This question asks for the name of each person who owns 20% or more of the voting power of the Company.

This should be based on current ownership at the time you're filling in this form, not based on the ownership that will exist after your offering.

- If your Company is a corporation, make the 20% calculation based on who has the right to vote for the election of directors.
- If your Company is a limited liability company managed by its members, make the 20% calculation based on who has the right to make decisions.
- If your Company is a limited liability company managed by one or more managers, the manager(s) typically hold the "voting power."⁴
- If your Company is a limited partnership, the general partner(s) typically hold the "voting power."

Parlor Federal Historic Investor, LLC currently has 1 non-member manager – Parlor HTC Manager, LLC. That entity has two members, John Renner (1%) and RF TCI Manager, LLC (99%). RF TCI Manager, LLC is owned 100% by Reimagine Development Partners, LLC which is owned 50% by William B. Bradshaw II and 50% by Daniela Rivero-Bryant. John Renner is responsible for management decisions with respect to the Company in its role as the Manager of Project Entity, subject to certain approval rights of RF TCI Manager, LLC. The balance of management responsibilities of Parlor HTC Manager, LLC are assigned to RF TCI Manager, LLC. As such, the three individuals who have 20% or more of the voting power of Parlor Federal Historic Investor, LLC are John Renner, William B. Bradshaw II, and Daniela Rivero-Bryant.

EXPLAIN EXISTING OWNERSHIP OF THE COMPANY

§227.201(d) – The Company's Business and Business Plan

About the Project

The Company has been formed to acquire an up to 94% limited liability company membership interest in 19 and One Half, LLC, a Maryland limited liability company which owns certain real property located in Baltimore, Maryland commonly known as "the Parlor."

The Parlor is a late 19th century townhome located in the Charles North neighborhood and Station North Arts District of Baltimore City, near Baltimore Penn Station and the Maryland Institute College of Art (MICA). The building's main entry faces the 100 block of W. North Avenue, perhaps the most significant east-west arterial in Baltimore City, and a major addition fronts W. 19 ½ Street - Baltimore's legendary Graffiti Alley. The property operated as a funeral parlor from 1914 to 2021, but the previous owner neglected basic maintenance and allowed much of the structure to fall into a state of disrepair. A full renovation is needed to make the building habitable, an effort that will be undertaken as a certified historic rehabilitation project.

At the urging of the Central Baltimore Partnership (CBP), a non-profit organization that focuses on neighborhood revitalization, Timshel acquired the property in mid-2022. CBP identified this property as critical to the ongoing renaissance of Station North and provided Timshel with a $250,000 grant to help with acquisition costs. Timshel and the CBP are collaborating on temporary programming, leasing, and certain aspects of the financing.

Working with the CBP, Charles North Neighborhood Association, and other community partners, goals for the project have been established: Enhance North Avenue, activate Graffiti Alley, and provide creative workspace in the heart of the Station North Arts District. The development program includes artist studios, offices, and a restaurant/bar.

The Parlor is in the geographic center of Baltimore City and within easy walking distance from Motor House, Baltimore Penn Station, MICA, University of Baltimore, Church Bar, Sophomore Coffee, Clavel, Royal Blue, Dutch Courage, Alma Cocina, and much more.

The project team is working towards a summer 2023 finance closing and construction start. In the meantime, the Parlor is hosting a variety of temporary programming including art exhibitions, films, pop-up retailers, and live performances.

About the Team

Developer – Timshel, LLC. Timshel is a real estate advisory and development company created by John Renner in June 2021. John has nearly 20 years of real estate development experience at some of the area's leading companies including The Bozzuto Group and Cross Street Partners (CSP). Since its formation, Timshel has focused exclusively on historic buildings in Central Baltimore, advising Penn Station Partners (PSP) on the Baltimore Penn Station redevelopment and the Central Baltimore Partnership on 405-417 E. Oliver Street ("Area 405"). Prior to forming Timshel, Renner led the real estate development practice at CSP for 10+ years, where he completed major historic preservation projects such as the Hoen Lithograph Building, Lion Brothers Building, and Hebrew Orphans Asylum. Prior to joining CSP, Renner worked on affordable and market-rate housing in the D.C. area, NYC, and Rwanda.

John has a master's degree in City & Regional Planning from the University of California, Berkeley, and a BA in Cultural Anthropology from Bates College. He co-chairs the Urban Land Institute's Revitalization & Reuse Council, sits on the board of directors for Preservation Maryland and Intersection of Change, and graduated from Leadership Maryland class of 2017.

Timshel means "thou mayest" or "freedom to" in Hebrew. The word was popularized in the U.S. by East of Eden, a John Steinbeck novel; it also has longstanding special significance in the Renner family. In the context of his new business, John wants to give clients the "freedom to" focus on what they do best by handing off the intricacies, demands on staff, and steep learning curve of real estate project management to him, while ensuring their vision, finances, and schedules are effectively managed. John is also seeking the "freedom to" choose the projects he works on and deepen his volunteer commitment to various non-profits and neighborhood groups.

Architect – Present Company is a small design firm led by husband and wife team, Megan Elcrat and Phillip Jones. They have substantial experience on historic renovation projects, having completed 10 such deals in their firm. The firm itself was created in 2011, and includes not just an Architecture practice, but they also run a co-working space and community design library in the Old Goucher neighborhood of Baltimore City.

Contractor – TrueBuilt. Baltimore-based TrueBuilt construction is led by Haydon Wyatt. This veteran owned business brings more than a decade of experience, managing over $25 million in projects for commercial, government, and nonprofit clients. His team also leverages its extensive working relationships with more than 1,200 key craftsmen and subcontractors across all trades, allowing us to customize a cost-effective, high-quality team, that's unique to each project. They have extensive experience in historic projects and adaptive re-use, having completed $14.5 million on 7 such projects since their founding.

HTC Manager – RF TCI Manager, LLC is a Reimagine Development Partners affiliate. It's role is to assist in the preparation of this Offering, in collaboration with the project team, and to manage the Historic Tax Credit related compliance issues, principally building completion, delivery of requirements under the National Park Service Part II approval for the site, ensuring the delivery of the Part III by the project team post-completion, ensuring the delivery of Investor K-1s annually during the compliance period, making sure that the project doesn't engage in any action that could cause recapture of the historic tax credits, and general financial and asset management oversight responsibilities. It will be a member-manager of Parlor HTC Manager, LLC, the manager of the Company, and will hold the right to exercise Company put option in 19 and One Half, LLC, at time and under the conditions set forth in the Put Option Agreement between the Company and The Parlor MM, LLC.

§227.201(e) – Number of Employees

The Company currently has 0 employees, and does not intend to have employees. The people who will dedicate time to the business of the company are employed by a Manager of the Company or an affiliate of a Manager of the Company.

§227.201(g) – Target Offering Amount and Offering DeadlineCompany Instructions

This question asks for the “target offering amount.” That means the minimum amount of money you’re trying to raise in this offering. For example, if you’re trying to raise a minimum of $600,000 but would accept up to $800,000, your “target offering amount” would be $600,000. This question also asks for the “offering deadline.” That means the date when, if you haven’t raised at least the target offering amount, you’d call off the offering and return any money to Investors.

In this offering (the “Offering”), the Company is seeking to raise a maximum of $425,000 (the “Maximum Offering Amount”) but we will move forward with the project and use investor funds if we are able to raise at least $300,000 (the “Target Amount”). If we have not raised at least the Target Amount by January 31, 2024 at 5:00pm EST (the “Target Date” or “Offering Deadline”), we will terminate the Offering and return 100% of the collected subscription proceeds to anyone who has subscribed.

Parlor Federal Historic Investor, LLC reserves the right to reject any subscription for any reason or without any reason whatsoever.

The minimum you may invest in the Offering is $2,500 (1 Unit).

