Summary

A nurturer by nature and passionate about making a difference, I earned my masters degree in Physician Assistant Studies from Rutgers University (after earning a bachelors degree from Penn State University). I graduated as the recipient of the Dean's Award of Excellence for Outstanding Service, an honor given to one physician assistant student in the program.

I started my career as a PA-C providing primary care at an FQHC for the medically underserved.

In an unexpected plot twist my best friend, Danielle, and I found ourselves as the Cofounders of Fourplay, the mobile-first social network for single friends. We realized that giving single friends the opportunity to double date was the more fun, lower pressure, and safer way to meet other singles. It's not only physically safer but also psychologically.

So here I am: a physician assistant turned bootstrapping entrepreneur. I'm scrappy, hardworking, coachable, and passionate. I'm also an athlete, a bookworm, a mental health advocate, a younger sister (who acts like the older sister), a proud aunt, a proud ✨, a loyal friend, and the most introverted extrovert you'll ever meet. I'm on a mission to not just do well, but to do GOOD. Let's connect!
