Hello, I'm producer Kip Konwiser and I'm producing the movie Outlaws. And I'm thrilled to tell you a little bit about our show. Behind me are some of the stills as I'm standing here on location in Livingston, Montana, where we'll be filming the movie, starting in just a couple of weeks. You can see behind me the detail that our director, Mario Van Peebles is already begun with our fantastic crew in laying out what will be a first class.

Western will undoubtedly live in history, just like all of other Mario's seminal. I wanted to share with you though, a little bit of the specifics on our film. As you take a look at us and you see behind me some of the cast that we have confirmed to be in our movie, you see Mario Van Peebles up on there to my right.

Uh, leading our film along with his son right next to Whoopi Goldberg there that you see, and some of the other tremendous actors that we've accumulated on, what will undoubtedly be a film that will live forever people such as Bruce Dern, Danny Glover, Whoopi Goldberg. Who have not been together in a movie since color purple DC, young fly.

One of America's most successful in renowned comedians right now, traveling around the world, breaking them in, has taken a, a break from his schedule to be a part of the Outlaws. John Carol Lynch, who you'll recognize from the movie, Ted and many others. Cedric the entertainer from a number of your favorite TV shows Allen Payne from the house of pain.

Uh, our list goes on and on of the tremendous cast that we've been able to bring to the attention just recently, I can announce Neil McDonough and William Maya also joining our cast along with David Kaner. So pretty much in every role, you'll see, you're gonna be thrilled by the way that these fantastic actors with their tremendous background have transformed themselves into 1908 America for Mario's Outlaws.

We begin production in a couple of weeks at the end of September, and we end in October, the film will come out with Quiver Distribution and a fantastic marketing campaign. Theatrically and around the world in early 20, 23. Thanks for paying attention and taking a look at Outlaws. I look forward to getting to know you a little bit better as our process continues.