At the discretion of the Manager, the Issuer may conduct a “rolling close,” whereby, following meeting or exceeding the Target Amount, escrowed funds from investors may be released to the Company in one or more separate disbursement, provided that each individual investor will have an opportunity to reject such distribution at the time it is proposed. Provided, however, the Manager shall not cause any such disbursement, unless the Manager has determined such disbursements to be sufficient capital to allow the Company to close construction financing. The balance of the Offering (if any) is anticipated to cover any potential overages in the budget or de-leverage the transactions.

Required Statement:

If the sum of the investment commitments does not equal or exceed the Target Amount as of the Offering Deadline, no securities will be sold in the Offering, investment commitments will be canceled, and all committed funds will be returned.

§227.201(h) – Commitments that Exceed the Target AmountCompany Instructions:

This question asks whether the Company will accept more money from Investors once the Target Amount is raised and, if so, how you will deal with “oversubscriptions.” The question deals only with this Offering – it’s not asking whether you will try to raise more money in the future.

Will the Company accept commitments that exceed the Target Amount?	☒ Yes ☐ No
What is the maximum you will accept in this Offering (it may not exceed $5,000,000)?	$425,000
If Yes, how will the Company deal with the oversubscriptions?	☐ We will reduce the subscription of every Investor (including those whose commitments made up the Target Amount) on a pro-rata basis, so that every Investor who subscribes will be able to participate. ☒ We will accept subscriptions on a first-come, first-served basis. ☐ Other (explain):

§227.201(i) – How the Company Intends to Use the Money Raised in the Offering

The Company is Reasonably Sure it Will Use the Money as Follows:

Parlor Federal Historic Investor, LLC will invest substantially all proceeds from this Offering (after fees and expenses) in a majority equity interest in 19 and One Half, LLC by making one or more capital contributions. 19 and One Half, LLC will, in turn, use significantly all the capital contribution proceeds it receives from the Company to pay for construction costs, architectural design and related fees, financing fees, soft costs, and developer fees. If less than the Maximum Offering Amount is raised, then 19 and One Half, LLC will leverage other funding sources to complete the construction of the project.

Use of Money	If we raise the Target Amount	If we raise the Maximum Amount
Construction Costs	$200,000	$284,000
Design and Related Fees	$12,000	$16,500

Accounting	$3,500	$4,250
Financing Fees	$13,500	$20,250
Other Soft Costs	$46,000	$65,000
Developer Fee	$25,000	$35,000
TOTAL	$300,000	$425,000

To Cancel Your Investment

Send an email to team@commonowner.com no later than 48 hours before the Target Date. In your email, include your name and the name of the Company. Alternatively, you can cancel your investment from your “Account” page on commonowner.com.

For more information about the investment and cancellation process, see the Educational Materials on our (the Common Owner) website. See also the Investment Agreement attached, Exhibit B: Investment Agreement.

Required Statements

Investors may cancel an investment commitment until 48 hours prior to the Offering Deadline.

Common Owner CF will notify Investors when and if the Target Amount has been raised.

If the Company reaches the Target Amount before the Offering Deadline, it may close the Offering early if it provides notice about the new Offering Deadline at least five business days before such new Offering Deadline, absent a material change that would require an extension of the Offering and reconfirmation of the investment commitment.

If an Investor does not cancel an investment commitment before the 48-hour period before the Offering Deadline, the funds will be released to the Company upon closing of the Offering and the Investor will receive securities in exchange for his or her investment.

§227.201(k) – Material Changes

Required Statement

If an Investor does not reconfirm his or her investment commitment after a material change is made to the Offering, the Investor's investment commitment will be canceled, and the committed funds will be returned.

Explanation for Investors

A “material change” means a change that an average, careful Investor would want to know about before making an investment decision. A material change could be good or bad. If a material change occurs after you make an investment commitment but before the Offering closes, then the Company will notify you and ask whether you want to invest anyway. If you do not affirmatively choose to invest, then your commitment will be canceled, your funds will be returned to you, and you will not receive any securities.

§227.201(l) – Price of the Securities

Maximum Number of Securities to be Offered = 180 units

Price of securities = $2,500 per Unit. This price has been determined by the manager, based on their own goals and strategy for this project.

§227.201(m) – Terms of the Securities

Overview

The securities being sold in this Offering are units of limited liability company membership interests (the “Units”) in The Parlor Federal Historic Investor, LLC (the “Company”). The Company will own up to 94% of the limited liability company membership interests in the 19 and One Half, LLC, a Maryland limited liability company (the “Project Entity”), upon successful completion of the Offering. Substantially all of the proceeds of the Offering (after paying for certain expenses of the Offering) will be invested by the Company into the Project Entity and the Company will become the managing member of the Project Entity upon admission. On the expiration of the “Recapture Period” as defined in the Project Entity’s Amended and Restated Operating Agreement, the Company’s equity interest in the Project Entity will be automatically reduced from the amount set forth above to 10% and Company will have the option for The Parlor MM, LLC, a Maryland limited liability company (“The Parlor MM”) (or an affiliate or designee of The Parlor MM) to purchase the Company’s equity interest for the lesser of (i) 10% of Company’s capital contributions to the Project Entity or (ii) the fair market value of Company’s equity interest in the Project

Entity (as established by independent appraisal, without accounting for any minority discount) at such time. Any unpaid priority return owed to the Company (see below) will also be paid at such time as the put option may be exercised.

RF TCI Manager, in its member-manager role through Parlor HTC Manager, LLC, will have the right to exercise this put option or not on behalf of Company and its members.

The Company will receive distributions of cash flow from the Project Entity and allocations of profit, loss, and credits in proportion to its ownership interest in the Project Entity, as more specifically set forth in the Project Entity's Amended & Restated Operating Agreement.

The only other member of the Project Entity is The Parlor MM, LLC. The Company, under the Project Entity's Amended & Restated (A&R) Operating Agreement, will be entitled to receive an annual priority return equal to two percent (2%) of the Company's capital contributions to the Project Entity, which will accrue to the following year(s), if unpaid in a specific year.

One affiliate (as defined in the Project Entity's Amended & Restated Operating Agreement) of The Parlor MM, LLC, Timshel, LLC (the "Developer") is one of the developers of the Project and will be paid a developer fee by the Company in the amount of $182,000 pursuant to the terms of a Development Agreement between the Project Entity and the Developer. RF TCI Manager, LLC is also expected to be paid a $26,000 developer fee that is detailed under the same Development Agreement. RF TCI Manager, LLC expects to receive its portion of developer fee at the closing of construction financing. A $96,000 portion of the developer fee is expected to be deferred and will be paid from the cash flow of the Project Entity. The priority of payments after all payments of operating expenses and debt, will be any unpaid adjustments due to the Company, the 2% priority return to Company (including accrued but unpaid priority return), the Asset Management Fee due to RF TCI Manager, LLC, any special tax distributions, then the 65% deferred developer fee, then to pay any operating deficit loans, and then additional distributions, if any, to equity holders (including the Company) based on their pro-rata interests in the Project Entity.

An Organizational Chart, depicting the relationship between the Company, Project Entity, The Parlor MM, Parlor HTC Manager, LLC, RF TCI Manager, Rethos (the State Historic Tax Credit Investor) and other entities is attached as Exhibit C: Organizational Chart.

Limited Voting Rights

You will have limited voting rights to vote on (i) certain actions to be taken by the Company as well as (ii) matters that would cause the Company to exercise its rights as a managing member of the Project Entity. In general, these rights are limited to the following items, which are more specifically explained in the Limited Liability Company Agreement of the Company:

- I. Object to exercising the Company's rights under the Put Option Agreement, assuming that Parlor HTC Manager LLC chooses to exercise the Company's put option; and
- II. Remove Parlor HTC Manager LLC as the Manager of the Company, following a "disqualifying event" from certain roles and responsibilities with the Company.

