I am investing in DotWav Creates because I have witnessed first-hand the power of, and need for, metaverse brand activations. I appreciate the way DotWav Creates is going to go about revolutionizing how brands find vetted talent and fulfill projects safely and expeditiously, all while making the process straightforward and approachable. I trust DotWav's leadership to excel in capitalizing on this massively expanding industry and providing a great value to brands, developers, and investors.
