Opportunity

American whiskey is shifting beyond legacy bourbon and Scotch towards premium, culturally relevant brands.

Bear Fight sits at the center of that shift.

Already one of the top-selling American Single Malts in the U.S., Bear Fight combines award-winning liquid, national distribution, and authentic partners who actively build the brand. The opportunity now is to scale awareness and distribution while the category remains early and fragmented.

This raise supports disciplined growth and deeper owner participation without compromising what made the brand work.

Our Vision

Bear Fight is building the most culturally relevant American whiskey brand of this decade. We believe enduring spirits brands are built on three fundamentals. Active partners like Gabriel Macht are true fans of the product, bringing long-term credibility and awareness. This foundation allows Bear Fight to grow with owners and ambassadors, not behind closed doors, turning every bottle into part of a larger movement. Award Winning: 96-point critic scores, double gold medals. Strong consumer demand: 300+ national retail placements