No Right to Transfer

Your Units will be illiquid (meaning you might not be able to sell them) for five reasons:

- The Company Limited Liability Company Agreement generally prohibits the sale or other transfer of Units without the Manager's consent, with some exceptions (such as transfers to immediate family members).
- Even if a transfer were to be approved, the Manager might condition its approval on a sale or other transfer to the satisfaction of one or more conditions, including without limitation a legal opinion that the sale does not violate Regulation Crowdfunding or any other applicable securities laws.
- If you want to sell your Units, the Manager will have a first right of refusal to buy them.
- Even if a sale were permitted, there is no ready market for the Units, as there would be for a publicly-traded stock.
- Any transfer of the Units would have to comply with applicable Federal and state securities laws.

As a result, you should plan to hold your Units indefinitely, with the minimum holding period being not less than 5 years (through the Recapture Period).

Schedule K-1

An IRS Schedule K-1 will be issued to each member of the Company each year, reflecting each member's allocable share of the Company's tax credits, income, profits, gains, expenses and deductions for Federal income tax purposes, and equivalent schedules for state income tax purposes.

Modification of the Limited Liability Company Agreement

The terms of the Company's Limited Liability Company Agreement may be amended or modified by the Manager, except, any amendment having an adverse effect on the Investor Members shall require majority consent of the Investor Members. Unanimous consent of the Investor Members will be required for any amendment deleting or modifying an existing amendment, any amendment requiring additional capital contributions of the Investor Members, or any amendment that would impose personal liability on any Investor Member.

The Project Entity's Amended and Restated Operating Agreement may only be modified in accordance with the requirements set forth in the Project Entity's agreements, which requirements may include the manager's or managing member's discretion, majority consent of the members, or unanimous consent of the members.

The Person(s) Who Control the Company

The Company will be controlled by Parlor HTC Manager, LLC (the "HTC Manager"). The HTC Manager is managed by its members, with certain management rights of the Company under the Amended and Restated Operating Agreement of the Project Entity being assigned to John Renner, as a member of the HTC Manager ("Renner"). In such capacity, Renner will effectively have control and the ability to make certain decisions for the Company with respect to the Project Entity and its completion of the rehabilitation project, with in some cases the consent of RF TCI Manager, LLC (the other member of the HTC Manager) being required. Other decisions, roles, and responsibilities, including those with respect to the Offering and investment process, will be fully assigned to RF TCI Manager, LLC. As a member of the Company, investors will have extremely limited rights to manage or control the Company or the Project Entity.

How the Project Entity's Actions Could Affect You

Actions taken by the Project Entity or the Company could affect you in a number of different ways, including these:

- The Project Entity decides where to purchase new property and how to build it out.
- The Project Entity decides what renovations will be made to the property.
- The Project Entity decides how to advertise the property.
- The Project Entity decides if and when to sell property, and for how much.
- The Project Entity decides whether to rent the property, and for how much.
- The Project Entity decides who to hire and for what compensation.
- Principals of the Project Entity could decide to hire themselves to perform services for the Project Entity and establish rates of compensation higher than fair market value.
- The Project Entity or the Company might decide to raise more capital, whether through equity or debt.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Company will not be permitted to take any of the above voluntary actions that would jeopardize its Federal tax credits or cause a recapture event to occur.

§227.201(n) – The Funding Portal

The Company is offering its securities through Common Owner CF LLC, which is a "Funding Portal" licensed by the Securities and Exchange Commission and FINRA. The SEC File number is 7-00229 and the Funding Portal Registration Depository (FPRD) number is 309293.

§227.201(o) – Compensation of the Funding Portal

The Company will compensate Common Owner CF LLC as follows:

- Onboarding Fee of $2,500 (has already been paid)
- 4% of the total amount of investment in the Offering shall be paid to Common Owner CF LLC as a Success Fee.
 - The first 2% of the success fee shall be payable to Common Owner CF LLC in cash upon completion of the Offering.
 - The remaining 2% of the success fee shall be held in the form of Units in the Company on the exact same terms as the investors in the Offering.

Common Owner CF LLC owns no interest in the Project Entity or the Company, directly or indirectly, and (except to the limited extent of the success fee set forth above) will not acquire an interest as part of the Offering, nor is there any arrangement for Common Owner CF LLC to acquire an interest.

19 and One Half, LLC acquired the site and completed some of the initial due diligence of the project using a pre-development loan described in the next section. That pre-development loan is secured by the site itself, and is expected to be fully paid off by the construction closing and the closing of this Offering.

§227.201(p) – Indebtedness of the Company

19 and One Half, LLC currently has a pre-development and acquisition loan in the principal amount of $375,000 and bearing a floating rate that is currently 8% per annum.

The predevelopment loan was made to the Company by Reinvestment Fund. It is anticipated that the pre-development loan will be repaid in full at the closing of construction financing, which is intended to be more or less simultaneous with the closing of the Offering, but may occur following the closing of the Offering. The Manager believes that the terms of the pre-development loan reflect market rates, though there can be no guarantee that is the case. For the avoidance of doubt, this predevelopment loan will not be repaid with proceeds of the Offering, but instead from the proceeds of that certain construction loan to be made by Reinvestment Fund to the Company. A copy of the loan documents will be made available to investors upon request, or at the discretion of the Manager, may be posted on the offering page at Commonowner.com.

Explanation for Investors

The indebtedness listed above is the Company's "material" indebtedness, meaning indebtedness that is significant relative to the value of the Company as a whole. Please note that it is anticipated that the pre-development loan will be repaid when the Company refinances upon the construction of the project. There will at all times likely be material indebtedness on the project.

The following fees are not paid by the Company to insiders, but from the Project Entity to Insiders, and as a result, may reduce available cash flow to the Company. They are being disclosed here in the interest of transparency:

§227.201(s) – The Company’s Financial Condition

Liquidity

The Project Entity and the Company both have sufficient liquidity to deal with the Project Entity’s current pre-development obligations and be in position for a construction financing closing in 2023. Parlor HTC Manager LLC has obtained a third-party accounting review of the financial status of the Company, which has been created specifically for this purpose. In addition, the Developer has secured a number of financing sources providing, debt, equity, state tax credit equity, grants, and low-interest loans to the Project Entity in order to satisfy the development funding requirements. Based on a review of the site conditions, review of the design and construction contract, and review of other factors unique to this deal, The Parlor MM, LLC, and RF TCI Manager, LLC believe that there are sufficient resources to complete the renovation of this project and put the Parlor building back in commerce in the manner conceived.

The Company acquired the site and completed much of the necessary pre-development work with a $375,000 loan from Reinvestment Fund.

Capital Resources

The Project Entity has the capital resources on hand to complete pre-development and be in position for a construction financing closing in 2023.

Historical Results of Operations

We have provided the limited historical results of operations for the Company, which was formed in 2023 for the exclusive purpose of acquiring an interest in the Project Entity. Those results include solely the costs to establish the Company, conduct preliminary pre-development activities, and no other costs whatsoever. However, the Project Entity has a detailed operating budget and schedule of development costs that has been initially prepared by the Developer, but then reviewed and adapted by Cohn Reznick LLP, one of the most experienced accounting firms in the country for projects of this type. Based on the opinion of the Developer, RF TCI Manager, LLC, and represented by the projections that Cohn-Reznick prepared, all parties believe that there are sufficient resources for this project to be completed as conceived. That said, there are any number of risks that could increase construction costs, or make this project perform in some way other than what is expected. Those include:

- Volatility in the construction market
- Availability of certain needed materials or building systems
- Availability of construction labor
- Acts of God including – extreme heat, rain/wind events, tornadoes, hurricanes, wildfires, earthquakes, etc.
- The potential for a global pandemic
- Ability to locate a tenant or tenants
- Unforeseen problems in the building
- Changes in building code or required construction practices
- Changes in interest rates, and more

Changes and Trends

We are not aware of any changes or trends in the financial condition or operations of the Company since the date of the financial information provided in this Form C.

§227.201(t) – The Company’s Financial Statements

Our financial statements are attached as Exhibit B: Financial Statements

§227.201(u) – Disqualification Events

Explanation for Investors

A company is not allowed to raise money using Regulation Crowdfunding if certain designated people associated with the company (including its directors or executive officers) committed certain prohibited acts (mainly concerned with violations of the securities laws) on or after May 16, 2016. (You can read more about those rules in the Educational Materials posted on commonowner.com). This item requires a company to disclose whether any of those designated people committed any of those prohibited acts before May 16, 2016.

