CEO SKILLEST

July 2016 - January 2021 (4 years 7 months)

Melbourne, Australia

After years of teaching golf globally I saw many problems with the current student/coach interaction. Students were limited by geography and could only access coaches who lived near by. Similarly, coaches needed a platform to take their business online and access a world of students. Skillest is a marketplace that allows coaches to analyse students swings from anywhere in the world and all from their phone.
