwise may be required to cause the Company to sell, dispose of, or transfer the Acquired Securities as part of the Sale of the Issuer in accordance with the terms of that transaction, and each Member shall take all necessary action to cause the consummation of such transaction, including voting such Member's Units in favor of such transaction (by and through the Manager or otherwise, including via any Pass-Through Voting). Each Member agrees to take all actions (including executing documents) in connection with consummation of the proposed transaction as may reasonably be requested or required by the Manager or as otherwise contemplated by the Issuer Constituent Documents, except as may be limited by Rule 3a-9.

ARTICLE 7 MANAGEMENT

7.1 Management Under Direction of the Manager.

(a) The business and affairs of the Company will be managed and controlled by the Manager and, subject to Section 7.4, the Manager will have full and complete discretion to manage and conduct the business and affairs of the Company, to make all decisions affecting the business and affairs of the Company and to take all such actions as it deems necessary, advisable or appropriate to accomplish the purposes of the Company as set forth in Section 2.4. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, the Manager shall be able to take all actions necessary without the consent of Members in order to maintain the Company's status as a "crowdfunding vehicle" as defined in Rule 3a-9.

(b) The Manager shall not be subject to an independent fiduciary duty to the Company or its Members pursuant to this Agreement, and to the fullest extent permitted by applicable Law, the Company and each Member hereby waive all fiduciary duties and all liability of the Manager solely in its capacity as the Manager of the Company for breaches of fiduciary duties; provided, however, that such waiver shall not extend to (i) any fiduciary duty imposed on the Issuer (or its Board of Directors (or other governing body), officers, managers or similar Persons) owed to all holders of the Securities under the Issuer Constituent Documents or applicable Law, or (ii) liability for any action or omission that constitutes a bad faith violation of the implied contractual covenant of good faith and fair dealing. Pursuant to Section 7.5(c), each Member shall be entitled to direct the Company (through the Manager or a designee of the Manager) to assert any claims for breach of fiduciary duty by the Board of Directors (or other governing body), officers or managers or similar Person(s) of the Issuer to the maximum extent permitted by applicable law and the Issuer Constituent Documents.

(c) The initial Manager is the Issuer. The Members acknowledge and agree to such appointment. The Acquired Securities may constitute less than a majority of the outstanding Securities, and in all cases the Manager (through its Board of Directors (or other governing body), officers, managers or similar Person(s)) may have duties and obligations to other holders of the Securities, or to all holders of the Securities, that differ from or could be deemed adverse to the interests of the Company as the holder of solely the Acquired Securities or to any individual Member. The Members acknowledge that the Manager in all cases may not have the same interests as an individual Member or the Company solely in its capacity as a holder of the Acquired Securities. The Members hereby consent to, and waive, any conflict of interest that may arise by virtue of the Issuer serving as the Manager and actions the Issuer may take in good faith on behalf of the holders of the Securities as a class, and in accordance with applicable Law of that may differ from or conflict with solely the interests of the Company or any individual Member, except in the case where the Manager engages in any activity or takes any action in bad faith or in a manner that is contrary to the Issuer Constituent Documents or the express terms of this Agreement or the Act.

(d) The Manager may not be removed by the Members or otherwise, or voluntarily resign, except if required by applicable Law as evidenced by a final non-appealable court order or written opinion of independent counsel; provided, that the Manager may assign its obligations hereunder to any successor to the Issuer, whether via merger, acquisition, reorganization, consolidation, or otherwise.

7.2 Administrator.

(a) The Manager may (i) appoint a third party to act alone in respect of any Company matter or determination, and (ii) delegate to one or more third parties ministerial and managerial authority to manage and conduct all aspects of the day-to-day administration of the Company, including any and all actions contemplated by this Agreement and the Act to be taken by the Manager (except to the extent prohibited by applicable Law). Any such designation or delegation shall not relieve the Manager of its obligations hereunder.

(b) On or before the Effective Date, the Manager, as deemed necessary, may enter into any agreement or other document or instrument on behalf of the Company as may be necessary to appoint, engage, or designate the Administrator, and under any such arrangement may, on behalf of the Company, take any action as may be required or necessary under such agreement.

(c) If appointed, the Administrator shall be responsible for conducting the activities of the business of the Company and administering Company assets (including the Acquired Securities) as described in an agreement between the Manager and the Administrator and this Agreement, all in accordance with Regulation CF and Rule 3a-9. The Administrator shall have the authority to perform such duties relating to the Company as are designated by the Manager or the Company and as provided in this Agreement, which may include administering the assets of the Company; to receive and pass on notices, reports and other communications to the Members; to liaise with third parties, including regulatory authorities; to execute documents on behalf of the Company as necessary for the administration of the Company's assets; and such other duties as the Manager shall require from time to time; provided that the exercise of the foregoing duties shall in all instances be subject to the provisions of terms and limitations of this Agreement. Without limiting the foregoing, the Administrator shall be entitled to act in any attorney-in-fact or similar function granted to the Manager hereunder, including pursuant to Section 7.5(b). Further, the Administrator is hereby granted a limited power of attorney to prepare, execute in the name of Manager or the Company for the benefit of the Company, and submit: (i) to the United States Securities and Exchange Commission any documents necessary or appropriate to obtain EDGAR codes and passwords enabling the Series to make electronic filings with the SEC, (ii) to the SEC and state regulatory authorities any documents necessary or appropriate to effectuate notice filings of the Series' exemption from registration under Section 4(a)(6) of the Securities Act and Regulation CF thereunder, (iii) to the Internal Revenue Service any documents necessary or appropriate to obtain an Employer Identification Number for the Series, (iv) to the IRS any and applicable state revenue authority any documents necessary or appropriate to effectuate annual or other tax reporting and filing for the Series, including Form 1065 and the equivalent state forms, and (v) to any depository institution any documents necessary or appropriate to open and maintain a bank account, whether checking, savings, or otherwise.

(d) The Administrator shall only be removed by the Manager pursuant to any termination rights in any written agreement with the Administrator (over which the Manager shall retain decision-making authority notwithstanding any provision herein to the contrary). Upon any such removal, the Manager shall promptly designate a replacement Administrator or undertake all obligations of the "Manager" hereunder.

7.3 Members. Except for the right to consent to or approve certain matters as expressly provided in this Agreement, the Members in their capacity as Members will not have any other power or authority to manage or control the business or affairs of the Company or to bind the Company or enter into agreements on behalf of the Company. To the fullest extent not prohibited by Law, no Member in its capacity as a Member will have any duty, fiduciary or otherwise, to the Company or any other Member in connection with the business and affairs of the Company or any consent or approval given or withheld pursuant to this Agreement, other than, to the extent required by Law, the implied contractual covenant of good faith and fair dealing.

7.4 Prohibited Company Actions. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, none of the Manager, the Administrator, nor any Member may, directly or indirectly, cause the Company to take the actions specified in this Section 7.4, or any action which would result in the Company violating Rule 3a-9 except for transactions with the Company pursuant to Regulation CF. Such prohibited actions include:

(a) causing the Company to incur any expenses or be responsible for any compensation to the Administrator or any other third party administering this Company, other than such expenses or compensation that are paid solely by the Issuer or otherwise expressly permitted by this Agreement (including any reimbursements);

(b) incurring any indebtedness or pledge, or granting liens on any assets, or entering into any guarantee, or assuming, endorsing, or otherwise becoming responsible for the obligations of any other Person;

(c) making any loan or advance to, or a capital contribution or investment in, any Person; and

(d) entering into or effecting any transaction or series of related transactions involving the sale, lease, license, exchange, or other disposition (including by merger, consolidation, sale of stock, or sale of assets) by the Company of any assets, including any securities (except, in the case of the Acquired Securities, a transaction involving all or substantially all of the outstanding Securities, or the Sale of the Issuer that is approved in accordance with Section 7.5).