A company called North Capital Private Securities Corporation ran background checks on the members of the Manager of the Company (i.e., those covered by this rule). Common Owner reviewed the background checks and are satisfied that none of those covered by this rule are disqualified under the applicable regulations.

For the Company and the Project Entity, the answer is no, none of the designated people committed any of the prohibited acts, ever.

§227.201(v) – Updates on the Progress of the Offering

You can track the Company’s progress in raising money on the Offering page at CommonOwner.com

227.201(w) – Annual Reports for the Company

We will file a report with the Securities and Exchange Commission annually and will share the report directly with our investors no later than 120 days after the end of each fiscal year.

It’s possible that at some point, the Company won’t be required to file any more annual reports. The Company will notify you if that happens.

§227.201(x) – Our Compliance with Reporting Obligations

Explanation for Investors

This item requires a Company to disclose whether it has ever failed to file the reports required by Regulation Crowdfunding.

The Company has never raised money using Regulation Crowdfunding before, and therefore has never been required to file any reports.

§227.201(y) – Other Important Information Prospective Investors Should Know About

All investors should take care to read Exhibit A: Risks of Investing, prior to investing in the Offering.

§227.201(z) – Testing the Waters Materials

Company Instructions

Under SEC Rule 206 a company that is considering a Reg CF offering may solicit indications of interest, while under SEC Rule 241 a company that is considering some offering of securities but hasn’t decided what type of offering may also solicit indications of interest. This is often referred to as “testing the waters.”

If you have relied on Rule 206 to solicit indications of interest you must include a copy of any written materials you used and a written transcript of any audio/visual materials.

If you have relied on Rule 241 to solicit indications of interest you must include a copy of any written materials you used and a written transcript of any audio/visual materials, but only for solicitations made within 30 days before your Reg CF Offering goes live.

Explanation for Investors

This item requires a Company to provide certain materials it has used to solicit indications of interest in its Reg CF Offering (i.e., to “test the waters”) before the Offering became effective.

The Company did solicit indications of interest, pursuant to Rule 206, before this Offering became effective.

The documents listed during the solicitation of interest and before the site went live included the following items, all of which were made available through the Common Owner platform at <https://commonowner.com/project/the-parlor-baltimore>. Copies of such materials have been included in Exhibit E: “Testing the Waters” Materials including:

- Presentation deck, internally prepared, and made available on the Testing the Waters page on May 2, 2023.
- Video describing the deal, launched on July 14, 2023. A transcript of the video has been included herewith in the Exhibit E materials.
- “Testing the Waters” Offering Page, a PDF Printout, created within 30 days of the Offering becoming effective.

Exhibit ARisks of Investing

THE PURCHASE OF LLC MEMBERSHIP INTERESTS IS SPECULATIVE AND INVOLVES SIGNIFICANT RISK, INCLUDING THE RISK THAT YOU WILL LOSE SOME OF ALL OF YOUR MONEY. THE PURCHASE OF LLC MEMBERSHIP INTERESTS IS SUITABLE ONLY FOR INVESTORS WHO FULLY UNDERSTAND AND ARE CAPABLE OF BEARING THE RISKS. SOME OF THE RISKS ARE DESCRIBED BELOW. THE ORDER IN WHICH THESE RISKS ARE DISCUSSED IS NOT INTENDED TO SUGGEST THAT SOME RISKS ARE MORE IMPORTANT THAN OTHERS.

You Might Lose Some or All of Your Money: When you buy a certificate of deposit from a bank, the Federal government (through the FDIC) guarantees you will get your money back. Purchasing LLC membership interests is not like that at all. The ability of the Company to pay you back depends on many factors, including some beyond our control. Nobody guarantees that you will receive any payments and you might lose some or all of your money.

Risks from Covid-19: As a result of the COVID-19 pandemic, the world economy suffered the sharpest and most severe slowdown since the Great Depression. Although some segments of the economy have recovered, others have not. Moreover, the recovery has been fueled by enormous deficit spending by the Federal government and historic actions by the Federal Reserve to provide liquidity. The lingering effects of COVID-19 and enacted monetary policies will affect the economy in a number of ways, both positively and negatively. Neither we nor anyone else knows for certain what long-term effects the pandemic will have on this business, if any.

Risks of Real Estate Industry: Real estate can be risky and unpredictable. For example, many experienced, informed people lost money when the real estate market declined in 2007-8. Time has shown that the real estate market goes down without warning, sometimes resulting in significant losses. Some of the risks of investing in real estate include changing laws, including environmental laws; floods, fires, and other Acts of God, some of which can be uninsurable; changes in national or local economic conditions; changes in government policies, including changes in interest rates established by the Federal Reserve; international crises. In the event of a downturn in the real-estate market, the Company might be unable to distribute cash to investors.

Real Estate Is an Illiquid Investment: Real estate is much harder to sell than, say, a publicly-traded stock. As a result, our ability to sell any property that we purchase could be relatively limited.

Distributions of Cash Flow are not Guaranteed: No individual or entity is guaranteeing that the Issuer will make any distributions of cash flow to the COMPANY, and by extension the Investors. This includes any “preferred return” or “priority return” scheduled to be distributed to the Investors. Investors can look solely to the value of the property and the success of the project for distributions.

Allocations of Profits, Losses, and Credits are not Guaranteed: No individual or entity is guaranteeing that the Project Entity will make any specific allocations of profits, losses, or tax credits to the Company, and by extension to the Investors. This includes any federal or state “historic tax credits” or “rehabilitation tax credits” anticipated to be distributed to the Investors. Investors can look solely to the depreciable basis of the property and its actual eligibility for and claim of tax credits for allocations.

Risks of Tax Credit Recapture are not Guaranteed Against: In some cases, the internal revenue service or state tax departments may “recapture” tax credits. No individual or entity is guaranteeing that any tax credits awarded to the project will not be recaptured in all circumstances. The Guaranty provided to Company by The Parlor MM is limited in nature and does not cover all potential reasons that could cause the tax credits to be recaptured.

At-risk Analysis: One of the tests that the IRS uses to determine that tax credit investors are investing in a true partnership is called the “at-risk analysis.” This analysis tries to determine that the tax credit investors have true risk of loss given the nature and structure of the transaction, like any other equity investor in a real estate transaction. There is less information about how a Regulation CF raise relates to this at-risk analysis and whether the particular aspects of this deal are compliant with what the IRS expects to see. While The Parlor MM, LLC, the Company, RF TCI Manager, LLC, and others will use their professional experience and expertise to minimize any risk from at-risk analysis questions, they make no guarantees that it will not create an issue that causes a loss in this case.

Economic substance test: Another test for Federal Historic Tax Credit investors is called the economic substance test, which is largely a way of determining that the investment being made would make sense if the tax credits weren’t part of the investment. While RF TCI Manager, LLC and its counsel both use an economic substance screen as part of the determination of pricing, those entities along with The Parlor MM, LLC, the Company, and others involved in the transaction cannot and expressly do not guarantee that the IRS will not challenge the economic substance test on this transaction.

Financing in Process but not finalized: Real estate projects like this one involve multiple sources that fund construction and development. Two of those sources of financing in this project are the Construction Loan and the State Historic Tax Credit Investment. Timshel has negotiated a construction loan from the Reinvestment Fund that is in the final stages of the closing process (launching and completing at least the minimum raise involved in this crowdfunding investment process is one of the final steps to close the construction loan), but that loan has not yet closed. There is some risk that for unforeseen circumstances, it does not close. In addition, the state historic tax credits are reserved for the Parlor project, and arrangements have been made to monetize the state historic tax credits in this transaction. But those funds are only made available until after the project is completed, and there is some risk that for unforeseen circumstances those funds never enter the project as expected.

