Alicia Long

Co-Founder at Nutr, ex-Google, ex-Amazon
Columbus, Ohio, United States

Summary

For the past 2 years, I've built a brand to change the way we milk.

Nutr is a wellness brand and creator of the patent-pending Nutr Machine – a signature product that makes nut and plant-based milks at the push of a button. Our sleek single-serve nut milk maker saves time, reduces packaging waste, and results in a tastier experience compared to store-bought nut milks. Along with our proprietary Nutr Blends, we are empowering consumers to make clean & delicious plant-based milk themselves.

Waymo began as the Google self-driving car project in 2009. Since then our goal has been to make it safe and easy to get around. We're ready for the next step on our journey with the introduction of Waymo One, the fully autonomous driving ride-hailing service that makes getting there feel like being there.