7.5 Actions with Respect to the Acquired Securities.

(a) In the event that any vote, consent, or approval of the Company is sought with respect to the Acquired Securities and in the Company's capacity as a holder of the Acquired Securities whether with respect to a matter submitted to Securities holders for a vote, or in connection with a transaction or tender or exchange offer (each, an "Issuer Action"), the Manager shall: (i) promptly notify the Members of the Issuer Action; (ii) provide or make available any reports, proxy statements, disclosure documents, or other materials filed, furnished or otherwise disseminated by the Issuer under the Securities Act, the Exchange Act, Regulation CF, other applicable Law, or the Issuer Constituent Documents with respect to such proposed Issuer Action; and (iii) seek the direction and approval of the Members prior to causing the Company to vote, consent to, or otherwise take any such action regarding the Issuer Action as the holder of the Acquired Securities in a manner consistent with the Issuer Constituent Documents. Any such notice of the Issuer Action may be given, and any such materials may be delivered, to Members through a medium selected by the Manager. Such notice and delivery, and any time to consider the applicable Issuer Action, as well as deadline to submit a vote or direction, shall be consistent with that provided by the Issuer to all holders of the Securities with respect to the Issuer Action or otherwise in compliance with the Issuer Constituent Documents. Upon the termination of any consideration and voting period for the applicable Issuer Action, the Manager shall vote, or cause to be voted, or otherwise take action to vote (or, as applicable, abstain with respect to such vote of or take non-action with respect to) the Acquired Securities, in connection with the Issuer Action (by whatever means is sought by the Issuer for the Issuer Action, whether in writing, in person, by proxy, or otherwise) consistent with the direction of the votes, consents, direction, or abstention actually submitted (or non-action) by Unit holders; provided, however, that, the Members acknowledge and agree that, absent the Issuer facilitating a pass-through voting structure whereby each Member's vote, consent, approval, or abstention (or non-action, as applicable) attributable to their Units is individually accounted for as if that Member were a direct holder of the Acquired Securities (in which case the Members shall vote, consent, or approve Issuer Actions in such manner) (“Pass-Through Voting”), the Manager shall have authority to vote on, consent to, or approve any such Issuer Action on behalf of the Company (y) in a manner consistent with the vote, consent, approval, or abstention of (or non-action by) the holders of a majority of the Unit holders participating in any such vote, consent, approval, or abstention (which vote, consent, approval, or abstention may be sought in any manner determined by the Manager, including by written consent), or (z) in such other equitable manner that is consistent with the intent of Rule 3a-9 as determined by the Manager in good faith.

(b) Notwithstanding any provision herein to the contrary, each Member hereby appoints the Manager as its proxy and attorney in fact as may be necessary to cause the Company to vote, abstain, or otherwise take action on behalf or in respect of the Acquired Securities held in the name of the Company and that may be necessary to give effect to Section 7.5(a), the terms and intent of this Agreement and Rule 3a-9 Without limiting the foregoing and notwithstanding Section 7.5(a), to the extent permitted by Rule 3a-9, the Manager shall vote, consent, or otherwise take action in respect of the Acquired Securities pursuant to any contractual voting arrangements applicable to holders of the Securities set forth in the Issuer Constituent Documents.

(c) Each Member shall have the right to direct the Company (through the Manager or a other designee of the Manager) to assert any and all rights under Law in respect of the Acquired Securities that the Member would have if such Member were a direct holder of the Acquired Securities. Notwithstanding any provision herein to the contrary, any costs and expenses to assert such claims shall be paid and borne by the Member or other Person that would be obligated to incur and bear such costs under the Issuer Constituent Documents, the laws of the state of organization of the Issuer, or other applicable Law as if the Member asserting the claim were the direct holder of the Acquired Securities and asserting a direct claim or other form of derivative claim.

(d) The Manager shall take any and all actions as may be necessary or appropriate to ensure compliance with Rule 3a-9 in respect of this Section 7.5.

7.6 Voting. Other than as contemplated in Section 7.5 with respect to Issuer Actions, as required by Rule 3a-9, or as otherwise expressly contemplated herein or required by applicable Law, Members shall have no voting rights or rights of approval, veto, or consent or similar rights as holders of the Units.

7.7 Acknowledgement Relating to Matters Requiring Member Approval. Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, each of the Company and the Members acknowledges and agrees that each Member, in such Person’s capacity as a Member, may decide or determine any matter subject to such Member’s approval pursuant to this Agreement, in such Member’s sole and absolute discretion; and, without limiting Section 8.1, in making such decision or determination such Member will have no duty, fiduciary or otherwise, to any other Member or to the Company, it being the intent of all Members that each Member, in its capacity as a Member, have the right to make such determination solely on the basis of its own interests and have no duty or obligation to give any consideration to any other interest or factors whatsoever.

ARTICLE 8 LIMITATION OF LIABILITY

To the maximum extent permitted by Law, the Administrator and each Member, and their respective affiliates and each of their respective officers, directors, partners, trustees, members, managers, employees, and agents (each a “Covered Person”) will not be liable for damages or otherwise to the Company or any Member for any act, omission, or error in judgment performed, omitted, or made by it or them in good faith and in a manner reasonably believed by it or them to be within the scope of authority granted to it or them by this Agreement and in the best interests of the Company, provided that such act, omission, or error in judgment does not constitute bad faith, fraud, gross negligence, or willful misconduct. A Covered Person will be fully protected in relying in good faith upon the records of the Company and upon such information, opinions, reports, or statements presented to the Company by any Person as to matters the Covered Person reasonably believes are within such other Person's professional or expert competence and who has been selected with reasonable care by or on behalf of the Company, including information, opinions, reports, or statements as to the value and amount of the assets, liabilities, income, losses, or distributable cash, securities, or other assets or any other facts pertinent to the existence and amount of assets from which distributions to Members might properly be paid. This Section 8.1 does not limit or waive any rights of a Member to assert any claim against the Manager or any Affiliate thereof such Member would have if the Member was the direct holder of the Acquired Securities, or absolve any Person from liability or obligations as set forth in the Issuer Constituent Documents.

Re: Purchase of Units in SunTrain CF, LLC

Ladies and Gentlemen:

The undersigned subscriber (the “Subscriber”) understands that SunTrain CF, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company (the “Crowdfunding Vehicle”), is offering up to 1,235,000 Units (the “Units” and each a “Unit”). The Crowdfunding Vehicle was formed as a crowdfunding special purpose vehicle pursuant to Rule 3a-9 promulgated under the Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended (“Rule 3a-9”), by SunTrain, Inc., a Delaware corporation (“Issuer”), to facilitate its offering under Regulation Crowdfunding.