Forbearance Agreement/Foreclosure Rights Agreement: A typical tax credit investor in a typical transaction of this nature would require any lender to the project to agree not to foreclose on the Project during the five-year recapture period, even in cases where the borrower/company defaulted under the applicable loan documents and security agreement. While The Parlor MM, LLC will attempt to negotiate a similar arrangement with the lenders for the Project Entity, there is no guaranty they will be able to do so, which increases your potential risk of recapture of the tax credits.

Historic Tax Credit “Safe Harbor”: Revenue Procedure 2014-12 provides a so called “Safe Harbor” whereby the Internal Revenue Service will not challenge a Partnership’s allocation of historic rehabilitation tax credits to its partners. While attempts have been made to comply with this Safe Harbor in the organizational structure of the Project Entity (including the Project Entity’s relationship with the Developer), there is a possibility that the Internal Revenue Service could conclude that the allocation of historic rehabilitation tax credits does not comply with the safe harbor, resulting in a recapture of tax credits and drastically reducing Investor returns.

Inability to Use Tax Credits: Whether or not you are allocated tax credits by the Company, a variety of complex tax rules govern who may and may not claim or otherwise utilize tax credits, including without limitation “passive activity rules.” Therefore, there is a possibility that the tax credits cannot be used against your income, based on the type of income you have, the amount of income you have, or for other reasons. These matters are difficult to explain and vary dramatically based on an individual's personal tax situation. YOU SHOULD CONSULT WITH A TAX PROFESSIONAL ABOUT THESE MATTERS. The Company, Project Entity, and Manger make no representation or guaranty whatsoever that you will be able to use any tax credits.

"Reasonableness Opinion": A typical tax credit investor in a typical transaction, might require a third-party appraisal or analysis of any related party fees to confirm such fees are reasonable compared to fees for non-tax credit projects and non-related party fees in the area. The Company and its investors will receive a general reasonableness report with respect to the amount of any related party fees (fees paid by the project to RF TCI Manager, the Developer, William Bradshaw, Daniela Rivero-Bryant, or John Renner or their affiliates). That opinion will not be obtained until the closing of construction financing, which is expected to be co-terminus with the end of this Offering.

Tax Opinion: A typical tax credit investor will receive a tax opinion from an attorney or law firm experienced in such matters, indicating that the credits should be available to be validly claimed by an investor. This Company will receive an opinion from a third party expert that the structure is compliant, but will not receive a third party tax opinion from counsel regarding the structure and that tax credits will be validly claimed.

Enforceability Opinion: A typical financing party in a commercial real estate transaction will receive an opinion from a law firm involved in such transaction and familiar and experienced with such matters indicating that the companies involved in the transaction are duly formed, validly existing, and in good standing and authorized to enter into various transactions and that the transaction documents are enforceable against such entity. You will not benefit from any such opinion and you acknowledge and agree you have not been represented by the attorneys of the Company, The Parlor MM, LLC, RF TCI Manager, LLC, the Company, or funding portal and you accept all risk resulting therefrom, including all risk that the documents will not be enforceable against any specific party, or in general.

Inadequacy of Collateral and Other Security for Issuer Debts: If the Company defaults on any of its debts, creditors will be repaid before you will receive any of your money back or any distributions or allocations. There is no assurance that the property will be worth enough to repay such debts and you may receive nothing.

Property Value Could Decrease: The value of the property could decline, perhaps significantly. Factors that could cause the value of property to decline include, but are not limited to:

- Changes in interest rates
- Competition from new construction
- Changes in national or local economic conditions
- Changes in zoning
- Environmental Contamination or liabilities
- Changes in local market conditions
- Fires, floods, and other casualties
- Uninsured losses
- Undisclosed defects in property

- Incomplete or inaccurate due diligence

Construction Risks: The Company business plan involves major renovations of the property. Construction carries its own risks, with delays and cost overruns all too common. There is no guarantee that we will be able to complete the renovations on time and on budget.

Uninsured Losses: The company will carry insurance against certain risks, but some risks cannot be insured at affordable premiums, and there is no assurance that the insurance we carry will be adequate. A significant uninsured loss could cause the project to fail.

Incomplete Due Diligence: The Company engaged in what it believes to be satisfactory due diligence with respect to the property, but due diligence is as much an art as a science and there is no guaranty that our due diligence revealed all the information about the property. If the materials provided to the Company are inaccurate, for example, or if the due diligence process fails to detect material facts that impact the value determination, the Company could make mistakes in the underwriting process.

Inability to Foreclose: Investors own Units, which are limited liability company membership interests, not debt notes, of the Company and will have limited or no rights to “foreclose” or otherwise take control of the Company in an attempt to recover their investment.

Reliance on Management Team: Parlor HTC Manager, LLC is a small company, with a handful of principals. If a key member of the management team were to die, become seriously ill or leave the Manager, it could damage our prospects and our ability to make the expected distributions.

Subordination to Senior Lenders: The Company will give its lender(s) a mortgage on the project. If the Company went bankrupt, the lender(s) would be paid first (up to the value of their security), before any amounts are distributed to the Company and, thereafter, to the investors.

Liability for Personal Injury: As the owner of rental properties, the Company will face significant potential liability for personal injury claims, e.g., “slip and fall” injuries. Although the Company will carry insurance against potential liability, it is possible that a claim would be made in excess of the insurance coverage.

Casualty Losses: Fires, flooding, mold infestations, or other casualties could materially and adversely affect the project, even if the Company carries adequate insurance.

No Market for the Units; Limits on Transferability: There are several obstacles to selling or otherwise transferring your Units in the Company:

- (i) There will be no public market for the Units, meaning you could have a hard time finding a buyer.
- (ii) Under the Company’s Limited Liability Company Agreement, the Units may not be transferred without Parlor HTC Manager LLC’s consent, which Parlor HTC Manager, LLC may withhold in its sole discretion.
- (iii) Parlor HTC Manager LLC has the right to impose conditions on the sale of your Units, and these conditions might not be acceptable to you.
- (iv) If you want to sell your Units, Parlor HTC Manager, LLC has a first right of refusal to buy them.

By law, you may not sell your Units unless they are registered under applicable securities statutes or the transfer is eligible for an exemption from registration.

Taking all of the above into account, you should plan to own your Units indefinitely.

Environmental Risks: Under Federal and State laws, moreover, a current or previous owner or operator of real estate may be required to remediate any hazardous conditions without regard to whether the owners knew about or caused the contamination. Similarly, the owner of real estate may be subject to common law claims by third parties based on damages and costs resulting from environmental contamination. The cost of investigating and remediating environmental contamination can be substantial, even catastrophic, and could impair the Company's ability to distribute cash or allocate credits to the COMPANY and, indirectly, to the investors.

The Company Might Become Bankrupt: If the Company files for bankruptcy protection, the COMPANY and its investors could face significant delays and incur significant legal costs in enforcing their rights. Bankruptcy courts have broad powers to permit sale of a debtor's assets free of liens, to compel creditors to accept amounts that are less than the balance due under the loan, and to permit the borrower to repay the loan over a term which may be substantially longer than the original term of the loan. All these factors may reduce the COMPANY's recovery and ultimately the amount paid to the investors.

The Company Has No Credit Rating from Moody's or Standard & Poor's: Credit rating agencies, notably Moody's and Standard & Poor's, assign credit ratings to issuers. These ratings are intended to help investors gauge the ability of the issuer to repay loans. Neither the Project Entity nor the Company have been rated by either Moody's or Standard & Poor's. Consequently, investors have no objective measure by which to judge the creditworthiness of the Project Entity or the Company.

Lack of Cash to Pay Tax Liability: An investor holding Units will generally be required to accrue (and pay tax on) pass-through income even if the Company fails to pay any distributions to the investor, leaving the investors out-of-pocket by the amount of tax.

Conflicts of Interest: Conflicts of interest could arise between the Project Entity and/or the Company and the investors. For Example:

- Principals of the Company have been, are, and will be engaged in other real estate projects in the same vicinity as this project, in effect competing with this project for buyers and tenants.
- An investor could want the principals of Parlor HTC Manager, LLC, the Project Entity, and/or the Company to spend more time and resources on this project, but they will simultaneously be pursuing a variety of other business activities.

