Amai Inc. is a U.S. manufacturer of an edible coffee cup made from upcycled grains aimed to disrupt single-use patterns and reduce waste. The cup is highly nutritious, delicious, versatile, and environmentally friendly. Appropriate for hot and cold beverages alike, the cup is unique in that it stays crispy for nearly an hour, will not leak for 12 hours, and has no glazing or coating that will alter the taste of your drink. Made from 100% natural ingredients and containing no artificial colorings, sweeteners, or preservatives, our oat bran cup is vegan, GMO free, and is a significant source of fiber, protein, and antioxidants. Good for you and the environment! More info @ www.amai.earth