All of the proceeds received by the Crowdfunding Vehicle in this offering will be used to purchase one or more simple agreements for future equity issued by the Issuer (the “Issuer Securities”), and the total number of Units issued in this offering will correspond on a one-to-one basis to the Issuer Securities acquired by the Crowdfunding Vehicle. The offering is made to both accredited and non-accredited investors pursuant to the Form C jointly filed by the Crowdfunding Vehicle and the Issuer with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (“SEC”) and the offering memorandum included therein (the “Form C”). The Crowdfunding Vehicle is offering the Units to prospective investors through the OpenDeal Portal LLC d/b/a Republic, which is registered with the SEC as a securities crowdfunding portal and which operates such portal via www.republic.com (the “Portal”).

The Subscriber understands and acknowledges that the Subscriber’s purchase of Units is an inherently speculative and risky investment and that any amounts that the Subscriber chooses to invest in Units may be lost.

The Subscriber acknowledges that he, she or it has carefully reviewed the Crowdfunding Vehicle’s Operating Agreement (the “Crowdfunding Vehicle Operating Agreement”), the Issuer Constituent Documents (as defined in the Crowdfunding Vehicle Operating Agreement), and the Form C.

Based on these premises, the Subscriber hereby confirms its agreement with the Crowdfunding Vehicle and the Issuer as follows:

1. Subscription.

(a) On the date hereof, subject to the terms of this Subscription Agreement, the Crowdfunding Vehicle Operating Agreement, and the Form C, the Subscriber agrees to purchase from the Crowdfunding Vehicle and, upon acceptance by the Crowdfunding Vehicle of the Subscriber's subscription and in reliance on the Subscriber's representations, warranties, and covenants contained herein, the Crowdfunding Vehicle agrees to issue and sell to the Subscriber the number of Units listed on the signature page to this Subscription Agreement at a per Unit price of $1.00.

(b) Upon acceptance of this Subscription Agreement by the Issuer, in its capacity as manager of the Crowdfunding Vehicle (the "Manager"), the Subscriber shall purchase the Units by following the directions of the Portal to transfer the amount equal to the aggregate purchase price indicated on the signature page to this Subscription Agreement to the escrow account associated with the Form C and the offering, and the Crowdfunding Vehicle shall purchase from the Issuer, and the Issuer shall issue and sell to the Crowdfunding Vehicle, the corresponding number of Issuer Securities as the number of Units purchased by the Subscriber hereunder.

2. Acceptance and Rejection of Subscriptions.

(a) The Subscriber understands and agrees that the Manager, in its sole discretion, reserves the right to accept or reject this or any other subscription for the Units, in whole or in part, and for any reason or no reason. If the Manager rejects a subscription, either in whole or in part (which decision is in its sole discretion), the Manager shall cause Subscriber's subscription funds for the rejected portion of the subscription to be returned to Subscriber without deduction, offset or interest accrued thereon. If this subscription is rejected in whole this Subscription Agreement shall thereafter be of no further force or effect. If this subscription is rejected in part, this Subscription Agreement will continue in full force and effect to the extent this subscription was accepted.

(b) Effective upon the Manager's acceptance of the Subscriber's subscription, the Subscriber shall become a member of the Crowdfunding Vehicle, and by executing this Subscription Agreement, the Subscriber agrees to adhere to and be bound by, the terms and conditions of the Crowdfunding Vehicle Operating Agreement (and grants to the Manager the power of attorney described therein to execute the Crowdfunding Vehicle Operating Agreement, and such other documentation as described in the power of attorney, on behalf of the Subscriber).

3. Subscriber Representations and Warranties. The Subscriber represents, warrants, and agrees to and with the Crowdfunding Vehicle and the Issuer as follows:

(a) The Subscriber is purchasing the Units for the Subscriber's own account and not for distribution or resale to others. The Subscriber agrees that the Subscriber will not sell or otherwise transfer the Units unless the Units have been registered under the Securities Act and applicable state securities laws or an exemption therefrom is available and otherwise in accordance with Article 6 of the Crowdfunding Vehicle Operating Agreement.

(b) The Subscriber has received and reviewed a copy of the Form C, the Crowdfunding Vehicle Operating Agreement, and the Issuer Constituent Documents, and had an opportunity to ask questions of and receive answers about the Crowdfunding Vehicle and the Issuer concerning the investment in the Units. The Subscriber understands and agrees that the Crowdfunding Vehicle and Issuer are solely responsible for providing risk factors, conflicts of interest, and other disclosures that investors should consider when investing in the Units issued by the Crowdfunding Vehicle, and that the Portal has no ability to assure, and have not in any way assured, that any or all such risk factors, conflicts of interest and other disclosures have been presented fully and fairly, or, have been presented at all. The Subscriber acknowledges that he, she or it has conducted his own due diligence (by means of consultation with Subscriber's own legal, tax, or financial advisors) with respect to the Crowdfunding Vehicle, the Issuer, the Units, and any other matter that the Subscriber believes to be material to the Subscriber's decision to invest in and further acknowledges that the Subscriber is making the investment decision based on this due diligence.

(c) The Subscriber: (i) either qualifies as an "accredited investor" as defined by Rule 501(a) promulgated under the Securities Act or has not exceeded the investment limit as set forth in Rule 100(a)(2) of Regulation Crowdfunding, (ii) has such knowledge and experience in financial and business matters that the Subscriber is capable of evaluating the merits and risks of the prospective investment and (iii) has truthfully submitted the required disclosure information to the Portal to evidence these representations.

(d) The Subscriber understands that neither the Units to be issued pursuant to this Subscription Agreement nor the offering thereof have been passed on as to fairness, approved, disapproved, recommended, or endorsed by any federal or state agency or any other entity or person, and no federal or state agency has confirmed the accuracy, truthfulness, or completeness of the information set forth in the Form C or any disclosure made in connection with the offering of the Units. Any representation to the contrary is unlawful. The issuance of the Units will not be registered under the Securities Act or the securities laws of any state, in reliance upon exemptions from registration contained in the Securities Act and such state securities laws. The Crowdfunding Vehicle's and the Issuer's reliance upon such exemptions is based in part upon the representations, warranties, and agreements contained in this Subscription Agreement.

(e) The Subscriber understands and accepts that the purchase of the Units involves various risks, including the risks outlined in the Form C, on the Portal and in this Subscription Agreement. In making an investment decision to invest in the Units, the Subscriber has relied solely upon the information set forth in the Form C, any other relevant information on the Portal, and independent investigations made by the Subscriber.

(f) The Subscriber can bear the economic risk of this investment and can afford a complete loss thereof; the Subscriber has sufficient liquid assets to pay the full purchase price for the Units; and the Subscriber has adequate means of providing for its current needs and has no present need for liquidity of the Subscriber's investment in the Crowdfunding Vehicle.

(g) The Subscriber has had an opportunity to review the Crowdfunding Vehicle Operating Agreement with the Subscriber's legal, tax, and financial advisors or has elected not to do so. The Subscriber understands that, upon acceptance of this Subscription Agreement by the Manager, the Subscriber will be bound by the terms and conditions of the Crowdfunding Vehicle Operating Agreement. The Subscriber has also had an opportunity to ask questions and receive answers about the Crowdfunding Vehicle Operating Agreement and the Issuer Constituent Documents. The Subscriber acknowledges that the relative rights of the Units are set forth in the Crowdfunding Vehicle Operating Agreement and the Units are subject to restrictions as contained in the Crowdfunding Vehicle Operating Agreement.