Lack of Ongoing Information: While we will provide you with periodic statements concerning repayments with respect to the Units, you will not receive the same information you would from a public company.

No Registration Under Securities Laws: Neither the Company nor the Units will be registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission or the securities regulator of any state. Hence, neither the Company nor the Units are subject to the same degree of regulation and scrutiny as if they were registered.

Incomplete Offering Information: The Units are being offered pursuant to Regulation Crowdfunding, which does not require us to provide you with all the information that would be required in some other kinds of securities offerings, such as public offering of securities. Although we have tried to provide all the information we believe is necessary for you to make an informed decision, and we are ready to answer any questions you might have, it is possible that you would make a different decision if you had more information.

Breaches of Security: It is possible that our systems would be “hacked”, leading to the theft or disclosure of confidential information you have provided to us. Because techniques used to obtain unauthorized access or to sabotage systems change frequently and generally are not recognized until they are launched against a target, we and our vendors may be unable to anticipate these techniques or to implement adequate preventative measures.

Risks of Relying on Third Parties: The Company will engage third parties to provide essential services. If a third party the Issuer retains performs poorly or becomes unable to fulfill its obligations, the Company’s business could be disrupted. Disputes between the Company and its third-party service providers could disrupt its business and may result in litigation or other forms of legal proceedings (e.g., arbitration), which could require us to expend significant time, money and other resources. We might also be subject to, or become liable for, legal claims by our tenants or other parties relating to work performed by third parties we have contracted with, even if we have sought to limit or disclaim our liability for such claims or have sought to insure the Company against such claims.

Change of Law Risk: The project is heavily dependent on the availability of historic tax credits. While efforts were made in the structuring of this project, including but not limited to all efforts taken to comply with the applicable safe harbors, to qualify for these various incentive programs, there is a risk that the project may be disqualified from one or more of these programs, causing the tax credits to be recaptured. Further, a future change in law or regulations could cause recapture of the tax credits or otherwise negate or disqualify state or Federal tax incentives upon which the project is dependent or cause unforeseen tax outcomes to the investors.

Additional Tax Obligations: In certain circumstances, investment in tax-advantaged entities can create a tax obligation on the investing parties. In those cases, as is the case in this deal, the project is expected to provide a distribution to cover this tax obligation, but there is some risk that such an obligation will be created, and that funds will not be available at the project entity to cover it.

Inability to Control Expenses: Market forces and competition will limit the amount of rent the Company can charge. Hence, the success of the project depends to a large extent on the ability of the Company to anticipate, control, and limit expenses. Many expenses will be outside the control of the Company.

Lower-Than-Expected Occupancy Levels and/or Rents: There is no guaranty that the project will achieve or sustain the occupancy or rent levels anticipated by The Parlor MM’s financial models. For example, a deterioration in general economic conditions could put downward pressure on rents and occupancy levels, or prevent the Issuer from raising rents in the future. Competition, especially from newer buildings with greater amenities, could have the same effect.

Non-Paying Tenants: Some tenants might simply refuse to pay rent. Others might experience financial difficulties that makes it impossible to pay rent. Although the Company would ultimately have the legal right to evict a non-paying tenant and recover its damages, eviction proceedings can be long and expensive and if the tenant is unable to pay rent it is unlikely the Company could recover the damages due.

Need for Additional Capital: The project might require more capital, whether to finance cost overruns, to pay for improvements, to cover cash flow shortfalls, or otherwise. There is no assurance that additional capital will be available at the times or in the amounts needed, or that, if capital is available, it will be available on acceptable terms. For example, if capital is available in the form of a loan, the loan might bear interest at very high rates. If capital is available in the form of equity, the new investors might have rights superior to those of the Company, or they might purchase their equity interests at a lower price than the Company, thereby “diluting” the investors.

Construction Loan and State Historic Tax Credit Closing: The Project Entity has not yet closed its construction loan, nor has it closed its State HTC Investment. While the managers of the Project Entity are confident, they will do so, based on negotiations with construction lenders and HTC Investors to date, there is a risk that the construction loan or state HTC investment may not close, delaying construction, perhaps indefinitely. This could cause significant losses for investors in the offering.

THE FOREGOING ARE NOT NECESSARILY THE ONLY RISKS OF INVESTING.

For example, you generally have the right to cancel (i) up to forty-eight (48) hours before the closing of the offering, or (ii) if there is a material change in the offering.

4. Our Right to Reject Investment. We have the right to reject your subscription for any reason or for no reason, in our sole discretion. If we reject your subscription, any money you have given us will be returned to you.

5. Your Promises. You promise that:

5.1. Accuracy of Information. All the information you have given to us, whether in this Investment Agreement, at the Site, or otherwise, is accurate and we may rely on it. If any of the information you have given to us changes before we accept your subscription, you will notify us immediately. If any of the information you have given to us is inaccurate and we are damaged (harmed) as a result, you will indemnify us, meaning you will pay any damages including, but not limited to, our legal fees and expenses.

5.2. Review of Information. You have read and understand the Disclosure Document and all of its Exhibits, including the LLC Agreement.

5.3. Risks. You understand all the risks of investing, including the risk that you could lose all your money. Without limiting the above statement, you have reviewed and understand all the risks listed in the Educational Materials at the Site and in the Disclosure Document.

5.4. No Representations. Nobody has made any promises or representations to you, except the information in the Disclosure Document. Nobody has guaranteed any financial outcome of your investment.

5.5. Opportunity to Ask Questions. You have had the opportunity to ask questions about the Company through the communications channels on the Site. All your questions have been answered to your satisfaction.

5.6. Your Legal Power to Sign and Invest. You have the legal power to sign this Investment Agreement and purchase the Shares.

5.7. No Government Approval. You understand that no state or federal authority has reviewed this Investment Agreement or the Shares or made any finding relating to the value or fairness of the investment.

5.8. No Advice. We have not provided you with any investment, financial, or tax advice. Instead, we have advised you to consult with your own legal and financial advisors and tax experts.

5.9. Tax Treatment. We have not promised you any particular tax outcome from buying or holding the Shares.

5.10. Acting On Your Own Behalf. You are acting on your own behalf in purchasing the Shares, not on behalf of anyone else.

5.11. Investment Purpose. You are purchasing the Shares solely as an investment, not with an intent to re-sell or “distribute” them.

5.12. Anti-Money Laundering Laws. Your investment will not, by itself, cause the Company to be in violation of any “anti-money laundering” laws, including, without limitation, the United States Bank Secrecy Act, the United States Money Laundering Control Act of 1986, and the United States International Money Laundering Abatement and Anti-Terrorist Financing Act of 2001.

5.13. Additional Information. At our request, you will provide further documentation verifying the source of the money used to purchase the Shares.

5.14. Disclosure. You understand that we may release confidential information about you to government authorities if we determine, in our sole discretion after consultation with our attorney, that releasing such information is in the best interest of the Company or if we are required to do so by such government authorities.

5.15. Additional Documents. You will execute any additional documents we request if we reasonably believe those documents are necessary or appropriate and explain why.

5.16. No Violations. Your purchase of the Shares will not violate any law or conflict with any contract to which you are a party.

5.17. Enforceability. This Investment Agreement is enforceable against you and us in accordance with its terms.

5.18. No Inconsistent Statements. No person has made any oral or written statements or representations to you that are inconsistent with the information in this Investment Agreement and the Disclosure Materials.

5.19. Financial Forecasts. You understand that any financial forecasts or projections are based on estimates and assumptions we believe to be reasonable but are highly speculative. Given the industry, our actual results may vary from any forecasts or projections.

5.20. Notification. If you discover at any time that any of the promises in this Section 5 are untrue, you will notify us right away.

