What we know now is that Type 2 Diabetes is preventable. What we did not know before about Type 2 Diabetes is that what causes it, and when it happens. Now with our STAP-test, invented by Dr. Madhu S. Malo, we will be able to answer those two questions exactly what causes Type 2 diabetes, and when it happens, five years in advance. This is a huge weapon against Type 2 diabetes.

That's why I am highly confident that we will win the war against Type 2 diabetes.

However, I cannot fight the disease alone. I need your help. I am requesting to invest through <https://wefunder.com/stapgen.llc.2>, and become a part of STAPGEN. We want to make the world a healthier place to live. We grow together.

Thank you.