(h) The Subscriber confirms that it is not relying and will not rely on any communication of the Crowdfunding Vehicle, the Issuer, the Portal, or any of their respective affiliates, as investment advice or as a recommendation to purchase the Units. The Subscriber understands that information and explanations related to the offering of Units provided by the Crowdfunding Vehicle, the Issuer, the Portal, or any of their affiliates shall not be considered investment advice or a recommendation to purchase the Units, and that neither the Crowdfunding Vehicle, the Issuer, the Portal, the Administrator (as defined in the Crowdfunding Vehicle Operating Agreement), nor any of their respective affiliates is acting or has acted as an advisor to the undersigned in deciding to invest in the Units. The Subscriber acknowledges that none of the Crowdfunding Vehicle, the Issuer, the Portal, nor any of their respective affiliates have made any representation regarding the proper characterization of the Units for purposes of determining the Subscriber's authority or suitability to purchase the Units.

(i) The Subscriber understands and agrees that neither the Portal nor any of its affiliates, nor any of their respective officers, directors, shareholders, partners, managers, members, employees, agents, or representatives shall be liable in connection with any information or omission of information contained in materials prepared or supplied by the Crowdfunding Vehicle or the Issuer, whether in Form C, through the Portal, distributed by or through the Issuer or the Crowdfunding Vehicle, or otherwise. The Subscriber understands that neither the Manager, the Portal, nor the Administrator (as defined in the Crowdfunding Vehicle Operating Agreement) is an adviser to Subscriber, and that Subscriber is not an advisory or other client of the Portal or any affiliate thereof. The Subscriber is not relying on the Manager, the Portal or the Administrator or any affiliate thereof with respect to the legal, accounting, business, investment, pension, tax or other economic considerations involved in this investment other than the Subscriber's own advisers.

(j) The Subscriber has had an opportunity to ask questions of the Issuer in its capacity as the Manager, as well as in its individual capacity, regarding the business plan of the Crowdfunding Vehicle and the Issuer. The Subscriber understands that the Crowdfunding Vehicle will use all of the proceeds of this offering to invest in the Issuer Securities. Therefore, Subscriber's interest in Issuer is indirect and, in all cases, subject to the terms and limitations of the Crowdfunding Vehicle Operating Agreement, and subject to special risks inherent in the structure of the Crowdfunding Vehicle as a crowdfunding vehicle organized in accordance with Rule 3a-9, certain of which are identified in the Form C.

(k) The Subscriber understands that the Issuer's business plan is subject to change depending on a variety of circumstances, and the Issuer may need additional capital in connection with its business. The Subscriber understands and acknowledges that, in the event that the Issuer sells additional Issuer Securities or other equity securities outside of the offering, the Crowdfunding Vehicle's interest in Issuer may then be diluted on a pro rata basis with other holders of Issuer Securities, and, consequentially, the Subscribers' indirect interest percent in Issuer would be subsequently reduced. There can be no assurance that Issuer will succeed in obtaining any such additional capital or, if it obtains such capital, that the terms and conditions tied to the capital will be favorable to Issuer.

(l) The Subscriber understands that adverse market, financial, economic, and operational events could lead to a partial or total failure of the Issuer, resulting in a partial or total loss of the Subscriber's investment in the Crowdfunding Vehicle. The Subscriber confirms that no representations or warranties about the Issuer's success have been made to the Subscriber and that the Subscriber has not relied upon any representation or warranty in making or confirming the Subscriber's investment in the Crowdfunding Vehicle.

(m) The Subscriber has all requisite power and authority to execute, deliver, and perform the Subscribers' obligations under this Subscription Agreement and the Crowdfunding Vehicle Operating Agreement and to subscribe for and purchase or otherwise acquire the Units. Upon acceptance of this Subscription Agreement by the Crowdfunding Vehicle, this Subscription Agreement and the Crowdfunding Vehicle Operating Agreement will be valid, binding, and enforceable against the Subscriber in accordance with their terms.

(n) The Subscriber understands that the Units are restricted from transfer for a period of time under the Securities Act and applicable state securities laws. The Subscriber understands that the Crowdfunding Vehicle has no obligation or intention to take any action to permit subsequent sales of the Units pursuant to the Securities Act or applicable state securities laws. The Subscriber agrees to not sell, assign, pledge, or otherwise transfer the Units, or any interest therein, except in compliance with Regulation Crowdfunding and the Crowdfunding Vehicle Operating Agreement.

(o) The Subscriber confirms that all information and documentation provided to the Issuer, the Crowdfunding Vehicle, the Manager, and the Administrator, including all information regarding the Subscriber's identity, taxpayer identification number, the source of the funds to be invested in the Series, and the Subscriber's eligibility to invest in offerings under Regulation Crowdfunding, is true, correct, and complete. Should any such information change or no longer be accurate, the Subscriber agrees and covenants that he, she, or it will promptly notify the Portal of such changes through Portal. The Subscriber agrees and covenants that the Subscriber will maintain accurate and up-to-date contact information (including email and mailing address) on Portal and will promptly update such information in the event it changes or is no longer accurate.

(p) The Subscriber has truthfully completed the (i) Substitute Form W-9 found in Exhibit A-1 if the Subscriber is a U.S. person or (ii) Substitute Form W-8BEN found in Exhibit A-2 if the Subscriber is a non-U.S. person. The Subscriber agrees to provide such other documentation as the Manager determines may be necessary for the Crowdfunding Vehicle to fulfill any tax reporting or withholding requirements.

(q) If the Units are to be jointly owned, whether as joint tenants, tenants in common, or otherwise, the representations, warranties, and obligations set forth in this Subscription Agreement shall be joint and several representations, warranties, and obligations of each owner.

4. Reliance on Subscriber Representations and Warranties; Indemnification. The Subscriber acknowledges that the Crowdfunding Vehicle, the Issuer, the Manager, and their respective managers, members, founders, officers, employees, agents, and affiliates are relying on the truth and accuracy of the foregoing representations and warranties in offering Units for sale to the Subscriber without having first registered the issuance of the Units under the Securities Act or the securities laws of any state. The Subscriber also understands the meaning and legal consequences of the representations and warranties in this Subscription Agreement, and the Subscriber agrees to indemnify and hold harmless the Crowdfunding Vehicle, Issuer, and each of their managers, members, founders, officers, employees, agents, and affiliates from and against any and all loss, damage or liability, including costs and expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees), due to or arising out of a breach of any such representations or warranties or any failure to fulfill any covenants or agreements contained in this Subscription Agreement. All representations, warranties, and covenants made by the Subscriber contained in this Subscription Agreement and the indemnification contained in this Section 4 shall survive the acceptance of this Subscription Agreement and the sale of the Units.

