9/26/22 Update: EHR Development is going on well. The developers currently working on E-prescribe/EPCS and Lab integrations. They also recently finished adding a Scheduler that is integrated with a Video conferencing system included with the EHR. Dec 2022-Jan 2023 projected live date. Most of you have reached out to me on how to invest, I will be sending more details within the next 2 weeks. We plan on raising more funds via Equity at $1/share. We need more funds to help expedite the development process and make Key hires. Thank you all for your support.

Hello Team! The development is progressing on well. We are still in need for more funding. Looking for 50 serious investors who can invest at least $1000 each. Raising an additional $50k will enable us to have a complete product by Dec 2022. We will hold daily meetings next week at 7pm EST to answer any questions or concerns. Happy holiday weekend!

Hello Team! We need your support in getting to our funding goals. Our initial goal on Wefunder is $50,000. If we do not meet this initial goal the funding drive is considered a failure and we do not get any funds. Calling on all of you to help us get to this goal.