5.21. Non-U.S. Investors. If you are not a citizen or permanent resident of the United States, you represent that neither the offering nor the sale of securities by the Company will violate any laws of the jurisdiction where you live, and that the Company is not required to register with or seek the consent of any governmental authority in such jurisdiction.

5.22. Additional Promises by Individuals. If you are a natural person (not an entity), you also promise that:

5.22.1. Financial Wherewithal. You can afford this investment, even if you lose your money. You don't rely on this money for your current needs, like rent or utilities.

5.22.2. Anti-Terrorism and Money Laundering Laws. None of the money used to purchase the Shares was derived from or related to any activity that is illegal under United States law, and you are not on any list of "Specially Designated Nationals" or known or suspected terrorists that has been generated by the Office of Foreign Assets Control of the United States Department of Treasury ("OFAC"), nor are you a citizen or resident of any country that is subject to embargo or trade sanctions enforced by OFAC.

5.23. Entity Investors. If Purchaser is a legal entity, like a corporation, partnership, or limited liability company, Purchaser also promises that:

5.23.1. Good Standing. Purchaser is validly existing and in good standing under the laws of the jurisdiction where it was organized and has full corporate power and authority to conduct its business as presently conducted and as proposed to be conducted.

5.23.2. Other Jurisdictions. Purchaser is qualified to do business in every other jurisdiction where the failure to qualify would have a material adverse effect on Purchaser.

5.23.3. Authorization. The execution and delivery by Purchaser of this Investment Agreement, Purchaser's performance of its obligations hereunder, the consummation by Purchaser of the transactions contemplated hereby, and the purchase of the Shares, have been duly authorized by all necessary corporate, partnership or company action.

5.23.4. Investment Company. Purchaser is not an "investment company" within the meaning of the Investment Company Act of 1940.

5.23.5. Information to Investors. Purchaser has not provided any information concerning the Company or its business to any actual or prospective investor, except the Disclosure Materials, this Investment Agreement, and other written information that the Company has approved in writing in advance.

5.23.6. Anti-Terrorism and Money Laundering Laws. To the best of Purchaser's knowledge based upon appropriate diligence and investigation, none of the money used to purchase the Shares was derived from or related to any activity that is illegal under United States law. Purchaser has received representations from each of its owners such that it has formed a reasonable belief that it knows the true identity of each of the ultimate investors in Purchaser. To the best of Purchaser's knowledge, none of its ultimate investors is on any list of "Specially Designated Nationals" or known or suspected terrorists that has been generated by the Office of Foreign Assets Control of the United States Department of Treasury ("OFAC"), nor is any such ultimate investor a citizen or resident of any country that is subject to embargo or trade sanctions enforced by OFAC.

6. Re-Purchase of Shares. If we decide that you provided us with inaccurate information or have otherwise violated your obligations, or if required by any applicable law or regulation related to terrorism, money laundering, and similar activities, we may (but shall not be required to) repurchase your Shares for an amount equal to the principal amount outstanding.

7. Execution of LLC Agreement. By signing this Investment Agreement you are also signing the LLC Agreement, just as if you had signed a paper copy of the LLC Agreement in blue ink. This Investment Agreement may be executed in one or more counterparts.

8. Governing Law. Your relationship with us shall be governed by Delaware law, without taking into account principles of conflicts of law.

9. Arbitration.

9.1. Right to Arbitrate Claims. If any kind of legal claim arises between us as a result of your purchase of the Shares, either of us will have the right to arbitrate the claim, rather than use the courts. There are only three exceptions to this rule. First, we will not invoke our right to arbitrate a claim you bring in Small Claims Court or an equivalent court, if any, so long as the claim is pending only in that court. Second, we have the right to seek an injunction in court if you violate or threaten to violate your obligations. Third, claims arising under the LLC Agreement will be handled in the manner described in the LLC Agreement.

9.2. Place of Arbitration; Rules. All arbitration will be conducted in New Orleans, Louisiana unless we agree otherwise in writing in a specific case. All arbitration will be conducted before a single arbitrator in accordance with the rules of the American Arbitration Association.

9.3. Appeal of Award. Within thirty (30) days of a final award by the single arbitrator, you or we may appeal the award for reconsideration by a three-arbitrator panel. If you or we appeal, the other party may cross-appeal within thirty (30) days after notice of the appeal. The panel will reconsider all aspects of the initial award that are appealed, including related findings of fact.

9.4. Effect of Award. Any award by the individual arbitrator that is not subject to appeal, and any panel award on appeal, shall be final and binding, except for any appeal right under the Federal Arbitration Act, and may be entered as a judgment in any court of competent jurisdiction.

9.5. No Class Action Claims. NO ARBITRATION SHALL PROCEED ON A CLASS, REPRESENTATIVE, OR COLLECTIVE BASIS. No party may join, consolidate, or otherwise bring claims for or on behalf of two or more individuals or unrelated corporate entities in the same arbitration unless those persons are parties to a single transaction. An award in arbitration shall determine the rights and obligations of the named parties only, and only with respect to the claims in arbitration, and shall not (i) determine the rights, obligations, or interests of anyone other than a named party, or resolve any claim of anyone other than a named party, or (ii) make an award for the benefit of, or against, anyone other than a named party. No administrator or arbitrator shall have the power or authority to waive, modify, or fail to enforce this paragraph, and any attempt to do so, whether by rule, policy, arbitration decision or otherwise, shall be invalid and unenforceable. Any challenge to the validity of this paragraph shall be determined exclusively by a court and not by the administrator or any arbitrator. If this paragraph shall be deemed unenforceable, then any proceeding in the nature of a class action shall be handled in court, not in arbitration.

10. Consent to Electronic Delivery. You agree that we may deliver all notices, tax reports and other documents and information to you by email or another electronic delivery method we choose. You agree to tell us right away if you change your email address or home mailing address so we can send information to the new address.

11. Notices. All notices between us will be electronic. You will contact us by email at will@reimaginefund1.com. We will contact you by email at the email address you provided at the Site. Either of us may change our email address by notifying the other (by email). Any notice will be considered to have been received on the day it was sent by email, unless the recipient can demonstrate that a problem occurred with delivery. You should designate our email address as a “safe sender” so our emails do not get trapped in your spam filter.

12. Limitations on Damages. WE WILL NOT BE LIABLE TO YOU FOR ANY LOST PROFITS OR SPECIAL, CONSEQUENTIAL, OR PUNITIVE DAMAGES, EVEN IF YOU TELL US YOU MIGHT INCUR THOSE DAMAGES. This means that at most, you can sue us for the amount of your investment. You can’t sue us for anything else.

13. Waiver of Jury Rights. IN ANY DISPUTE WITH US, YOU AGREE TO WAIVE YOUR RIGHT TO A TRIAL BY JURY. This means that any dispute will be heard by an arbitrator or a judge, not a jury.

14. Miscellaneous Provisions.

14.1. No Transfer. You may not transfer your rights or obligations.

14.2. Right to Legal Fees. If we have a legal dispute with you, the losing party will pay the costs of the winning party, including reasonable legal fees.

14.3. Headings. The headings used in this Investment Agreement (e.g., the word “Headings” in this paragraph), are used only for convenience and have no legal significance.

14.4. No Other Agreements. This Investment Agreement is the only agreement between us relating to your purchase of Shares.

14.5. Electronic Signature. You will sign this Investment Agreement electronically, rather than physically.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the undersigned has executed this Investment Agreement effective on the date first written above.

INDEPENDENT ACCOUNTANTS' REVIEW REPORT

The Parlor Federal Historic Investor LLC
Dover, Delaware

We have reviewed the accompanying balance sheet of The Parlor Federal Historic Investor LLC, as of May 31, 2023, and the related statements of income and retained earnings and cash flows for the month then ended. A review includes primarily applying analytical procedures to management's financial data and making inquiries of management. A review is substantially less in scope than an audit, the objective of which is the expression of an opinion regarding the financial statements as a whole. Accordingly, we do not express such an opinion.

Management's Responsibility for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America; this includes the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements that are free from material misstatement whether due to fraud or error.