5. ERISA Matters.

(a) The Subscriber understands that the value of all investments in the Crowdfunding Vehicle made through a Plan must be less than 25% of the value of the Crowdfunding Vehicle's assets. A "Plan" includes (i) an "employee benefit plan" as defined in section 3(3) of the U.S. Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 ("ERISA"), (ii) a "plan" with respect to which section 4975 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code") applies (including individual retirement accounts ("IRAs"), or (iii) other entities or accounts whose assets are deemed to include assets of an employee benefit plan. If the Subscriber is investing in the Crowdfunding Vehicle through a Plan Investor and an individual or entity (the "Fiduciary") has entered into this Subscription Agreement on behalf of the Plan, the Fiduciary makes the following representations, warranties, and covenants:

i. The Fiduciary is a fiduciary of the Plan Investor who is authorized to invest Plan assets or is acting at the direction of a Plan fiduciary authorized to invest Plan assets. The Fiduciary has determined that an investment in the Crowdfunding Vehicle is consistent with the Fiduciary's responsibilities under ERISA or other applicable law, and is qualified to make such investment decision. The Fiduciary is authorized to make all representations, covenants and agreements set forth in this Agreement about and on behalf of the Subscriber, and the Fiduciary agrees that, except for the representations, covenants and agreements contained in this Section 5 all representations, covenants and agreements contained in this Agreement are made on behalf of the Subscriber who is investing through the Plan.

ii. The execution and delivery of this Agreement, and the investment contemplated hereby (i) has been duly authorized by all appropriate and necessary parties pursuant to the provisions of the instrument or instruments governing the Plan and any related trust, and (ii) will not violate, and is not otherwise inconsistent with, the terms of such instrument or instruments. The Fiduciary acknowledges that the assets of the Crowdfunding Vehicle will be invested in accordance with the information set forth in the Form C.

iii. The Plan's purchase and holding of Units will not constitute a non-exempt transaction prohibited under ERISA, Section 4975 of the Code, or any other applicable law. None of the Portal, the Manager, the Administrator, nor any of their officers, directors, shareholders, partners, managers, members, affiliates, employees, agents, or representatives: (i) exercises any authority or control with respect to the management or disposition of assets of the Plan used to purchase Units, (ii) renders investment advice for a fee (pursuant to an agreement or understanding that such advice will serve as a primary basis for investment decisions and that such advice will be based on the particular investment needs of the Plan), with respect to such assets of the Plan, or has the authority to do so, or (iii) is an employer maintaining or contributing to, or any of whose employees are covered by, the Plan.

iv. The Fiduciary understands and agrees (i) to the fee arrangements described in the Crowdfunding Vehicle Information and (ii) that, to prevent the assets of the Crowdfunding Vehicle from being treated as "plan assets" for purposes of ERISA and Section 4975 of the Code, the Subscriber may be prohibited from purchasing or acquiring Units or may be required to redeem its Units or a portion thereof.

6. Anti-Money Laundering and Corporate Transparency Act.

(a) The Subscriber represents and warrants to the Crowdfunding Vehicle and the Issuer that the Subscriber's investment was not directly or indirectly derived from illegal activities, including any activities that would violate U.S. federal or state laws or any applicable law of other countries. The Subscriber acknowledges that the Crowdfunding Vehicle prohibits the investment of funds by any persons that are (i) on the list of Specially Designated Nationals and Blocked Persons and Persons, foreign countries and territories that are the subject of U.S. sanctions administered by the U.S. Treasury Department's Office of Foreign Assets Control (the "OFAC Sanctions List"), (ii) acting, directly or indirectly, in contravention of any applicable law or on behalf of persons on the OFAC Sanctions List, (iii) acting, directly or indirectly, for a senior foreign political figure, any member of a senior foreign political figure's immediate family or any close associate of a senior foreign political figure, unless the Crowdfunding Vehicle, after being specifically notified by the Subscriber in writing that it is such a person, conducts further due diligence and determines that such investment shall be permitted, or (iv) acting, directly or indirectly, for a foreign shell bank (such persons or entities in (i) – (iv) are collectively referred to as "prohibited persons"). The Subscriber represents and warrants that it is not, and is not acting directly or indirectly on behalf of, a prohibited person.

(b) To the extent the Subscriber has any beneficial owners, (i) it has carried out thorough due diligence to establish the identities of such beneficial owners, (ii) based on such due diligence, the Subscriber reasonably believes that no such beneficial owners are prohibited persons, (iii) it holds the evidence of such identities and status and will maintain all such evidence for at least five years from the date of the liquidation or termination of the Crowdfunding Vehicle, and (iv) it will make available such information and any additional information requested by the Crowdfunding Vehicle and the Administrator that is required under applicable law.

(c) The Subscriber acknowledges and agrees that the Crowdfunding Vehicle, the Issuer, the Portal, and the Administrator, in complying with anti-money laundering laws, may file voluntarily or as required by applicable law suspicious activity reports or any other information with any governmental authority that identify transactions and activities that the Crowdfunding Vehicle or the Administrator or their agents reasonably determine to be suspicious, or is otherwise required by applicable law. The Subscriber acknowledges that the Crowdfunding Vehicle, and the Administrator are prohibited by law from disclosing to third parties, including the Subscriber, any filing or the substance of any suspicious activity reports.

(d) Each Subscriber acknowledges and understands that, absent an exemption, the Company and its subsidiaries may be a "reporting company" as that term is defined in the Corporate Transparency Act (31 U.S.C. § 5336) and the regulations thereunder (31 C.F.R. § 1010.380) (together with any rulemakings and/or amendments thereto, collectively, the "CTA"). The term "CTA" will mean and refer to the Corporate Transparency Act as well as any provisions of state law that may be applicable to the Company. In such event, the Company and its subsidiaries may have the obligation to identify and report "beneficial ownership information" (as that term is used in the CTA). So long as a Subscriber owns an equity interest in the Company or exercises control over the Company, such Subscriber will agree to take any actions as are reasonably necessary to obtain and provide to the Company the current and accurate information requested by the Manager in order to comply with the Company's reporting obligations under the CTA. Each Subscriber (1) agrees to provide the requested information required no later than five (5) business days following a request from the Manager, (2) agrees to promptly notify the Company upon any change of a beneficial owner of the Company of which it becomes aware (for instance, to the extent triggered by a change in control of an upper tier entity, or where an affiliated individual obtains an indirect beneficial interest in the Company sufficient to cross the thresholds set forth in the CTA), (3) agrees to promptly notify the Company regarding a change in the beneficial ownership information of such Subscriber, and (4) authorizes the Company to report the beneficial ownership information of the Subscriber in accordance with the CTA. The Company agrees to use or disclose any beneficial ownership or other information disclosed solely for purposes of reporting or disclosing such information (i) to FinCEN under the requirements of the CTA, (ii) to any other federal, state, or local governing authority pursuant to similar disclosure laws or regulation, or (iii) to any lender of the Company in connection with such lender's know your customer or other diligence investigations. In addition, each Subscriber acknowledges and agrees that the Company is permitted to consent to any lender of the Company or the Issuer or any subsidiary obtaining access to reported CTA information through the FinCEN database.

(e) The Company may, to the fullest extent permitted by the CTA, conclusively rely on, and shall be fully protected and indemnified by each such Subscriber, in relying on any information provided by a Subscriber under subsection (a) above. To the maximum extent permitted by applicable law, neither (i) the Manager (with respect to the authority and obligations delegated to the Manager), nor (ii) any individual reported by the Company as a company applicant, will be liable for any loss, liability, damage, cost or expense, as a result of or relating to a company applicant's or Manager's capacity, actions or omissions with respect to the CTA on behalf of the Company; except to the extent resulting from such Person's bad faith, willful misconduct, gross negligence, or fraud, and in furtherance thereof, the Company hereby indemnifies such Persons from and against such liability.

