INDEPENDENT ACCOUNTS' REVIEW REPORT

January 27, 2025

Re: FinlitX Global Corporation

To Whom It May Concern

We have reviewed the accompanying Balance Sheet, Statement of Comprehensive Income, Statement of Cash Flows, and Statement of Changes in Shareholders' Equity of FinLitX Global Corporation, as of December 31, 2024, along with the related statement of operations, general ledger report, and bank transactions for the period extending from January 1, 2024, to December 31, 2024. This review includes primarily applying analytical procedure to management's financial data and making inquiries of company management. A review is substantially less in scope than an audit, the objective of which is the expression of an opinion regarding the financial statements as a whole. Accordingly, we do not express such an opinion.

Management's Responsibility for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these financial statements in accordance to the Generally Acceptable Accounting Principle accepted in the United States of America. Management is also responsible for the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Accountants' Responsibility

Our responsibility is to conduct the reviews in accordance with statements on standards for accounting and review services issued by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants. Those standards require us to perform procedures or obtain limited assurance that there are no material modifications that should be made to the financial statements. We believe that the results of our procedures provide a reasonable basis for our report.

Review Statement

Based on our reviews, we are not aware of any material modifications that should be made to the accompanying financial statements for them to be in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United State of America.

Other Reporting Requirements

In accordance to the above statement, we have also issued our report dated January 27, 2025, on our consideration of FinlitX Global Corporation, internal control over financial reporting and on our tests of its compliance with certain provisions. The purpose of that report is to describe the scope of our testing of internal controls over financial reporting and compliance and the results of that testing, and not to provide an opinion on internal control over financial reporting or on compliance. That report is an integral part of a financial review performed in accordance with the GAAP standard, in considering FinlitX Global Corporation, with internal control over financial reporting and compliance.

Notes to the Financial Statements
For the Year Ended December 31, 2024

NOTE 1 - ORGANIZATION

FinlitX Global Corporation (FinLitX GC) is a FinTech firm specializing in education technology. FinlitX Global Corporation provides an artificial intelligence curated autonomous e-learning platform that teaches financial literacy, reducing institution costs, improving learning outcomes and providing access for disadvantaged populations. FinlitX GC has offices in Brooklyn, New York, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania and Miami Beach, Florida. FinlitX GC was incorporated as a new technology venture in September 2022, however, has more than 16 years' experience in the education and technology industry sectors.

NOTE 2 - SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Basis of Accounting: The Company's financial statements have been prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America ("US GAAP") as promulgated by the Financial Accounting Standards Board ("FASB") through the Accounting Standards Codification ("ASC") as the authoritative source in the preparation of financial statements. All balances are expressed in United States dollars ("USD" or "U.S. dollars"), the Company's functional currency. The financial statements include the operations, assets, and liabilities of the Company. In the opinion of the Company's management, the accompanying financial statements contain all adjustments, necessary to fairly present the accompanying financial statements.

Trade Receivable: Trade receivables are stated at the amount management expects to collect for balances outstanding at period end. Management closely monitors outstanding accounts receivable and charges off to expense any balances that are determined to be uncollectible. Based on management's assessments of the credit history with customers having outstanding balances and current relationships with them, they have concluded that realization losses on balances outstanding at period end will be immaterial. Accordingly, there was no allowance for doubtful accounts. Bad debt expense was $0 for the period ended December 31, 2024.

Use of Estimates: The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect certain reported amounts and disclosures. Accordingly, actual results could differ from the estimates.

Advertisement: The Company follows the policy of charging the costs of advertising to expense as incurred.

Property and Equipment: The Company values its investment in property and equipment at cost less accumulated depreciation. Depreciation is provided for using the straight-line method over the estimated service life of the assets being depreciated.

Cash and Cash Equivalent: Cash consists of cash in hand or on deposit with the bank until December 31, 2024.

Investing Activities: Investing activities include making and collecting loans, purchasing, and selling debt or equity instruments of other reporting entities, and acquiring and disposing of property, plant, and equipment and other productive assets used in the business.

Financing Activities: Financing activities include borrowing money and repaying or settling the obligation and obtaining equity from owners and providing owners with a return on, or return of, their investment.

Income Taxes: For U.S. federal income tax purposes, taxes related to income earned by the company represent obligations of the individual partners and members and have not been reflected in the statement of financial condition. The stockholder is taxed on their proportionate share of the Company's taxable income. Accordingly, no provisions or liability for income taxes are included in these financial statements. The Company recognizes interest and penalties as operating expenses in the year they are incurred.

NOTE 4 - FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS

The Company financial instruments are primarily comprised of short-term, notes receivable and notes payable. For short-term instruments, the historical carrying amount is a reasonable estimate of fair value. Fair values for long-term financial instruments not readily marketable are estimated based upon discounted future cash flows at prevailing market interest rates. Based on the assumptions, management believes the fair market values of the company's financial instruments are not materially different from their recorded amounts as of December 31, 2024, or the earliest date such instruments were issued.

NOTE 5 - CORRESPONDING FIGURES

Corresponding figures have been re-arranged, wherever necessary, to facilitate better comparison. However, no rearrangements or reclassifications have been made in these financial statements during the year.

NOTE 6 - SUBSEQUENT EVENTS

The management has performed an analysis of the activities and transactions through December 31, 2024, to determine the need for any adjustments to and/or disclosures within the financial statements as for the year ended December 31, 2024. The management has performed such analysis through December 31, 2024, the date the financial statements were available to be issued.