Accountants' Responsibility

Our responsibility is to conduct the review in accordance with Statements on Standards for Accounting and Review Services issued by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants. Those standards require us to perform procedures to obtain limited assurance that there are no material modifications that should be made to the financial statements. We believe that the results of our procedures provide a reasonable basis for our conclusion.

Accountants' Conclusion

Based on our review, we are not aware of any material modifications that should be made to the accompanying financial statements in order for them to be in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Any estimated results of future operations are just that, estimates. They are based on current conditions and our assumption of future events and, as such, are subject to change. The actual result of any investment is likely to differ from these estimates, possibly by a large amount. About The Project

The Parlor is a late 19th century townhome located in the Charles North neighborhood and Station North Arts District of Baltimore City, near Baltimore Penn Station and the Maryland Institute College of Art (MICA). The building's main entry faces the 100 block of W. North Avenue, perhaps the most significant east-west arterial in Baltimore City, and a major addition fronts W. 19 ½ Street - Baltimore's legendary Graffiti Alley. The property operated as a funeral parlor from 1914 to 2021, but the previous owner neglected basic maintenance and allowed much of the structure to fall into a state of disrepair. A full renovation is needed to make the building habitable, an effort that will be undertaken as a certified historic rehabilitation project.

At the urging of the Central Baltimore Partnership (CBP), a non-profit organization that focuses on neighborhood revitalization, Timshel acquired the property in mid-2022. CBP identified this property as critical to the ongoing renaissance of Station North and provided Timshel with a $250,000 grant to help with acquisition costs. Timshel and the CBP are collaborating on temporary programing, leasing, and certain aspects of the financing.

Working with the CBP, Charles North Neighborhood Association, and other community partners, goals for the project have been established: Enhance North Avenue, activate Graffiti Alley, and provide creative workspace in the heart of the Station North Arts District. The development program includes artist studios, offices, and a restaurant/bar.

The Parlor is in the geographic center of Baltimore City and within easy walking distance from Motor House, Baltimore Penn Station, MICA, University of Baltimore, Church Bar, Sophomore Coffee, Clavel, Royal Blue, Dutch Courage, Alma Cocina, and much more.

The project team is working towards a summer 2023 finance closing and construction start. In the meantime, the Parlor is hosting a variety of temporary programming including art exhibitions, films, pop-up retailers, and live performances.

About the Developer

John Renner

Timshel is a real estate advisory and development company created by John Renner in June 2021. John has nearly 20 years of real estate development experience at some of the area's leading companies including The Bozzuto Group and Cross Street Partners (CSP). Since its formation, Timshel has focused exclusively on historic buildings in Central Baltimore, advising Penn Station Partners (PSP) on the Baltimore Penn Station redevelopment and the Central Baltimore Partnership on 405-417 E. Oliver Street ("Area 405"). Prior to forming Timshel, Renner led the real estate development practice at CSP for 10+ years, where he completed major historic preservation projects such as the Hoen Lithograph Building, Lion Brothers Building, and Hebrew Orphans Asylum. Prior to joining CSP, Renner worked on affordable and market-rate housing in the D.C. area, NYC, and Rwanda.

John has a master's degree in City & Regional Planning from the University of California, Berkeley, and a BA in Cultural Anthropology from Bates College. He co-chairs the Urban Land Institute's Revitalization & Reuse Council, sits on the board of directors for Preservation Maryland and Intersection of Change, and graduated from Leadership Maryland class of 2017.

Timshel means "thou mayest" or "freedom to" in Hebrew. The word was popularized in the U.S. by East of Eden, a John Steinbeck novel; it also has longstanding special significance in the Renner family. In the context of his new business, John wants to give clients the "freedom to" focus on what they do best by handing off the intricacies, demands on staff, and steep learning curve of real estate project management to him, while ensuring their vision, finances, and schedules are effectively managed. John is also seeking the "freedom to" choose the projects he works on and deepen his volunteer commitment to various non-profits and neighborhood groups.

About the Neighborhood

The Parlor is in the Station North Arts District and Charles North neighborhood, one of the most socioeconomically and racially diverse areas of Baltimore City. Activation of the Parlor's north side will help link Old Goucher and Koreatown to North Avenue and the Jones Falls Valley. This area has numerous bars, restaurants, music venues, and theaters along with shops that sell vinyl, artist supplies, and art books. The ongoing redevelopment of Penn Station and the planned revitalization of North Avenue Market will provide additional amenities and entertainment venues. Events such as Artscape, the Station North Holiday Market, and Charles Street Promenade keep Central Baltimore buzzing with activity.

The History of the Building

108 W. North Avenue was built as a grand single-family residence in 1878 when North Avenue was known as Boundary Avenue. This wide boulevard served as the northern boundary of the City of Baltimore until 1889. In the earliest years of development, large houses and institutions were built on what was the outskirts of town, but as the city quickly grew, development shifted to commercial establishments including anchors such as the Parkway Theater and North Avenue Market. The principal resident of 108 W. North was Samuel Hyde, a corn packer.

After Hyde's death, the property was sold to Stewart & Mowen, funeral directors with two existing locations in Baltimore. After purchasing 108 W. North Avenue in 1914, Stewart & Mowen converted the building to house an undertaking establishment on the first floor and apartments on the upper levels. They also extended the rear of the building to cover the entirety of the lot, erecting a brick garage that was used for hearse parking and processing bodies.

After Stewart & Mowen ceased operations in 1984, 108 W. North continued to serve the community as a funeral parlor until 2021, most recently as the Ronald Taylor II Funeral Home. It is not possible to fully imagine the grief, celebration of life, and healing that occurred within these walls during its 100+ year history as a funeral home.

The building was added to the National Register of Historic Places in 2002 as a contributing structure to Baltimore's North Central Historic District.

Site background

The historic 4-level townhouse sits in a unique spot within the Charles North neighborhood, which is also part of the Station North Arts District in the City of Baltimore. The building operated as a funeral parlor from 1914 to 2021, and the lack of basic maintenance over a century allowed most of the structure to fall into a state of disrepair.

The property was acquired in march of 2022 by 19 And One Half LLC, which is an affiliate of Timshel LLC, both Maryland limited liability companies.

Redevelopment plan

19 And One Half LLC created a redevelopment program in collaboration with key community partners. The following is the transcript from a video included in the "Testing the Waters" information for this offering.

X Speaker 1: Do you live in Baltimore? Do you care about the Station North Arts District?

X Speaker 2: If you said yes to either of these questions, we have an opportunity for you to make a real estate investment with money you would already be paying in income taxes and support a redevelopment project in this (Baltimore) community.

X Speaker 1: We are the Reimagine Fund and THIS is the Parlor!...

X Originally built in 1878, this historic building has been a grand single-family residence, apartments, and served the community as a funeral parlor up until 2021.

X Speaker 2: The Parlor's location in Baltimore's legendary Graffiti Alley creates a creative workspace for the community at the heart the Station North Arts District.

Speaker 1: Our partner and Baltimore-based developer, John Renner, plans to convert the space into artist studios, creative offices, and a restaurant bar.

Speaker 2: John's company, Timshel (LLC) and the Reimagine Fund are bringing YOU the opportunity to invest in this project.

Speaker 1: Using money you were already going to have to pay in income taxes, everyday taxpayers like you can invest in the Parlor with as little as $2,500.

Speaker 2: As an investor, you're eligible (should) to receive 5 years of Federal HTC's. The goal of HTC's is to reduce income taxes on a dollar for dollar basis.

Speaker 1: The FHTC's you receive should ultimately exceed your initial investment at the end of 5 years. But it's not just the FHTC's that benefit investors like you. Individuals that have invested in the Parlor will also own a portion of the building and can receive cashflow based on the operation of the building.

Speaker 2: And after the 5 years are up, investors have the option to sell their investments/ownership/shares of the building

Speaker 1: If this is an investment opportunity that you're interested in or want to learn more about, please visit the Parlor's offering page on Common Owner or click the link provided in the caption below.