(f) The Subscriber agrees that, upon the request of the Issuer, the Crowdfunding Vehicle, the Manager, or the Administrator, it will provide such information as the Issuer, the Crowdfunding Vehicle, the Manager, or the Administrator requires to satisfy applicable anti-money laundering laws, including background documentation about the Subscriber.

7. Miscellaneous.

(a) This Subscription Agreement constitutes the entire agreement between the parties hereto with respect to the subject matter hereof and may be amended or modified only by a writing executed by the party to be bound thereby.

(b) This Subscription Agreement may be executed in multiple counterparts, each of which shall constitute an original, but all of which shall constitute but one and the same instrument. This Subscription Agreement may be executed and delivered by facsimile or email transmission, or other electronic means, each of which will constitute the legal delivery hereof.

(c) This Subscription Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the internal laws of the State of Delaware, without regard to conflicts of laws principles.

(d) If any provision of this Subscription Agreement or application thereof to anyone or under any circumstances is adjudicated to be invalid or unenforceable in any jurisdiction, such invalidity or unenforceability shall not affect any other provisions or applications of this Subscription Agreement that can be given effect without the invalid or unenforceable provision or application and shall not invalidate or render unenforceable the invalid or unenforceable provision in any other jurisdiction or under any other circumstance.

(e) The representations, warranties, agreements, undertakings, and acknowledgments made by the Subscriber in this Subscription Agreement will be relied upon by the Issuer, the Crowdfunding Vehicle, the Manager, and the Administrator in determining the Crowdfunding Vehicle's and the Issuer's compliance with federal and state securities laws, and shall survive the Subscriber's admission as a member of the Crowdfunding Vehicle.

(f) The Portal, the Administrator, and each of their respective affiliates are each hereby authorized and instructed to accept and execute any instructions in respect of the Units given by the Subscriber in written or electronic form. The Portal may rely conclusively upon and shall incur no liability in respect of any action taken upon any notice, consent, request, instructions or other instrument believed in good faith to be genuine or to be signed by properly authorized persons of the Subscriber.

(g) The Subscriber consents to receive any Schedule K-1 (Partner's Share of Income, Deductions, Credits, etc.) from the Crowdfunding Vehicle electronically via email, the Internet, through the Portal or another electronic reporting medium in lieu of paper copies. During the heyday of coal power in America, the railroads were known as rolling conveyor belts. The reliable railroad logistics kept coal trains moving back and forth between the 1,700 coal-fired power plants and the nearly 7,000 coal mines that supplied them.

Even though America is well past peak coal consumption, railroads still continue to transport 25 percent of the raw energy materials that power today's electrical grid. This means approximately a quarter of the energy powering the device you are using to watch this video is carried on a train before being transmitted as electricity to your home or office.

At SunTrain, we want the railroads to see a new heyday, with the freight railroad network as the backbone of the clean energy revolution.

In 2022, 30 terawatt-hours of renewable energy were wasted in California as a result of lacking energy storage and adequate transmission lines. That's enough to power 4.5 million homes for an entire year. Most contemporary transmission line projects fail because these massive projects come with environmental concerns, NIMBY (Not In My Backyard) opposition, and major real estate requirements.

This is problematic because, as North America continues to rapidly electrify its grid, we'll need a major upgrade, including 2.5 times more line capacity than we have today. The grid will require a total of $4 to $6 trillion in investment to meet our renewable energy goals in the United States. Building new transmission lines is enormously expensive, complicated, and unlikely to receive the necessary entitlements and permits.

There is another solution. It's available using off-the-shelf technology today, and it comes from a historically proven business model: energy by rail.

SunTrain wants to replace the declining fossil fuel service with trains that carry 100% renewable energy. We've designed our energy solutions to integrate as smoothly as possible into modern railroad practices: an integrated rail network of utility solar arrays and wind farms across America, powering load centers, providing grid resilience, and backing up critical energy users.

Instead of hopper cars filled with coal, battery railcars charged with 100% green energy will transport containerized batteries. These containerized batteries are identical to 20- and 40-foot shipping containers and can be shipped in standard railroad flatbed or well cars.

These containers can be linked together in 80- to 120-car unit trains. Each unit train carries enough electrical energy to power approximately 120,000 homes daily. Three daily SunTrains can deliver the equivalent power of an entire coal-fired power plant.

Our patented discharging method allows us to seamlessly capture and store generated green energy directly into our containerized battery trains. The same principle applies at the other end, when our trains deliver their energy to existing rail-served offloading sites.

Battery trains will transport fully charged batteries to defunct power plants with existing railroad trackage. Coal power plants and natural gas power plants are generation facilities that are commonly rail-served and increasingly decommissioned. When a power plant is decommissioned, the energy generation equipment is removed, but the substation, transmission lines, and railroad connectivity remain intact and unchanged.

With some slight retrofitting, these decommissioned power plant facilities could immediately begin receiving unit trains of green energy instead of fossil fuels. This energy is discharged from the batteries and distributed onto the grid in the same way as the fossil fuel power plants of yesteryear.

These operations solve major problems by bypassing the need for transmission lines, using the existing freight rail network to connect to green energy generation. They also mitigate the duck curve by allowing renewable energy to be stored for discharge at appropriate times.

One extra benefit comes in the form of giving former fossil fuel communities job opportunities in green energy. Many towns with former coal plants now have the opportunity to reopen them for our battery trains. Other discharge points, such as container ports or large industrial settings, are perfect matches for our SunTrains as well.

SunTrain solves major issues in our nation's electrical grid by providing solutions that allow for the most seamless transition to green energy while avoiding the typical problems of other major pieces of electrical infrastructure. Together, we can build the green energy revolution on rails.

