And We're OFF!

The amount of support that I have seen for Implant Club has been truly inspirational. It seems like you guys are eager to will this into existence.

We are quickly blowing past our initial milestones and it's looking like the total funding goal is within grasp.

I love reading what you guys write after you invest. This is the rocketfuel.

It's TIME!

Our implant start-up Implant Club is NOW taking investments! 🚀

If you'd like to become an investor, follow the red INVEST buttons:

If you have any questions about how it works, this post explains it.

YOU'LL STOP HEARING FROM ME SOON

I am trying not to SPAM people. So if you wish to stay in the loop for investing, please put your name down here.

Yes keep me updated!

Here's the general idea:

Dental Implants Are Frustrating

- Implants are overly complex for doctors and patients.
- Implant companies continually change designs so doctors have to keep purchasing new tools.

Hey guys,

You might feel like I've flooded you more info than you know what to do with.

Too much financial information:

If that's the case, let me boil it down.

Here is the "in-a-nutshell" explanation:

It's almost time.

Here's what you have to know.

What: We're opening Implant Club to investors (like you!)

Who: Open to Everyone

How: Through an equity crowdfunding platform (here)

When: Opens this Monday!

Why: Get in on the ground floor as an investor with Implant Club

FAQ

What is Crowdfunding?

Crowdfunding refers to a financing method in which money is raised through soliciting relatively small individual investments or contributions from a large number of people.

You don't have to take my word for it. Here's the official regulator's site:

<https://www.investor.gov/introduction-investing/investing-basics/glossary/regulation-crowdfunding>

How much can I invest?

Unless you are an accredited investor, you can't just run amok and throw money into companies you believe in. This is what the regulators have to say:

Hey,

I'm not gonna lie, seeing all of that money pledged so far has taken this to a whole new level.

I've been going over all of my assumptions, my financial projections, and costs to triple check everything. To make sure I can be a good steward of the investments.

Many of you wanting to invest larger amounts, wanted to take a look at financial projections.

I am happy to provide it—but I can't share it freely here.

So if you want the financial projections, please text me your name and email and I will personally share it with you.

Text me at 209-403-5302

(If you're outside the USA just reply to this email with "send me the financials!")

The vision:

To build an implant company based on user experience. To make doctors happy, rather than leaving them confused and frustrated.

In general, this is what the financial roadmap looks like.

A lot of you are interested in investing,

(we're almost at $200,000 in reservations!)

and I just realized I might not have properly explained the business!

Here's the idea:

Dental Implants Are Frustrating

- Implants are overly complex for doctors and patients.
- Implant companies continually change designs so doctors have to keep purchasing new tools.
- This can confuse doctors and can lead to costly mistakes.

CONFIDENTIAL

Customer experience with dental implants can totally suck.

There should truly be a better way.

Enter Implant Club.

The Lead Investor Role

Thank you for all of your interest in investing in Implant Club!

Although we have NOT started taking investments quite yet, you guys have already placed over $110,000 in reservations on the investment platform. 🔥

Now, we are looking for something called a Lead Investor.

The Lead Investor is the person who is designated to represent the entire investment group.

They also are generally the biggest investor of the round.

This is an important role within the company so I will be interviewing people for the role.

How will we choose the Lead Investor?

- Gets the vision for Implant Club
- Can offer strategic business advice
- Is cool to work with
- Believes in our success

A Lead Investor also invests a substantial portion of the round. While many people are investing smaller amounts, between $5,000 - $25,000 in this raise, the lead investor might likely be investing somewhere around $100k.

If this is something you are considering, reply to this email with your name and phone number and let's discuss.

What is a Lead Investor?

- Directs the voting power on behalf of the entire crowdfund investment group

Okay. HERE it is!

We want to take Implant Club to become a nationally recognized implant brand.

To do so, we are raising capital.

$1.5 Million to be exact—through a “Community Round.”

This will allow friends, family, and Implant Ninja fans like you to participate in this journey with us, and benefit from our success.

Anyone – whether or not they’re an accredited investor – will be able to become an angel investor in our start-up implant company.

Already we have had sooo many requests for more information, so I made a short presentation that explains our venture.

Sometimes you gotta take moonshots to make big things happen. 🚀

I think you’re going to be just as excited as I am.

Best,
Ivan

You can register for and watch the presentation here.

(It’s going to ask for your basic info, because I have to keep track of who I allow to see this information)

Thank you for all of the feedback you guys gave regarding my last email about investing in Implant Club. So many questions were sent over!

I can tell that a lot of you care a lot about this movement.

I am humbled that you are eager to participate. I will take all of that into consideration as we finalize all the details.

Currently we are not ready, but soon you will have the opportunity to invest in us.

I can't wait to share it with you.

If you are an over-achiever and want to start brushing up on the opportunity, you can find the details here:

<https://wefunder.com/implant.club>

Best,
Ivan

PS: I've been getting soo many questions. The ones about the business I can most definitely answer. However, the ones about expected ROI are difficult because as far as I understand (per SEC guidelines and discussions with my lawyer) I am not allowed to tell people what they should expect to earn. These guidelines are put into place in order to guard people from scams.

For people who are serious about investing, the BEST way to learn more about the investment opportunity, is to click the link and study all of the material on there. You can view this as "doing your homework." If you review the material, I'll bet you can put together your own expected ROI on this investment.

Hey there, Ivan here.

Here it is.

I'm about to spill the beans.

A few years ago when we were starting our early-user cohort for Implant Club, several people reached out to me wanting to invest with us. A couple even offered to invest $100,000 at that point!

While, I was flattered, I wasn't ready to accept money at that time. I wanted to study the market first. I needed to grow and mature as a business leader first. I strongly believe that Implant Club is what the implant industry needs right now.

I believe we have the right idea:

An implant company that is focused on customer experience and simplicity.

But in order to win against Big Implant Company, we need to bring the right resources into it.

And by rallying together as a community, we can make something special happen.

So, I am working on a way to allow the community to invest in Implant Club. Before I finalize it, I wanted to ask for your feedback.

What would be your reason for considering investing in a start up?

Give your Input

I'm looking forward to reading your feedback.

Best wishes yall.