SunTrain is developing innovative battery freight trains that will deliver gigawatts of clean power to under-supplied load centers using the existing railroad network. Our approach utilizes existing fossil fuel railroad infrastructure and pivots from freight trains hauling coal or oil, to trains hauling stored, renewable electricity. SunTrain technology leverages customized, off-the-shelf equipment that is already in mass production, ensuring the reliability, safety, and scalability of our process. SunTrain is finalizing a $125 million pilot project with a major utility, which will feature a daily 384 megawatt-hour battery train which will regularly transport renewable energy from a congested rural area to an urban center, reducing the need for natural gas peak power. However, utilities aren't the only organizations curious about SunTrain. Our unique energy delivery method has drawn the attention of developers across North America who have entailed projects with indefinite delays because the local utility is unable to provide electricity to support new operations. These utilities regularly provide estimates with decade-long wait periods - if they are able to provide an estimate at all. In particular, SunTrain has been approached by numerous developers looking for grid-alternative energy sources to support the critical infrastructure necessary for the ongoing artificial intelligence and data center boom. So how can SunTrain reliably deliver energy-by-rail to data centers and similar energy intensive industries while the local utilities build out their conventional transmission infrastructure? To do this, SunTrain relies on the proven railroad logistics that kept nearly 1500 coal-power plants operating around the clock during the heyday of coal consumption in America. SunTrain would implement a microgrid with a long-duration battery energy storage system. This system would be SunTrain compatible allowing a single SunTrain to directly off-load up to nearly two gigawatt hours to the facility's stationary batteries. The delivery of energy from SunTrain's railcar-based batteries to the facility's centralized energy storage system allows the microgrid operator to stockpile electricity in the same manner that coal-power plants stockpile significant amounts of coal in the event of a supply chain disruption or other unforeseen events. Additionally, industrial-scale solar and/or geothermal systems would augment SunTrain's delivered energy. Thus providing the grid-independent facility with four different energy sources to keep operations running 24/7. Here's a brief overview of how SunTrain's technology works. Using North America's extensive freight railroad network, SunTrain will coordinate deliveries ranging from just a few railcars, to full unit trains, of 100 railcars or more. SunTrain can charge from renewable resources such as utility scale solar arrays, wind farms, hydroelectric dams, and geothermal systems as well as more traditional grid resources like coal power plants, nuclear generating stations and electrical substations. SunTrain uses an automated robotic system to quickly and safely connect to each battery railcar. The connection pin adjusts for railcar alignment, enabling efficient energy transfer of five megawatt hours per robotic unit, allowing twenty megawatt hour battery railcars to charge in as little as four hours. An AI-powered battery management system optimizes charging for safety, durability, and lifespan, while also monitoring safety sensors to ensure proper functioning during both operation and railroad transportation. After charging, railcars are moved to their discharging location. Each battery is individually equipped with fire suppression systems for added safety in case of derailment or system issues. However, SunTrain's iron and phosphate batteries, made from stable, non-toxic, non-explosive elements which rank as the 6th and 16th most abundant minerals on Earth. This remarkably stable chemistry is unlikely to encounter thermal runaway even in the event of a catastrophic derailment. At the discharge location, the robotic energy exchange systems enable simultaneous discharge of all battery railcars. SunTrain provides end users the flexibility to power electrical loads, recharge a critical AI facility's onsite microgrid or even feed energy directly into the local utility's grid. Class 1 railroads, and even most short lines, will serve facilities 7 days a week and may serve multiple times per day depending on individual end user needs. SunTrain's core technology and supporting systems are currently in mass production and available for demonstration at the testbed railyard in southeast San Francisco. SunTrain can rapidly mobilize a full scaled unit train operation in as little as 12 months. There's no shortage of existing infrastructure from which SunTrain may source its energy. There are thousands of electrical facilities nationwide that are already rail-served which are easily adapted to charge SunTrain batteries. Coal-power plants, natural gas power plants, major substations, wind farms, solar arrays and even hydroelectric dams and nuclear power plants are all examples of existing systems that frequently have rail-service or adjacent railroads. Many of the aforementioned facilities either receive trains carrying raw materials to be converted into electrical energy or these facilities were built with components delivered by the local railroad. The freight railroad network powered the industrial revolution in America. With existing technology and proven logistics, the railroad industry can provide the backbone of both the green energy revolution and the artificial intelligence economy.

SunTrain Crowdfunding Campaign Announcement

We have some exciting updates to share with you! We will shortly be announcing our first grid-scale pilot project and, in response to continuing requests, are creating an opportunity for individuals to directly invest in SunTrain!

As you may know, Sun Train has already been demonstrated at the proof-of-concept scale. Our custom-built 750 KWh train car has been charged with solar energy at Sun Train's San Francisco testbed and transported over 6,500 miles on the Union Pacific network for discharge locations around California.

To advance to commercialization, Sun Train will soon be announcing a partnership with a major utility and a Department of Energy national laboratory to develop a 20-railcar, 384 MWh grid-connected pilot project that will utilize the existing rail and power infrastructure at two former coal-fired power plants. It will capture frequently curtailed renewable wind and solar energy at one site and transport it about 125 miles to the other, where it will be discharged to the grid during peak hours to reduce gas peaker plant emissions at the site.

The results of this grid-connected pilot would remove the last major hurdles slowing the development of full-scale 1.9 GWh, 100-car systems. It will capture critical design and operational data, help develop engineering component and system designs, and define the operational characteristics required by grid

To: SunTrain Co. <electricity@suntrain.co>

Dear Insiders,

We have exciting news. In response to continuing requests, we are creating an opportunity for individuals to invest in SunTrain. We will be launching an equity crowdfunding campaign on the Republic platform. This will be open to accredited and non-accredited investors with an interest in investing as little as $500.

The launch of his campaign will coincide with the public announcement of our partnership with a major utility and a Department of Energy national laboratory to develop a 20-railcar, 384 MWh grid-connected pilot project. The project will utilize the existing rail and power infrastructure at two former coal-fired power plants. It will capture frequently curtailed renewable wind and solar energy at one site and transport it about 125 miles to the other, where it will be discharged to the grid during peak hours to reduce gas peaker plant emissions at the site.

The results of this grid-connected pilot will help clear the path to the development of full-scale 1.9 GWh, 100-car systems. It will capture critical design and operational data, help develop engineering component and system designs, and define the operational characteristics required by grid planners for the mass deployment and adoption of SunTrains.

Details of the announcement of the pilot project are being finalized, but it is expected to occur in early December. However, you do not have to wait for the campaign to launch to express your interest in investing. If you are interested in learning more, please go to www.republic.com/suntrain to see our campaign and reserve your place in advance of the campaign launch.

Thank you for your continued interest in SunTrain,

- Aims to remove transmission bottlenecks delaying new renewable projects
- A single SunTrain delivers 1.9 GWh, equal to five natural gas plants
- 5% of U.S. grid buildout ($2.4T) equals a $120B opportunity
- Technology developed, featured in the Financial Times
- Partnering with utility & NREL for 384 MWh grid-connected pilot
- 32 GWh of utility and merchant plant projects identified
- 7 projects totaling 23.2 GWh planned, targeting 2033

Problem

The electrical grid: undersized, aging and expensive to maintain

Primary barrier to financing and constructing projects: Grid interconnection uncertainty

Survey of Utility-Scale Wind and Solar Developers, Robi Nilson, Ben Hoen, Joe Rand, Lawrence Berkeley National Laboratory

Transmission capacity needs to triple by 2050 from 2020 levels (at a cost of $2.4T). However, it takes 10-20 years to build a new transmission line at a cost of $2.3M per mile.

In 2024, 2600 GW of generation and storage projects were waiting for grid connection.

Only 19% of new power projects in the interconnection queue from 2000-2018 were built as of 2023.

Economic impact - data centers, EV charging infrastructure, ports, industrial facilities, and new residential developments are all being stalled or losing their financing, because they cannot get grid power.

Solution

Shipping sunlight & delivering green energy

SunTrain: Simple, Scalable, Faster

- A wire-free alternative to the grid using existing rail networks to move renewable energy equivalent to the output of 5 natural gas plants.
- Charged with 1.9 GWh of (a) renewable power from newly accessible resource areas, OR (b) existing renewables curtailed due to grid congestion.

- At the discharge sites, the railcars seamlessly integrate this power into the grid.
- When discharged, the train returns to the generation site, while a fully charged SunTrain takes its place.
- SunTrains can be operating in as little as 24 months, compared to 10-20 years for new transmission lines.

Immediately Deployable: Gen 1 Rail Car is projected to be ready for deployment in Pilot and first full-scale projects. Gen 2 Box Car design to be developed using Pilot data and should be available for mass deployment as soon as 2030.

Utility Scale Energy: 7,000 ft long SunTrain, the typical length of a coal train, delivers over 1.9 GWh of energy.

Safe and Durable: Lithium iron phosphate chemistry minimizes the risk of thermal runaway, fires, explosions, or environmental contamination, and has a lifespan of over 30 years.

Efficient and Robust: Round-trip efficiency of over 92% and capable of operating from 20°C to + 45°C

Suitable for Multiple Load Applications: A full unit train can supply up to 450 MW on demand

AC or DC Delivery: Can be configured to meet AC transmission or distribution grid requirements or provide DC power

Technology Benefits

SunTrain vs. Transmission

- Shorter "Time to Market" - A new SunTrain can be operating in as little as two years compared to the one to two decades required for transmission.
- More adaptable - Transmission is fixed in place, requiring approvals for new capacity. SunTrains can be repositioned to meet changing grid needs and are rapidly scalable by adding cars or trains.
- Power you can plan on - Can be coordinated to meet the construction schedules for planned projects to eliminate power provision delays.
- More resilient - In the face of natural or man-made disasters, SunTrains can be re-routed around trouble points to help restore the grid.
- Repurposable - When transmission is finally built to serve an area, a SunTrain can relocate to serve a new project OR stay at the renewable site to enable 24/7 grid-scale dispatchability.

SunTrain vs. Stationary Storage

- Increased impact - A single SunTrain would equal 14% of the grid-scale energy storage currently installed in the US.
- Reduced grid congestion - SunTrains do not compound capacity shortages by charging within constrained regions.
- Increased availability - When a stationary battery is empty, it must wait until conditions are correct to recharge. An empty SunTrain can be immediately swapped with a fully charged one.
- Increased adaptability - Can shift charge and discharge locations as needed to meet changing demand over time.
- Shorter time to market - Stationary storage projects require grid access with over 1086 GW of proposed projects stalled in the connection queue in 2024. SunTrains can be deployed as soon as they are complete.

Business Model And Market

$120B+ Market Opportunity

Satisfying just 5% of the $2.4T grid buildout in the U.S. is a $120B market opportunity.

Global transmission needs by 2050 exceed $21T, according to BNEF, or a $1.1T market opportunity.

SunTrain is a development platform utilizing project finance or direct customer financing to construct projects.

3 revenue streams:

1. Development fees
2. O&M fees
3. Equity returns based on the retained ownership percentage

As the company gains traction, it may shift to an operating/holding company model with more direct project ownership and/or seek to license its key technologies to third party developers.

Pipeline

Initial market - Utilities & merchant plants

Already identified 24GWh of full-scale projects with 8 utilities and qualified 2 merchant plant project opportunities totaling 8 GWh.

By 2033, seven projects with a total capacity of 23.2 GWh could be in operation with 18 projects with a total capacity of 68.4 GWh in construction.

Ongoing expansion market discussions with renewable energy projects developers, industrial facilities, fleet vehicle charging companies, data centers and other critical infrastructure.

Expansion Market

SunTrain is uniquely positioned to satisfy the immediate availability, resiliency and reliability requirements of this market.

- Allows stored energy to be stockpiled on-site to support onsite microgrid generation and storage systems
- Enables facility operations to start years before grid interconnection is available
- When grid power is available, enables 24/7 sigma-level reliable operations even in the event of significant grid disruptions

Projects Development

Project Types & Customer Verticals

Utilities & Renewable Project Developers	Independent System Operator (aka The Grid)	Specialty Application Customers
Regulated utilities and independent power producers need new transmission now.	SunTrain is already developing its own rail-based power generation opportunities to capture the whole value stack.	Data Centers, Ports, Fleet Charging Facilities, Industrial Sites, Defense Applications, and Mines.
Transmission Only	Generation and Transmission	Transmission and/or Generation
SunTrain earns a development fee equal to 3-5% of the total cost of each project.	Direct ownership will allow SunTrain to earn both a development fee and recurring revenue from equity participation.	Direct sale of power for high-value applications offering higher-margin returns.

What does investing in an SPV mean for my investment?	SunTrain, Inc., has formed a special purpose crowdfunding vehicle (SunTrain CF, LLC or the "SPV"), which can solely be used to collect investments commitments in SunTrain's crowdfunding offering. The SPV makes the crowdfunding process smoother for SunTrain, Inc., by consolidating investors in one line item and providing one source for a potential share issuance or any distributions. Investors will pool their investments in the SPV and the SPV will use 100% of the gross proceeds of the offering to purchase a SAFE from SunTrain, Inc., thereby giving investors a pass-through investment in SunTrain, Inc. Investors rights are governed by the SPV's operating agreement and the SPV is managed by SunTrain, Inc. The SPV is subject to certain crowdfunding specific requirements, therefore SunTrain, Inc., encourages investors to review the operating agreement and disclosure schedule. Investors will receive an annual K-1 reflecting and profit or loss the SPV experiences, SunTrain, Inc., will be responsible for the costs associated with managing the SPV, but not for any tax obligations of individual investors.
Do I have the same rights as if I had invested in the operating company itself?	Yes. The intention is for the SPV to "function as a conduit" for you to invest in the operating business.
FAQ	Which entity am I investing in?	As an investor, you purchase securities in the SPV, which purchases securities in the operating company. This differs from an offering that doesn't use an SPV because, in that case, you generally buy securities of the operating company itself.
Are there special requirements for special purpose vehicles in crowdfunding offerings?	Yes. An SPV in the context of crowdfunding is referred to as a "Crowdfunding Vehicle" and must follow the specific rules set forth in the Investment Company Act of 1940 Rule 3a-9, which could be found here. For example, the SPV must: (1) be organized and operated for the sole purpose of directly acquiring, holding, and disposing of securities issued by a single crowdfunding issuer and raising capital in one or more offerings made in compliance with Reg CF; (2) not borrow money and uses the proceeds from the sale of its securities solely to purchase a single class of securities of a single crowdfunding issuer; (3) issue only one class of securities in one or more offerings under Reg. CF in which the crowdfunding vehicle and the crowdfunding issuer are deemed to be co-issuers under the Securities Act; (4) receive a written undertaking from the crowdfunding issuer to fund or reimburse the expenses associated with its formation, operation, or winding up, receives no other compensation, and any compensation paid to any person operating the vehicle is paid solely by the crowdfunding issuer; (5) maintains the same fiscal year-end as the crowdfunding issuer; (6) maintains a one-to-one relationship between the number, denomination, type and rights of crowdfunding issuer securities it owns and the number, denomination, type and rights of its securities outstanding; (7) seek instructions from the holders of its securities with regard to various matters including voting and material transactions; (8) receives, from the crowdfunding issuer, all disclosures and other information required under Reg. CF and the SPV promptly provides such disclosures and other information to the investors and potential investors in the SPV's securities and to Republic; and (9) provide investors the right to direct the SPV to assert the rights under State and Federal law that the investor would have if he or she had invested directly in the crowdfunding issuer and provides to investors any information that it receives from the crowdfunding issuer as a shareholder of record of the crowdfunding issuer.
What is a special purpose vehicle?	A special purpose vehicle ("SPV"), also known as a "Crowdfunding Vehicle" is an entity formed and operated for the sole purpose of directly acquiring, holding, and disposing of securities issued by a single crowdfunding issuer. The SPV is typically managed by the issuing company, and serves as a co-issuer to the offering. In a crowdfunding offering involving an SPV, investors are investing in the SPV, rather than investing into the company directly, and the SPV holds an interest in the underlying company.
